The Monongaheia Overflows and Does Great Damage.

A Terrible Cyclone Visits Several States. Blowing Down Houses and Working General Destruction-Disasters on the

PITTSBURG, July 12.-The loss by the Monongahela flood in this smmediate vicinity is about $60,000, and in the near towns and surrounding country about $100,000 more. The worst is over. The scene along the south shore of the Monongahela is the most curious one witnessed for years. Everything close to the river has been revolutionized, and chaos has taken the place of order. Here and there the people driven from their homes by the water presented pictures of what Irish evictions are supposed to be after the bailiffs have performed their work. Goods were piled up in heaps or thrown about in confusion. Disconsolate looking women sat on trunks nursing their babies, while half dressed and frightened children wandered around them. The wharves and bridges a crowded with spectators.

At McKeesport, Pa., the damage to property along the Monongahela and Youghio gheny rivers will be nearly double that ever before experienced from the same cause, and s roughly estimated at $100,000. At Braddock, Pa., a considerable portion of the town is under water, the homeless families camping out on the hillsides. From Rochester, Pa., the report comes: "Twenty-five feet and rising. The river is full of debris and no boats passing." PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 13.—Passengers reaching here from the west report that Wednesday night's cyclone created terrible devastation between here and Albany, sweeping a clean path from the state line to East Chatham, leveling three paper mills and many houses, barns, etc. It is supposed there has been some loss of life, but it is impossible to obtain particulars. Boston, July 13 .- Boston and every one of its suburban towns suffered more or less damage, but is not known that any lives were lost. The greatest havoc seems to have been done in Waltham and vicinity. The whirlwind uprooted shade trees, felled telegraph poles, unroofed barns and houses, tore down marble gravestones in cemeteries, smashed window panes, demoralized gardens, hen houses and mills and terrorized the slumbering thousands by vivid streaks of lightning and the crash of thunder. Brookline, the Newtons, Cambridge, Watertown, Dedham, Brighton and Winthrop were all visited by the storm, with more or less disastrous results. At Winthrop a cottage, with a man, his wife and three children, all asleep, was lifted from its foundation and dropped down fifty feet away. None of the inmates were injured. At West Medford the lightning burned

Brook's stock barns, causing a loss of $29,-000. The yachts in the neighboring harbors were many of them cast adrift. The yacht Great Scott, at Winthrop, after being beached, made an unsuccessful attempt to mount the embankment and cross the street.

Oswego, N. Y., July 13.—The wind blew sixty miles an hour on the lake, and sent vessels scudding for shelter in all directions. The rainfall was very heavy in this neighborhood. Anxiety is felt for the steam yacht Mary Stewart, of Rochester, which left for St. Lawrence a few hours before the storm broke. No disasters are reported as yet. Severe hail storms swept over the eastern part of the county, doing considerable damage to crops.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., July 13.-A terrific wind storm raged along the St. Lawrence river. At Cape Vincent the Islander and Annie Laurie, boats which are run on passenger routes, were damaged to the extent of $300 each, and two Canadian barges were sunk. Two or three barns on Wolf Island are reported to have been blown down. There was no loss of life.

The recent troubles in Corea have been settled, and everything is quiet there. Yellow fever is increasing at Plant City, amendments to that bill and finally vote While Pastor Bowdish was preaching a re-vival sermon in the old John Street church, in New York, he fell in a swoon and remained conscious for an hour. Grocer Hubener, of Ninth avenue, New York, was awakened by a burgler and shot him. The thief was taken to Roosevelt hospital. His accomplices escaped.

The faith curists of the Elsey Memorial chapel, on Jewett avenue, Jersey City, have not cured the breach between themselves and the pastor, Mr. Phillips. Their prayers now seem to widen the breach.

Gen. Sheridan's Barber's Story. Boston, July 17.—A New Bedford, Mass., special to The Herald says that John J. Bourchard, a barber doing business in that city, visited the Sheridan cottage at Nonquitt, and shaved Gen. Sheridan. In conver-sation with The Herald reporter Mr. Bourchard said the general sat up in bed while the operation was going on, and appeared much stronger than when shaved by him last week. The general wears a mustache and imperial. He gave instructions to the attendants around him in a firm voice, leaving but little doubt in the minds of those interested in him that he is in a speedy way for recovery. "Nonquitt air has indeed been beneficial," said Mr. Bourchard, "and Sisters Justian and Urban feel very much encour-aged in the invalid's condition since his ar-rival in this section."

BUFFALO, July 17.—Two more cases of smallpox have been discovered in the Polish section at East Buffalo, Fears are entersection at East Bullalo, Fears are enter-tained of a rapid spread of the disease on account of the circumstances connected with the cases. Vincent Ratka, living at No. 212 Detroit street, was found in advanced stage of the disease. One child was playing around the floor full of the disease and another was in bed. One of the children had been in the Polish school for a week before it closed. Two children of Joseph Kazekamustak, at No. 235 Townsend street, are ill with the disease. Both houses are quarantined, and measures are being taken to vaccinate the entire community. OH! MY HEAD.

Williamsport, Ind., Oct. 8, 1887.

Having been afflieted with neuralgie for the past four years, and trying almost everything, but in vain, I finally heard of Athophoros. After taking one bottle I found it to be helping me, and after taking four bottles of Athlophoros and one of Fills, I found that I was entirely well. I think the medicine is positively a zero cure.
