

Death Wins the Fight with Gallant Phil Sheridan.

A SUDDEN, PEACEFUL END.

Attacked by Heart Failure After a Comfortable Day.

ALL THE OLD REMEDIES FAILED.

The General Had Been Cheerful and Strong, and the Day Had Been Spent as Usual by the Invalid and His Relatives and Attendants-Messages of Condolence - Mourning Throughout the Land-The Funeral Arrangements-The Action of the President and Congress.

NONQUITT, Mass., Aug. 6.-Gen. Sheridan died at 10:20 p. m. There began to be signs of heart failure at 9:30, previous to which there had been no unfavorable indication. The general had been somewhat restless on account of the heat, but seemed generally bright and cheerful. His voice was strong, he took full nourishment, and slept occasionally as usual. The doctors and the family were in hopeful spirits. Mrs. Sheridan and the doctors went to the hotel for supper at 7 o'clock, and on returning the usual preparations for the night were made.

Col. Sheridan said "Good night" to his brother about 9:20, and went to the hotel.

There having been through the day no unfavorable sign, no apprehension was felt. When the bad symptoms appeared, Drs. Matthews and O'Reilly applied the remedies which had been effective in former attacks, but they now had no effect, and the general gradually sank into complete unconsciousess, ending in the quiet cessation of life at 10:20 p. m.

Mrs. Sheridan, the sisters Maban and Justinian, and the body servant, Klein, were present during the general's last moments. The doctors say that the immediate cause of the general's death was heart failure. The remote cause was disease of the mitral and acertic valves. The complications which

The senate, after passing appropriate sess-lutions concerning Gen. Sheridan's death adjourned. Mr. Edmunds, as soon as the journal-was read, arose and asked unanimous consent to offer resolutions on a subject which he said 'every senator will understand." The resolutions read as follows: Resolved — That the senate has learned with profound regret of the death of Philip H. Sheridan, late general of the Army of the United States.

Resolved - That the senate hereby expresses its grateful sense of his great and patriotic services in the cause of his country ts deep sensibility of the loss which the nation has sustained in its death, and its sympathy with his family in their bereave-

Resolved-That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased. Unanimous consent having been given Mr. Edmund said:

"It is quite unnecessary for any senator to submit any observation in support of these resolutions. The career of Gen. Sheridan has been so conspicuous, so grand, so noble and so patriotic that any words which I could use in respect of his memory or in praise of his career would be like gilding refined gold or painting the lily. I, therefore, for my part leave them to the judgment of the senate without any further observation."

The resolutions were adopted unanimously, Later on a bill was, introduced by Mr. Farwell granting a pension of $3,000 a year to Mrs. Sheridan.

THE PRESIDENT'S ACTION.

Surprised and Pained at the News-His Official Messages.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.-The president received the sad announcement of Gen. Sheri-dan's death from a mounted messenger, dispatched from the executive mansion. The president was greatly surprised and shocked at the unexpected news, and immediately upon its receipt prepared to come to the city. He was driven directly to the White House, whence he sent for Secretary Endicott. Upon the latter's arrival the official communication to congress and the order to Gen. Schofield to take charge of the funeral arrangements were prepared. Col. Kellogg left Washington for Nonquitt with the deceased general's uniform. The president sent the following telegram to Mrs. Sheridan:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, Aug. 6, 1888.

Mrs. Sheridan, Nonquitt, Mass. : While the nation mourns its loss and shares your sorrow, let me express to you my perional grief and most sincere condolence GROVER CLEVELAND.

The president also sent the following mesage to congress:

To the Senate and House of Representatives: It becomes my painful duty to announce to the congress and to the people of the United States the death of Philip H. Sheridan, general of the army, which occurred at a late hour last night at his summer home in the state of Massachusetts. The death of this valiant soldier and patriotic son of the republic, though his long illness has been regarded with anxiety, has, nevertheless, shocked the country and caused universal grief. He had established for himself a strong hold in the hearts of his fellow countrymen, who soon caught the true meaning and pur-pose of his soldiery devotion and heroic tem-

His intrepid courage, his steadfast patriotism and the generosity of his nature inspired with peculiar warmth the admiration of the Above his grave affection for the man and pride in his achievements will struggle for mastery, and too much honor cannot be accorded to one who was so richly endowed with all the qualities which make his death a GROVER CLEVELAND national loss.

I must for a time be slient. Command-me in any way to manifest love and respect. "W, T. SHERMAN."

Secretary Endicott sent a personal tele-gram of condolence. Gens. Forsyth and Conrad, who were with the general in his campaigns, sent touching messages. Mr. George W. Childs and Mrs. Childs also contributed their tokens of sympathy.

Fred. Grant sent the following from West point to Mrs. Sheridan: "Mother, Ida and I send you our heartfelt sympathy. If I can be of the least service command me." Gen. Sherman telegraphed Mrs. Sheridan from New York: "The Ohio Commandery, Loyal Legion, sends deep sympathy for you in your be-reavement. We have lost a brave companion and a true, generous friend. His record is without a blemish, and his name will always be gratefully remembered by his countrym "WILLIAM T. SHERMAN, commander."

Among others who sent messages were Senator Hale, Gen. Horatio King, Senator Palmer and Admiral Porter. Mrs. Logan sent this:

"YOUNGSTOWN, O., Aug. 6. 'Mrs. P. H. Sheridan:

"My heart turns to you in deepest sym-"CAR MARY S. LOGAN." pathy. Mr. and Mrs. John A. Logan, Jr., also expressed sympathy. Ex-President Hayes telegraphed Mrs. Sherkian from Fremont, O.:

"By the death of your illustrious husband pur country has lost her great battle general. All who served under him suffer with you."

Tribute of the Irish National Léague. LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 7.-President Fitz-gerald, of the Irish National League of America, sent the following telegram of condolence:

"LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 6. Michael Sheridan, Nonquitt Cottage:

"The Irish National League of America sympathizes in your sad bereavement, and begs of you to convey to Mrs. Philip H. Sheridan and family its condolence in the great affliction that has befallen them in the death of her gallant and beloved husband. The Irish race unites with the American people in the national sorrow that mourns the loss of the Irish-American hero of Winchester, whose military genius contributed so much to save the Union, and whose devo-tion to Ireland was second only to his love for America. JOHN FITZGERALD."

The Senate's Funeral Committee.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7 .- The president's message announcing the death of Gen. Sheri-dan having been presented and read Mr. Hawley rose and said:

"Nothing that I can say, Mr. President, is needed to set forth the loss which the coun-try has sustained by the death of that able, brilliant, magnificent soldier and beloved general, Philip H. Sheridan, I send to the esk a resolution for which I ask immediate nsideration."

Resolved, That the chair is requested to appoint a committee of seven senators to at-tend the funeral services of the late Gen. Sheridan.

The resolution was adopted, and Senators Hawley, Manderson, Cullom, Stewart, Hampton, Gibson and Gray were appointed.

Cardinal Gibbons Will Officiate.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7 .- Father Mackin, of St. Matthew's church, saw Cardinal Gibbons at Baltimore yesterday, and was informed by his eminence that he would personally officiate at the obsequies of Gen. Sheridar Saturday next. The cardinal will cond the services at the church; will consecrat lot of ground at Arlington, and present at the interment. Cardinal Gibl was on the point of visiting the west, bu learning of Gen. Sheridan's death chan his plans.

Throughout Saturday and Saturday night Gen. Sheridan was attacked with those violent fits of coughing which so alarmed his physicians in Washington, and in which it was supposed he would die.

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS.

To be Buried in Arlington Cemetery on Saturday Next.

NONQUITT, Mass., Aug. 7 .- The following pall bearers have been selected by Gen. Sheridan's family: Gen. W. T. Sherman, Marshal Field, of Chicago; Gen. Hawley, of the United States senate; Speaker Carlisle, Vice President Frank Thompson, of the Pennsyl-vania railroad; Gen. Wesley Merritt, United States army, the senior officer of the Grand Army of the Republic in the District of Columbia; Gen. McFeeley, Gen. Joseph Fullerton, of St. Louis; Secretary Endicott and George W. Childs.

The following officers of Gen. Sheridan's staff are especially invited to attend the funeral: Gen. J. W. Forsyth, Col. John Schuyler Crosby, Col. Fred Grant, Col. James F. Gregory, Col. George W. Davis. It has been decided that Gen. Sheridan's burial shall be in the Arlington National cemetery, and Saturday has been finally settled on as the day of the funeral. The other arrangements outlined in earlier dispatches remain unchanged. There will be no funeral services at this place. Cols, Kellogg and Blunt arrived here to-day. Gen. Schofield is also expected.

Mrs. Sheridan was prostrated with grief all day. Col. and Mrs. Gen. Sheridan will accompany the body to Washington, together with the general's personal staff. Col. Sheridan's wife remains at the cottage in charge of the children. Col. Kellogg arrived here yesterday afternoon, bringing Gen. Sheridan's full uniform, in which the body has been dressed. Delegations from Grand Army posts 1 and 190 presented themselves yesterday afternoon, and expressed their sympathy and willingness to co-operate in any desired way with the authorities

Col. M. V. Sheridan says the funeral party will leave Wednesday by special boat for New Bedford and thence by special train to Boston. From Boston the route will be the New York and New England railroad to New York, and the Pennsylvania railroad to Washington. No services will be held at Nonquitt.

The offer by the governor of Massachusett of a guard of honor has been declined on ac-count of Mrs, Sheridan's desire to avoid any unn ssary display. The family is very appreciative, however, of the honor con

CONGRESS SUSPENDS BUSINESS.

Resolutions in the Senate-Mr. Edmunds' Eulogy-A $5,000 Pension.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.-But little business was transacted in the house, and it adjourned. soon after meeting out of respect to the memory of Gen. Sheridan. The chaplain, in his opening prayer, made a feeling allusion to the death of Gen. Sheridan.

After the call of states a message was received from the president formally announcing the death of Gen. Sheridan. Messra. Hooker, of Mississippi, and Grosvenoz, of Ohio, spoke in feeling terms of the dead com-Hooker, of Missis

Mr. Hooker offered resolutions of regret at the death of Gen. Sheridan, and requesting the speaker to appoint a committee of sever pers to confer with a senate coramitte to conduct the funeral arrangements, which were unanimously adopted, at at 1 18. m. the house adjourned as a mark of respect to the memory of the dead soldier.

The president has directed that Maj. Gen. Schofield, commanding the division of the Atlantic, with headquarters at New York, be ordered to Washington at once to assum command, and a telegram to that effect has been sent to him by Acting Adjt. Gen. Kel-

ton A STRICTLY MILITARY FUNERAL

The Request of Mrs. Sheridan-To Be Under Command of Gen. Schofield.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7 .- The following telegram respecting the funeral arrangements was received from Col. Sheridan at the war lepartment:

"Nonquert, Aug. 6. "To Secretary of War:

"It is Mrs. Sheridan's wish that her hus band should be buried with mflitary honors, and that at the same time there should be no display beyond what pertains to a strictly military funeral in proper respect to his rank. Will you be kind enough to authorize such a funeral and place matters under charge of Gen. Schoffeld! The funeral will be in Washington, but when and where I cannot yet say. Perhaps it would be well for Gen. Schofield to come here.

"M. V. SHERIDAN." Gen. Schofield, as the next highest in rank to Gen. Sheridan, assumes command of the army, without being directed to do so by the president.

Gen. Sheridan's desk at the war depart ment remains as he left it. The chairs about the room have not been disturbed for two months.

Gen. and Mus. Rucker, Mrs. Sheridan's parents, were shocked at the suddenness of he general's doath. They had had no idea that he was any worse. In fact, the prevail ing impression was that the distinguished patient had presed the crisis and was on the way to recovery. Throughout army circles the one feelking is of deep sorrow at the loss of a respected commander and a beloved friend.

The president countermanded his order to Gen. Schofield and requested him to go to Nonquitt. 'The secretary of war telegraphed additional "instructions as follows:

"I leave it to your discretion whether to go to Nonquitt as requested. You are hereby directed to make the necessary arrangements in w gard to the funeral, including the fun-ero'l train to bear the body to Washington. Br/ request of Mrs. Sheridan, her husband w ill be buried with military honors, with no display beyond what pertains to a strictly military funeral and proper respect to his rank. This request will be strictly complied with, and the escort will conform to regula tions referring to funeral of general in chief, and you will issue orders for such troops to assemble as may be necessar complete his escort. You will detain necessary guard and bearers to go to Nonquitt and accompany the remains to Washington,"
