THE CENTRE REPORTER.

FRED. KURTZ, EDITOR and PROP'R

TERMS:—One year, $1.50, when paid in ad rance. Those in arrears subject to previous erms. Advertisements 20 cents per line for 3 inser-

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS, OCT. 29, 1888.

LOCAL ITEMS.

-Rev. Land is home again from bis trip to Phila. The leaves are leaving. In the spring they spring. —Picked apples are selling at 40 and 50 cents per bushel in this valley.

-D. F. Luse has the contract of painting the grist mill at Spring Mills. -Miss Singer of Romola this county is visiting her friend Miss Maggie Rish-

—A protracted meeting is in pro-cress in Ev. Church at Rock Hill under the direction of Rev. Miller.

-A full vote and a whole vote, all along the line, Democrats of Centre, will elect our entire ticket by a handsome

—Last Fridays edition of the Belle-fonte Daily News local department was, as usual, from the REPORTER's colums with no credit given. -Frank Arney has gone to State College with paint bucket and brush to touch up some of the new sbuilding recently erected at that place. Farmers never were so backward 31, with their work as this fall. Reason continued rains. Corn is mostly in the Thi fields yet, and many potato patches to attend to. - English sample agents offering what seem to be immense bargains in cashmeres and dry goods, have been canvassing the valley and making a

-Reesman's exhibition of fine parlor heaters is worth seeing, as it comprises the latest designs and patterns. Many are sold already and others will soon be than formerly. -Notwithstanding the frequent rains we had in the last six weeks, the streams are not high. The water all seems to have gone down into the earth and will keep the springs supplied all winter, no doubt. -Messrs J. W. Conley and Will Perlstien two of Bellefonte's busiest mercantile men were in town Thursday afternoon and found time to favor us with a call. Come again gentlemen, next time will be at home

-Grandmother Miller, living at the home of her son Jerry, on Church treet, had the misfortune to fall on Tuesday afternoon and sust in a fracture of the ankle; will take some time until she will be able to move about.

ny. Pile in, Jim, and give the locofocos they kept a public house, and it was sheol. If it were possible for Harrison there Michael ended his days. He was to make it, the Colonel ought to get a generous and kindhearted and had many good position somewhere near the white friends. house; he's worked hard for his party.

-A farmer living near Hanover York county, put $10 in a hole in the ground the other day, and next morning found $20 in its place. Elated by his fortune he deposited $800, and the following morning he found his money missing, and so were the gypsies who advised him to this freak.

-Last week was one of rain-not a day without a sprinkle, and some days the was all sprinkle, especially Friday and Saturday. Sunday had no rain, but it was cold and cloudy. Saturday wound up with a snow and rain squal. We have had about six weeks of what might here over be termed wet weather.

-The Junior Democratic club of this place turned out in fall uniform on last Monday evening for the benefit of Messrs Wm. Dreisbach and T N. Reber of Lewisburg, two of the joiliest drum-mers on the road The boys say some thing dropped in their treasury and that Dreisy and Newt. are good fellows.

—Died, the 13th inst., at Altoona, Moses Thompson, in the 71st year of his age. Mr. Thompson was a native of Mifflin county, and for a number of years was postmaster at Milroy. About one year ago he removed to Altoona, and was shortly after stricken with paraly-

-Rev. Miller, at his lecture in the democratic nominee accompanied by Snook was a man of enterprising spirit Messrs Snyder and Blanchard on their and carried on large business operations way to Madisonburg to speak at the democratic meeting passed through town. When Mr. Mr. Kerr, is a pleasant and rather intelligent looking man and certainly will be quite an improvement upon our present

-If you want to see the countenance of the average Bellefonter drop ask them what kind of a passenger station they are agoing to have put up in place of the old one. Present indications fail to point to the erection of an elaborate structure, as the traffic of the town would merit It will be large enough to acco modate the public and thats is about all. The Penna R. R. is building it and not the people of the town or it would be differ-

— The sale of J. W. Snook's property by the assignee, Dr. P. T. Musser, on Monday and Tuesday at Millheim, resulted in the selling of the following transfer of the law could not have been rendered by the court before the act went into effect.—Lock Haven Democrat.

We suppose if the legality of the Cen-

John H. Frank bought the house oc-cupied by Mr. Howell for $723; Geo. B. Stover the square of four lots on Water street in the rear of Michael Lamey for $300; Mrs. J. W. Snook the square on Peon street opposite the Lutheran church for $480; John Stoner, Iot No. 56 on Water street for $90; J. C. Smith, lots 54-65. Water street, $120; A. A. Miller, lots 52-53, Water street, $125; J. H. Reifsnyder, 1 as 48, 49, 50, 51, $309; 63 acres

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

IN FOUNDRY HALL, ON FRIDAY EVENING OCT. 26.

The Democracy of Potter township and Centre Hall boro, will have a large meeting next Friday evening in Foundry Hall, Hon. James Kerr the democratic nominee for congress of Clearfield, and Major J. L. Spangler of Bellefonte will be present to address the meeting upon the issues of the present campaign.

Messrs Kerr and Spangler are as able speakers as can be found in this part of the state and spangler are the state and spangle spangles. the state and will be worth hearing upon such important questions as Tariff Reform, The Pension Issue, The Relation of the Farmer, Mechanic and Laboring man to Tariff Reform. A special request is made to every voter in this section to come and hear these men prosent their side of these important ques-tions. Tariff duties affect the wellfare of tree. every citizen and your vote this year is of importance in deciding which policy shall be pursued. Let every voter turn out and hear a manly discussion.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.

Spring Mills—High School room, Thursday evening, October 25; Hon. James Kerr, and Hon. John H. Orvis. Hon. CENTRE HALL-Foundry Hall, Friday evening, Oct. 26; Hon. James Kerr, William Bryson, Hon. John A. Woodward, Potters Mills, Wednesday Oct. 24. Hublersburg, Sat. Oct. 27. Aaronsburg, Saturday Oct. 27. Hosterman's School House, Haines ture and conviction of the party who wp Wednesday Oct. 31. twp Wednesday Oct. 31.

Pine Hall, Wednesday Oct. 31. Tusseyville, Mountain School House,

Thursday Nov. 1. Shingletown School House, Harristwp. Thursday Nov. 1.

Farmers Mills, Friday Nov. 2. Pine Creek School House, Thursday

DEATH OF MIKE HUBLER.

Everybody at the eastern end of Pennsvalley knew Mike Hubler, as he was fa-miliarly called. Well, Mike is dead—he, died at Hublersburg, in Nittany valley on 18th, whither the family moved from gone. The prices are lower this season Haines township, some 25 years ago. He was the oldest son of Thomas Hubler, Our school of was the oldest son of Thomas Hubler, Our school opened on the 15th with a who owned one of the best farms in fair number of scholars, who are under

After the death of Thomas Hubler, Michael turned the old homestead into a hotel and did a flourishing business, and in conjunction with his brother, David Hubler, erected a store building opposite the hotel, which soon became a trading point, and it was known as Hubler's Place. The Hublers were might clever, wholesouled folks, and theirs was a favorite stopping place for all who traveled the road.

The property going into other hands, was not as fine a sport as anticipated the family scattered, and Col. Dave went to Tylersville, where he is a practicing dentist. Michael with his mother and ing at Rock Hill, held by P. H. Meyer. making speeches for grandpa's boy, Ben- two sisters went to Hublersburg, where

SPRING MILLS.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered in the Presbyterian church last Sabbath. Mrs. Laura Spigelmyer was admitted as member of the

George H. Long was home last Saturday on a visit. Wm. Allison is having the grist mill here over Sanday visiting friends and relatives. E. H. Zeigler and sister Minnie made fonte. a flying visit to Bellefonte last week, last Saturday on business. C. C. Bartges is now a pariner with J. Frank Rearick in the music establishment. The advertisement now reads House, Bellefonte.

Miss Rena Dobbson, of Millheim, was tre Hall.

Rearick & Bartges. The Union Sunday school has changed the time of holding their services from tailor, Beliefonte. the morning to the afternoon at 1.30

DEATH OF JACOB SNOOK.

Jacob Snook, a well-known business man of Millheim, died on Friday, last. Evan church, on "a hundred years ago Mr. Snook was subject to heart disease and now," had a full house, notwite and had been in bad health for a numstanding the unpropitious weather. He ber of years. On Friday at about noon illustrated the way of doing things a death, he was going west of Milheim, hundred years ago and now -courtship, on a wagon, when he was attacked by a kitchen life, and the advances in other fainting spell and fell from the wagon. respects in the last century. He had the audience smiling and guess sent them away pleased.

He was taken to his bome and died at 4 p. m. that day, from an affection of the heart. He leaves a widow and seven the heart. -Hon. James Kerr of Clearfield, our eral children to mourn his death. Mr.

When Mr. Snook had fallen from his wagon, he was picked up seemingly dead and was carried to his home, and remained in a comotose condition until in the afternoon.

IT IS TRUE.

The Supreme Court has declared the municipal act of 1887 unconstitutional, should not be muddy and disagreeable This will cause quite an amount of trouble and will dispense with everything except what our city was working under before the new act of 1887 was under before the new act of 1887 was passed. Pity a decision on the unconsti-tutionality of the law could not have

We suppose if the legality of the Centre Hall boro charter were contested, it might turn out that deceit was practiced upon the court.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Rev. Kerr announces to the people of his pastoral charge that he expects to be absent the next four Sabbaths. He will wife. spend his vacation with the people of his first charge in McConnelsburg, Fulton co., to whom he preached his last sermon Oct. 3, 1875; and unto whom he

-Always advertise in the REPORTER.

POTTERS MILLS.

About two years ago G. M. Smetzler had two dogs and a fat steer poisoned; since some lard, potatoes, corn, chickens, and other things were stolen, and last week the best horse he had, valued at $200. was burt in the stable, which caused it to take lock jaw. We hope the guilty party may soon be brought to justice.

Edward Allison, W. F. Strong, and others, had a bear trap in the Seven mountains, and last Sunday some folks were out after chestnuts and their dog

Dr. Thomas, of Westmoreland co., has ren'ed part of the Dr. Wilson homestead where he expects to practice medicine.

W. H. Workinger while running the engine at Strong's flouring mill, had his foot cut by a hatchet falling on it, which was carelessly laid on the engine wheel and fell off.

W. H. Fultz who had his fingers cut on Strong's shingle mill, is able to work again.

J. E. Shires, farmer, informs us that some one stole wheat that he had measured up in a new bag; it was rather a mean trick; they ought to have brought Ten dollars reward offered for the cap-leghorn hen. Ripka School House, Gregg twp. Oct. Emory McClintick was on the sick list for a few days, but is better now; too many chestnuts.

WALNUT GROVE.

Walnut Grove is the name of a school district at the south eastern extremity of Harris twp., and as I have seen no news in your interesting paper from this vicinity, I will try and give you a few

Farmers are busy husking corn, picking apples; corn crop is good, the apple crop an average.

John From bought a nice drove of sheep from E Peters, at Oak Hall, one Haines township, now occupied by com-missioner Michael Fiedler. the tutorage of Fergus Potter, an able instructor of Linden Hall.

Last Saturday Messrs. Geo. and Harry Fishburn, Lewis and Will Wetzel, of near Be lefonte, were along Tussey mt. Col. gathering chestnuts and returned home with about three bu.

Mr. Benj. Haffley and son of Aarons-burg, visited David Boho's over Sanday, also Miss Mame Bradford, of Old Fort, One of our boys was out on a tobogan slide on Sunday evening, but claims it was not as fine a sport as anticipated; rather early in the season for siding L. Our young people are attending sing-

FALL AND WINTER.

Get a new suit and overcoat from Montgomery & Co., Tailors, Be lefonte. They are so much cheaper than ready made clothing. They have also a full Beaver and others. Miss Lillian Krise is home from Lock stock of Hate, Caps, Umbrellas, and Gentlemen's Furnishings.

Montgomeny & Co., Tailors, Bellefonte.

-Fred Reager, an old residenter of Aaronsburg, is ill. -A cow was killed for Mr. Bradford at the cut near the station, this week. -A large assortment of horse blankets at Boozer's harness rooms, Cen-

-Brand new overcoats and suits for fall and winter wear at Fauble's, Belle-

-A protracted meeting under the Charles Long was down to Shamokin direction of Rev. Piper, is in progress in the M. E. church.

-Gents furnishing goods at reduced rates at Fauble's Rochester Clothing

-Keep in style by getting your clothes from Fleming, the fashionable

-The Becker Washing Machine is fonte. one that will give entire satisfaction. We say so from a trial of it

-Congressman Kerr and J. L. Spangler will be at Centre Hall to-morrow, Friday evening. Look out for two rattling speeches.

-A Democrat by the name of Rob-inson who has $10,000 he wants to invest

-At Mingle's shoe store, Bellefonte you will find anything in boots and shoes from the coarse and heavy boots to the finest ladies' dress gaiter. A complete stock and at prices you never for a fact, and now we suppose things in enough for any one that is hard to please, Lock Haven will have to be re arranged. why just take a bucket and throw on as --- Democrats of Centre county, do your duty on election day, Nov. 6. The county can be carried if you all turn out. The enemy hope to see Democrats off their guard, and are using every means in heir power to defeat Holt and Mc-

We are informed that T. R. Reynolds, of Bellefonte, of whose sudden death we made mention in last week's issue, had his life insured for $75,000. Also that he made his third will shortly before his death the factorial state. before his death, the first baving been made soon after the death of his first snyder, 1 at 84, 49, 50, 51, $509; 63 acres of land, formerly a part of the Swartz farm, were bought by Mrs. J. W. Snook for $2100.

The sale for the Gramley farm in Miles township is continued to Saturday, Oct. 27, at Rebersburg, and the balance of the properties in and around Milheim will be offered on Saturday, Oct. 20.—

Always advertise in the Reporters.

To the number and kind of pensions is sermon Oct. 3, 1875; and unto whom he based and unto whom he based and unto whom he based to co., to whom he preached his last of the number and kind of pensions is sermon Oct. 3, 1875; and unto whom he based and unto whom he preached his last of the number and kind of pensions is sued, and the amount paid annually to those who received injuries, or were disabled while in the service of the government. It is an interesting article worth clipping for your scrap book, if you keep one. It is compiled from the official report of Commissioner Black and contains nothing but the facts. Read

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

-Farmers are just spilling to take corn by the ears. Fall and winter stock of clothing at the Philad. Branch. -A new signal tower at the station is among the improvements.

Chestnuts can be bought for $1.50 per bushel and may get cheaper. -Fall and winter stock of clothing at the Philad. Branch. -You would be surprised at the prices at which Fauble sells clothing. -Trusses and shoulder braces, popular makes and designs, at Murray's Drug

----Services in the Lutheran church, next Sabbath afternoon, at the usual

- Buggy whips, horse blankets and robes at Boozer's harness rooms, Centre

——This evening at 5 p.m., the Ross-Bushman nuptials will take place at the home of the bride.

-Democrats turn out and hear Kerr and Spangler speak in Foundry Hall tomorrow, Friday evening.

---You can get a suit made to order by Fleming, the tailor, Beliefonte, at astonishing low prices.

---Horse blankets from 85 cents on up according to quality, at Boozer's harness rooms, Centre Hall Rev. Schnure, of Somerset county, is likely to receive a call from the Rebersburg Lutheran charge. -You can save a days wages every time, by buying your boots and shoes at A. C. Mingle's store, Bellefonte.

—Potatoes are still going by wagon loads to our railroad station. The price has gone up from 25 to 30 cents. -- Rochester Clothing House in Reynold's building, Bellefonte, for cheap clothing and gents farnishing goods. -Doc Jacobs has two bats bet on Harrison. If he loses he will have to go bareheaded for about a year to get even. ---Powers' immense stock of boots and shoes and low prices is what makes hings lively at their store at Belle-

According to the Bellefonte News some fellow by the name of John Bayard is a weekly visitor at Centre Hall. Who is he anyhow?

The reputation of the Philadel-phia Branch for chesp clothing is an established fact and cant be touched by any one in the county.

-Chairman Williams has returned from the west and will put in his best work to roll up a hasdsome Democratic majority in old Centre. -- Look here, young fellow, if you want to be nicely dressed, get your clothes made by Fleming, the tailor, Bellefonte. -At the Spring elections the people of Bellefonte will yete in favor of keeping the cows off thestreets, -Daily News. Pshaw! that's cowardice. - Simon Harper left for Philadel phia on Monday, topurchase a stock of fall and winter goods, which will arrive this and beginning of next week. -It is said that J. A. Reesman has the largest and finest assortment of square parlor heaters to be found any where in this county. They are the cele-Happy Greeting,

-We add our bestimony to the usefulness of the New Becker Washing Machine, of which J. A. Dunkle is the agent, along with others who have given it a trial. It beats any machine

—The Philad. Branch has opened up its fall stock of clothing. An immense stock of fall and winter overcoats can be be found there for your inspection. They have overcoats in all styles, price and quality. Remember the Philad. Branch when in need of clothing.

---Powers' shoe store is having a big rush for boots and shoes at this season, and as usual are well prepared to meet it. They have an immense stock of new goods which embraces everything in the line of foot wear. Lumbermen's gums, boots, and all kinds of boots for teamsters, and workmen, at lower prices than ever. Ladies' and gents' dress shoes and in fact anything you want to see in the line of toots and shoes at lowest price , at Powers' shoe store, Belle-

-One of the leading mercantile establishments of Bellefonte is that of John Meese's on Alleghany street. His ALL THE LATEST —Rain Monday and Tuesday, with a little drizzle Wednesday morning. Store is located right in the heart of the business portion of the town, known as large and mercantile row and enjoys a large and ITS REPUTATION IS rapidly increasing trade from over the county. Theirstock contains an exceptionally fine line of dress goods, dry goods and notions, also a full line of groceries and queen-ware. Mr. Meese returned recent y from the cities with new or day; he says he cant find any sake of the dry goods and are very pretty. J. Will Consolate the dry goods department and will be glad to bave his many friends and acquaintances in this section call and see this whether they buy or not. goods for every department; many new

MARRIED.

At the Methodist parsonage, Bellefonte Oct. 2, by Rev. D S. Mooroe, D. D., Per-ry Krise of Pleasant Gap, and Rosetta V.

Kennely, of Spring Mills. On the 11th inst, at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. J. Shambach, Mr. George F. Breon, and Miss Rebecca J. Grenoble, both of Spring Mills.

On the 14th instrat the Luther in par-sonage, by Rev. M. L. Deitzler, Mr. Robert E. Wolf, of Haines township, and Miss Jamima J. Auman, of Penn town-

On Wednesday, 17. in the Presbyterian Chapel, at State College, by the Rev. Robert Hamill, D. D., Mr. William Mc-Manigal of Coalport, to Miss Mary D. Foster, of State College.

On 18th, near Tylersville, Mary Ann wife of Samuel Bierly, aged 58 y., 11 m. and 7 d. Deceased was the mother of 11 children.

On 19th, in Gregg, Permelia Ertel, aged 72 years. On 19th, at his residence in Millheim, J. W. Snook, aged 53 years, 7 months and aged 82 years and 9 months. On 22d in Gregg twp., John House-man, aged about 70 years.

16 days. On 22d, at Aaronsburg, James Mowry, aged 78 years. Od 22d, at Millheim, John F. Maize,

PERLSTEIN'S STORE,

You are cordially invited

TO THE_ Fall Opening,

Will Perlstein's,

Thurs., Fri. and Sat.,

October 11, 12 & 13.

PERLSTEIN'S STORE.

00-

BELLEFONTE, PA.

BELLEFONTE

PENNA.

HARDWARE! HARDWARE!

New Susquehanna Cook!

ALREADY ESTAB CHEAPNESS.

New Susquehanna Cook!

0----0-We are also agents for the well-known

James Spear Stove, and we carry a complete line of other makes of Stoves, Ranges and Heaters. Call and see us and we will please

H. A. McKEE & BRO.,

BELLEFONTE