NEWS TOPICS OF LOCAL INTEREST TO PENNSYLVANIANS.

Facts and Fancies Gleaned from Many Sources and Botted Down to Brief Paragraphs for the Benefit of Busy Readers.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 24.—A private detective named Brown has arrested Ruben Edwards and Frank Clarke, the two young men who were seen gunning in the woods on Friday when Paymaster McClure and Flanagan, his body guard, were murdered. They stoutly protest their innocence. The men were seen about three miles from the scene of the tragedy about the time it was committed.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 25.—The detectives investigating the McClure-Flanagan tragedy are now left without a single clue to work on. The two suspected Italians were before the coroner's jury, but nothing could be proven against them and they were discharged, and the jury rendered a verdict that "McClure and Flanagan came to their deaths by gunshot wounds and some blunt instrument in the hands of some person or persons unknown to the jury."

PAIDING REWARD FOR JAMES FARLEY.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—More than $600 has been subscribed by the residents of the northwestern section of this city to be used in an effort to save James Farley, a Philadelphian, who has been sentenced to death in Canada for the killing of an Indian. At a meeting in Randall hall, Twenty-fourth and Spring Garden streets, resolutions were passed requesting Governor Beaver to ask the Canadian government to show the condemned man clemency and give him a new trial.

ANOTHER CRASH IN PENNSYLVANIA.
ALTOONA, Pa., Oct. 24.—A frightful freight wreck occurred yesterday afternoon on the Pennsylvania railroad at a point one mile west of Tyrone. An east bound freight jumped the track and a west bound freight, which was due at the time, crashed into the former, causing thirty-five cars, laden with general merchandise, to be smashed into kindling wood. Four boys from this city were stealing a ride at the time of the accident, and when the crash came they endeavored to get off the train, but two of them—John Epler and Edward Fancos—were caught between the wrecked cars and crushed beyond recognition.

DEATH OF A FATHER.
LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 24.—Mary Ann Wedler, aged about 45, an inmate of the county almshouse, died of consumption, hastened by a fast extending over a period of forty-seven days, last spring. She had also fasted at intervals during the summer.

MORRIS WANTS $5,000.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 25.—Ed Morris, the "South Paw" twice of the Pittsburgh Baseball club, demands $5,000 for his services as pitcher for next season. It is rumored in baseball circles that Morris may be traded to New York.

DEATH OF H. W. OLIVER, SR.
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 25.—H. W. Oliver, Sr., father of H. W. Oliver, Jr., the Pittsburgh iron king, died of pneumonia, aged 85 years.

THE METHODIST CONVENTION.
BEYERLEIGH, Oct. 25.—The sessions of the convention of the North Philadelphia district of the Methodist Episcopal church are largely attended. Any interesting questions have been brought up for discussion, among them "The Solid South," "How to Win Young Men and Retain Them in the Church," "Divine Providence in American History," "The Value of Daily Exegetic Study," "Should the Children of Unconverted Parents be Baptized?" and others.

MEETING OF CHRISTIAN YOUNG WOMEN.
SCRANTON, Oct. 25.—The first annual convention of the Young Women's Christian Association of Pennsylvania began here this evening with a good attendance. An address of welcome was made by Miss Riddle and responded to by Miss Cowell. David McCaughey of Philadelphia, delivered the address of the evening, his subject being "The Book for Young Women." The sessions continue to-morrow and Sunday.

A BRUSH OF PROMISE SUIT.
LEBANON, Oct. 25.—Miss Emma R. Zartman, a daughter of Levi Zartman, a farmer of Bethel township, entered suit for breach of promise against Frank W. Hunsicker, a young man of the same township. Bail in $2,000 was demanded, and the suit has caused no little amount of gossip, as both parties to the suit are well known.

A PROMINENT PHYSICIAN KILLED.
MATCHESBURG, Oct. 25.—Dr. Rensselaer Leonard, of this city, was struck by a train while walking the railroad track, near Glen Onoko, last evening and instantly killed.

COKE WORKERS' WAGES TO ADVANCE.
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 25.—The 12,000 coke workers in the Connellsville region will be notified to-morrow of an advance of from 3 to 10 per cent. in their wages to take effect on Nov. 1, when the price of coke will be advanced 25 cents per ton, in accordance with the agreement made with the operators yesterday.

CURIOSITY LEADS TO DEATH.
CARLEISLE, Pa., Oct. 25.—Harry Strickler, a veteran of the late war, was forcing a red hot iron into an old shell found on the battle field of Gettysburg, and before he was aware of it he was minus an arm. The member was torn from its socket, and he was injured in many places. He will probably die.

DEATH OF A METHODIST MINISTER.
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 25.—Rev. Wesley Smith, of the Methodist Episcopal church, died at Sharpburg, Pa., aged 83 years. His father was licensed to preach by John Wesley. Two of his sons are ministers, one, Rev. C. W. Smith, D. D., being editor of The Pittsburg Christian Advocate. He was the author of "Smith on Baptism," "Guide to a Happy Home," and other church works.

ACIDENTALLY SHOT BY A FRIEND.
WILLIAMSBURG, Oct. 25.—It has been since ascertained that W. B. Allen, the prominent merchant who met his death while out hunting, was accidentally shot by one of his hunting companions. They were after deer and in trying to prevent the escape of their quarry three shots were fired at one time. Mr. Allen, most unfortunately, happened in range of the bullets, one of which entered his back.

GUILTY OF MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE.
SCRANTON, Oct. 25.—The trial of John C. Keegan, for the murder of Mrs. Fitzer, in her husband's store, in this city, ended today, the jury bringing in a verdict of murder in the second degree. The shooting was the result of continued quarreling among the two families, growing out of trouble among the children. The defense was insanity and a drunken frenzy that made him unaccountable. Sentence was deferred.

HUMORS OF THE CANVASS

Queer Things Some Impecunious Bettors Agree to Do.

THERE'S MANY A LAUGH IN STORE

The Safest and Best Bet Is Reported from Clarke County, Ind.—Abundant and Difficult Feats That Must Be Performed by the Losers.

St. Louis, Oct. 25.—The campaign of 1888 has brought out the usual number of queer wagers in this vicinity. To-morrow evening twelve Democrats and twelve Republicans will sit down to a dinner at the St. Louis club. All of the gentlemen are members of the club. The steward's bill for the spread will be paid on the 7th prox.—by the dozen Democrats if Harrison is elected, and by the Republicans if Cleveland is re-elected. Among the gentlemen who will occupy places at this partisan feast are Mayor D. R. Francis, the Democratic nominee for governor of Missouri; Messrs. John and Dan Holmes, Frank I. Rigdely, Jake Ewald and Secretary Dick Everset.

One of the oddest bets of the campaign has been made by Sergt. Johnson and Private Wallace, of Jefferson barracks, the United States military station twelve miles south of St. Louis. Though both parties are prevented by constitutional prohibition from voting or taking part in the election, they are strong partisans. Sergt. Johnson is a Democrat and Morton man, while Private Wallace is a Democrat. It has been agreed that the loser will on Nov. 7 run a gauntlet of 150 soldiers ranged sixty on a side on the parade ground and armed with regulation rifles topped with bayonets sheathed in cloth and tipped with a rag ball. The path is to be ten feet wide and through this the loser is to run, dodging as best he may to save his ribs.

Louis Schrempff, proprietor of the Marble Hall saloon, 7,181 South Broadway, is a Cleveland man. Phil Frankenhach is a Republican and wall paper dealer at 114 West Courtis street. They have arranged a queer bet with great detail. If Harrison is elected Schrempff is to pay Frankenhach $10,000 in eight in Marble Hall saloon, regardless of the artistic effects or damage. If Cleveland is elected Frankenhach will pay the expenses of the saloon for one evening, the proprietor having the privilege of inviting everybody he pleases to partake of his treat.

Rev. B. F. Thomas, pastor of the Central Methodist Episcopal church, is a Republican; Robert W. Harrison, of 7,139 South Broadway, is a Democrat, and they are willing to make considerable sacrifice in the maintenance of their respective political principles. They have bet on the following terms: If Harrison is elected, Harrison will on two Sundays discharge any duties of the pastor that may have accumulated during the intervening weeks. If Cleveland is elected, the pastor will canvass for the sale of sewing machines for two days, turning the profits over to the winner of the wager.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 25.—A Democratic young lady of Clarke county agreed to marry a suitor if Cleveland be defeated. The young man agreed to pay her $100 if he be elected, or in default of that, to marry her.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 25.—There is little betting of money on the presidential election. A Scandinavian, at Moorhead, named John Peterson, bet with a German named Kaehner that if Cleveland be elected Peterson will sit astraddle the peak of a barn all day, from 5 o'clock a. m. until 6 o'clock p. m. If Harrison be elected Kaehner will do the same.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—Louis Heiserwald, proprietor of a barber shop at No. 731 Sanson street, is an enthusiastic Cleveland partisan, while Albert Glock, one of his assistants, is equally vociferous in whooping it up for Harrison, and money being insufficient to express their feelings, it has been agreed that the advocate of the losing candidate shall shave the top of his head and keep it in a state of nudity for one month after the election.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 25.—Alf Burnett has a bet with the city marshal that whoever loses shall walk the streets from dark to daylight without uttering a word, eating anything, drinking, chewing or smoking.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 25.—A politician of the Fourth ward, who is fond of his nip, agreed to abstain from the use of liquor for one year if Cleveland is defeated, while the other fellow, who is a strong Prohibitionist, is to get gloriously drunk the day after election if Harrison is not successful.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Peter Delp, proprietor of a DesPlaines street saloon, and Ira Hogan, of the Tremont house, have long mustaches of which they are very proud. If Cleveland is elected Delp will cut off his mustache, and if Harrison wins Hogan is to sacrifice his mustache. Bonds have been deposited for the fulfillment of the bet.

Either T. C. Franzon or John Windels will have to stand at the corner of North avenue and Mohawk street and grind a hand organ for five hours, according to the state election goes. If it is Republican it will be Windels; if Democratic, Franzon.

Theodore Kohn, a barber, has agreed with one of his employes that if Harrison is defeated he will not cut his hair or beard until there is a Republican president.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 25.—Elmer Thomas, waiter, and Miss Mina Webster have made this contract: If Cleveland is elected they will be married on inauguration day; if he is not elected, the marriage is to be postponed until another Democratic president is inaugurated. Thomas is hustling for Cleveland votes.

Thomas Leets, a well known Free Thinker and Spiritualist, and one of the pillars of a down town church, have made this wager: If Harrison is elected, Leets is to attend and sit through fifty-two prayer meetings in the church referred to, consecutively if possible. If Cleveland is elected the churchman is bound to attend fifty-two Spiritualistic meetings in Memorial hall.

BOSTON, Oct. 25.—Ex-Councilman Caswell, of Malden, is an ardent admirer of Harrison and Morton, and John Farrell, a stockkeeper on Haymarket square, Boston, is a red hot supporter of Cleveland and Thurman. If Harrison is elected Farrell agrees to vote the straight Republican ticket for the next four years, including the presidential election of 1892, and if Cleveland is elected Caswell agrees to vote the Democratic ticket for the same period.

Big Prices for a 2-Year-Old.
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 25.—The transfer of the ownership of the great 2-year-old Galen, which has been talked of for some time, has been consummated. A veterinary surgeon made an examination of him, and pronounced him as sound as a dollar. Harkins & Johnson thereupon bought him, paying $10,000 cash down, and 30 per cent of his winnings as a 2-year-old.

Mangled Beyond Recognition.
LIMA, O., Oct. 25.—A southbound freight on the Dayton and Michigan road was wrecked north of this city. Two unknown men, supposed to be tramps, were killed. They were buried in the debris, and mangled beyond recognition.

DEATH OF JOHN GUY VASSAR.

His Grandfather Founded the First College for Females

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Oct. 25.—John Guy Vassar, the millionaire and nephew of the founder of the Vassar college, the first college founded for women, died at his home after an illness of fifteen months, at the age of 77. Mr. Vassar was born in the "old Van Kleeck house," this city, in 1811, and his father, John Guy Vassar, Sr., was married to a great granddaughter of Baltus Van Kleeck, who built the first house in Poughkeepsie. Mr. Vassar was taken into the partnership with his uncle, Matthew Vassar, in his brewery business, which grew to great dimensions. The firm built the great brewery on the bank of the Hudson in 1836, and, having taken in a number of other partners, became known as Vassar & Co.

Mr. Vassar retired from the business in 1850 and spent many years in traveling for his health, having been four times round the world. His fortune, which is estimated at $2,000,000, was accumulated by judicious investments. He has given at various times large sums to charitable institutions. He gave an equal sum with the late Matthew Vassar to the Vassar college, which was endowed in honor of his uncle, and gave large sums to other beneficent subjects. Mr. Vassar never married.

CHINA MAY RETALIATE.

Opinion of a Peking Official as to How the Exclusion Bill Should be Met.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—The steamer Arabic, from Hong Kong and Yokohama, arrived yesterday afternoon. The Japan Gazette has a statement which was published in The Chinese Times, saying that great animosity is felt at Kwantung against the Chinese minister to the United States, on account of his action in the matter of the treaty which was recently rejected by the Chinese government, and an angry mood endeavored to wreck the minister's house.

The Chinese Times also contains a letter signed by a Peking official, written just after the news had reached China that the United States senate had passed the Chinese exclusion bill. The following extract is taken from the letter: "If the obnoxious American bill should be carried into effect, there will be no other course open for China, consistent with her dignity as a nation, than to adopt retaliatory measures by prohibiting the citizens of the United States from coming to China. This will be by no means proportionate to the harm done to the Chinese interests in America, but it will have to be done, in order to show that the Chinese can do something, and if this will have no effect in bringing the United States congress and the United States government to reason and fairness, then it will be a question for China to consider whether it is not time for her to recall her treaties made with that country, to recall her subjects from there, to expel all the United States citizens from this country, and to cut all relations and intercourse, diplomatic and commercial, with that country."

THE NUN OF KENMARE.

Revel of the Story That She Has Renounced Catholicism.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 25.—The Times says that it is able to state positively that the celebrated Sister Mary Clara, the "Nun of Kenmare," has changed her religious views, and is now actively opposing the Roman Catholic church.

The Times says: "Those in possession of the facts state that the Nun of Kenmare will soon give to the world an autobiography containing the account of her conversion to Protestantism, and which will reveal many secrets of the Catholic church."

"Papa is in Canada."

CLEVELAND, Oct. 25.—It is learned that Chas. Trevaux Astor has fled to Europe. A cablegram known to have been from him was received by one of his married daughters here on Saturday last, dated Liverpool, which read: "Papa is in Canada; tell mamma not to worry." A full investigation of the city treasurer's accounts has been made, which shows that there should be to the credit of the city department, $78,887.04. To offset this there is in the banks here $447,450.05 making the deficit $368,562.99. It is rumored that just before leaving New York Astor drew $300,000 from the American Exchange in New York, which is the eastern depository of the city funds and bonds.

His Family Killed in His Presence.

DUBUOQUE, Ia., Oct. 25.—Herman Basile, a section foreman on the Burlington road, started for this city on a hand car, having with him his wife, three children and a friend. In rounding a sharp curve they were run down by a special train making a quick run between St. Paul and Chicago. The hand car was thrown from the track and Mrs. Basile and her two sons, aged 7 and 15, were instantly killed. Mr. Basile and the other party escaped. When the train struck the car Mrs. Basile threw her baby down a bank twenty feet high and saved its life. Basile is frantic with grief and threatens to commit suicide.

President Cleveland's Vote.

BUFFALO, Oct. 27.—The report that President Cleveland has registered here and will come to this city to vote, proves upon investigation to be incorrect. He has not been registered in his old district, and unless he comes here and registers personally on Friday next he will not be entitled to vote. The last vote he cast here was in 1855, when he voted for Governor Hill. His personal property was removed to Washington the following year and his name was thereupon stricken from the poll lists of the district. It is said that his vote, if offered, would be challenged on the ground of non-residence.

Jaehne's Appeal.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The case of Jaehne, the convicted bodice alderman of New York, came up in the United States supreme court upon an appeal from the decision of the circuit court refusing a writ of habeas corpus, application for which was made on the ground that the law under which he was convicted was retroactive ex-post facto. Roger Sherman appeared for Jaehne, and the argument for the state was made by McKenzie Sample, of the district attorney's office. It is understood that the decision of the court will be handed down without delay.

Received by the Fags.

ROME, Oct. 25.—The pope received in private audience Archbishop Alemany, of San Francisco.

SACKVILLE'S SENSATION.

The British Minister in an Unpleasant Predicament.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—A great sensation has been caused in political, diplomatic and governmental circles by a letter written by Lord Sackville-West, England's chief representative in this country. The letter was written in reply to a request for advice. The request was sent from Pomona, Cal., and the writer claimed to be a naturalized Englishman. He asked Lord West's opinion as to whether President Cleveland was sincere in his retaliatory message. The letter was signed Warrington, but there is every reason to believe that no such person lives in Pomona. It is therefore thought to have been a trap. Whatever it was Minister West's reply has created a tremendous sensation, and has resulted in a demand for his recall. Messages are being exchanged daily between the two governments on the subject. Minister West is universally blamed both in this country and in England for his indiscretion. It is thought his letter will influence a great many votes in the coming election. It follows:

(Private.)

Sir—I am in receipt of your letter of the 4th inst. and beg to say I fully appreciate the difficulty in which you find yourself in casting your vote. You are probably aware that any political party which openly favored the mother country at the present moment would lose popularity, and that the party in power is fully aware of this fact. The party, however, I believe, still desirous of maintaining friendly relations with Great Britain, and is still as desirous of settling questions with Canada, which have been unfortunately reopened since the rejection of the treaty by the Republican majority in the senate and by the president's message, to which you allude. All allowances must, therefore, be made for the political situation as regards the presidential election threatened. It is, however, impossible to predict the course which President Cleveland may pursue in the matter of retaliation should he be elected, but there is every reason to believe that, while upholding the position he has taken, he will manifest a spirit of conciliation in dealing with the question involved in his message. I enclose an article from The New York Times of Aug. 25 and remain, yours faithfully,

L. S. SACKVILLE-WEST,
Beverly, Mass., Sept. 15, 1888.

NATIONAL MONEY MILL.

Grist Ground On During the Past Fiscal Year.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—E. O. Graves, chief of the bureau of engraving and printing, has completed his annual report to the secretary of the treasury. The report shows that the production of securities during the year just ended exceeded that of any preceding year in the history of the bureau. There were printed and delivered to the departments 28,949,948 sheets of securities, 5,288,773 more than in 1887. Of United States notes, gold and silver certificates, bonds and national bank notes, there were delivered 10,642,545 sheets, representing a face value of $461,465,280. There were printed and delivered 25,959,988 sheets of internal revenue stamps, containing 669,836,422 separate stamps; of customs stamps there were produced 429,939 sheets, and of miscellaneous securities 1,020,848 sheets. There were turned out during the year 72,977 volumes of internal revenue stamps, drafts, checks and similar securities.

There were delivered to the treasurer of the United States during the year, in notes and certificates of the denominations of $30 and under, $199,950,000, of which $109,000,000 consisted of silver certificates. To Oct. 1, 1888, there have been delivered $26,764,000 in $1 certificates, and $19,848,000 in $2 certificates. To the same date there have been presented to the treasurer for redemption $2,500,790 in $1 certificates, and $1,302,059 in $2 certificates. The rate of redemption is much less than that of any former issue of small notes during a like period, and proves that the new certificates are without the wear and tear of circulation remarkably well.

STOP THE CAMPAIGN!

According to Rev. Obadiah Bates the World will come to an End Nov. 5.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 25.—Rev. Obadiah Bates, a Hard-shell Baptist preacher, who is pastor of four country churches in Selby county, has frightened many members of his congregation by circulating among them the following circular:

Prepare, all of ye, for the end is at hand. I have read it in the stars, and angels have come to me in my dreams and told me the glad tidings. The world will come to an end Monday, Nov. 5, in the year of our Lord, 1888. Prepare all of ye for that great day. God has hastened the day because of the wicked men called politicians. They are all falsifiers and liars, and will be burned in lakes of liquid fire because they fear not God, and are given to works of iniquity. Rivers of boiling water will burn the politicians, and a sea of fire and brimstone will open and swallow all Democrats and Republicans. Prepare, all of ye, and remember the day is at hand.

OBADIAB BATES, The Lord's Prophet.

Bates' relatives and friends are trying to have him placed in an insane asylum.

Change of Time on the Pennsylvania.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—A change in schedule of the New York division of the Pennsylvania railroad went into effect yesterday. The Long Branch express, formerly leaving at 3:30 a. m. on week days, is withdrawn, while the Sunday express for Long Branch at 9:15 a. m. is changed to 8:45 a. m. The Sunday accommodations for Waverly and intermediate stations, now leaving at 8:15 and 11:30 a. m. and 1:30, 2:45, and 5:15 p. m., are withdrawn. The train formerly leaving for New Brunswick at 9:30 a. m. leaves at 9 a. m., while the 3:15 p. m. Sunday accommodation for Rahway is changed to 3 p. m. Corresponding changes are made in returning trains, for which consult time tables.

Yellow Fever Record.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 25.—There were 26 new cases, 18 white and 8 colored, and 4 deaths—J. N. Bell, Joseph H. Sellers, Mrs. Mary Fennell and Thomas Phillips (colored). Bishop Weed is convalescent. Seventeen cases and two deaths during forty-eight hours are reported from Enterprise. Extravagant reports of new cases, but no deaths, were reported to have appeared at Live Oak. Superintendent Reay, of the Florida railway, denies that there is or has been any fever at Baldwin.

Three Acres Caved in.

PLYMOUTH, Pa., Oct. 25.—A big cave in occurred over an abandoned mine of the Delaware, Schuylkill and Western railroad at Curry Hill. The house of John Fox sank in the hill twelve feet. The inmates, six in number, were thrown out of bed and seriously injured in the wreck. Several other buildings were damaged. The cave in covers an area of three acres. About 100 people will have to vacate their homes immediately.

Ben Bateer on the Stump.

DETROIT, Oct. 25.—Gen. B. F. Butler addressed a large political gathering which completely packed the Detroit rink last night. Several thousand people got no nearer than the outside doors. The general was in poor voice, and it was with difficulty that he made himself heard.
