New York Wins the Series in Handsome Style.

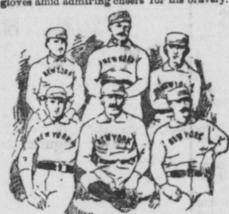

SIX GAMES WON, TWO LOST.

A Magnificent Contest, in Which the Giants Lead from Start to Finish-Tim Reefe's Great Work-Ewing's Plucky Game-Sketches of the Leaders.

St. Louis, Oct. 26.-Jim Mutrie is beside himself with joy. The world's championship contest between St. Louis and New York was settled by the overwhelming defeat of the Browns by the Giants. Buck Ewing's all around work is largely responsible for the Browns' defeat, not only in this game, but throughout the series. His presence in the team yesterday went far toward securing the victory, as he not only caught Keefe in masterly style, but he knockout a home run in the first inning, and JAMES MUTRIE. with three men on bases in the third inning, sent them all home on his three bagger to center, which Herr frightfully misjudged. Keefe never pitched in better style, and was magnificently sup-ported. The New Yorks have clearly outplayed the Browns in the series, and they deserve their big triumph. One of Keefe's swift deliveries struck Ewing on the ends of his fingers and knocked several of them out of joint. Ewing ran down the diamond and Reefe and Ward yanked the injured digits into place. Some cold water was then poured upon them, and Ewing again donned his gloves amid admiring cheers for his bravery.
