Jim Smetzler moved last week from the township into the borough last Saturday, and will lose his vote, a democratic loss.

In seven weeks we did not have two consecutive days without rain, and in no week more than one entirely clear day in that time.

Now Democrats of old Centre, for next Tuesday! one fire along the entire line, and the day is ours, and for cheaper food, clothing, and machinery.

Monday tried hard to slip thro without rain—but there was a short sprinkle. Tuesday renewed the attempt and really made the rifle and umbrellas were not needed.

The roads will need looking after when the weather becomes settled. Through our town at various places, there are water ponds that should be wiped out by filling.

Services in the Lutheran church next Sabbath evening. A religious exercise, given by members of the congregation, has been fixed on. Rev. Fischer expects to be present.

In Westchester county, New York, a young lady and her beau have bet on the rival White House aspirants and the loser of the bet is to attend church wearing the clothes of the opposite sex.

Co. Commissioner Decker and sons, of Potters Mills, were out after deer on Monday in the Se-wan mts., and came across a large bear with two half-grown cubs. They killed the bear which weighed about 250 pounds, being very lean, but the cubs escaped.

Sacred concerts, free for nothing, every day on second floor of the Bank building. The combination is one possessing rare talent and has refused numerous offers of late to travel, but positively refused, glad they will remain with us. A collection will soon be in order.

Last week a Democrat and Republican of Centre Hall made a bet that the one voting for the defeated candidate would have to wheel the other to the station on a wheel barrow. Will give the names and time of trip in our next issue. All will be invited to turn out and see the fun.

A very sad occurrence in Mill Hall Wednesday evening caused general sorrow in that place. Miss Grace Stover, the fifteen year old daughter of John H. Stover, was taking part in a temperance meeting by reciting a temperance selection when she fell forward from the platform dead, of heart disease.

Every precinct committee and Democrat should get down to business from this to the end of the election. Get to work and see every Democrat and independent voter in your district and have him turn out on election day. Personal work of this kind is what we must have and are going to have.

An exchange says there is an old superstition among farmers that the date of the month added to the number of the month in the year when the first snow falls will be the number of snow storms for the winter. If this be true, then we shall have thirty-eight snows this winter, the first snow having fallen on the 29th day of the ninth month.

W. S. Allen, of Williamsport, was killed while hunting. Mr. Allen was shot in the back by his friends who were hunting with him. It appears that a deer had been wounded by the party and Mr. Allen went into the bushes to root it out while there the deer jumped up and both men fired, one firing four shots and the other one. It was at this time that Mr. Allen was killed. The inquest places no blame on any one.

A Philadelphia detective was employed recently by S. F. Hoffa, of Milton who was shot at by a party in ambush three weeks ago in the White Deer Valley. On Friday last Elias Perun, of Washington township, Lycoming county, was taken before Justice Neibert at Lycoming county jail in default of $2,000 bail on a charge of "assault and attempt to kill with a double barrel gun." The prisoner will be 71 years next February. He firmly denies his guilt.—Lewisburg News.

The Democratic meeting in Foundry Hall, on last Friday evening was well attended, considering the condition of the weather, which was very unpropitious. The meeting was addressed by Messrs. Williams, co. chairman, and J. L. Spangler, of Bellefonte. The first speaker, Mr. Williams, made a number of good points in his short talk. The audience then listened to one of those able speeches which Jack has been delivering this campaign, and is convinc-

TO THE PEOPLE OF CENTRE COUNTY.

The Gazette of last week contains an article in which there is so much misrepresentation and untruth that I deem it necessary for the information of the public to give the facts just as they exist. All that I shall say on this matter was within easy reach of the editor of the Gazette and had he desired he could have more easily given you the exact truth than to mistake the facts. By an act of assembly approved the 21st day of March A. D. 1875, "All laws and parts of laws then in force in the Commonwealth under and by virtue of which taxes for State purposes are levied and assessed upon horses, mares, geldings, mules and cattle shall be and they are hereby repealed so far as they give authority to impose State taxes on the same," by a proviso the act could not go into effect until after the next meeting of the board of Revenue Commissioners of the Commonwealth. Nor could the act go into effect so as to relieve the property specified until 1874, the assessments for 1875 in nearly all the counties of the state having been made before the act was having passed.

The Commissioners of the several counties are required by law to make a return to the board of Revenue Commissioners of all taxable property, setting out, in the return what is taxable for State purposes as well as that which is taxable for County purposes. The County Commissioners in 1875 made return of property, taxable for State purposes to the amount of $3,835 69. This was $2,824 40 in excess of what the county assessment showed on its face to be the correct amount of State tax, and the mistake arose by reason of returning as taxable for State purposes, horses, cattle, &c., &c.

The State Board of Revenue Commissioners in 1875 assessed the county a gross tax of $4,167.11 which sum through 1875, 1876 and 1877.

This over-charge the County not only the $324 40 in excess of what the county assessment showed on its face to be the correct amount of State tax, but also $333 42 in each year an arbitrary increase by the Revenue Board. The total overcharge for three years was $9,473 46, from this, there is to be deducted the amount which is allowed the County treasurer as his Commission which left the net amount of overcharge for the three years $8,909 83. The whole matter is shown more fully by the following statement:

Amount charged by Revenue Board for one year.....	$ 4,167 11
For three years.....	12,501 33
Correct amount according to the Commissioners return.....	744 17
.....	$11,757 16
Taxes on money at interest for 1875.....	$ 337 71
Furniture.....	73 70
Carriages.....	49 03
Watches.....	140 75
Total for one year.....	$1,011 28
For 3 years, 75, 76, 77.....	$3,033 84
Less Comd.....	180 51
.....	$2,853 33
Net amount over-paid.....	$8,909 83

It will thus be seen that all this occurred in 1875, 1876 and 1877 long before Mr. Griest and Mr. Wolf became County Commissioners and also long before I became the Attorney of the County. As I understand it the mistake was made by the State Board of Revenue Commissioners in charging the County with more taxes than they should have been charged with, and the same mistake occurred with almost every County in the State, Democratic and Republican alike. Shortly after I became Attorney for the Commissioners I discovered that the State had taken from the County $8,909 83. I also discovered that after the State Board of Revenue Commissioners had allowed a number of the Counties credit for the full amount unlawfully taken from them, they had passed a resolution refusing to consider any further applications praying that credit might be allowed the Counties for money over-paid.

I had shown to the Commissioners the amount the State had taken from our County and wanted them to bear the expense and let me do what I could to obtain proper credit for the County. The State would not repay the money it had illegally received to any County, but it would allow a credit to the County in the accounts between the County and the State.

The Commissioners refused to take any chances, but offered a contingent fee to me any whom might be associated with me. We were to bare our own expenses, pay all cost, if any, as well as all assistant counsel, if any had to be hired, and they pay us thirty per cent. on the amount the County obtained credit for in the accounts between it and the Commonwealth.

Under this agreement we went to work and after two years of work, a number of trips to Harrisburg, and an outlay to us of between $500 and $600 we obtained a credit in favor of the County for $8,909 83.

I repeat that neither Mr. Griest, Mr. Wolf nor myself were responsible for the payment of this large amount of money, unlawfully to the State, as it was done long before either of us had anything to do with the office; nor do I think any board of County Commissioners or their Attorney was responsible for the mistake made by the State Board of Revenue Commissioners. It is true I was hired by the Commissioners at a salary of $200 a year to advise them, but when I made for the County any collection or tried any cases in Court, as I did many of them, for the Court, like all other Attorneys, Democrats and Republicans alike, I was paid what the services were worth or the regular commissions on the collection.

The whole matter was submitted to the County Auditors at their sitting last winter and passed upon by them as just, and the statement shows that they counted, as liability of the County, the balance due to Spangler and myself. Under the contract we were to do a certain thing and if we succeeded the County was to pay us a certain amount, we did our part kept the County clear of all expenses and the County has done for us simply what it had agreed to do.

At the time we received the last portion of our fees Centre county was the only county that had, after the reconsideration of the resolution before mentioned by the Revenue Board in December 1880, received credit for the amount overpaid in 1875, 1876 and 1877. By the County receiving a credit of $8,909 83 on the books of the State treasurer when she did, the County Commissioners were enabled to reduce the County rates for 1887 and 1888 to two and a half mills, and by this means the whole people receive credit for money unlawfully taken from them many years before.

THURSDAY EVENINGS' NUPTIALS.

A large number of relatives and friends assembled at the residence of Mrs. M. A. Ross, this place, on last Thursday evening, to witness the ceremonies which united Miss Sadie Ross and George Bushman in bonds of holy wedlock. The young folks of this vicinity were present and many from a distance were noticed in the happy throng. At about 6 P. M. Miss Annie Keller gave the signal in bringing from the organ the notes of an inspiring wedding march. Rev. H. Kerr, the Presbyterian minister, stationed himself at the base of the room and awaited the arrival of the bridal party, which soon appeared. Miss Sadie was handsomely attired and never looked prettier than upon this festive occasion; while the groom, an ideal young man, bore himself with the dignity becoming the occasion. The wedding service was a brief, oral and impressive ceremony, pronounced calmly and clearly by the minister.

At the conclusion many and varied congratulations were extended the newly married couple. Toothsome refreshments were then served and the evening was spent in various amusements. A large number of handsome presents were received, some of which were rather suggestive. Mr. and Mrs. Bushman left on Friday morning for a two weeks trip to Gettysburg and other points.

The meeting in the school house was well attended last Thursday evening. Addresses were made by Kerr and Spangler.

Harry Miller has become a counter-hopper in Long's store.

WEDDING AND RECEPTION.

This week we announce another wedding to take place, in which one of Centre Hall's prominent young ladies is a contracting party. Invitations to attend the marriage of Miss Maggie L. Rishell and George P. Wakefield, of Huntingdon Co., on Tuesday Nov. 13, at the residence of her mother, Mrs. John Rishell, have been issued. At the same time a reception will be extended to Rev. C. W. Rishell and wife, recently married, and a brother of Miss Maggie.

THE SCHOOLS.

The schools of our county have all opened, and the young idea is learning how to shoot. Superintendent Wolf has commenced his visitations. The pedagogues should not know in what hour of the night the bridegroom cometh, so he would always keep his lamp in trim for the coming. Centre county's common schools rank among the best of the system in our state.

OBITUARY.

Sidney Bairfoot departed this life, peacefully, on last Friday morning, at his home in this place. He was a much respected young man, who spent the greater portion of his life in this town and vicinity, having, from his boyhood, had his home with D. C. Keller, with whom he engaged in the live stock business. About two years ago he was married to Flora, only child of Dr. P. D. Neff, and the couple soon after moved to Bellefonte, where Mr. Bairfoot carried on at bookstore. His health beginning to fail, they removed to their home in this place, where for a time he seemed to mend in health, but it was only a delusion, consumption held its grip and took off its victim. He was able to be about even on the day of his death, and the messenger called him away while resting upon a sofa, at night. His funeral took place on Monday, Rev. Earnest, Lutheran minister of Millinburg, conducting the services. His age was 32 years, 3 months and 16 days. He leaves a widow to mourn his loss.

THANKS.

The friends and neighbors will please accept my sincere and heartfelt thanks for their great kindness and sympathy to me, in my sorrow and bereavement. May the Father of the widow and orphans bless them for all they did.
