PEIRCE COLLEGE is a College that "vannteth not itsel:" What it is has not been made by any artificial means. It "has grown solely by virtue of its experienced staff of instructors, chosen for their fitness and adaptation to the positions which they fill, by its wonderfully practical and realistic courses of instruction, by its unrivalled inputing heating, ventilating, and other appointments, great and small, in the farfamed "Record Building" which protect the heatth and promote the convenience of its patrons, and by the fidelity to the interests of its students of each officer and member of the Faculty and each attache, from Principal to Janitor. The following is an extract from a history of Philadelphia, just published.

"This institution has been exceptionally fortunate in the success of the students who have graduated therefrom. It is no marvel that the Peirce College of Business Diploma carries a warranty of efficiency that makes its graduates cagerly sought after by the leading business men of this and other cities."

It is doubtful if very many Philadelphians even know the extent and importance of its clientage and the results of its training, outside of the facts that may be gleaned from the roll of students annually published. A NOVEMBER BLIZZARD.

says: "No plasters of such merit as the Ath-lo-pho-ros Plasters have ever It Does Untold Damage Along the Coast.

MANY SAILORS WERE DROWNED.

Terrible Tales of Shipwreck from Many Places-Great Destruction of Property. Beaches Strewn with Debris-Telegraph and Railroad Lines Blocked.

BOSTON, Nov. 27 .- The storm has abated somewhat here. It has been much more destructive along the coast than was the blizzard, and the damage to telegraph and telephone lines is almost as great. Wrecks are reported by almost every life saving station, and while considerable loss of life is reported it is feared that another day will show still more. But meager reports are received, as 50 per cent, of the telegraph wires are down.

The schooner Avalon Milbery, from St. John, N. B., for New York, with a cargo of 940,000 laths, consigned to Scammell Brothers, is ashore on Spectacle Island, in Boston harbor. Three of the crew were swept overboard in the gale. Their names are Charles Hackford, John Doucette and James Tidd, all of Nova Scotia. A large American bark was reported off Highland light Saturday morning, bound in. She has not yet been heard from, but it is probable that a falling barometer caused her to run out to sea again.

There are four overdue steamers, the Scythia, Yarmouth, Carroll and Miranda, a sugar steamer from the West Indies. All the ressels have probably put to sea to avoid a lee shore in the terrible gale. There are probably 100 vessels ashore on the New England coast.

SCITUATE, Mass., Nov. 27.—The fishing schooner Edward Morton, owned by Stubbs & Co., T wharf, Boston, came ashore in the gale and is a total wreck. Of her crew of sixteen men all were washed overboard and drowned save one, a seaman named Allen, of No. 2 Wiggins street, Boston. When the tide went down and left the wreck on the beach Allen was found in an unconscious condition under the wreck by the life saving crew and taken to Conroy's hotel, where he was resuscitated. He was very weak from exposure, and could give but little information.

He said the vessel came in by Peaked Hill bars on Sunday morning and steered northwest for Boston, against the wishes of the crew, who proposed to put into Province town. It was a terrible day. As near as he could tell, they struck between 5 and 6 o'clock Sunday afternoon and almost immediately capsized. He was down below and was the only one saved. He says she carried fifteen men and a boy. After the wreck was discovered he was still under her hull and nearly drowned. He could barely keep his head out of water, but could plainly hear the voices of those on the beach and had to wait hours till the sea left her, when he had barely strength to crawl out. HULL, Mass., Nov. 27. - The schooner B. F. Walker, Westgate, of Fall River, from Philadelphia for Boston, is high and dry on Toddy rocks. Her cabin and forward houses are washed away. She is full of water and will doubtless prove a total loss. Capt. Westgate and Mate C. M. Thomas were lost. The captain was about 60 years of age and a native of Taunton. He leaves a family. The mate belonged in Camden, Me., and also leaves a family.

The schooner Gertrude Abbott, Capt. Champion, of and from Philadelphia, for Boston, is also ashore on Toddy rocks. The crews have been taken off by the life saving crew at Hull. The schooner Cox and Green, Capt. Thompson, of Greenport, bound from Philadelphia for Boston, is ashore and is fast breaking up on Toddy rocks. The sea is making a complete breach over her. Her crew is saved. GLOUCESTER, Mass., Nov. 27 .- The storm was so thick here yesterday that it was impossible to see a hundred yards from the shore. The British brig Alice, of Lockport, Captain Harry Saunders, which was at an-chorage inside of Ten Pound Island, went adfift, and her crew abandoned her and went on board of the schooner J. J. Lock, of Barrington, Captain Banks. The Lock afterwards went adrift, and the two crews then abandoned her and went on board of another schooner, where they remained until morning and then came ashore. Both vessels are supposed to be lost, as they drifted to sea. The two crews of ten men lost everything, and they are in a desperate condition.

The beach in the neighborhood of Norman's Woe is strewn with wreckage, consisting of lumber, laths, barrels, etc. Only small pieces of the schooner Addie S. Emery are left. Two vessels, a sloop and a coal laden schooner, are reported ashore at Rockport and gone to pieces, but their names could not be learned. PLYMOUTH, Mass., Nov. 27.-The storm here was accompanied by very high tide. Considerable lumber was floated away from Atwood's yard. The schooner Amazon, of Provincetown, went ashore on White Flat. The captain and crew escaped in a boat, and by keeping a stream of kerosene oil dribbling astern from a big can, smoothed the waves so that they reached the shore in safety.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 27 .- Five inches of snow fell during the storm Monday. The canal is filled with boats tied up.
ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 27.—A high gale prevailed here and six inches of snow fell. It was followed by a driving sleet storm. A few boats are being hurried through the canal on their final trips, Newburg, N. Y., Nov. 27.—The gale which set in Sunday morning continued through the day and night and until late last evening. The steamer Brett, from New York, had a hard time and could not make any landings. The bumboat Annex, loaded with fruit, sank at her dock.

DANVERS, Mass., Nov. 27 .- The storm has been the most violent ever known so early in the season. A hurricane was blowing and the snow drifted to a height of three or four feet. Telegraph and telephone communica-tion is interrupted and horse cars have been abandoned. Trains are on time, but double engine service is brought into requisition.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 .- Only three vessels were reported at the barge office yesterday. After 1 o'clock all telegraphic communic à tion between this city and quarantine was cut off, owing to a break in the wires. All day long a heavy wind prevailed, rendering navigation in the bay very dangerous.

Daniel C. Chase, superintendent of the Delaware and Raritan Canal Towing company of the Pennsylvania railroad, whose tugs were towing the barges from Perth Amboy, Sunday, when they sank in the lower bay, said yesterday there were twenty-one barges missing ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 27.—A great amount of property has been destroyed here, amount of property has been destroyed here, and it is thought that the total damage will exceed $100,000. Many pavilions and bath houses have been swept away, as has also about one mile of board walk. The Half Way house, about one mile below the city, has been tipped over. Many families have lost all their effects. People who live near the beach have fled from their houses. The meadows near the city are flooded, and the railroad tracks are completely submerced. railroad tracks are completely submerged.

Trains have discontinued running. There are large piles of debris on the beach, and it is impossible to estimate the amount of damage done on land and water.

The general term of the New York supreme court has decided that the Bell Telephone company must pay taxes on its business and property in the state.

Charley Mitchell has got himself into a dilemma by his bluff offers to Jack Dempsey. Of course the latter scorns them, but John L.
