TERMS:—One year, $1.50, when paid in advance. Those in arrears subject to previous terms.

Advertisements 20 cents per line for 3 insertions, and 5 cents for each subsequent insertion.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURSDAY, NOV. 29, 1888.

LOCAL ITEMS.

—Quite a number of this section attended court this week.

—This is turkey day—see that your gobular is on the table.

—Mrs. Wm. Klinefelter, of near Tusseyville, died on last Thursday afternoon, of pneumonia.

—Friday night the fine barn of John E. DuBois, at DuBois, was burned. Loss $40,000, no insurance.

—The Centre Hall and Bellefonte post offices are giving Harrison much worry, and it may be the death of him.

—A fellow stopping over night with John Bressler, in Rebersburg, repaid for the kindness by stealing $7.00 from Mr. Bressler.

—John Neff, a charge of Potter township, died at Peter Hoffers, on the 14th, and was interred at the cemetery in this place.

—Pedestrians have the right of way over street crossings and they should promptly arrest those drivers who interfere with their rights.

—Edward Bottorf, living with James Lingle, near town, while cutting wood, was unfortunate enough to receive a severe gash on the foot with the ax.

—J. David Meyer and Wit McCormick, of this place were down in the Brush Valley Narrows, last week, after deer, and returned with nothing but "buck fever."

—The Modes of Boalsburg, were out last week after deer, and returned with three of the fleet-footed tribe. The Modes go out every season, and always return with game.

—One of our exchanges says:—J. W. Murray, of Milesburg, snared 48 rabbits in three nights, and violated the game law just that many times, for snaring rabbits is prohibited.

—Mr. George Beers, of Buffalo Run, died on Monday morning at 5 o'clock. His death quickly followed that of his wife, which occurred about six weeks ago. Mr. Beers leaves eight children, five married and three single.

—It is said that the Overseers of the Poor in Philipsburg and Snow Shoe have depended upon some of the better men in those places and appropriated the funds and that the paupers in their charge will live on the top shelf this winter.

—In a row at or near Philipsburg, on Saturday, during a wedding, a man was shot and died on Sunday. The murderer escaped. Centre county is likely to have a hanging if he is caught. The trouble was among a lot of Hungarians.

—Landlord Meyer and Wit McCormick went to the Brush Valley Narrows on a deer hunt and returned again on Saturday evening. We did not smell the sweet savor of venison in the atmosphere of Centre Hall, however, altho they report deer plenty in that territory.

—At the sale of the estate of John Hoffer, dec'd., at Bellefonte, on Monday, Wm. Wolf, of this place, purchased the tract of mountain land near this place, containing 80 acres, for $70. John Arney bought the tract adjoining his farm, containing about 20 acres, for $240.

—Sharps have discovered that a handsome income is possible by traveling through the country and making complaint against farmers who do not comply with the law relative to the cutting down of Canada thistles. Half the penalty goes to the informer.

—Chas. Arney hauled several loads of gravel on the Diamond in front of Spangler's meadow this week, and it would not be a bad idea if the whole diamond were filled up about 1 foot, as after each little rain on account of improper drainage, the water gathers in ponds from 6 to 10 inches deep.

—Several days ago a pack of dogs brought a deer into one of the fields at Ed. Wagner's house, near Sigleville, Millin county. None of the men being about, Mrs. Wagner ran into the house and got a rifle, but, seeing the dogs catch the deer, she called to the hired girl to bring her a butcher knife and with it she cut the animal's throat.

—Our obliging station agent, Arb. Katherman, has received a promotion, and will go to the company's office at Williamsport. We understand that Frank Bradford, agent at Paddy Mountain Tunnel, will be transferred to this place, and take the position vacated by Mr. Katherman, who will take his departure about the 1st of December. Sorry to have him leave us.

—A time table was issued on the L. & T. R. R. and the company had concluded a passenger train on Sunday from Montandon to Bellefonte, and return, but was abandoned for some reason or other. The train would have been a great convenience to the public. No change is made in the time of the passenger trains, and only affects the freights.

—The presidency of Bucknell University has been formally declined by Professor George M. Phillips, of West Chester. G. G. Groff, LL. D., professor of natural sciences, will act as president during the ensuing year, and J. H. Hyslop, Ph. D., of Johns Hopkins University, will teach psychology, anthropology and ethics, the branches usually taught by the president.

—The scene in court on Wednesday created by Mrs. Haas and daughter, upon sentence being pronounced for violation of the liquor laws, was a pitiable sight, yet there was no wiping out the law. The daughter was frantic over the paralyzing effect the sentence wrought upon the mother. We hope that the sad spectacle will at least have the effect to lesson this class of violation of the statutes.

—We learn with regret of a fearful condition of affairs in Black Log Valley, Juniata county. Since the September Term of Court, some as yet undiscovered miscreants have poisoned a horse, burned fifteen tons of bark, piled up and ready to be hauled to market, and on the 30th ult. burned the barn and on the 31st Mr. Opper with all their contents. Mr. Opper's loss will foot up several thousand dollars. It is reported also that his life has been twice attempted.

COURT.

Court began on Monday, Judge Furst presiding. David Rhinesmith was appointed foreman of the grand jury. A number of "infant" cases were on the list and disposed of as usual. The case of Kurtz vs. Rhone for services rendered in printing for campaigns of 1884 and 1886 was taken up Monday afternoon and closed Tuesday morning. Jury after being out near an hour rendered a verdict for defendant. The audience rendered a verdict of "small potato."

D. Rhinesmith, charged with misdemeanor as overseer of poor, was before grand jury Tuesday afternoon. The Millheim and Coburn turnpike company was returned last term for bad condition of road. There was no appearance on part of company, and its recognizances were declared forfeited. Case against Rhinesmith, overseer, was tried Tuesday afternoon.

In the case against overseers Rhinesmith and Smeltzer, for neglect of Mr. Flory, a pauper, the jury found a verdict in favor of Mr. Reinesmith and against Mr. Smeltzer.

On Wednesday morning widow Haas, of Rebersburg, for violation of liquor law, having been found guilty at May term, and sentence suspended, pleaded guilty to the second offence, and was sentenced by the court to pay costs, a fine of five hundred dollars, and three months imprisonment. The old lady fell into a swoon when the sentence was pronounced and a scene in the court room followed. The daughter, who was present, wept and shrieked, and it was some time before the old lady could be removed from the court room.

The case of the Millheim pike company was tried next.

The jury rendered a verdict against the Millheim pike company.

In the libel suit of Shoop against the Reporter, a nolle proes was entered, the parties in the case afterwards mutually signing disclaimers, as to matter complained of.

THE BOY ORATOR.

The high expectations of a splendid audience which assembled at Tucker Hall last night to hear Ralph Bingham, the boy orator and musician were not in the least disappointed. Numerous favorable notices of the press had given reason to expect something nice and entertaining, and young Ralph showed his reputation to be richly deserved. He is an intelligent looking, handsome youth of about 17 years, and is naturally a thorough elocutionist; appearing in character delineations of pathos and humor with equal ability. Though only a boy he had perfect control of his audience and gave an entertainment of probably more interest and enjoyment than any one has ever given in Raleigh before.—The News and Observer, Raleigh, N. C.

Master Ralph Bingham, a natural born orator, will give an entertainment, Saturday evening, Dec. 1st, in the Evangelical church, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

THE SUNDAY TRAIN.

Of late there has been more or less of an excitement along the line of the railroad as to the possibility of having a passenger train run from Montandon to Bellefonte and return. The movers of the project in Bellefonte have secured about 3,000 signers to a petition which will be presented to the Superintendent asking for the train, and there is also much favorable comment along the line.

The Co had a new table issued with a Sunday train scheduled and to take effect last Sunday but for some reason or other, the train failed to materialize. The running of such a train would greatly convenience the public in general. We could have our Sunday morning papers by about eleven o'clock, where we now have to wait about 24 hours later. We hope the project will receive the proper encouragement and expect ere long to see the train going over the line.

SAWMILL BURNED.

The sawmill of Jacob Meese, in what is called the Kettle, in the 7 mts, was burned on Friday afternoon last. The mill had only recently been put in there, and was a shed house. The mill not having been in operation on that day, the origin of the fire is a mystery. Loss about $100—no insurance.

DEATH FROM A FALL.

Mr. John L. Musser, of near Pinegrove Mills, aged about 74 years, on Wednesday of last week fell from the haymow of his barn, striking the barn floor with his head, and was instantly killed. Mr. Musser was a highly esteemed citizen of that section.

WINTER IS HERE.

Winter has set in with cold and snow. All last week the atmosphere was below the freezing point, preceded by about two inches of snow. On Sunday night, 25, there was another fall of snow, which was near three inches in depth Monday morning with every indication for more during the day.

FALL AND WINTER.

Get a new suit and overcoat from Montgomery & Co., Tailors, Bellefonte. They are so much cheaper than ready-made clothing. They have also a full stock of Hats, Caps, Umbrellas, and Gentlemen's Furnishings.

MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors, Bellefonte.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

There will be service in the Lutheran church, of this place, next Sabbath evening, at the usual hour.

—This was another disagreeable week.

—Fall and winter stock of clothing at the Philad. Branch.

—Leeche's potatoes are frost bound—can raise 'em by blasting.

—Fall and winter stock of clothing at the Philad. Branch.

—Hunting is good up Salt river, only can't find right kind of majorities.

—Ladies' coats, an immense stock at lower prices than ever, at Meese's store, Bellefonte.

—A number of small articles were stolen from our house and stable a few days ago.

—Buggy whips, horse blankets and robes at Boozer's harness rooms, Centre Hall.

—Howard Homan has secured a job at carpentering on the new armory building at State College.

—The reputation of the Philadelphia Branch for cheap clothing is an established fact and can't be touched by

THE LIBEL SUIT.

The libel suit of Shoop against Reporter ended by entering a nolle proes. The parties to it subsequently putting brief disclaimers in writing. This ends a long series of endeavors to bust the Reporter by a small knot of restless individuals, running over a period of several years. The busting happened to fall in other directions however, and it is only to be regretted that innocent parties were led to pull chestnuts out of the fire for others and unnecessarily got themselves into lawsuits before becoming aware that they were being made cats paws only. We say, this about plays out the last card in this discreditable work.

HONORS FOR MILES TWP.

Willis R. Bierly, a native of Rebersburg, now in Dakota, bids fair to become one of the rising statesmen of that distant territory. A Williamsport paper says:—

"The Democrats of Dakota will petition Congress to admit that Territory as a State. W. R. Bierly, Esq., a former resident of Williamsport, will present the claims of Dakota at Washington. It is understood that if the admission is made Mr. Bierly will be given a seat in Congress as a delegate from North Dakota. Mr. Bierly possesses all the necessary qualifications of a legislator, and his friends in this country would be pleased to learn that he had been successful in his present undertaking."
