Tinsel to a ball.—Garman. Have you seen those big spoons of thread?—Garman.

Mrs. Miller, wife of Rev. Miller, is seriously ill. A harness was stolen from Mr. Kennedy's stable a short time ago.

Linden Hall will have a musical convention, commencing on Monday Dec. 31.

Toilet cases in leather and metal fittings at J. Zeller & Son's drug store, Bellefonte.

The Teachers' institute opens next week at Bellefonte, and promises to be more interesting than formerly.

A Mr. Smith, of near Tusseyville, which one, we cannot say, killed a porker which weighed when dressed 490 pounds.

Mr. Michael Stiver of Potters Mills, of whose sudden death we made mention in our former issue, was buried in the cemetery at Centre Hall, on 6th.

A farmer from Harris township, writes us there could be nothing more just than the exemption of live stock from taxation, as suggested in the Reporter.

On Wednesday afternoon Gottlieb Haag, selling liquor to men of intemperate habits, was called up for sentence, and received the following: Fine $200, costs and 25 days in Co. jail.

For nice fresh groceries, for the Holidays, go to Sechler's, who have the largest and best assortment in the county. If you desire a first class article for the table, Sechler's always have it.

We are in receipt of the Altoona Daily Tribune, and find it one of the best daily papers in the state. The Tribune will reach any portion of our county on day of publication, and brings the latest news.

The little town of Eagleville, this county, is sorely distressed by the ravages that diphtheria is making in its midst. Several children have already succumbed to the dread disease, and many are now lying at death's door.

We are informed that seven turkeys and some twenty chickens, were stolen from D. C. Keller, some nights ago. Some fellow is getting himself in shape for the penitentiary, as there is more thieving reported in this neighborhood.

The agitation for a Sunday train does not promise to result in anything—there is a strong public sentiment against it as a disturber of the Sabbath. Besides the railroad company hardly thinks it would pay, and that alone will decide the matter. Then there is no necessity for it either.

Judge Fell, of Philadelphia, in a Brooks law case, said: "To sell a meal, including in the price of which is the price of a glass of beer, is as much violation of the liquor law as to sell openly over a bar without a license," and Jimmy Dugan, in the language of his patrons, got it in the neck from the jury.

Considerable stealing of poultry and other things seems to have been going on again of late. As there is well founded suspicion as to the guilty ones, we see a chance ahead for some one getting to jail before a great while. One person just failed to empty a shotgun on the thief by being a few minutes too slow.

Dale & Co., of this place, have opened their line of holiday goods for the inspection of all. It consists of a fine line of toys, china and glass ware, etc., suitable for Xmas presents. They have received a fine lot of confectionery which will be sold very cheap. In buying Christmas presents don't fail to give them a call.

Henry Emerick, of near Farmers Mills, is suffering from the effects of a sore toe, which has caused his leg to become swollen and inflamed, with danger of blood poisoning resulting therefrom. What makes the affliction all the more distressing is the condition of Mrs. Emerick who is said to be helpless from rheumatism.

Tuesday was grand army day for this district at Bellefonte. The morning trains brought loads of veterans, some of the prominent ones being Thomas J. Stewart, adjutant general of the road Army of the Republic and secretary of internal affairs; Post Department Commander Cull W. Hazzard, Department Commander Frank Magee and others. A business meeting was held in the afternoon, followed by a camp fire in the evening.

If you desire your boy to have a Christmas gift that will last him to the end of the year, get one of those handsome suits for him, for which there is such a great rush at Lewins, Philad. Branch. The stock of clothing for men and boys, is astonishing, and every piece honest goods, and lower in price by 25 per cent. than elsewhere. Lewins leads and keeps up his old reputation for honest goods, lowest prices and latest styles.

Peter Hoffer intends buying a large quantity of lime burned for his farm on the top of Nittany mountain, which he expects to put in first class condition. It is about time our farmers resort to liming their lands, and thereby insure larger crops and at the same time enhance the market value of their farms. Lime has done much to make Buffalo valley farms what they are. Coal can now be had cheap, since it is brought by rail, and we have an abundance of the best of limestone.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, a large number participated at Communion in the Luth. church, last Sabbath. Rev. Finckle, of Harleton, preached a very appropriate sermon. Rev. Fischer, the pastor, was also able to be present. At preparatory service, and before the commencement of communion the church debt, and $825 were raised, leaving a balance of $375 to make up which was expected to be forthcoming from absent members during the week.

DEATH OF GEN. W. H. BLAIR, OF BELLEFONTE.

At 11 o'clock on Friday morning last, General William H. Blair, one of Bellefonte's most prominent citizens, dropped dead at his home from heart disease. He was 78 years old. His record has been an honorable one. At Antietam bridge, in face of the commanding position of the rebels from the bluff beyond, Colonel Blair advanced to the front of the Ninth Corps Volunteers to cross the bridge and was followed by the troops, who succeeded in driving the enemy from their stronghold back to Antietam. He was highly commended for his bravery on this occasion, and in 1865 was commissioned brevet brigadier general.

He was a member of the 5th, 51st and 179th Regiments of Pennsylvania Volunteers. He has been closely associated with Ex. Governor Curtin during the latter's political career, served as legislator, and district attorney, and in 1855 was appointed by President Cleveland a member of the Board of Visitors to West Point. A few months ago, after being a widower for years, he married Miss Calder, of Harrisburg, who with his son, Mr. Frank Blair, of Bellefonte, survive him.

He identified himself with the best interest of Bellefonte, and was conspicuous in the April Court for his earnest efforts against the applicants for liquor license. He was considered the leading lawyer on land cases at the Centre county bar.

BORONOVSKY CLAIMS HE ACCIDENTALLY SHOT CASSIDY.

Bellefonte was in a state of intense excitement when the train arrived conveying murderer Boronovsky in charge of Captain Clark, of Phillipsburg. An immense mob followed the detective and his prisoner to the jail.

Soon after the arrival at the jail, Lewis Glot, an interpreter, interviewed Boronovsky, who told him that on Sunday, November 25, during the Hungarian jubilee at Enterprise, Cassidy approached the crowd with a revolver in his hand, whereupon he asked if it was loaded and received "No" as a reply. He said that during the handling of the revolver it was accidentally discharged, effecting the fatal result. When interviewed again this morning by the interpreter, the prisoner said that he had no ill-feeling against Cassidy and that if he shot him it was accidental. Cassidy before he died is reported to have said that he knew no reason why Boronovsky should shoot him, as he had never crossed him in any way. The murderer after the shooting shaved off his mustache and endeavored to disguise himself in various ways.

District Attorney Meyer, assisted by County Solicitor C. P. Hewes, will carry on the prosecution, while E. R. Chambers, assisted by W. F. Reeder and W. E. Gray, will defend the prisoner.

DEATH OF MRS. JONATHAN KREAMER.

The family of Jonathan Kreamer, of Valley Falls, Pa., formerly of near Rebersburg, has again been visited by the grim messenger of death, and has left only one member out of six behind, Mr. Kreamer being now the sole survivor. Their four children, all near grown, were taken off at different periods, and on Friday last 7, the mother was called off. We did not learn the cause of her death, but no doubt remove over her afflictions did much to bear down Mrs. Kreamer. She was a daughter of Judge Strohecker, and aged about 60 years. The numerous relatives and acquaintances of Mr. Kreamer, in this valley, will lend their deepest sympathy to the father and only survivor.

AN IMPORTANT SUIT DECIDED.

A verdict was given for the defendant in the suit of the Tyrone Mining and Manufacturing Company against James Cross and others, heard before Judge Simonton at Harrisburg, at Bellefonte. The trial excited a great deal of interest, as it involved nearly half a million dollars. It was to decide the location of certain warrants granted in 1887 and in which were located valuable ore beds. The suit contained many fine legal points. This was the second time it was tried, having been returned from the State Supreme Court to be retried. The verdict is a reversal of the previous verdict.

Teachers are welcome to call and examine our stock.—Garman.

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL BURNED.

The Central State Normal School building at Lock Haven was totally destroyed by fire on Sunday afternoon. One hundred boarding students, most of whom were in the building at the time, were safely removed. The building cost $150,000. The insurance is said to be small. The total number of students in attendance was over 500. Many of them lost their books, clothes and valuables. The fire originated from the furnace.

PROBABLY FATAL SHOOTING AFFAIR.

Another nearly fatal shooting affray occurred last Thursday evening at Milesburg. An itinerant peddler by the name of William Bigley, entered the house of James Campbell and made himself very offensive to one of his daughters. The women folks attempted to put him from the house when he threatened to shoot them. Policeman Butler was called to arrest him when Bigley shot at him with a revolver, the ball striking on one of his ribs and glanced off. Bigley was arrested.

HOLIDAY EXCURSIONS ON THE P. R. R.

In accordance with a time-honored custom the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will for the Christmas and New Year Holidays sell excursion tickets between all principal stations on its system at reduced rates. Holiday excursion tickets will be sold December 23d, 24th, 25th, 29th, 30th, and 31st, and January 1st, valid for return trip until January 3d, 1889.

NO GOOD.

One thing that the Centre Democrat and other Bellefonte papers seem to think more worthy of boasting than any other for that town, is that Monte Ward, an expert at playing baseball, is a native of the place. If Bellefonte has nothing else to boast of, then it has precious little glory indeed, for of all the useless pieces of humanity on this mundane sphere, a baseball player is of least account.

DR. HARLACHER DEAD.

Dr. Jacob Harlacher, of New Berlin, well known to most of the readers of the Reporter, died a few days ago, at an advanced age. He was the father of C. F. Harlacher, formerly of this place.

The public schools of this place close on the 14th inst., and there will be two weeks vacation owing to the fact that the first week the schools are closed on account of teachers annual session of institute, and the directors of this twp. passed an ordinance closing them during holiday week.

It is being rumored about town that there will be a musical convention held at this place beginning Jan. 7th. To be skilled in the art of music is an accomplishment anyone may well be proud of, but when the above art is to be taught in a hall situated on the second floor of a public school building and at the expense of annoying teachers and pupils, it is a common nuisance, and the good citizens of this place should see to it that their children's rights are not disturbed and imposed upon by an order of things that is not much of a benefit to any one.

Come to see whether you buy or not.—Garman.

John Kimpert started up a henery. He built a large house and expects to put a stove into keep them warm. He desires to have an agent or two.

It beats all how plenty the foxes are getting since there is no premium on them. Our township is swarming with them, two and three can be seen together in the daytime close to buildings. The hunters don't shoot any, if they can they want them to increase in numbers for they know that something must be done before long to get them out of the way, and as soon as they get 100 on the spot they will kill. Our legislature made a great mistake in this, in a few years we will have ten times more money for fox traps than it would take if a premium had remained on them. That would keep them down. Let us have legislation of some kind.

COBURN.

The 11th of Dec, the wedding day of Mr. James Spiler and Miss Ann Colyer, that has been long in the air for the last two weeks is past, jobody hurt, and all are well again I hope, except a few that ate too much turkey. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Stambach, of Aronsburg, in the Evan church, at 11 o'clock. The church was filled to witness the ceremony. M. Crawford and Miss Swartz, of Tusseyville, attended the couple. Mr. Bibby's bus conveyed them to and from the church. About twenty boys arrayed themselves in fantastic style and rode on horses, and escorted the party to and from the church. Everything passed off very quietly, and no disturbance was lively with lots of fun. There were about 50 invitations issued. The Spilers intended serenading them, but Spiker set up the cigars and a sextet of beer and stopped the business.

It is rumored that Mr. Saurbeck, of Bellefonte, has rented the hotel for the next year.

Business is a little dull at present, the roads being too bad for hauling. The pike co. is busy repairing their pike.
