honestly admit that they can't cure Rheumatism and Neuraigia. Others say they can but—don't. Ath-lopho-ros says nothing but—cures. That's the secret of its success. Years of trial have proved it to be a quick, safe, sure cure.

In my own family Athlophores was used as a last resort, the user having suffered from rheumatism for years and having been treated for the disease by different physicians in this State and Massachusetts without even temporary relief. Upon my recommendation scores of people have used this remedy with the same results claimed for it. C.H. Wilson. Dubuque, Iowa, Jan. 3, 1888,

The following is an extract from a history of Philadelphia, just published.

"This institution has been exceptionally fortunate in the success of the students who have graduated therefrom . It is no marvel that the Peirce College of Business Diploma carries a warranty of efficiency that makes its graduates eagerly sought after by the leading business men of this and other cities."

It is doubtful if very many Philadelphianss even know the extent and importance of its clientage and the results of its training, outsid of the facts that may be gleaned from the roll of students annually published. Send and get one of its Annual Announcements and a copy of its Commencement Proceedings, that you may be introduced to it, and establish a speaking acquaintance with its results. ## CONGRESSIONAL RECORD.

The Senate Through with the Tariff Bill.

PASSED BY 32 YEAS TO 30 NAYS.

Doings of a Week in the Senate and House. The Vote on the Tariff Bill in the Senate-It Reaches the House-Referred to the Ways and Means Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23,-The senate debated for the last time the finance committee's substitute for the Mills tariff bill, and 8:05 last evening passed it. At 11:30 the senate took up the tariff bill, the pending question being on the amend-ment of Mr. Reagan to the wool section. After remarks by Mr. Turpee against, and Mr. Harris for the amendment, a vote was taken and it was rejected. Yeas 22, nays, 31; Senators Brown and Payne voting in the negative. (The amenedmnt proposed to change the duty on all grades and kinds of wool to 25 per cent. ad valorem.) A proviso, offered by Mr. Vance, that no article on the wool and woolen schedule should pay a rate exceeding 75 per cent. ad valorem was rejected. Yeas 27, nays 33;

Mr. Payne voting in the negative. Numerous amendments of minor importance from the finance committee and by Republican members were adopted, and others by Democrats rejected. There were lively debates over some of them from both sources. The stocking and hose paragraph was considerably changed. There being no further amendments offered the vote was taken first on agreeing to the substitute and then on the passage of the bill. Both votes were identical (yeas 32, nays 30), as follows: Yeas—Aldrich, Blair, Bowen, Cameron, Chace, Chandler, Cullom, Davis, Pawes, Dolph, Edmunds, Evarts, Farwell, Frye, Hawley, Hiscock, Hoar, Ingalls, Jones (Nev.), Manderson, Mitchell, Mer-rill, Paddock, Palmer, Platt, Plumb, Quay, Sher-man, Spooner, Stockbridge, Teiler, Wilson (Ia.)

Nays—Bate, Berry, Blackburn, Brown, Butler, Call, Cockrell, Coke, Colquitt, Daniel, Eustis, Faulkner, George, Gibson, Gorman, Gray, Harris, Jones (Ark.), Morgan, Pasco, Payne, Pugh, Ran-som, Reagan, Turpie, Vance, Vest, Voorhees, Walthall, Wilson (Md.)—30.

The house discussed the river and harbor bill without action. WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The house discussed at length, but without action, the sundry civil appropriation bill. The senate took up the District of Columbia appropriation bill after transacting considerable routine business of no particular public interest. The bill provides for the improvement of Washington streets and other improvements. WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The senate passed three appropriation bills, pensions, military academy and District of Columbia. It also has under consideration the Sherman trust

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The speaker laid before the house the senate substitute for the Mills tariff bill. Mr. Reed moved its immediate consideration. A lengthy debate ensued by the tariff leaders, each calling out approving applause from his party sympathizers, and finally, on motion of Mr. Mills, the bill was consigned to the usual course by being referred to the ways and means committee. The general impression is that nothing more will be seen or heard of it during this session.

cussed the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill without action.

The sundry civil appropriation bill occupied most of the time of the house. The senate bill was passed increasing the pension of soldiers or sailors who have lost both hands to $100 per month. The senate concurrent resolution providing for the counting of the electoral vote on Wednesday, Feb. 13, was agreed to. Chairman Mills says he believes that the committee on ways and means will find it necessary to refer the senate amendments to the house tariff bill to the experts of the treasury department to secure computations on the probable effect of the changes proposed, and this proceeding, together with the necessary, deliberate consideration that must be given to these amendments, which make such radical changes as are proposed by the sections providing for a tariff commission and those relating to undervaluation, will take some time. Still he is positively of the opinion that the committee will be able to report the bill and amendments back to the house in season for its action this congress,

IMPECUNIOUS LITIGANTS.

A Brother-in-Law Seeks Revenge and Gets Himself in Jail with the Others. ELIZABETH, N. J., Jan. 29.-Richard Joralemon married Job Woodruff's daughter, but they did not live happily and were divorced. Joralemon was ordered to pay alimony. During the trial many personalities were used, and Mrs. Joralemon's two brothers, Charles and George Woodruff, threatened vengeance on Joralemon. Some time after they met him on a road outside the city and attacked him, but were put to flight by Job Woodruff, their father. Joralemon had the three Woodruffs arrested for assault and battery, and brought a suit for damages.

Job Woodruff was exonerated, and Joralemon was ordered to pay costs. He got $2,000 damages in his suits against Woodruff's sons, but the boys were penniless and had to go to jail. Joralemon was also locked up because he could not pay costs in Job Woodruff's

Another complication has come upon Joralemon. It is said that he can not pay his alimony, and this will probably result in his taking another trip to the Union county jail.

The Grand Army Encampment. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 26 .- The twentythird national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic is to be held in this city the last week in August. The common council and citizens have already organized to receive and entertain in a manner equal, at least, to any other city in the past on a similar occasion. Heretofore some of the comrades who served heroically and effectually in the navy have had an impression that the "land forces" received undue atten-tion, and carried off an unfair share of honors at the encampments. No such criticism will be made this year. The naval battle in the harbor and in full view from the surrounding bluffs will be made a special and most prominent additional feature, one that has not before been introduced. The committee in charge will spare neither effort nor expense to make it fully up to expectation.

Kenna's Chances. CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 29 .- In Demo cratic caucus last night Senator Kenna was nominated, all the Democrats being present. He received thirty-one votes, which is one more than required to nominate on the two-thirds rule, which was agreed to last week.

Samuel M. Felton, president of the Pennsylvania Steel company and the president of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad, died at his residence, No. 1,026 Walnut street, Philadelphia, in his 80th year. Twelve switchmen in the Nickel Plate yard

Santa Fe railroad statement, though not complete, is out at last. It makes a bad showing, indicating about $4,500,000 deficit for the eleven months covered by the statement.

Senator-elect Higgins, of Delaware, will urge Gen. James H. Wilson, of that state, upon Gen. Harrison as a suitable candidate for secretary of war. There appears to be a strong sentiment in the New York legislature in favor of revising the laws concerning newspaper libel. The funeral of the late Congressman Burnes took place at St. Joseph, Mo., yesterday.

Frank Allen, John Harrison and James
