A leading coemist of New York says: "No plasters of such meru as the Ath-lo-pho-ros Plasters have ever before been produced." They are a novelty because they are not made simply to sell cheap, they are the best that science, skill and memay can produce, and will do what is claimed for them. For sprains, aches, weakness, lameness, etc. they are unequaled.

404 Fulton St., Sandusky, O., Nov. 91, '87.

The Athiophores Plaster acted like magic. It is the best I ever trad oud I have used many kinds. Our drucylest said "plasters are all about the same "but I don't think so now. I sprained my arm and shoulder in July, and it has been painful since, but it does not pain me at all now.

"This institution has been exceptionally fortunate in the success of the students who have graduated therefrom. It is no marvel that the Peirce College of Business Diploma carries a warranty of efficiency that makes its graduates eagerly sought after by the leading business men of this and other cities."

It is doubtful if very many Philadelphians even know the extent and importance of its clientage and the results of its training, outside of the facts that may be gleaned from the roll of students annually published. Send and get one of its Annual Announcements and, acopy of its Commencement Proceedings, that you may be introduced to it, and establish a speaking acquaintance with its results. Address,

MANHOOD How Lost, How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure of Spermatorrhoea or incapacity induced by excess or early indiscretion.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' practice that the alarming consequences of early error may be radically cured pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

SOME EUROPEAN EVENTS.

A Drunken Imitator of Jack the Ripper.

HORRIBLE CRIME IN SCOTLAND.

Story of the Perpetrator-He Says He Did It While Drunk, and Yelled with Glee at the Awful Spectacle of His Wife's

Mutilated Remains-O'Brien Removed. LONDON, Feb. 12.-London was thrown into the greatest state of excitement over the report from Dundee that a murder had been committed there similar in many of its details to those which have given Whitechapel such an unenviable notoriety.

When the news arrived that the murderer had been arrested there was a sigh of relief, for most people believed that "Jack the Ripper," the east end flend, had at last been ar-

Later on, however, the murderer made a confession which proved that he is not the Ripper, but that drink had driven him to try and imitate the methods of that notorious butcher of women.

William Bury was a dealer in sawdust at Stratford, one of the Surrey suburbs of London. About three weeks ago he and his wife, Helen, left Stratford and went to Dundee, Scotland, where they took a small house. People looked upon them with suspicion, for they were continually quarreling, and Bury was nearly always drunk. About a week ago the woman disappeared. No one had seen her leave the house and no trace of her departure could be discovered. The police arrested Bury and his house was searched. In the basement was discovered a box, from which came a horrible stench. It was broken open, and in it was discovered the body of the missing woman. The head had been cut off, the legs amputated and the stomach ripped open. The whole was terribly decomposed. At once the police jumped to the con-clusion that they had discovered the Ripper himself, and the wildest excitement prevailed in Dundee, Bury had been taken to the county jail be fore the horrible discovery was made. He was still suffering from the effects of protracted dissipation, and could not at first be persuaded to say anything about his wife. At last, however, he said he wished to make a clean breast of it to one of the detectives, He claimed that he and his wife went to bed and when he awoke he found her lying dead on the floor. He was suddenly seized to do as "Ripper Jack" had done, and taking a carving knife he set to work gashing the body. The limbs he amputated with a hatchet. He said that when his work was completed he felt no shock in viewing it, but yelled with delight and proceeded to get drunk again. When he sobered up he hid the remains where found. The detectives do not believe his story.

O'Brien Taken to Another Jail. Dublin, Feb. 12.-Mr. William O'Brien was taken from the Clonmel to the Tralee jail under a strong guard of military and police. At Cloninel the escort was attacked with stones by the crowd, which had gathered to witness Mr. O'Brien's departure. The police charged the crowd, using their batons freely. At Tipperary a large crowd sur-rounded the railway station and resisted the efforts made to disperse it.

NAPLES, Feb. 12,-A severe shock of earthquake was felt here, in consequence of which Mt. Vesuvius is in a violent state of eruption.

About 8,000 people were present, including many sporting men and actors, conspicuous among them being Fred. Gebhardt, Berry Wall, Dom. McCaffrey, Jim Wakely, Maurice Barrymore, Ed. Stokes and Blakely Hall. Early in the race Misses McShane, Smallor and Oakes were hurt by falls, and were thenceforth at a disadvantage. Miss Fox fell sick and retired from the race.

Puddlers' Wages Reduced.

READING, Pa., Feb. 12.-The reduction in the wages of puddlers announced by the Brook Iron company, at Birdsboro, this county, and amounting to 25 cents per ton, puts the wages of this class of workmen lower than at any time for sixteen years. The Brook Iron company's puddlers were getting $3.25, and they are to receive hereafter $3. Previous to the panic the price of puddling was as high as $4 and $4.50 per ton, but during the hard times it fell to $3, but never
