MANHOOD How Lost, How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure of Spermatorrhoea or incapacity induced by excess or early indiscretion.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' practice that the alarming consequences of early error may be radically cured pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

Pennsylvania's Ex-Governor Attacked in the Legislature.

THE INSURANCE BILL CONTROVERSY

The Bill Defeated Amid Much Excitement-Mr. Wherry Springs a Surprise on the Senate-A Busy Day at Har-

HARRISBURG, March 27.—Gen. Hartranft's boiler insurance bill, known as house bill No. 10, was disastrously beaten on final passage in the house, it receiving but 52 votes. The measure has excited more attention than probably any other bill before the legislature this session. A brisk discussion arose upon its merits, which became personal. Mr. Baker, of Delaware, made some serious charges against Gen. Hartranit, and alleged that as the president of the board of trustees of the Norristown asylum he had violated the law in that he had insured the boilers of that institution in a company and had received a commission of 20 per cent. for it.

Mr. Baker exhibited the check in payment of this commission. He also asserted that the officials of the Pennsylvania Boiler Insurance company, the alleged beneficiary of the bill, had made oath before the Dauphin county court that it had 10 per cent. of its capital paid in when it had not.

Mr. Patterson, of Philadelphia, defended
Gen. Hartranft and the bill, and claimed that Baker, who expected to take Senator Cooper's seat when the latter became collector of Philadelphia, desired to break down Gen. Hartranft, who was a rival candidate for the collectorship.

Gen. Hartranft was present when the vote was taken and was greatly disappointed at the result. He authorized Mr. Bean to deny the statements made by Mr. Baker, which he did in the dis-

The following house bills passed finally: Providing for the assessment and valuasion of real estate, personal and corporate property for taxation for county, township, borough and municipal pur-poses; authorizing the councils of in-corporated boroughs to require the grading, paving, curbing and macadamizing of streets or thoroughfares, or parts thereof and assess the cost of the same on the owners of property abutting thereon.

The following appropriation bills were passed: For the Pennsylvania Industrial Home for Blind Women; for the Gettys-burg Battlefield association for the pur-chase of land; Hahnemann Medical College hospital, Philadelphia.

The Republican senators were surprised by the reading of the resolution of Wherry, calling on the sinking fund commissioners for a statement giving the names of the banks in which the moneys of the sinking fund are deposited and the amount in each. Senator Cooper promptly moved the reference of the resolution to the finance committee, which was adopted against the protests of the Democrats, who desired to put of the Democrats, who desired to put the Republican senators on record. Soon after it was discovered that the resolution had been messaged by mistake and that the house had not passed it.

Schuykill and Luzerne counties for employment, with disheartening results. Thousands of idle men throng the streets daily hoping for the best. Large bodies of Hungarians and Italians are leaving that the house had not passed it. that the house had not passed it.

Among the bills passed finally by the senate were the following: To permit the incorporation of savings banks and similar institutions to encourage the saving of money, without eapital stock; extend ing the provisions of the non-residents' wards act so that it will apply to trustees cestui que trusts.

The soldiers' orphans' school bill was read a third time, and was amended to conform with the bill which is now on final reading in the house. The bill giv ing the power to take by condemnation any property desired for school purposes, when satisfactory arrangements cannot be made with the owner, was also passed mum of five months was reported negatively in the house.

Mr. Wherry, rising to a question of privilege, denied a statement in The Harrisburg Telegraph that the charge he had made against the sinking fund commissioners had been inspired by the executive committee of the Democratic state committee. state committee.

Senator McAleer's bill increasing the salaries of the judges of the supreme and county courts was amended on third reading and passed. As passed it fixes the salaries as follows: Chief justice, $10,000; other supreme court judges, $9,000; common pleas judges, $8,000; judges of the Twelfth judicial district, $6,000; all others, $5,000.

Bills were passed finally as follows: House bill to prevent the exemption of property from levy and cale or attach-ment on judgment obtained for board for four weeks or less; appropriating $27,200 for the purchase of the William Penn farm, at Falls township, Bucks county authorizing fire and marine insurance companies to insure against accidents; limiting to $300,000 the amount of stock and bonds that may be issued by consoli and bonds that may be issued by consolidated or merged railroad companies.

Senator Hines' employers' liability bill was reported from the committee on judiciary general, with a number of amendments. Its application is made general and not restricted to mines. It provides that any servant or employe injured by reason of following the orders of any one delegated by the employer shall have the right of action, and no waiver of this right shall be valid.

HARRISBURG, March 29.—In the senate Mr. Mylin introduced a substitute for his resolution of last week providing for the resolution of last week providing for the investigation of state supported institutions. The recommitted ton of coal bill was reported back amended, to make the legal weight 2240 pounds, and imposing a penalty of $50 for short weight. The conference report on the nautical school ship bill was adopted. The house bill to carry out the provision of the constitution that corporations shall not engage in any other to pay their monthly bills. Callary had many creditors in New York city.

business than that for which they were chartered was reported, amended so as to make the act applicable only to the furnishing of powder to miners. The bill authorizing boroughs to construct sewage systems was reported negatively.

In the house the senate bills for the imprisonment of tramps and to prevent the spread of contagious diseases among animals, were reported favorably. A resolution was adopted recalling from the governor the soldiers' employment bill, to correct a defect in its last section. The soldiers' orphans' bill was passed finally. A resolution was adopted denouncing the assault upon Governor Beaver by Armes.
