

DON'T SCOLD

A man for grooming when he has rheumatism or neuralgia. The pain is simply awful. No torture in the ancient times was more painful than these two diseases. But—oughtn't a man to be blamed if, having rheumatism or neuralgia, he went to Ath-lo-pho-res, when it has cured thousands who have suffered in the same way? It has cured hundreds after physicians have pronounced them incurable.

FOR THE CENTENNIAL

Arrangements for the Washington Inaugural Celebration.

RECEPTION OF THE PRESIDENT.

How President Harrison Will Follow in the Footsteps of the First President, with Rather Different Environments. Seats for 19,000 Spectators of the Parade—How They Are Arranged and the Prices Charged.

New York, April 12.—The committee of arrangements of the centennial celebration of Washington's inaugural has arranged for the reception of President Harrison at Elizabeth, N. J., on Monday, April 29. The president and the cabinet officers and other official of distinction will arrive at Elizabethport from Washington at 11 o'clock in the morning. The presidential party will be received by the committee on navy and embark on the steamer provided by that committee. The line of United States ships of war, ships and steamboats will be formed in the lower bay, under Admiral Porter as chief marshal, and will be reviewed by the president. On the arrival of the presidential party in the East River opposite Wall street a barge manned by a crew of shipmasters from the Marine Society of the Port of New York, with Capt. Snow, president of that society, as coxswain, will row the president ashore. The crew of the barge that rowed President Washington from Elizabethport to the foot of Wall street 100 years ago were members of the same society. On landing at the foot of Wall street the president will be received by the governor of the state of New York, the mayor of the city and the president of the inaugural committee and escorted to the Equitable building on Broadway, where a reception and collation will be tendered him by the committee on arrangements. The reception shall last from 2 to 3:30 o'clock. From 4 to 5:30 a public reception will be given the president in the governor's room in the city hall.

On the morning of the 30th after the religious ceremonies at St. Paul's church, the president will be escorted to the foot of the city hall. The president will be escorted to the foot of the city hall. The president will be escorted to the foot of the city hall.

The president will then be driven to the reviewing stand at Madison square, and the parade, headed by Gen. Schofield, will start from Wall street and proceed up Broadway and Fifth avenue.

On the evening of the 30th the president will be escorted to the Metropolitan Opera house by the chairman of the entertainment committee, being accompanied by Mrs. Harrison Vice President and Mrs. Morton, Governor Hill and Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Jones, and will be met at the door by the manager of the hall, who will escort him to the floor of the ballroom, where he will be formally received by the mayor. The ball will then be opened by a quadrille.

Tickets for the parade go unevenly. The Worth monument stand is sold out, except 400 tickets, while less than one-half of the tickets for the stands at Forty-second street, Washington square and Chambers street have been applied for. The seating capacity of the various stands is as follows: Reviewing stand, 5,000; City Hall park stand, 5,000; Washington square stand, 3,000; Forty-second street stand, 3,000, and the Worth monument stand, 3,000, making in all 19,000. Speculators and private parties are demanding exorbitant prices for window privileges and stools on the line of march along Fifth avenue and Broadway.

Girls Burned at a Brooklyn Fire.

BROOKLYN, April 12.—Fire occurred at 1 o'clock this morning in Bushman & Lyall's jute factory, at Hoyt and President streets, where 300 girls were working, composing the night force of employees, and two of them were badly burned. The others escaped amid great panic and confusion. The building, which was valued at $400,000 is a total loss. The hands were working on harvest twine. The wind blew some of the flames into the jute and the fire spread rapidly. The factory was known as the Planet mills. The firm manufactured jute bagging, twine jute carpets, etc.

Of Interest to Pensioners.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Commissioner of Pensions Tanner to-day issued the following order which will favorably affect a large number of veterans now on the pension roll: "Where a pensioner is disabled in a hand or foot in a degree entitling him to $24 per month, under the act of March 3, 1883, such pensioner shall by reason of that fact be entitled to the rate of $30 per month under the act of August 4, 1886. This order is made to carry into effect the principle enunciated by the department on October 15, 1887, in the case of Allen Cook, and again on June 13, 1888, in case of Charles W. Harrington.

Rhode Island Is Republican.

PROVIDENCE, April 10.—The result of yesterday's election in Newport was a failure to choose the senator and the Second and Fifth district representatives voted for, and the present incumbents of those positions therefore hold over, but the Republican candidates for First, Third and Fourth districts representatives were chosen and the Republican candidates at Cranston and Bristol were also chosen, giving the Republicans a majority of 11 on a joint ballot, with one senator yet to be selected and insuring the election of the Republican ticket.

Stanley Beguiled by Royalty.

LONDON, April 13.—It is asserted that upon the return of Henry M. Stanley to England he will be naturalized as a British subject, forsaking his American adoption, and that the government will confer upon him higher honors than have ever before been conferred upon a journalist or an explorer, which two professions Stanley combines. It is also stated that the Belgian government will join in decorating and otherwise honoring Stanley.

Shad Fishing on the Delaware.

DELANCO, N. J., April 12.—The shore net fishing for shad has been begun here by Capt. Fenimore and a few shad are being caught daily. The drifters, however, are meeting with the most success, and market a number of shad every morning. The up river and creek shad are considered to have a finer flavor than those caught down the river, and there is always a demand for them at a higher price.

Drowned Her Sorrows.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 16.—The body of Mrs. John Rammage, a highly respected lady of Pitston, was found floating in the reservoir. She undoubtedly committed suicide, as she has been nearly distracted with grief, her husband having been killed last summer by being struck by lightning and later her son committed suicide.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE

Record of the Week—Several Important Measures Passed.

HARRISBURG, April 16.—The house frittered away a large portion of its time in fixing orders for the consideration of bills. Among the acts favored was that of Representative Fow requiring courts to transfer licenses of deceased liquor dealers to their legal representatives. It was made a special order on second reading for today and on final passage on Thursday by a vote of 92 to 37. The senate bill for the incorporation of Street Railway companies, negotiated in committee by the president and the governor, Representative Bently offered a resolution, recalling the resolution from the governor, providing for the attendance of the legislature at the New York centennial celebration, but the house adjourned without action.

Representative Dearden had intended to introduce a bill in the house appropriating enough money to pay the expenses of the Pennsylvania national guard at the New York centennial, but a dispatch from Governor Beaver doubting the propriety of such a step prevented him from carrying out his purpose. The inspiration of the proposed bill was the kick raised in New York against the payment of the expenses of the Pennsylvania troops. Governor Beaver in his telegram to Dearden stated in effect that in paying the expenses of the national guard of this state New York is doing what Pennsylvania has done for its troops.

HARRISBURG, April 13.—Mr. Wherry made another effort in the house to get his anti-discrimination bill a special order. He offered a resolution to make the bill a special order for Tuesday on second reading and Wednesday for third reading. The resolution was defeated by 86 yeas to 78 nays. It required a two-thirds vote to pass it. Mr. Baker offered a resolution making a special order for his bill regulating elections, providing for the Australian system of voting and other reforms. Mr. Fow sought to have an amendment to the resolution, providing that his bill for a similar purpose be considered at the same time. Mr. Fow finally withdrew his amendment, and Mr. Baker's resolution was voted down—yeas, 67; nays, 89.

Mr. Marlant called up his resolution to have his bill to repeal the act preventing the sale or manufacture of oleomargarine. After some discussion the resolution was rejected—yeas, 47; nays, 113. Mr. Thomas offered a resolution providing for a commission of four members of the house, three senators, the speaker of the house, and president pro tem, of the senate, and two citizens, to be appointed by the governor, to consider the insurance law, and all questions relating to the same, to report to the next legislature. Referred to committee on insurance.

Mr. W. S. Williams presented a resolution regarding the act which restricted the sale of corporations chartered by the state and other companies and individuals a conspiracy to restrict the output of coal, thus throwing thousands of miners and workmen out of employment, resulting in distress and suffering. The resolution provides for a commission of representatives of the miners and senators to consult with the governor and attorney general as to whether some remedy cannot be had for this evil, and to report by bill or otherwise to the next legislature. Referred to the committee on mines and mining.

HARRISBURG, April 12.—The revenue reform bill was reported in the senate from committee with several amendments. The bill to provide for the appointment of matrons in police station houses in cities of the first and second class was reported favorably. In the house the senate bill fixing the legal weight of a ton of coal at 2,240 pounds and fixing penalties for a violation of the law was reported favorably and placed upon the calendar.

Bills were passed on second reading providing for an appropriation of $5,000 to the House of the Merciful Saviour, Philadelphia; $3,000 to the Western Temperance Home, Philadelphia; $15,000 to the Gymnasium Hospital, Philadelphia making an appropriation to the Veterans Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, and appropriating $100,000 to the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences.

HARRISBURG, April 11.—In the senate the following bills passed: Allowing stevedores to be employed on a vessel under the laws of other states to hold real estate in this state; authorizing the courts to change or abolish independent court districts, and Senator Hines's employer's personal liability bill. In the house the Wherry sinking fund resolution was reported favorably. The bill to authorize a closer supervision of public schools was indefinitely postponed. The following bills passed finally: To regulate the practice of pharmacy; in regard to trust funds; to provide transportation to Gettysburg. In the afternoon the telephone bill was passed to third reading.

HARRISBURG, April 10.—The house yesterday adjourned at 10 o'clock in the morning session, till today, nominally to attend the celebration of Lee's surrender, but really to prevent the anti-discrimination bill, which was a special order, being considered. The bicycle bill and the bill defining conveyances of real estate were also passed. The senate's personal liability bill for the protection of workmen suffering injury from the negligence of employers, was, after a sharp debate, amended and read a second time. A resolution to adjourn without day May 9 was passed. The border raid resolution was passed finally.

Shot His Son for a Thief.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., April 13.—John McMinn, son of Samuel McMinn, of West Nantmeal township, in this county, was shot in mistake for a robber. A few nights ago burglars broke into Mr. McMinn's barn in which several fine horses are kept. The thieves were evidently frightened off, as some of their harness was found in the barn next morning and none of the horses missing.

Mr. McMinn and son, thinking the robbers would return, since then watched the barn very closely. On the night John thought he heard footsteps, and slipped around to the other side of the barn from that where his father was watching without the latter's knowledge. When Mr. McMinn saw the figure of a supposed robber he blazed away, and his son fell. He was shot in the breast and his wound may prove fatal.

Drowned Her Sorrows.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 16.—The body of Mrs. John Rammage, a highly respected lady of Pitston, was found floating in the reservoir. She undoubtedly committed suicide, as she has been nearly distracted with grief, her husband having been killed last summer by being struck by lightning and later her son committed suicide.
