CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS, APRIL 18.

You will find G. R. Spigelmyer's RACKET STORE in Crider's Exchange, Bellefonte. Everything under regular prices.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Miss Elsie Geiss will open her school, on Monday morning 22 inst.

D. T. Wieland, one of Harris twp's best citizens, favored the KRONKRA with a pleasant call.

Centre Hall will have no select school this summer, yet it always was a good point for such an institution.

Monday trout season opened and the streams were about as full of fishers as fish, and many came home with the usual luck.

Mrs. Kries, an old lady and widow living in Greens valley, died on last Tuesday morning. She had been ailing for several months.

The cellar is being dug for the new house which M. S. Curtis is having erected on her farm near the station. The Luces have the contract.

S. D. Gettig of south precinct has taken to reading law in dist. atty Meyer's office and we may see him climb to the top of the ladder.

Landlord J. H. Bibby, of the National Hotel, Millheim, after securing license at last Court, removed to Montandon and did not lift his license.

The college boys and the Flemings of Bellefonte had a game of base ball on the college grounds Saturday, the college team got away with the others 12 to 4.

William M. Harper's barn, in Dublin township, Huntingdon county, was burned by an incendiary on the 18th ult., entailing a loss of $3,000, with no insurance.

Our townsman, Mr. Lesher, has been offered the job of carrying the mails in Pittsburg, to and from the post office to the railroad stations. The work will require 12 horses.

John Hicks, of Buffalo Run, aged 80; John H. Gates of Scotia, 76; Hiersol Lytle, of Stone Valley, 78, and Mrs. Maggie O. Yearick, of Jacksonville, 38, are recent deaths in this county.

Our tennis players are working on their court getting it in condition. The court is one of the best in the county and no doubt our boys will do some fine work the coming season.

Messrs. Wagner Geiss and John Meyer are taking a course in mental instruction at Spring Mills under W. P. Hosterman, whose school opened last Monday with a large attendance.

The hearing before Esq. Linn relative to the two claimants to a lease of the Wimer house, resulted in favor of Mr. Smith the owner and his tenant Dr. Emerick, the other tenant having to vacate the premises.

The mountains in the vicinity of Brush Valley were on fire last week, but Friday's heavy rain extinguished it. There is much valuable timber in that section, and the fire no doubt destroyed a great deal.

A rich vein of pipe ore was struck a few days ago, on the old Goheen farm in Harris twp. It proved to be a twelve foot vein of pipe ore, with 60 per cent. of iron. The find has created no inconsiderable excitement in that section.

A fellow who cheated the printer, died. Since he got over he has been constantly clamoring for ice water, and inquired where he could get a postal order for $7.75 (the actual amount he owes on REPORTER). This is significant.

Mr. Thomas Benner died at his home near Trenton, Tuscarawas county, Ohio, on the 2nd inst., aged upwards of 80 years. He was born at Rock Forge, Centre county, and emigrated to Ohio more than half a century ago.

Rev. D. V. Gearhart, D. D., President of the theological seminary at Lancaster, Pa., will preach at the Reformed church, Bellefonte, on Easter Sunday, morning and evening. The Holy Communion will be administered in connection with the morning services.

Abram Hicks, an aged gentleman at Scotia, met with what may prove to be a fatal accident on Sunday. He was just getting into his buggy, when his horse ran away and he was thrown from the vehicle on to the hard road. Three of his ribs had become disconnected from the backbone. It is feared that he will not recover.

The son of Jackson Bush, of whose illness of pneumonia we mentioned in our last issue, died on Friday morning, aged about 19 years. He was buried at Tusseyville, Rev. Crittenden officiating. Another son of Mr. Bush was quite ill of typhoid pneumonia for the last two weeks, and his condition was high hopeless. We learn now from Dr. Emerick that his condition is more hopeful.

While Farmer Van Dyke of Muncy Hills, was plowing a few days ago he dropped his pocketbook containing $600. It fell into the furrow, and on the next trip he made around the field it was plowed under. Since the discovery of his loss the distracted farmer has been replotting the field over and over in the hope of turning up his lost property, but up to the present time he has not been successful. We guess the old fellow will have to wait until it sprouts.

New Soft Coal Roads.

A number of prominent railroad men most of whom are interested in the Northumberland Improvement Company, which owns the controlling stock in the Wilkes Barre and Western Railroad Co., have decided to build a further extension to this line. The Wilkes Barre and Western Railroad is now being constructed from Shickshinny to Watsonstown, and from Watsonstown to Newberry, which is within a very short distance of Wilkes Barre, the Beech Creek and Hudson River Railroad Company is going to extend the road.

A road will also be built from Newberry to Bellefonte, a distance of about fifty miles, and plans have been made for a road to run into the Clearfield district. When these lines are completed there will be a direct road to New York for the soft coal trade, which will save mileage and cost of hauling.

The new road from Newberry to Bellefonte is to be called the Bellefonte and Eastern. It is proposed to make it a through line and to make a traffic agreement with the Northern Central, which will give them access to the Northern part of Pennsylvania and New York.

April 30.

April 30th is the centennial of the inauguration of the Government under George Washington, and on that day in accordance with a proclamation of President Harrison the people will assemble at their various places of worship at 9 o'clock in the morning to return thanks to the Almighty and to implore the continuance of his favor upon our people and our free institutions, and to ask Providence to lead us as a nation and as individuals in the paths of virtue and righteousness.

The centennial celebration at New York on this occasion will be a great event, inasmuch as it will commemorate Washington's journey to New York, over the same route and with the same ceremonies as nearly as possible. President Harrison will stand in Washington's place for the purpose of the celebration, and if the weather be at all favorable it will be one of the most memorable occasions in the history of the Republic.

Gagged The Whole Family.

Masked men Saturday night invaded the house of Christian Yoder near Meyersdale, Somerset co., and spent several hours in torturing the old man, who was infirm and ill. They hanged him to a hook, took him down and hanged him up again, as though he were an old coat and then secured $180 and left, taking two of his best horses. The horses, however, have since been recovered at Pinkerton Tunnel.

At the time of the robbery and cruelty there were five persons in the house, a hired man and two servant girls, besides Mr. and Mrs. Yoder. On Sunday a neighbor gained an entrance, and on the floor were the two men, the wife and the two girls, all bound and gagged. It is probable that the old man was tortured to compel him to disclose the whereabouts of his money, and that they were all gagged and tied to aid the ruffians to make good their escape.

Railroad Officers Elected.

The following elections were made Tuesday by stockholders of two of the branch lines of the Pennsylvania:

Our P. O.

With the bulk of the Centre county post offices changed, that of Centre Hall hangs fire, with the certainty of a change in time for the July quarter. There has been a middle in the faction status of the applicants, which seems to need explanation, in order to get the twists out. The office hunt has more twists and dodges in it than a possum hunt or a fox chase, and with the yelp of the "hounds" and the howl of the hunters it is also rather an exciting game for the fellow citizen—pig-in-clover like.

The Mischief Maker.

One oily tongued mischief maker can cause more trouble and commotion in a community than an organized gang of thugs and horse thieves. The latter are satisfied with taking your property, and then you can protect yourself with the law against them. But there is no law that will reach the sneaking mischief makers who rob neighbors of their good will for each other, and often times steal into a family circle with their poisonous utterances, destroying the peace and harmony of a household.—E. R.

New Township.

Citizens of Ferguson township have petitioned court for the erection of a new township, on the ground that the present township is too large. The viewers appointed by court are Sam'l Slack, of Potter, Sam'l Granly of Miles and Isaac Beck, of Ferguson, who met on Thursday, 18th. The line of division is to be in at Tussey mountain, at the Huntingdon line crossing to the Whitehall road and thence to the Patton township line.

They Got the Boodle.

Shamokin, Pa., April 9.—Two strangers visited Daniel Keller's place to-day, and after proposal to purchase his farm, engaged the old farmer in a game of cards. Keller became interested and proffered $4,700 which he put up as stakes. The money was seized by the strangers and Keller was covered with a revolver while they moved off. Both escaped. One of the men represented himself as a son of J. B. Packer, of Sunbury, an old friend of Keller's.

MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors, Bellefonte.

The duck storm that last week fell upon the plains of Punxsutawney was a great deal more extensive than was at first supposed. It was a veritable deluge of ducks. Everybody admitted that they never saw anything approaching it. Mahoning Creek and all its tributaries within a radius of ten miles were literally swarming with wild ducks and geese of every species and variety.

A person who did not witness it could have no conception of the immensity of the flock. There were thousands of them. The night being dark and stormy and the snow falling fast, the birds were attracted by the numerous lights of the coke ovens surrounding Punxsutawney, and came down. Hundreds of the unlucky fowls flew too close to the mouths of the ovens, got their wings singed, and dropped into the furnaces like moths into the flames of a torch. The Hungarians and Italians got out their clubs and killed barrels of the birds. The next morning great numbers of wild ducks and geese were found in the snow and captured, and when the citizens of Punxsutawney saw that Mahoning Creek was a living mass of wild fowl every man who could buy or borrow a gun was out shooting ducks.
