Recent Deaths.

BOND VALENTINE. Bellefonte was again startled by the sudden death of one of its well known citizens. Bond Valentine died of heart disease on last Friday morning.

Bond Valentine was buried Sunday afternoon. Miss Mary Snowden Thomas of Baltimore, conducted the services, the deceased being a member of the Friends Church. The funeral was very largely attended.

REV. SNYDER. Rev. Snyder, the minister of the Bellefonte Reformed church, died at Atlantic City, on Saturday, 20. Mr. Snyder had a birth mark on one side of his face, and submitted to a treatment by electrical battery for the removal of the mark.

Mr. Snyder graduated at Franklin College and Mercersburg Seminary and preached for one year in the Reformed Church at Akron, Ohio. He then accepted a call to the Salem Reformed Church at Harrisburg, where he ministered for twenty-two years. In December, 1886, he assumed the pastorate of the Bellefonte Church and enjoyed a most happy and fruitful ministry during his untiring labors there.

A few weeks since he was laid aside from his work by sickness. Two weeks ago he left with his wife for Atlantic City, and regained health rapidly. But suddenly pneumonia came upon him, and yesterday he died. He leaves behind him a wife, a grown daughter and a young son.

MOTHER ROUSH. On Wednesday, 17, Mrs. Roush, mother of Benj. Roush, of Madisonburg, was called away, at the advanced age of 92 years, 4 months and 7 days. The funeral was held at Madisonburg, on Easter Sunday.

A letter from Kansas to relatives in this place, announces the death of Calvin Keller, son of Wm. Keller, dec'd, who moved away from here some eight years ago, first to Virginia, then to Kansas. He leaves a wife with whom he had twelve children.

Easter. Easter Sunday was a charming day; a bright sky and genial sunshine, with green fields and trees full of springing buds rendered loveliness to the festivities in commemoration of the Resurrection, the last and crowning act in the life of the Savior.

Easter was duly observed here. The Reformed church had services on good Friday, preparatory services on Saturday and Communion services on Easter Sunday, at which there was a large attendance. The ladies provided a floral decoration for the occasion.

The Lutheran church was beautifully decorated by the ladies, for easter services, on Sabbath evening. There was a large audience to listen to an able sermon, by the pastor, Rev. Fischer.

The juvenile population never fails to celebrate easter by cracking eggs and made a full hand at it as usual. It is fortunate that easter was fixed for the time of year when eggs are plenty and cheap.

Death of Mother Kremer. Mrs. Catharine Kremer, one of the most aged residents of Milesburg, died on Sunday at the home of her daughter Sarah McKinley. Her age was 94 years and 16 days. Her former home was in Millheim and she was taken to that place last summer at the time of the anniversary ceremonies, enjoying the event and being herself of much interest in that connection.

Who has them Cheers? Somebody wishes to know what became of the chairs which the last borough statement shows were paid for. Did some one pocket the pay and keep the chairs too? Where are the "cheers" for? We are told they are not now and have not been in possession of the council.

Church Dedication.

Gray's Methodist Episcopal church on Half Moon Methodist Episcopal circuit, Centre county, Rev. A. P. Wharton, pastor, was dedicated on Sunday, April 14, 1889, by Rev. E. J. Gray, D. D., president of Williamsport Dickinson seminary, whose birth place is near by.

The entire cost, including furnishing was $5,800, of which amount $2,000 was raised on the day of dedication. The church which is of brick, is tasteful and imposing in design, with beautiful memorial windows, elegant memorial pulpit, and a very good organ.

The auditorium and Sunday school rooms are separated by lifting doors, making the entire space available as one room when required. The entire building is heated by furnaces. The ladies as usual, by unflinching zeal and patient work in raising funds contributed greatly toward this splendid success.

Among the ministers participating were Rev. G. W. Bonse, who preached Saturday evening, Rev. S. G. Sarvis, who preached Sunday evening and Rev. Carver, Rev. Dr. Gray's Sunday morning sermon was a great effort, worthy of the man and the occasion. It made a fine impression.

Something New. Wouldn't give half a cent for a town that don't have something new now and then. Centre Hall is down for lots of it the end of this and all next week—it won't be a circus, nor a concert, nor an animal show, but a big lot of latest style dress goods, notions, hats, caps, shoes, clothing for summer, carpets, and the whole line of general merchandise, cheaper, better and bigger, at Wm. Wolf & Son's, than ever before or elsewhere.

Wm. Wolf is now in the eastern cities having steamers, trains and wagons loaded, with such an assortment as will astonish the natives. Look out for it; save your cash for it; lay back your produce for it; there are wonderful bargains in store for farmer, mechanic, laborer, preacher and lawyer, big and little, old and young, male and female, of all races, religions and parties.

Yes, when Wolf's get their new stock, there will be something new in Centre Hall. You bet, Don't forget.

Mountain Fires. Mountain fires are quite extensive in the valley at present; and unless a rain sets in will become widespread and do incalculable damage to timber and endanger dwellings, saw mills and fences.

The atmosphere is becoming hazy with smoke. At Woodward the "Appstump" mountain is raging with fire. Back of Coburn and west the mountains are on fire. In the Seven mountains there are big fires. The Barrens in Ferguson township, were on fire, the close of last week and much damage was being done to the timber in those flats.

April 30 a Legal Holiday. A proclamation was issued by Governor Beaver in harmony with a similar proclamation issued by President Harrison, setting apart April 30 as a day of general thanksgiving for the blessings of constitutional government, which have for a century been uninteruptedly enjoyed by our people, to the end that there may be a general cessation of business upon that day, and that the same may be regarded as a legal holiday.

Court. Court met on Monday. Hon. Samuel Frank, of Rebersburg, was appointed foreman of the grand jury. W. J. Singer, a student of Orvis, Bower & Orvis, was admitted to the bar, having stood a creditable examination. There is no business of great importance this term.

House Burned. A small tenant house, belonging to Mr. Dale, a short distance below Lemont, was destroyed by fire on last Monday afternoon, caused by a spark falling on the roof. The house was occupied by John Holderman who lost all his household goods and had no insurance.

Gets a Plum. John I. Rankin, we understand, comes in for a nice plum, under the new administration, having received the appointment of sixth auditor in the treasury department, with a salary of about $2,500 per year. John will make an efficient officer.

Locust Year. Yony Deininger assures us this is the year for the appearance of the 17 year locusts in this section of the state. We make due notice of it here, so the locusts may not forget the fact and fail to make their appearance.

Local Briefs. Curtain Poles, Chains, Hooks, Pins, &c. Garman's. See Fauble's new spring stock before purchasing elsewhere. Brown's school house, in Armagh tp., Millin co., was destroyed by fire.

When in Bellefonte stop and see E. L. Powers $3.00 dress shoe. Go to Fauble's clothing house for a fine suit of clothing, new spring styles. Mrs. Mollie Decker, wife of Sam'l Decker, of Zion, died on morning of 18 of pneumonia.

Ready-made clothing of every description and quality at the Philad. Branch, Bellefonte. It is illegal to run saw dust into streams inhabited by trout. Let the saw dust slinger bear this in mind. Simon Loeb's new clothing store, opposite the Conrad house, is the place for bargains in men and boys' suits.

Locusts $1 per pair. Garman's. Seeruecker Gingham and Percalés Garman's. Harry Kremer is in the city purchasing a stock of goods for Harper & Kremer. Horse collars from $1 up at Boozers. A Manny Mower, cheap, at C. P. Long's, Spring Mills. Potatoes are a drug this spring—hard to sell at 25 and 30 cents, with some farmers in our valley having piles on hand yet.

Penn Township.

The farmers are through sowing oats and are busy getting their land ready for corn. Frank, a son of John Harshberger, is very low with typhoid fever. Mrs. Emma Kimpert is also very ill and is not expected to live.

Miss Lizzie Blerly, of this place, spent part of last week and of this week in Brushvalley visiting relatives. There is some disease among the horses in this section. They get very stiff so that they can hardly move for several days.

There were several horse dealers in Millheim last week and offered some fine horses for sale. Last Saturday evening Adam Fansler, of Millheim, died. He was a brother of Mrs. Rebecca Roush, who died only a week before, and had lived with her for a number of years up to her death.

Dr. S. G. Gutelius built an extension to his dwelling house on Main street, into which he intends to put the post office, which he captured from his good Republican brother and neighbor. A Jew by name of Galoon is having auction in Millheim this week.

We understand Ex-Sheriff Muser is on a critical sick bed. The prohibition question is discussed rather lively, sometimes, especially if the blood gets too hot. S. D. Muser is going to vote for tariff reform in '92. Why, Sammy?

Spring Mills. Easter Sunday was duly observed by the Reformed Sunday school. The exercises consisted of singing, readings and addresses. The first address was made by James Hunkle, of this place, who is studying for the ministry at F. and M. College. Rev. Wolf made the second address.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beam died last week. Following are the ones composing the new fence company recently organized in this place, W. H. Bloom, president, G. B. Crawford, secretary A. G. Burrell, W. A. Krise, E. P. Shook, Samuel Ertle, Daniel Runke, Samuel Harter, C. J. Finkle and George Krapp. They have bought of A. J. Grove, of Indiana, the right to use and sell in Gregg township his patent stationery and also his patent portable fence.

Hon. Wm. Allison came home last Friday quite ill, but hope it will not prove serious. Miss Laura Woods, of Boalsburg, is spending a week with her uncle, S. A. Woods.

PILES! PILES! PILES! Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is the only sure cure for Blind, Bleeding or Itching Piles ever discovered. It never fails to cure old chronic cases of long standing. Judge Coons, Maysville, Ky., says: "Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment cured me after years of suffering."

Judge Coffinbury, Cleveland, O., says: "I have found by experience that Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment gives immediate and permanent relief." We have hundreds of such testimonials. Do not suffer an instant longer. Sold by druggists at 50c & $1 per box. ap21y

Bits: Wednesday morning opened with rain which will check the mountain fires. Miss Emily Alexander is having a handsome coat of paint put on her residence by D. F. Luse. John Krumblin is repainting Bartholomew's store which was scorched by the recent fire. That end is found to maintain its good looks.

Carpenters will begin work on the new mill building in a few days for which the lumber is arriving on the ground and Messrs. Kurtz & Son expect the mill to commence running in about six weeks. Wimer Wolf left for the city on Monday for a stock of new goods.
