A Strict Election Law.

AN ACT PASSED BY THE RECENT LEGISLA TURE TO PUNISH BRIBERY AT ELECTIONS.

its closing hours, did one good and praiseworthy act when it passed the measure providing for the punishment of bribery at elections. This new bill bepublished in full:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the same: That any person who shall give or promise, or offer to give to an elector any money reward or other valuable consideration for his vote at any election held for the purpose of voting on an amendment to the constitution, or any other public purpose, or for witholding the same, or who shall give or promise to give such consideration to any other person or party for such elector's vote, or for the witholding thereof, and any elector who shall receive or agree to receive for himself or for another any money reward or other valuable consideration for his vote at such election, or for withholding the same, shall be guil-ty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and undergo imprisonment not exceeding one year.

The Fence Law.

The Renovo Record, whose editor is a nember of the Leg slature, has the following to say about the repeal of the fence law: "The members and senators are in receipt of many letters denouncing in unmeasured terms the repeal of fence law of 1700. Since the passage of the bill the old State statutes have been looked up, which show that as far back as March 7. 1800, the 1700 fence law was Garis is doing the mason work. repealed as to the county of Northumberland, from which Centre, Lycoming, Clinton, Union, and other northern tier counties were formed. But on the 27th of March, 1784, another fence law was enacted, requiring fences to be built 41 feet high, the under rail to be not over inches from the surface of the ground. This act makes it obligatory for every land owner to maintain his fences so as to guard his property against the inva-sion of cattle and hogs running at large; therefore pour people will not be obliged to pen up their live stock as was supposed, after the repeal of the 1700 act."

Dog Tax.

Governor Beaver has signed the bill levying a general tax upon dogs in the Commonwealth, "and the little dogs and ITEMS. The recent State Legislature; during its closing hours, did one good and praiseworthy act when it passed the measure providing for the punishment of bribery at elections. This new bill becomes of special value at the approaching election, June 18. For the benefit of all who read this paper the bill is here published in full:

Commonwealth, "and the little dogs and all, will now have to be returned by the Assessor along with the personal property of their owners to be taxed. The new Lutheran church of this place was dedicated Rev. Mengas, of Philadelphia, and Rev. Dietzler, officiating Rev. Mengas, of Philadelphia, and Rev. Dietzler, officiating Rev. Mengas delivered a very good the dog, and the fund arising from the taxation is to go in the first instance to paying for all sheep which have been destroyed by dogs in the district; and would have come if it had not looked to seem destroyed by dogs in the district; and where no casualties of the kind have occurred then the tax is to go to the school

The principal feature of this new law, is that it provides some real congenial work for the school boards of the various the dead body of every sheep that is produced in their bailiwick, and if it is found, after mature deliberation, that the sheep has been the victim of some voracious dog, they are to forthwith make an appropriation in favor of the owner of the dead sheep for the value of the same. Of course, the school directors will be delighted with these new functions

Improvements: Yony Deininger is erecting a large stable on his premises and a large addition to one of his houses at the station.
