Beaver Speaks for Prohibition. PHILADELPHIA, May 28. - Governor Beaver presided over one of the largest prohibition meetings ever held in this city in the Academy of Music last night. Every seat in the parquet and galleries was occupied and the aisles were crowded.

Several hundred brightly dressed children occupied elevated seats on the stage and sang prohibition songs. In the course of his remarks the gov-ernor said: "I have carefully considered the question, so far as my own action is concerned. I am in no doubt upon the subject. I am for the amendment, and will vote for it on the 18th of June if able to reach the polls at my home. I can logically and consistently take no other position.

The Mystery of Mary Tobin.

NEW YORK, May 28.-Two weeks have passed since the lifeless body of Mary Tobin, of Franklin, Pa., was found floating in the bay near the Clifton boat house at Staten Island. Two weeks of stupid investigations by the local coroner, and scarcely a ray of light has been shed upon the mystery of the poor girl's death. What little has been brought to light the newspapers have unearthed, and the evidence steadily points to the conclusion that Mary Tobin was murdered and her lifeless body cast into the silent waters of the harbor to be mangled into an unrecognizable maby the paddle wheels of the ferry boats.

Jailer and Prisoner on a Lark.

WILMINGTON, Del., May 28.-James B. Toner, warden of the New Castle jail, has resigned. On Saturday night he took George Graham, who is serving a sentence for manslaughter, out of the jail and made a tour of the town. They both became under the influence of liquor and Graham wanted to whip a man in a saloon. They did not return to the jail until a late hour. The story leaked out and Toner resigned. Toner was a Democratic aspirant for sheriff last fall and was supposed to stand a good chance for the nomination next year.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The advance in coal prices made by the anthracite sales agents at their meeting in New York was generally expected. The new prices apply only to New York and east-ern trade. A meeting of the sales agents will probably be held in this city before the close of the week, and it is expected that prices for line, harbor and city trade will then be advanced. A further ad-vance will probably be made in July. The trade is improving, and the leading companies expect to do a lively business next month.
