She Tried and Knows.

A leading chemist of New York says: "No plasters of such merit as the Ath-lo-pho-ros Plasters haveever before been produced." They are a novelty because they are not made simply to sell cheap, they are the best that science, skill and money can produce, and will do what is claimed for them. For sprains, aches, weakness, lameness, etc., they are unequaled.

404 Fulton St., Sandusky, O., Nov. 21, '87.
The Athlophoros Plaster acted like magic. It is the best I ever tried and I have used many kinds. Our druggist said "plasters are all about the same" but I don't think so now. I sprained my arm and shoulder in July, and it has been painful since, but it does not pain me at all now. Mrs. WILLIS MAGILL.

CHICAGO'S MYSTERY.

No Important Progress in Solving the Cronin Murder Problem.

THE POLICE AUTHORITIES PUZZLED

Members of the Clan-na-Gael Resent the Story that Dr. Cronin's Removal Was Decreed by that Organization—No Evidence Against McGeehan—Coughlin and Sullivan the Ice Man Arrested.

CHICAGO, May 28.—The status of the investigation into the Cronin assassination is about the same as it was twenty-four hours ago. Very little progress has been made during the day.

Despite the repeated denials of the police authorities, who with some show of temper disclaim any knowledge of his whereabouts, it is definitely known that Peter McGeehan, the Philadelphia blacksmith, who is suspected of being the principal factor in the assassination, is confined in one of the dark cells beneath the detective department in the city hall. No attempt has so far been made to put him on the rack, or in the sweat box, the authorities preferring to await further developments before subjecting him to an inquisition. The fact is they are more than a little in doubt as to the ground they are treading on.

Doubt of McGeehan's Guilt.

More than one prominent official connected with the department has questioned very seriously whether any reasonable ground existed for McGeehan's arrested, and they are not backward in expressing their opinion that should the move prove a false one, it will be unfortunate to the department and for the interest of justice, as it will prove fortunate for the real criminal, to whom an hour of delay just now will be of infinite value and importance.

Coughlin and Sullivan Arrested.

Daniel Coughlin, the detective, and P. O. Sullivan, the Lake View ice dealer, were formally arrested last night on the charge of murdering Dr. Cronin. After the formal reading of the warrants Coughlin was led from his cell in the Harrison Street station, and accompanied by his attorney W. S. Forest, was taken to the Chicago Avenue Police station, where after brief proceedings he was committed to the county jail without bail.

Emphatic Denials by the Clan-na-Gael.

The statements printed yesterday that Dr. Cronin was "removed" as a result of a secret trial conducted by the Clan-na-Gael organization is emphatically resented by members of that organization. Luke Dillon, of Philadelphia, who represents the national body, issued a card to the public emphasizing this fact.

A Startling Development.

CHICAGO, May 27.—The police have been put in possession of startling facts concerning Dr. Cronin's murder. It has been clearly shown by the dead man's friends that his removal was ordered by a committe representing the Clan-na-Gaal society. Charges of traitorous conduct were preferred against him at a meeting of the Clan-na-Gael camp. He was found guilty and his death was ordered.

Le Caron Betrayed Him.

The charge was based on the statement of the British spy, Le Caron, that there were four more spies in America. When Le Caron made that statement on the stand before the Parnell commission he was ordered to give the names of the spies. He said he dared not to do it, because if they were known they would be murdered. Presiding Justice Hannen then took him into a closed ante room and in the presence of Sir Richard Webster, the attorney general, who is conducting the prosecution, and Sir Charles Russell, Parnell's attorney, Le Caron gave the names.

Clan-na-Gael Decreed His Death.

Within forty-eight hours after this news was cabled from London every Clan-na-Gael camp in America had met and passed resolutions declaring in favor of a rigid hunt for the four spies.

Suspicion, justly or unjustly, pointed at Dr. Cronin. A committee was appointed to try him. He was convicted without being given a chance to make a defense, and his assassins were brought here from other cities to carry out the mandate of the committee. The latter were chosen by secret ballot.

Burned to Death.

NORFOLK, Va., May 24.—The residence of F. C. Clark, near Virginia Beach, in Princess Anne county, was burned. He, his only two daughters and next oldest son and a niece visiting him were consumed by the flames. His wife, Miss Ella Bidgood, the governess, and two children escaped. The origin of the fire is unknown, though it is thought to be the work of an incendiary. Mr. Clark was pastor of the Loudon Bridge Baptist church, and was a preacher of note.

Laura Bridgeman Dead.

BOSTON, May 25.—Laura Bridgeman, born deaf and dumb and blind, and made widely famous by Charles Dickens in his American notes, also by many public references to her wonderful intelligence, printed in newspapers and elsewhere since then, died yesterday at the South Boston asylum, where she had long dwelt, aged 60 years.

The Volunteer Will Not Sail.

BOSTON, May 25.—Gen. Paine said to a reporter: "As far as I know now the Volunteer will not go into commission this season, as far as I am concerned. Of course, if she should be sold, it is another thing. Should she go into commission, it would take at least a month to get her in proper form for racing."

The Chicago Postoffice Robbed.

CHICAGO, May 28.—A big robbery has been discovered in the registry division of the Chicago postoffice. Eighty-six registered packages were taken from the vault in Superintendent Howard's division and no trace left. The robbery was evidently committed by some one familiar with the place.

Mr. Bayard's Wedding.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The latest bit of matrimonial gossip in the capital city is that the date for the marriage of ex-Secretary Bayard and Miss Clymer is fixed at June 12. The ceremony will be an extremely simple affair, occurring at St. John's church, and a brief wedding trip will follow.

Democratic Ticket Elected in Lynchburg.
