

THE CENTRE REPORTER

FRED. KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor

TERMS—One year, $1.50, when paid in advance. Those in arrears subject to previous rates $2 per year.

Advertisements 20 cents per line for 3 insertions, and 5 cents for each subsequent insertion.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS, MAY 30.

You will find G. R. Spigelmyer's RACKET STORE in Crider's Exchange, Bellefonte. Everything under regular prices.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Mrs. Katie Durst is having her house repainted. Heavy thunder shower Monday evening; clear and cool Tuesday. Laf. Neff was a witness at Lewisburg court, last week.

The annual G. A. R. encampment will be held at Getzsburg, commencing June 29 and continue one week.

Adam Thomas is putting up a barn for a farmer near Frederick, Maryland.

Rev. J. J. Pearce, formerly of this county, has become a resident of Lock Haven.

Lafayette Neff can boast of the finest wheat fields in this county. The secret is, he knows how to farm.

The Lutheran parsonage now looks as tasty as any building in town, having been repainted.

There was a pretty sharp frost on Wednesday morning which nipped the tips of corn and potatoes.

Come and hear Sam Small the eloquent preacher, in the M. E. church, in this place, on prohibition, next Wednesday, 5. He will speak at no other place this side the county.

J. H. Reifanyder, esq., one of Millheim's energetic citizens, gave our sanctum a call.

A superior article of cement is manufactured at Millheim by J. H. Reifanyder, which has stood the test of 16 years. For cisterns, pipes, masonry, etc., it is guaranteed first quality. No risk in trying it.

Last week's freeze did harm in the state of Indiana. The corn plants are brown and withered, and the crop will be cut short, if, indeed, wholesale replanting is not required. Wheat was also slightly injured. The weather is the coldest ever known in that locality at this season.

In Snyder county Mrs. Duck, of the vicinity of Globe Mills, died recently at the age of 93. Although she resided but a mile from the railroad she had never seen a train of cars. We doubt if there is a similar case.

If the fellow who don't believe that advertising is effective just put an ad. in the Reporter for 1,000 bushels of potatoes a 30 cents per bushel and see if he does not have 5,000 bu. offered him in less than no time.

Thomas Howard, of Lewisburg, died on the morning of May 17th, 1889, in his 78th year. There were of his family, Mrs. William Wilson, Mrs. Dr. Thomas Van Velsah, Mrs. Jane Green, Laird Howard, Thomas and David, all of whom are now dead.

J. C. Bond has a steam well drilling machine on his farm at Earlstown boring for water in time to catch on for prohibition. Should water fall him and beer be struck the latter wouldn't come in under the Amendment on account of its not being "manufactured."

A young man by name of Snyder some days ago while driving thro' town in a road cart his horse scared at some stones at the lower end of town and ran thro' the postoffice and into Wolf's woods where the cart came in contact with the trees and was considerably damaged.

Bellefonte has had more sudden deaths of leading citizens, within a few years than any town of its size we know of: Bush, Blair, Blanchard, Alexander, Wilson, Hoy, Hat, and others, and all in the prime of life.

C. P. Hewes, esq., and C. R. Kurtz of the Democrat, Bellefonte, boarded the train on Monday night for Erie, where Mr. Hewes will be married to one of the charming young ladies of Erie, with C. R. K. as his right-hand man during the interesting period in which Mr. Hewes will be made one of the happiest young men this side of Uranus; and the Reporter extends its warmest congratulations to Mr. Hewes and his bride.

Butter has gone down to 10 cents, which is cheaper than it has been for many years. Eggs are also 10 cents. We don't know that butter was so low since a drink of whiskey went up from a flip to a dime—which was before the war.

Banker B. K. Jamison, of Philadelphia, was wedded in London on Thursday of last week to Miss Jean Willard, second daughter of Charles Duane Willard, of Washington, D. C. The wedding was a great event for London. Now he should bring his bride over his old summer route, which always took in Centre Hall, and show her one of the prettiest valleys in creation.

The chief of police of Pittston arrived at Wilkesbarre with a woman who gave her name as Jennie Osborne. She was arrested at Lewisburg, charged with stealing a horse from the stable of Charles Pierce, of Pittston, two weeks ago. She says she is 25 years of age, and that her home is in Hontzdale. She was committed to prison for trial.

If you wish to ship freight from the Bellefonte station on the morning train say, why you must have it at the freight station at 4 p. m. the day before, as we are informed, or it will not go out the following morning. This is what we call immensely immense. If you want to ship freight from Centre Hall it will go if you have it at the station 5 minutes before the train arrives and Katherine won't even growl. This is what we call immensely accommodating.

SAM SMALL, OF GEORGIA.

The eloquent orator of the "sunny South," will speak on the Amendment, in the M. E. church, in Centre Hall, on Wednesday afternoon, June 5, at 1:30 p. m. Turn Out! as this will be the only opportunity afforded the people of Penna Valley of hearing this original, gifted and enterprising speaker.

Every friend of good government is urged to be present.

Hon. J. H. Orris, of Bellefonte, will preside at the meeting. Admission free. D. S. KELLER, Ch. Co. Com.

The Grocery Game.

We are informed that recently some of the farmers of this vicinity and in other parts of the county were sucked in by agents who sold groceries. The agents, it appears, represented their goods as first class and below the prices which are asked in our stores. The representations, as usual, were a tempting bait, and the agents got many orders for coffee, tea, sugar, etc. Now the goods came on, and there is a howl like that when the outa swindlers played their game upon our farmers. The groceries are said not to be as represented by a long shot, and farmers and others find they paid $10, $15 and $25 for goods that in our home stores could have been had for $6, $10 and $18, or less.

When will people learn to mistrust the strangers who continually come around to suck them in with some new game? The Reporter has so often warned against these chaps, yet some will get bitten always. Let others beware of agents who are out selling groceries and take care they are not sucked in, now that the thing has leaked out.

The New Mill.

The new mill of Kurtz & Son, at the station, was raised to-day, Thursday.

The firm think that in three weeks the mill will be ready to take in custom work and all kinds of grain.

Death of Harry Hale

Harry S. Hale died in Bellefonte Friday morning of heart failure. At the time of his death he was lieutenant colonel of the Fifth regiment, National Guard of Pennsylvania, his resignation, which he tendered a few days ago, not having been accepted. He was mayor of Bellefonte for several terms, a Freemason and very high in the order. He was a son of Dr. Hale, and aged 35 years.

Local Briefs.

The cold snap of last week did no harm in this section.

Extract of Vanilla, wholesale and retail, at Murray's.

The worst enemy that a progressive town has to fight is the indifference of some of its most respectable citizens.

Read Fauble's flaming ad, in Reporter and give him a call.

Cleve Dingee paid his home one of his usual flying visits.

Hon. S. Gilliland was in town the other day.

See Fauble's new spring stock before purchasing elsewhere.

Overcoats were needed last Monday—it was damp and chilly.

See Fauble's stock before purchasing.

The Centre Democrat says another batch of rank Hungarians arrived in Bellefonte on Wednesday morning.

Rochester Clothing House, Bellefonte, for fine clothing.

Rev. Sam Small is expected to lecture on Prohibition in Bellefonte, next week.

Fall and winter stock of clothing at the Philad. Branch.

Miss Grace Lukenbach, of Bellefonte, is visiting her cousin, Miss Tacy Kreamer.

All kinds of fly-nets, light and heavy, cheap too, at D. A. Boozers.

Misses Jennie Kreamer, Annie Mingle and Mame Meyer spent several days in Bellefonte this week.

Ready-made clothing of every description and quality at the Philad. Branch, Bellefonte.

Our genial young friend McClinton, chief clerk in Kessler's store at Philadelphia, is over on a visit to his parents at Centre Hill, and gave us a hand-shake.

Simon Loeb's new clothing store, opposite the Conrad house, is the place for bargains in men and boys' suits.

In spite of all competition Lewins continues to take the lead in ready made clothing, low prices as well as quality of goods. He gets ahead of all, sells more than all, pleases all, and fits and suits all.

If you want a good fly-net, light or heavy, cheap, go to Boozers's saddlery.

Mrs. Wolf, widow of Paul Wolf, dec'd., of Miles, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jacob Dingee. She is now 81 years of age.

Dale & Co. are offering their fine stock of goods at cost; an excellent opportunity for bargains. See ad. in another column.

Andy Immel spent Monday in our town and as soon as he left the sky became clouded. Andy is a character in the eastern end.

A new fish law just signed by Gov. Beaver, gives wardens the right to destroy fish dams, baskets, etc., and authorizes them to arrest persons guilty of violating the law on sight. Heretofore a warrant was necessary, and many offenders thus escaped.

Murray's Extract of Vanilla is far cheaper and preeminently superior to any other make.

Governor Beaver has signed the hawkers and peddlers' bill. It absolutely prohibits the hawking and peddling of foreign or domestic dry goods without a license, except that manufacturers may sell articles of their own manufacture without a license.

There is no better extract of Vanilla than Murray's.

The foundation for the new Reformed church at Zion, is about completed and the exercises for dedicating the corner stone will take place some time next month, June.

Fauble keeps the finest stock of ready made clothing in the county and cannot be undersold by any competitor try it.

The Picnic.

Mr. Danberman of this place, a member of the Grange picnic committee, informs us that the committee is already planning for the great fall gathering, next September, and will leave nothing undone to make it a greater attraction than last year.

We would advise keeping it up at least one week. The railroad is now posted on the facilities needed to transport the thousands who will attend the great gathering which will combine pleasure and profit.

A Word to Voters.

The voters who changed their places of residence since the September registration, in order to vote on the Constitutional Amendment in June must have their present residence in the election district where they intend to vote certified, to be a qualified voter of the said district when they deposit their ballots. Those voters who failed to pay a State or county tax within two years from June 18 will lose their votes.

The Sick.

We are sorry to learn that Col. Robt. McFarlane, of Bellefonte, is quite ill.

Adolph Loeb, of Bellefonte, his many friends will be pained to learn, is quite ill again, and fears are entertained of his recovery.

Mrs. Giferer, of this place, is also on the sick list, of rheumatism.

Ed. Hosterman, of Miles, is seriously ill, from a disease of the stomach, and a younger brother, who, some 3 months ago had an injury to one of his knees which seemed to be healed has found the part to be getting troublesome again. Both are sons of our friend John Hosterman.

Mrs. Benj. Roush, of Madisonburg, is seriously ill, with little hope of recovering.

RR. Wreck.

The east bound freight on Monday morning was wrecked at Inzleby, 2 miles east of Coburn. On one of the cars a man with props the end gave way while the train was in motion and the heavy sticks of timber rolled off and came in collision with the train; four cars were completely wrecked and about 60 rail lengths of the track torn up. The down and up trains, passenger and freight, were delayed until 9 o'clock at night.

Gr. Meeting.

Evangelical Quarterly Meeting at Tusseyville, June 1 and 2; Communion on Sabbath forenoon.

There are several "don'ts" which should be observed whenever two or more women are gathered together, but which, alas! are frequently disregarded. For instance, don't say to a friend, "How stout you are growing!" No lady likes to be told that she is growing or has grown stout. If it be a fact she is doubtless quite well aware of it, and anxious to keep others from discovering it. Don't say, "How thin you are!" either, for both women and men loathe to be told that they are either stout or thin. Unless you can say, "How well you are looking!" it is better to make no remark on the personal appearance of a friend. Don't tell a friend who has on a particularly becoming gown or bonnet that she looks ten years younger in that than in anything you have ever seen her wear. Don't tell her, either, that it is the most becoming thing you have ever seen her wear. That is an impeachment of her taste heretofore, though you probably have no such thoughts.

Amendment election, June 18.

Fauble's line for easy made clothing is complete in every particular, and cannot be beat by any dealer in the county.

On Wednesday the State Department chartered the Farmers' Bank of Millinburg, with a capital of $50,000.

For cheap clothing go to the Rochester clothing house, Bellefonte, largest stock in town.

Green Yearick of Philad., and Ph. Meyer of Lindenhall were in town, Wednesday, also D. S. Keller and Cal. Harper in the interest of prohibition.

For bargains in notions, fancy goods, and ladies' furnishing goods, go to the Cash Bazaar, Bellefonte.

Rev. Laurie, of Bellefonte, will speak in the Evangelical church, of this place, Friday evening, in favor of Prohibition.

Get your boy a nice suit at Lewins and save a couple of dollars thereby. The largest and best assortment of spring suits, latest styles ever brot to Bellefonte. Lewins leads in ready-made clothing for men and boys.

Malin is the way the next postmaster of Bellefonte will spell his name, and there won't be a Fiddler at the swearing in.

Simon Loeb's new clothing and gents' furnishing store, opposite the Conrad house, is the busy place now. Bargains is what draws the people.

Luce is putting down his new flagstone pavement.

When in Bellefonte stop and see E. L. Powers $3.00 dress shoe.

Come and hear Sam Small at 1:30 p. m., next Wednesday.

Another fine lot of laces and embroideries just received at W. T. Meyer's Cash Bazaar.

The largest and most complete line of suiting—row on exhibition on our counters—that have ever been shown by us. Suits made to order at the lowest prices. MONTGOMERY & CO., Tailors, Bellefonte.

Mr. William Africa of Huntingdon, drew and has received $15,000 from the Louisiana State Lottery. Mr. Africa has resigned his position as baggage master on the Pennsylvania railroad, but he does not intend because of his luck to be a sluggard or sloth in the future. He has only given up railroading to engage in other and more congenial business, and may his present good luck attend him all through future life.

What the Philad. Branch does not have in the line of ready-made clothing, it not worth having. The spring stock now on the counters is immense and goes ahead of anything you ever saw. Lewins is King for low prices.

Ice cream at James Lohr's, at 1:30.

Rochester Clothing House, Bellefonte, for fine clothing.

Murray's Vanilla—best—cheapest try it.

The Lewistown Gazette says, Robert P. Barnes, of Centre county, has contracted to handle all the mails at that place for $419 a year. A few days ago he wrote to Postmaster Uttley inquiring if he could not do it all himself with a push cart. Robert has evidently bid for "a pig in a poke," for it now requires a man and a horse and wagon, and a boy and a push cart to convey the mails to and from the various trains, and it cannot be done for the above figures.

Then cheers, a little swindle on our boro, which have caused some of our taxpayers to raise a question on it, it appears were bot by a busy body without instructions from the council, were never delivered, a councilman says there's no record of such on minutes, but that the butties smuggled thro' pay for what was not authorized, not wanted and never delivered. What's the matter with the auditors? The chairs are said to be second hand public sale stock! they might be all right and too good for some of the previous councilmen, who acted as if they stood on their heads because most of their work was blindfolded and upside down. We may get a little closer to the facts in a short time. The present council should direct that this little job be charged back.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment is the only sure cure for Blind, Bleeding or Itching Piles ever discovered. It never fails to cure old chronic cases of long standing.

Judge Coons, Maysville, Ky., says: "Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment cured me after years of suffering."

Judge Coffinbury, Cleveland, O., says: "I have found by experience that Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment gives immediate and permanent relief."

We have hundreds of such testimonials. Do not suffer an instant longer. Sold by druggists at 50c & $1 per box. ap2ly

When in Bellefonte stop and see E. L. Powers $3.00 dress shoe.

Cardinal Gibbons is an advocate of high license as against prohibition.

The Presbyterian assembly on Monday had a flurry on the prohibition question. Dr. Crosby did not take to the prohibition idea but the assembly carried a resolution endorsing it.

The produce markets are still weak.

Rev. Schure, Lutheran missionary to India, returned a short time ago; we were pleased to meet him the other day and find him looking well.

Lewins beats the state for large assortment of men and boy's clothing—and he beats the world and all clothing stores in it for low prices. There's where you save from $3 to $8 on a suit of clothes.

Robert McFarlane's hardware store in Bellefonte is headquarters for the celebrated Link Fence Wire. Having bought a car load before the recent advance in price, he is able to sell at very low rates. The link wire has stood the test of several years in our county and has proven first class in all respects. It is so easy to handle and put up and weighs a little less to the rod than any other. Write for prices.

Get a fly-net, cheaper than elsewhere, at Boozers's saddlery.

When in Bellefonte stop and see E. L. Powers $3.00 dress shoe.

STAR SPRING WATER.

Saratoga Star Spring Water for sale in bottles and by the glass by all druggists.

Sprucetown.

Mr. Harter of the Red Mill has had his mill supplied with rollers, and is now prepared to make roller flour. He has the advantage over some other mills, as he can now turn out roller flour, and also flour made by the old method.

Mr. Adam Smith of Centre Hill is making some improvements, among which is an implement shed. That is right Mr. Smith it certainly pays to keep farming implements in the dry.
