LOCAL ITEMS.

Auctioneer Goheen, of Harris, gave our sanctum a call, he is a pleasant fellow to meet. J. R. Smith & Co., of Milton, will be losers to the sum of $20,000 through the recent flood. Maj. J. L. Spangler is putting in his services at the commissary department, Johnstown. Monday afternoon we had a very heavy thunder shower. There has been some rain every day for over two weeks. Throw lime in your cellars if they were flooded and you may prevent a costly doctor bill and perhaps death in your family. We are informed that Elisha Campbell, at Millheim, does not intend to repair his grist mill, which was damaged by the recent flood. The Millintown Herald estimates the damage to Juniata county by the flood at $125,000. One half of this was done in the towns of Patterson and Millintown. Mr. H. C. Campbell, ex-commissioner, and wife have returned from five weeks trip to the western country. Mr. Campbell went sightseeing as far as the foot of Pike's Peak. Rev. J. A. Bright, of Kansas, has been appointed a delegate to the International convention of the Y. M. C. A., which meets in London this summer. Rev. Bright is a native of Aaronsburg. The main line of the Pennsylvania railroad between Harrisburg and Pittsburgh has at last been repaired and all trains are now running between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and will continue to do so. Between the bridges at Huntingdon and the town of Mapleton the destruction to property will reach $300,000. Two-thirds of this was caused by the destruction of the tannery property of H. R. Gard. A peculiar feature of the flood was that of 138 saloons in Johnstown and surrounding towns, but two escaped destruction. The Chinese laundries were also completely wiped out and a number of Chinamen are missing. The Pennsylvania Fire Ins. company, at their regular quarterly meeting, on Monday, accepted insurances to amount of $76,654. The company's business is steadily growing larger. There has been no assessment for four years. The wife of John Wagner, of Bellefonte, met with a painful accident. Her boy had brought home a dynamite cartridge, and Mrs. Wagner, not knowing what it was, began picking it to pieces. It exploded, tearing off the thumb and two fingers of her right hand. J. W. Gephart, Esq., of Bellefonte, will shortly go to Europe, in a double capacity. Gov. Beaver has appointed him one of the commissioners to represent our state at the Paris exposition, and the Y. M. C. A. has chosen him as a delegate to their International convention at London. Mr. Benjamin Baird, of Danastable township, near Lock Haven, whose barn floated away Saturday a week, found it at a point five miles down the river where it had lodged. The horses and hogs were in the barn alive and all right. The cows had been removed before the barn went adrift. A number of Gypsies, having seven horses, were encamped at Penna creek, about three miles below Sellers-grove, and when the storm came they drove into the covered bridge for shelter. While they were in the bridge it was swept away, and they and their horses were drowned.—Liverpool Sun. A babe was taken from its cradle alive at Milton, Northumberland county, which is believed to have made a journey down the raging river of at least thirty miles. Its rescuer was Lloyd Warner. If its parents cannot be found it will be given to some one for adoption. It is at the home for the friendless in Williamsport. The hum of the locust makes the air musical—a free concert to last for weeks. These low-concess come from holes in the ground, after a 17 years burial. The sting of the locust has been found fatal, in some instances when they were here in former times. So be careful that you do not come in contact with the business end of the locusts. "The longest day, For making hay," used to be a saying of our farmers which would be the 21st, next Friday. There will not be a great deal of grass mowed this week, however, the timothy, not yet having grown large enough to be cut with the clover. Next week hay-making will engage many, no doubt. The crop will be a large one, and of good too, unless there is wet to spoil it. Daniel Dunkle and wife, of Salona, made a marvelous escape from the flood. They were carried on a house roof to Mill Hall, arriving there about 3 o'clock in the morning, the roof striking against the residence of Mr. Steam, at the upper end of town. Mr. D. broke in a window and himself and wife were taken from their perilous position by Mr. Steam and wife. Their entire journey and escape were miraculous.

SHOT BY HIS SON.

A Maniac Son Shoots His Aged Father

THROUGH A DOOR AND SERIOUSLY INJURED HIM—SECURED WITH A FIERCE STRUGGLE. Yesterday afternoon, Wednesday, at about four o'clock, a murder was committed at Greenbrier, in this county, several miles below Coburn. A son of Frances Rote, David, aged about 35 years, had been on the verge of insanity for several days, and on Wednesday afternoon, took a violent form, and threatened to kill everyone about the house, and got into his possession an old musket, which was loaded with shot. He started IN PURSUIT OF HIS FATHER, Frances Rote, aged about 75 years, who ran into the house hotly pursued by the maniac son with the musket, and succeeded in reaching it safely. He was barring the door when the maniac fired and the charge went through the door and struck Mr. Rote's hand, and in the bowels. Mr. Rote sank to the floor, and the son gained entrance to the room. The other people about the place immediately fled upon the first indication of the man's demoniac ravings, and gave the alarm, and when help was secured returned to the house, and found the son sitting on his father's prostrate body with BUTCHER KNIFE IN ONE HAND and Bible in the other, and was reading a passage from it. A kick from one of the aid sent the knife flying across the room, and he was secured, but not with out a terrible struggle. He was immediately taken to Bellefonte and lodged in jail, and proper documents will be made for his incarceration in the asylum. Frances Rote, the father, at last acc counts was living, but cannot recover from the wound, which is a severe one, receiving the full charge in the hand and abdomen.

AN AGED LADY GONE TO REST. Mrs. Magdalene Fisher, of Penn Hall, departed this life on the 13th inst., at the age of 84 years, 7 months and 15 days. She was a native of Verne township, Berks county, Pa., and 47 years ago removed from there, with her family, to Centre county. She had been a widow for more than 23 years. Of her eight children only two are still living—Major J. B. Fisher of Penn Hall and Mrs. M. M. Messer of Aaronsburg. Ten weeks ago she had an attack of paralysis from which she soon so far recovered as to be up again, but on Monday night of last week, she was stricken a second time from the effects of which she died on the following Wednesday. She was a devoted christian lady, given to prayer and the use of the means of grace with an abiding trust in the Lord. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Z. A. Yearick, at the Salem Reformed church, east of Penn Hall, on the 14th.

A CARLOAD OF AID. Philadelphia has a regularly appointed Commission to furnish aid, in money and supplies to the flood sufferers. Beginning of last week, Col. James P. Coburn proceeded to Philadelphia to present the pressing needs of the sufferers at Millheim and Coburn, and Commission agreed to send up a carload of supplies consisting of canned goods, hams, sugar, coffee, and other provisions, also some 8 or 10 cooking stoves, clothing etc. This car, no doubt, gladdened the hearts of many of the sufferers, and the supplies were shared out as each particular case seemed to merit.

FOUND. The third and last of the drowned Pfoutz children, a little boy, was found on Thursday forenoon, a short distance below Coburn, near two miles down the creek from where the house stood. The body was found near the shore, lodged among the rocks. The corpse was badly bruised and much of the clothing had been torn away. Mr. Pfoutz was one of the searching party when his little son was found. His wife and two other little children had been buried before he got home from near Westport, Clinton co.

Extract of Vanilla, wholesale and retail, at Murray's. Read Fauble's flaming ad, in Reporter and give him a call. See Fauble's new spring stock before purchasing elsewhere. Wallace White, of Farmers Mills, has received a fine new steam separator. When in Bellefonte stop and see E. L. Powers $3.00 dress shoe. Go to Fauble's clothing house for a fine suit of clothing, new spring styles. Mrs. Dr. Smith is having water piped from the street main to her residence. Murray's Extract of Vanilla is far cheaper and preeminently superior to any other make. For cheap clothing go to the Rochester clothing house, Bellefonte, largest stock in town. Mr. John Bobb, of Centre Hill, called this week. He reports crops very favorable in that section. Ready-made clothing of every description and quality at the Philad. Branch, Bellefonte. Now its Gen. Beaver, Gen. Hastings, Gen. Milliken and Gen. Spangler. Now then, bring on your next war. Simon Loeb's new clothing store, opposite the Conrad house, is the place for bargains in men and boys' suits. Mrs. W. H. Bartholomew and daughter Helen, will start on a trip to Missouri and other western states in a few days. A dollar saved is a dollar earned which can be done by buying clothes from the Rochester Clothing House, Bellefonte, largest stock of spring suits in the county.

To Atlantic City via P. R. R. QUICK TIME AND IMPROVED TRAIN SERVICE.

The outlook for the summer season at Atlantic City was never so promising as it is at present, and the prosperous City by the Sea was never in so good a condition for entertaining and amusing its summer guests. Entertainment in the sense of affording food and shelter is all that is required of the Atlantic City people. Nature furnishes the rest, and she lays sea and sand, sky and wind under tribute to aid in accomplishing her purpose. The great Seaside City of summer pleasure, resourceful as it is in all that is attractive and beneficial on sea and land, could never attain to its high standard of popularity if Nature's ally, the railroad, did not lend its efficient aid in rendering access so easy that the average traveler counts the trip as nothing. The facilities afforded by the Pennsylvania Railroad's seashore branches will be greatly improved for the coming season. They have always been maintained on a scale of liberality unapproached by those enjoyed by any other watering-place, but a progressive spirit will, this summer, be manifested in many and striking improvements. The summer schedule will go into effect on June 29th, and it will present a service of trains superior in number, speed, and equipment to that of any previous year. The roadway of both the West Jersey and Camden and Atlantic City branches have been relaid and relaid in many portions in anticipation of an improved, accelerated, and increased service, so that the new schedule will find both of the Pennsylvania's Atlantic City lines in prime physical condition. A larger number of express trains is promised, and the very quick time of transit heretofore made between the Delaware and the ocean will be materially reduced. An innovation, which hard working business men will appreciate and the residents of suburban towns and neighboring cities will find most convenient, is a late evening train from Philadelphia it is proposed that this train shall leave Philadelphia about 6.30 P. M., after all the afternoon connections are in and all business is over, and arrive in Atlantic City for late supper. It will undoubtedly prove a popular movement, and will oftentimes save much hurry and annoyance. Another new feature will be a late train up, leaving Atlantic City at 10.30 P. M. for Philadelphia, enabling visitors to spend the evening with friends and return the same night. Other fast trains will run at convenient hours of the day in both directions, so that every one may find a leaving and arriving hour to his taste. Two new trains of considerable importance have been added to the schedule within the past week—one an early morning train, designed to deliver the newspapers in Atlantic City before breakfast, and the other an early train up for the accommodation of those who would be in Philadelphia before nine o'clock. The equipment of the summer trains will be greatly improved by the use of new coaches and by the substitution of new Altoona-built Parlor Cars, such as are run between New York and Washington, for the old Woodruff Parlor Cars that which the march of progress has left behind. With these superior facilities, and the advantages offered by a centrally located station easily accessible from all portions of the city, and in direct connection with Broad Street Station, travel to Atlantic City by the Pennsylvania Railroad holds out to its patrons the strongest inducements of promptness, readiness, and comfort.

Obituary. Miss Leah, daughter of Peter Hoffer, died at home, in this place, on last Sabbath afternoon, 16th. The deceased had been lingering in delicate health for a number of years, and often under much suffering, but she bore it all with true Christian resignation. Her parents spared no means to minister to her relief, still death got the mastery, the final overruler of all. She was a true and consistent member of the Reformed church, from her earliest years. Her funeral on Wednesday was largely attended. Her age was 36 years, 5 months.

Sudden Death. Mrs. George Wolf, of Madisonburg, was found dead in bed on last Friday morning. She had complained the evening before of being unwell, but there seemed to be nothing that would create alarm. She was a middle aged lady, of lively mind, and it is supposed that heart disease was the cause of her death. Funeral at Madisonburg on Sunday. Mrs. Wolf was a native of Lebanon county.

Relief. The different relief committees now have the following number of sufferers in their charge, Millheim, 40; Penn township, 22; Haines township, 8; Miles township, 2. The contributions have been liberal, yet amount to comparatively nothing when divided among such a number, as the above are only the heads of families, and some have lost all they possessed. Murray's Vanilla—best—cheap est try it. When in Bellefonte stop and see E. L. Powers $3.00 dress shoe. If you want a good fly-net, light or heavy, cheap, go to Booser's saddlery. J. C. Brown of Centre Hill, favored the Reporter with a call. Ice cream at James Lohr's, all season. Mrs. S. H. Goodhart is having her house handsomely painted. There is no better extract of Vanilla than Murray's. Rochester Clothing House, Bellefonte, for fine clothing. All kin's of fly-nets, light and heavy, cheap too, at D. A. Booser's. Samuel Kreamer left on Tuesday morning for Lock Haven to see the ruins. Fauble keeps the finest stock of ready made clothing in the county cannot be undersold by any competitor. The anti-Amends kept sober on Tuesday so as to prevent the Amends from having an argument at the last moment. Spiteful. Robert McFarlane's hardware store in Bellefonte is headquarters for the celebrated Link Fence Wire. Having bought a car load before the recent advance in price, he is able to sell at very low rates. The link wire has stood the test of several years in our county and has proven first class in all respects. It is easy to handle and put up and weighs a little less to the rod than any other. Write for prices.

Bits.—Tuesday was damp but not wet; what influence did it have on prohibition? If the ladies could have voted on Tuesday the "dry" majority would have been enormous in the Keystone state. Millheim is repairing itself as fast as possible from the flood damage. The vote cast in our county on Tuesday was not half a full one. Whatever the result on prohibition the ladies certainly did their duty. Don't impudently stick your nose into every one's affairs; study to mind your own business. The frequent rains and cool weather have had their good uses: grasshoppers have been kept down. The recent floods have caused much demand for men who want work. Soon the music of the mower will be heard in the land. Mr. Epply, down the road, raises strawberries of a size that make a fellow's month water. Within a short time the post office will be found one door below the Reporter office. Centre county runs Johnstown just now and can run the U. S. government too if there is an emergency. Where was Gen. Hastings when Noah had his flood? Echo answers, where. Advertise in the Reporter, because it is read by all. When Paul remarked, "Owe no man anything," he had in his mind newspaper subscribers. Adolph Loeb is still confined to the sick room; may he get out soon. Col. Robt. McFarlane has recovered and has not looked so spry and healthy in five years as now. Judge Orvis is kept at home from ill health. Those laborers in the field of prohibition, D. F. Fortney, E. L. Orvis and J. C. Harper, paid their respects to these head quarters and asked us to quit drinking. As we take nothing but water, the stuff that causes floods, we took it they meant there should be no more washouts. We drink on just as before. Since Tuesday went wet we are unable to say what the effect will be on the next pumpkin crop. Calamities are unexpected in their coming and unpleasant in their results. Millheimers say they would much sooner have fire than water. Well, get some matches and try a fire and see if you will be of the same opinion still. Perhaps by fire some may mean Jersey apple jack. The floods bring up an old subject in school house debating clubs, which is the most destructive element, fire or water? The water men think they could knock the fire bugs high as the stars; is a forensic tussle now.

PILES! PILES! PILES! Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment is the only sure cure for Blind, Bleeding or Itching Piles ever discovered. It never fails to cure old chronic cases of long standing. Judge Coons, Maysville, Ky., says: "Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment cured me after years of suffering." Judge Coffinbury, Cleveland, O., says: "I have found by experience that Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment gives immediate and permanent relief." We have hundreds of such testimonials. Do not suffer an instant longer. Sold by druggists at 50c & $1 per box. ap21y

Sprucetown. The M. E. Sunday School at this place; had a very appropriate Children's Day service last Sabbath. The recitations and services were very well rendered by the children, also music by the school, which was appreciated by a large and attentive audience. Mr. and Mrs. Miller, of Millheim, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends and relatives at Potters Mills. Asher Sankey, who has been attending college at Williamsport, is home on vacation. Mr. John Wolf has had quite a handsome picket fence put up on his farm. May many of his neighbors follow suit. Some of the farmers of this vicinity are talking of making hay in the near future.

A RARE CHANCE. Here in our own county is an abundance of evidence of the unparalleled success of the Oxygen Treatment in its various combinations, in the treatment of all chronic diseases, and which is now everywhere meeting with great repute amongst all classes. By all means see Dr. Clemens, the specialist, at the Brock-erhoff House, Bellefonte, June 29th, one day only. Consultation free. 13jt.

A writer asks us to insert the following. COBURN, June 17, 1880. In justice to our place and for the information of the public, I drop you a few lines, as things have been greatly misrepresented in the newspapers in reference to the late flood by such parties who should and do know better. The damages here have been exaggerated fully five times, as parties have been put down for hundreds of dollars damage, when in fact they did not sustain a single dollar. I do not know what the object was as it is certainly injurious to the property owners here; and as to creating sympathy from the public, the outside is always able to judge for themselves. And everybody in this section of the county knows that the "Porks," now Coburn, was submerged every foot, and if Penna. Creek had reached the height of 1885, all of the buildings in the flat would have been swept away, and the sooner the parties who indulge in Brussels carpet and fine furniture find out that they live at a place subject to periodical floods, the better they will know how to protect themselves and their belongings. CITIZEN.
