Rhode Island Rejects Constitutional Prohibition.

RETURNING TO LOCAL OPTION.

The Majority Over 5,000 More Than the Three-fifths Necessary to Carry the Amendment Through-History of Prohibition in the State.

PROVIDENCE, June 21.—In common phrase, Rhode Island went wet yesterday, but that expression falls short of the true meaning of the vote. It means that people are tired of a constitutional enactment which is not supported by public opinion, which is not enforced or enforceable, and which has practically meant free rum for three years, a great loss in revenues and widespread injury to business. It means, also, stringent restrictions of the liquor traffic by legislative enactment, a return to local op-tion, and in this city, without doubt, high license, a lessening of the number of saloons and the extermination of low drinking places.

The Canvass. The general assembly which took its seat three weeks ago at Newport was elected or the issue of resubmission, and much of the battle was fought at the April election. The time for the actual work of the repeal campaign was brief and was utilized almost entirely in dissemination of printed matter. The Prohibitionists were the only ones who held meetings, but none of these caused much enthusiasm. Matters were very different from the whoop and rush which carried the amendment three years ago, and the result of which astonished even its promoters.

Women at the Polls. Women were at the polls, but it is safe to say very few votes were cast for reasons of sentiment or gallantry. The operation of the ballot reform bill had been postponed until after this election on account of the difficulty in putting it into immediate use, but it is not probable that bribery was attempted.

The Vote. The total vote in yesterday's election was 28,449 for repeal of the prohibitory amendment, and 9,853 against repeal. The amendment is therefore repealed by 5,469 more than the required three fifths of the total vote. The amendment was adopted in 1886 by a vote of 15,118 to 9,280.

The vote in this city was 11,919 for repeal, 2,940 against repeal. The official amendment of the vote will be made some time between July 15, when the official count must be completed, and

July 20.

The large increase of the vote over that of 1886 is due to the adoption in the interim of the seventh amendment providing for manhood suffrage.

Governor Foraker's Convention. COLUMBUS O., June 25 .- The Repub lican state convention, which meets here today, promises to be the most exciting of any held in Ohio for years. There are five strong candidates in the field, Gens. Kennedy, Jones, Dawes, Judge O'Neal and Lampson, speaker of the house of representatives. Kennedy shows the greatest strongth, but Lampson, and the strongth but Lampson and the greatest strongth but Lampson. shows the greatest strength, but Lamp son and Dawes' delegates are sanguin There is a growing sentiment for For-aker, and if nothing sets in to counter-act this he will undoubtedly be renominated, Lampson getting second place.

Beer and Music Divorced in Missouri. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., June 20.-Governor Francis yesterday dealt the saloons of Missouri the most severe blow they have ever received when he signed the Newberry bill. The bill prohibits music, cards, dice, billiard tables, bowling alleys and boxing gloves in saloons, and will go into effect July 1. St. Louis and Kansas City saloons will be most seri-ously affected, and about 3,000 of them will have to change their style of opera-

"Social Club" Drinking a Failure. COLUMBUS, O., June 20 .- A decision of the Ohio supreme court virtually kills the "social club" scheme to evade the local option law. The attorney general filed motions to take away the charters of several of these clubs on the ground that they were formed for the purpose of evading the law. To these motions demurrers were filed and these the court overruled.

BURKE IS THE MAN.

The Winnipeg Suspect Positively Inden tified as the Mysterious Williams by Martensen, the Expressman.

Winnipee, Man., June 22.—The link connecting Martin Burke with the Cronin murder was completely established when Martensen, the expressman who hauled the furniture to Carlson's cottage, arrived here and identified Burke among fifty-two prisoners and citizens who stood in a semi-circle in the jail yard The identification was complete and be yond all doubt. Martensen walked be fore the men and picked out his man at the first glance. Chief Hubbard, of Chicago, has been notified to this effect. Burke stood the ordeal well. He never flinched and and maintained the stolid demeanor that has characterized his actions since his

The President Signs Burke's Extradition. WASHINGTON, June 25.—The president on his return from Cape May last even-ing signed the warrant for the extradition of Martin Burke. Owing to some technical requirements, however, the state's messenger, Mr. Baker, was not able to leave with it last night, but got away this morning at 11 o'clock.
