SLUGGER SULLIVAN.

He Vanquishes Kilrain and Wins the World's Championship.

IN SEVENTY-FIVE SHARP ROUNDS.

Neither Party Badly Punished, but Kilrain Weakened Sadly.

SULLIVAN'S SUPERIOR STRENGTH.

The Fight Takes Place at Richburg, Miss., Without Interruption - John Fitzpatrick, of New Orleans, the Referee-Two Hours and Eighteen Min utes of Fistic Endeavor-Kilrain Secures First Blood-First Knockdown for Sullivan-John L. Has the Advantage from the Start-Kilrain Adopts Mitchell's Tactics and Tries to Tire Out the Big Bruiser-Exciting Scenes.

NEW ORLEANS, July 9 .- Sullivan-Kilrain fight occurred yesterday morning, at Richburg, Miss., 105 miles distant from New Orleans. Sullivan won in the seventy-fifth round. Neither of the combatants was seriously injured, although Kilrain was very weak at the close. Kilrain won the first fall and first blood. Sullivan got the first knock down. The time was 2 hours 18 min-

The first intimation of the result was brought to New Orleans by a special train which made the run of 105 miles in 3 hours 10 minutes.

Kilrain Shies His Castor. There was no interference, and Kilrain was the first to shy his castor into the ring. He was seconded by Charlie Mitchell and Mike Donovan, John Murphy bottle holder.

Sullivan followed a minute later and was loudly cheered. His seconds were JOHN L SULLIVAN. William Muldoon and Mike Daniel Murphy, of Boston, bottle holder. Pat Kennick, of New Orleans, was suggested for referee by Kilrain and John Fitzpatrick, also of New Orleans, by Sullivan. After short wrangling Fitzpatrick was mutually agreed upon. Kilrain won the toss for position and selected the northeast corner, Sullivan taking southwest.

Just before time was called Kilrain stepped over to Sullivan and proffered to wager $1,000 on the result, which was promptly accepted by Sullivan and the money placed in Referee Fitzpatrick's

Details of the Contest. First round—Time was called at 10:10. Kilrain made a vicious pass at Sullivan with his right, landing on the left of the neck. Both clinched and Kilrain gained the fall. Second-Sullivan feinted with his left which Kilrain dodged. A clinch followed, Sullivan throwing Kilrain heavily.

Third-Kilrain rushed in and clinched, Sullivan avoiding the clinch and dealing Jake a short arm blow in the neck. Sullivan fol-lowed with blows on the neck and ribs. Kil-rain struck Sullivan twice below the belt.

Cries of foul not allowed.
Fourth—Kilrain led, landing lightly, A clinch followed, Sullivan on top.
Fifth—Kilrain rushed and gained a cross buttock lock, but Kilrain broke away, John leading and landing on the landing and landing on the landing and landing on the landing of t leading and landing on the neck. Jake here began Mitchell's tactics, retreating all around the ring. Kilrain landed slightly on Sullivan's neck, Sullivan cross countering heavily on the head, Kilrain went down in his corner.

on the nead, Kijrain went down in his corner.
Sixth—Short ermed fighting was indulged in, Kijrain attacking John's ribs and gaining first blood by a blow on the left ear.
Seventh—Sullivan appeared, bleeding. He sanded victously on Kilrain's face, gaining first knock down.

first knock down.

Eighth-Sullivan led, Kilrain countering slightly, doing no damage. Kilrain again went down to avoid punishment.

Ninth-Sullivan led with his left, Jake countering slightly and Sullivan returned with interest on Kilrain's ribs. The latter again went to grass.

Tenth-Kilrain rushed at John and was met by a heavy one on the jaw, falling heavily.

Eleventh—Sullivan rushed the fighting, Kil-Twelfth—Sullivan rushed and clinched, trying to throw John but failing. Kilrain's blows lacked strength, the round ending with John clinching and throwing Jake heavily.

Thirteenth-Sullivan landed on Kilrain's ribs, the latter playing for the stomach, striking foul blows repeatedly. John returned on the faw and ribs, Kilrain slipping down to avoid punishment. In this round Kilrain badly spiked Sullivan's left foot.

Fourteenth-Kilrain again started around the ring, the round ending with a clinch in which Sullivan slipped, going down under the rope.
Fifteenth-Sullivan feinted, Kilrain retreating and Sulliven following him all over the ring, finally landing a roaster on the ribs. In the rally that ensued Kilrain went down to avoid punishment.

Sixteenth—Wilrain landed on Sullivan's ribs,
John countering: Kilrain going down again.
Seventeenth—Slight exchanges, Kilrain going down without a blow, Eighteenth—Kilrain went down without receiving a blow and Sullivan claims foul; not Nincteenth-Both sparring for wind, Sullivan finally landing on Kilrain's ribs the lat-Twentieth Sullivan hit Kilrain a roaster in ter countering on Sullivan, and went down from a light return on the head. ne c.bs. Mi rain going down. I wenty-nest--K Irain landed on Sullivan's Iwency-hist-K frain landed on Sullivan's stomach, Sullivan returning on the neck and Kiirain revorted to hugging: Sullivan landed on Kilrain's jaw, the latter falling.

Twenty-second-Sullivan landed on Kilrain's ribs, the latter going to earth.

Twenty-third-Sullivan had to chase Kilrain around the riag. The round ended with a cineh, Sullivan on top.

Twenty-fourth-Sullivan began by trying to get in a knock out. Kilrain hugged and finally went down without being hit. Twenty-fifth-Sullivan landed on Kilrain's ribs and repeated the dose again, when Kil-risis and repeated the dose again, when killing rain fell as usual.

Twenty-sixth—Sullivan feinted and Kilrain rapidly retreated. Kilrain landed lightly on Sullivan, hugged and went down.

Twenty-seventh—Both sparring for wind, Kilrain landing on Sullivan's jaw and clinched. Sullivan knocked Kilrain down in clinched. Sullivan knocked Kilrain down in the latter's corner.

The next ten rounds were but a repetition of the former ones, Sullivan getting the best of them all and landing several heavy blows on Kilrain's side, and the latter falling to avoid further punishment.

Thirty-ninth—Sullivan followed Kilrain around the the ring calling to the referee to make him stand and fight. Kilrain went down without being struck and Sullivan claimed a foul, which was not allowed.

Fortieth—Sullivan landed heavily on Kilrain's ribs, the latter ending the round by fallrain's ribs, the latter ending the round by fall-

Forty-first-Slight exchanges and Kilrain fell to avoid punishment.
Forty-second-Sullivan opened heavily. Hard in fighting followed, Kilrain going down from a light blow, Sullivan stumbling over him and Kilrain's seconds made loud claims of fool which the referred would not allow. foul which the referee would not allow. Forty-third—Sullivan landed on Kilrain's ribs and after a few passes Kilrain went down without receiving a blow. Sullivan himself appealed to the referee, claiming a foul. Not allowed.

Forty-fourth—As soon as he reached the center of the ring Sullivan began vomiting freely and it looked as if his stomach was weakening. Kilrain asked him to make the fight a draw, but Sullivan refused and responded with a heavy blow on Kilrain's ribs, knocking him down.

Forty-fifth—Sullivan smashed Kilrain in the ribs, then landed on his jaw, knocking him down and stamping on him. A loud claim of foul was not allowed.

Kilrain Quite Groggy. The seconds of Kilrain knew their man was whipped after this round un-less a chance blow could save him. Sul-livan, although slightly winded, was able to deal sledge hammer blows and Kilrain was becoming weaker. His blows had no strength in them, and his left side was evidently giving him trouble and pain. He pursued his usual tactics of retreating whenever Sullivan advanced, and the jeers of the growd became more and more marked.

Forty-seventh-Klirain landed on Sullivan's stomach, Sulliven countering on the ribs with his right. A clinch followed, Sulli-van falling heavily on Fitrain's body, the latter's seconds claiming a foul. Pony Moore accused Referee Fitzpatrick of having money on the result and the latter called Moore a Forty-eighth and forty-ninth - In these rounds Kilrain fell to avoid punishment.

Fiftieth—Sullivan le victously, Kilrain returning lightly and rouning away, Sullivan following and begging Kilrain to fight. The latter went down from slight blow. Kilrain would smile, but there was a ghastliness in his assumed good hum that was painful to witness. His strength as surely going, and none knew it better the Kilrain.

In the fifty-first to t fifty-sixth round Kil-rain resorted to retre- :g tactics, to the disgust of the crowd, g down repeatedly without a blow, to ave punishment. In the sixtieth row Kilrain went down without a blow, and loud cries of foul were heard on every side, but disallowed.
In the six(y-fifth round Johnson offered to het $500 to $50 that Sullivan would win, but could not find a taker, Sixty-sixth-Kiirain led viciously with the right, but missed. Sullivan felnted, then led, landing slightly, Kilrain going down.

Sixty-seventh-Kiirain retreating. Sullivan followed and knocked him under the ropes with a left hander in the ribs.

Sixty-eighth-Sullivan ended the round by knocking Kilrain down with several upper and under cuts.

Sixty-ninth-Kilrain was knocked down ith a severe right hander on the jaw, Seventieth-Kilrain very weak, Sullivan landing repeatedly. Kilrain tried to throw Sullivan by catching him by the legs, then slipped and fell.

Seventy-first — Kilrain growing weaker, feinted and ran away, Sullivan finally knocking him down with a flerce blow on the ribs.
Seventy-second-Sullivan foreed the fighting, leading and landing several times, Kilrain going down to avoid punishment. Seventy-third-Kilrain retreated all around the ring. The round finished with Kilrain going down to avoid punishment. Seventy-fourth-Kilrain lead, landing lightly on Sullivan. The former went down with a slight blow.

Seventy-fifth-Kilrain went down with a slight blow on the jaw and was cautioned by the referee. Mitchell Throws Up the Sponge.

When time was called for the seventywhen time was called for the seventy-sixth round Mitchell ran over to Sulli-van's corner and asked if he would give Kilrain a present provided he would throw up the sponge. Sullivan generously answered "Of course I will," but Mike Donovan, seeing the condition of his principal and to save him from further punishment, threw up the sponge and Sullivan had again proven his title as champion of The only marks on Sullivan were a slight cut under the right eye and another on the left ear. Kilrain's body showed the effect of Sullivan's blows and he was bleeding at the ears, nose and mouth. Both men were conveyed to the train by their friends and given attention. Sullivan's condition was superior to Kilrain's, the latter looking as if he had been overtrained.

At no time excepting when Sullivan's stomach gave evidence of weakness was there a doubt as to the final result of the fight.

How the Battle Waged. In the fourth round both men were panting heavily and there were cries of "Sullivan is licked." Before it ended Sullivan made the first of his famous rushes, driving Kilrain to the ropes. Kilrain recovered and succeeded in getting John's head in chancery, while in this position Sullivan give Kilrain a good blow in the nose and both went to the ground, Sullivan on top.

In the sixth round when Kilrain drew first blood Sullivan went at him right and left. Kilrain retreated but Sullivan followed him up and gave him a right hander in the neck, followed by his left in the stomach, which laid Kilrain flat on his back. During the progress of the round Harding shouted, "Five hundred even on Kilrain." "Taken," responded Sullivan as he handed out the mon v in crisp $10 bills.

Sullivan's Telling Blows. The tenth round v 3 a disastrous one for Kitrain. Sullivan delivered heavy blows on Jake's chest, neck ribs and nose, and finally sent him to earth.

In the thirteenth cound Sullivan bea. Kilrain all around the ring, and finally, with a heavy breast blow, felled him At the opening of the nineteenth round the referce demanded that Kil-rain wash his hands, as he believed he had rosin on them. Donovan protested, but Kilrain complied. In the twenty-fourth round Kilrain succeeded in giving Sullivan several powerful body blows, but before the round ended he received in return one on the neck which floored him, and for a moment he was thought to be sense ame up amiling to the scratch. "Easy, little fellew," he remarked to Sullivan as the latter gave him a stinger on the right check and an equally strong de-livery in the left ribs. Several more blows were exchanged and Kilrain had to drop ugain. The same story was now repeated round after round, the excited crowd yeiling derisively and suggested that Jake ought to fight only a weman.

It was apparent that Kilrain was determined to be game as long as he could keep on his legs, but the crowd was not in a humor to admire his courage and brute tenacity. Now and then he man-

JAKE KITTAIN, ous parts of Sullivan ; anatomy, but he invariably dropped when it seemed certain that retaliation was inevitable. In the thirty-fourth round a blow be hind and under the right ear felled Kilrain like an ox. There was some good fighting in the thirty-lifth round. Frain getting in the thirty-lifth round. Frain getting two tremendous upper a that made the occupants of the said give vent to a prolonged "Oh." the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh rounds Kilrain walked around too much for Sullivan's patience and others and voices in the crowd yelled "Cowr"."

It was light tot as on both sides, walk arounds, cline ag and dropping on the part of Kilrain from now on.

Sullivan's Sablime Pity. Sullivan evidently pitied his opponent, for times without number he gently pushed him away with his open hands when he could have delivered blows that would have settled the mill then and there. In the thirty-eighth round the referee insisted that Kilrain should fight and not walk around. Donovan objected, but the spectators howled him down. Sullivan delivered two terrific body blows in this round, and a third in suaded, however, to put up his fists until his opponent had indicated his readiness to proceed. In return for his consideration he got a blow in the neck that felled him like an ox.

So it went on round after round, every one ending in Kilrain going down.

A breast blow felled him in the seventy-fifth and when time was next called he failed to rise. Kilrain Wanted to Continue. Kilrain was toeing the scratch when Donovan threw up the sponge. He pro-tested that he was able to continue, but Donovan said there was no use in standing up to be knocked down.

The defeated man was bundled up and hurried to a carriage and driven to the train. He bitterly bemoaned his fate and actually wept.

Mitchell Deeply Chagrined. All his friends stuck to him and cheered him up except Mitchell, who seemed deeply chagrined and held aloof. Sullivan and his party also hurried to the train in a carriage and the two parties were soon on their way to New Or-Kilrain seemed to suffer more men-tally than physically. He said he had Sullivan whipped twice, but was unable to follow up his advantage. He said he could not understand what was the matter. He seemed unable to stand punishment, but could inflict any.

He felt almost as if he had been drugged. He could see that Sullivan did not feel his blows. Donovan, Stevenson and others sponged Kilrain and gave him draughts of whisky and water while he was talk-ing. They comforted him as much as possible, and though they had every reason to feel blue over the result they did not let him notice their regret Donovan said to the reporters that the heat and exercise had done more than the blows to exhaust Kilrain. Kilrain's Wounds.

Kilrain's face did not betray the great punishment he had received. He had a cut under the nose, pross both lips and his left eye was slightly discolored and swollen. His right hand had been injured by a blow on Sullivan's head and his left instep had been cut by the spikes on Sullivan's shoes.

He had received terrible punishmen about the ribs and doubtless suffered considerable pain, but he gave no notice to his agony. He said he had not been properly trained and that he was not in condition when he entered the ring.

Never Say Die. He would work and get some money together again, he said, and would once more make a trial for the championship.

He complained of the manner in which Sullivan had jumped upon him with both feet while he was down, and had trusted too much to his friends.

Kilrain laid down on the seats, and coats being placed over him, he soon fell asleep. When the train was crossing the trestle about eighteen miles from the city, Mitchell for the first time entered Reproaching Mitchell. Kilrain shortly after this reproached Mitchell for the condition that he (Kil-rain) was in when he entered the ring.

Mitchell attributed Kilrain's defeat to it being one of his off days.

round ended he received in return one on the neck which floored him, and for a moment he was thought to be senseless.

The Crowd Bal's at Jake.

The twenty-eighth round Kilrain out. Kilrain's condition was mysterious and he had been overtrained. Professor Butler declared that he had nnounced his belief in Kilrain and he had steuk to him through thick and thin. Mitchell had dropped him like a dog when the fight went against him, but this would not be the case with others.

When the train reached the station at the head of Press street two carriages were procured for the Kilrain party and Kilrain, Stevenson, Donovan, Murphy, Butler, Mitchell and Pony Moore were driven up town. Kilrain was given a Russian bath after which he retired to General Discomfort Prevailed. The press accommodations at the ring side were very poor, consisting of a bench with a board in front of it. All the seats were badly arranged, all being on a level, and people in the rear being unable to see over the heads of those in front. Ou side of the crowd was a fringe of country people, who had come in on wagons to see the fight. The surrounding trees were filled with small boys. An amateur photographer mounted on a ladder took views of the fight. The sun was boiling hot before the fight began and the spectators were terribly uncomfortable. There were about 2,000 persons. Two colored men made a small fortune by peddling water at 5 cents a glass and sandwiches at fancy prices. The limited quantity of beer obtainable brought 25 cents a glass.

Sullivan Fought Scientifically. Sullivan's fighting was the most scientific he has ever done. He abandoned his old rushing tactics, husbanded his strength, kept cool and seemed to recognize and respect the merits of his adversary, while maintaining abundant confidence in his own abilities,

It was evident that he had a good re-serve of force, which would have been available had Kilrain been in condition to compel him to do his beat. The Sheriff's 'unction, Just after the two men had taken their positions for the fight, the sheriff of the county appeared and formally, in the name of the state, commanded all those present to observe the peace. He then retind, this being all the action he was authorized to take at this stage of the proceedings. There was no further movement on the part of the authorities toward the fighters. Jake's Message to His Wife. BALTIMORE, July 9 .- The wife of Jake Kilrain, the pugilist, received the fol-lowing dispatch from her husband last Nature gave out. Am not hurt. Charlie Mitchell sent these words by telegraph to his wife, who is stopping with Mrs. Kilrain: "We are beaten;" and Parson Davies sent the following to Mrs. Kilrain; "Jake is conquered, but not disgraced. SLUGGERS' SABBATH.

How the Pauling Sluggers Passed Sunday at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, July 8 .- Both Kilrain and Sullivan left yesterday afternoon for the point selected for today's fight. oackwards to the ropes, where he fell ln a heap.
In the forty-fourth round, when Sullivan began to vomit, the Kilrainites shouted to their man to go for Sullivan in the belly. Kilrain could not be pursuaded, however, to put up his flets was made up at the Queen and Crescent depot and left the depot at 4 o'clock, one car being occupied by Sullivan and his friends and the other by Kilrain and his friends and the other by Kilrain and

At 6:30 the arrival of both principals and their friends at the battle ground was wired to this city.

How Kilrain Passed the Day. Kilrain arose about 9 a. m. and appeared bright and fresh. He was in excellent humor and conversed freely with those who came to see him. He re-mained in his room until about 11 o'clock, when he went to the gymnasium, where he spent an hour. At noon, in company with Mitchell, Dempsey and Pony Moore, he breakfasted at Moreau's restaurant, on Canal street. The party returned to the gymnasium about 2 o'clock. Kilrain's condition seemed greatly improved and his eyes were brighter and his movements much more active than

Saturday. him in twenty minutes he won't do it in a month." Jake's Improved Condition.

The members of the athletic club, some improvement in his demeanor.

Kilrain acknowledged the introduc tions of those present at the gymnasium

Kilrain, Mitchell, Murphy, Moore and two other friends then retired to their rooms and packed their grips.

When they reappeared it was evident to all that their carriage ride was not one for pleasure only but that they reappeared. for pleasure only, but that they were prepared for travel. "Good-by, Boys."

As the party drove away from the gymnasium Kilrain called out "good-by, boys, I'll be back with you shortly and I'll bring you good news."

These confident words were accompanied by a look of determination and evoked-loud cheers. The party was then driven directly to the Queen and Crescent depot were they took the train as above. depot were they took the train as above | Hall tannery. Call or address Seats Sold at $40. pikes on Sullivan's shoes.

By 10 o'clock vesterday morning tickets for all the 800 seats in the ring inner ring tickets sold as high as $40. It was expected that about 2,500 people would witness the fight, and that the gate receipts would be $30,000. The railroad fare was only $2. The understanding was that if the fight was prevented ticket holders would get their money back, except the $2 fare. The net proceeds of the gate money (say $25, 00) will go, 60 per cent. to the winner and 40 per cent. to the loser. the loser.

Sullivan the Favorite. with sporting men all day. Sullivan until July 15 next. Try your luck at once. was the favorite, so far as having a money backing indicates. The non-betting element of the community seemed WOOL WANTED. to hope that Kilrain might win.

Kirrain's friends demanded 2 to 1 in the betting, but only 100 to 75 was con-ceded by Sullivan men and this was not readily taken. Among the visitors at Sullivan's head-quarters were Sheriff Maller, Chief of Police Hughes, of Louisville, and others. They were entertained by Muldoon and could not see Sullivan, who was al04803 for Infants and Children.

Charles and the country of the control of the contr

111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., gestion. gestion, Without injurious medication.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 182 Fulton Street, N. Y.

HUMPHREYS'

OF PRINCIPAL NOS.

HOMEOPATHIC

SPECIFICS

on & Co., Box 812, Portland, Mai

send your address at once, you can secure FREE one of best solid rold watches in the world and our large it COSTEL WEATHER. We pay all express, freely, Address GHO. STIESON & CO., Box Sil, PORTLAND, Mai

SELLING OFF AT COST ! 17janly

Mitchell said : "If Sullivan don't lick | Having engaged in other business requiring our attention elsewhere, we will sell off our entire stock of Dry Goods, of whom were disapointed at Kilrain's appearance Saturday, changed their minds and expressed astonishment at his physical development as well as the ware, Oueensware, Glassware, etc., AT COST, for Cash or approved paper or produce.

Call at once! and secure in a graceful and quiet manner and remained in conversation until the announcement was made that carriages bargains, as the stock is comwere in readiness to take the party out plete and perfect in quality.

> DALE & CO, CENTRE HALL.

PAINTING.

The undersigned are prepared to take contracts for house painting. Prices reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed JOHN T. LEE. FRANK ARNEY.

HAIR.

Plastering Hair for sale at the Centre

PETER HOFFER, Centre Hall, sells had been sold and speculators began to the Osborne & Co's Harvesting Implements, the advance prices for the m. In some cases | Clipper Sidehill Plow, the Strait's Patent Reverinner ring tickets solu as high as $40. It sible Sulky Plow, the Elmira Spring Harrow, also free, and six months for each additional name. This is simply as an experiment, with nothing in The St. Charles hotel was crowded it for us, all for you, and the offer is only good

The Lighest market price paid for all kinds of Woo', at all times, by W. M. Aluson & Bro., Potters Mills.

WELL DRILLING.

Mr. Clemens, of Mifflin county, will come into this valley about 1st of May with his steam drilling machine. Percons desiring wells out down on their premises, upon favorable terms, can leave their orders at the Reporter office lowed complete rest, and seemed willing to enjoy it. He are heartily and took a nap before going to the train.

DESCHER'S GUN STORF.

GUNS, REVOLVERS, AMMUNITION Etc., Etc.

A good stock of new guns just received at Deschner's Great Central Gun Works, Bellefonte, such as Double B. L. Shot Guns, Double B. L. Rifle and Shot Gun. Single Rifles, B. L. from $2,57 to $12

Single B. L. Shot Guns from $4 to $9. Guns for the Farmer, the Spoting Man, andthe Occasional Hunter.

----0--V-E-R-Y C-H-E-A-P.

CALL AT THE GREAT CENTRAL GUN WORKS, BELLEFONTE.

BELLEFONTE o -- BOOK BINDERY .-- o

J. B. KUNZ, LESSE.

I am prepared to do all kinds of Plain and Fancy binding at the most reason-

BLANK BOOKS MADE TO ORDER Bindery in Conrad House Block-scenal

HENRY ROSSMAN.

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER .-

TUSSEYVILLE, PA.

Hek eeps in stock a full line of Coffins, Caskets, Shrouds, Burial Robes, etc., etc.

Funerals attended with a very fine Hearse.

MANHOOD How Lost, How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure of Spermatorrhoea or incapacity induced by excess or early indiscretion.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' practice that the alarming consequences of early error may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condution may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

Ar This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in plain envelope, to address post paid, on receipt of four cents or two postage stamps. Address,

H CULVERWELL ME ICAL CO., TAND St., New York, N. Y. Post flice Box, 450.

