OH! MY HEAD.

The pain from Neuralgia and its companion disease Rheumatism is excruciating. Thousands who could be quickly cured are needlessly suf-fering. Ath-lo-pho-ros will do for others what it did for the following parties:

parties:

Milliamsport, Ind., Oct. 5, 1887.

Having been afflicted with neuralgia for the past four years, and trying almost everything, but in vain, I finally heard of Athlophoros. After taking one bottle I found it to be helping me, and after taking four bottles of Athlophoros and one of Pills, I found that I was entirely well. I think the medicine is positively a sure cure.

CHAUNCEY B, REDDICE.

Mt. Carmel, Ill., Dec. 26, 1887.

I have used Athlophoros in ray family and find it to be the greatest medicine for neuralgia in existence, and having had its fanga fastened upon me for the past 30 years I know whereof I speak.

MRS, JULIA CHILIZON.

AT JOHNSTOWN

The Work of Reconstruction and Relief in Conemaugh Valley.

STARTLING DISCOVERIES ALLEGED.

A Sensational Statement that Hundreds of Dead Bodies Are Lying at the Bottom of the Conemaugh by the Bridge. An Appropriation from the National Government Wanted.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., July 16.-A plan has been submitted to bring the matter of consolidation of the different boroughs with Johnstown before the voters at the next general election.

The board of trade passed resolutions urging that steps be taken to bring the matter of clearing up the streams to the attention of the national government and urging an appropriation for that purpose.

How Relief Is Dispensed. As now arranged the sufferers are put in five classes and are paid respectively $600, $400, $200, $125 and $80 each. If there are funds enough for another dis-tribution the same basis will be used. A crank named Angerstein, of Washington, D. C., addressed a crowd at an out door meeting last night on a plan of action to be formulated to deal fairly with the people, but did not touch on their grievances to any extent.

A JOHNSTOWN SENSATION.

Hundreds of Bodies Said to be Lying in the Conemaugh. NEW YORK, July 16 .- The Evening

Telegram prints the following dispatch from Johnstown: A sensational statement has been made by a gentleman who said that the diver who examined the foundation of the stone bridge for the Pennsylvania Railroad company had made some startling discoveries. The story is that the bottom of the Conemaugh river near the bridge is full of dead bodies, and that probably hundreds are lying there, one upon another, held down by tons of iron that has been warped and twisted into unknown pro-

JOHNSTOWN RELIEF.

The Governor's Commission Meets at Cresson-Statement of Disbursements. CRESSON SPRINGS, Pa., July 10.-Governor Beaver's state relief commission met here yesterday afternoon. The state officers at Johnstown and the Johnstown finance committee were in attendance.

The wreck at Welmerding station on the Pennsylvania railroad and the refusal of the conductor of the limited to carry the state officers occasioned annoying delay.

Quartermaster Hill presented his report of disbursements for relief of sufferers as follows:

Commissary department... Bureau of inspection..... Adjutant general's office. Medical department..... P82.60 Department public safety 6,166,80 Quartermaster general's dep't. Department of valuables. 597,30

Total disbursements for reopening Conemaugh river and highways.... To Distribute $500,000.

The commission held a long session and decided to at once distribute $500, 000 among the Johnstown sufferers on the basis presented in the report of the Johnstown board of inquiry, that is, from $1,000 to $200 to each sufferer in proportiun to hisses and his ability to stand them.

stand them.

The Chicago committee was present and approved this appropriation. Its members decided to turn $27,000 of their fund over to the Pittsburg relief committee and an equal sum to the Williamsport committee for distribution east of the Allegheny mountains. The distribution of money will begin today or tomorrow and when the $500,000 is exhausted another appropriation will be exhausted another appropriation will be made. Each applicant for money will be required to make a sworn statement of his losses and assets.

NEWS BREVITIES

Ex-Congressman Rice, of Minnesota,

London and Paris are crowded with Americans, but it is noted with tears that they are not prodigal in the expenditure of cash.

The City of Paris and the City of New York are booked to carry 500 and 600 passengers each trip, mostly Americans, from Liverpoel to New York from the last of August up to October.

An additional mail has been secured by Postmaster Yard, of Trenton, to Rahway and Elizabeth.

Commissioner Tanner says the president has in no way indicated disapproval of his administration of the pension office, and he does not expect to be requested to resign.

Postmaster General Wanamaker addressed the convention of Christian en-deavor at Philadelphia.

The chambers of commerce of Mobile and Birmingham, Ala., have invited Postmaster General Wanamaker to visit those cities. He will accept if possible. At Clay Center, Kan., Mrs. H. H. Olney, after rescuing her two children from her burning house, returned to save some household goods and was burned to death.

Mr. Wyatt, acting secretary of the state of Colorado, was arrested for refusing to comply with an order of the court and was locked in the county jail to serve his sentence of ten days.

A Chicago paper says that a London syndicate has representatives in Chicago who propose to organize a company with a capital of $20,000,000 and to put in plants for making cheap gas all over the United States, "following the line of least resistance and largest profits." At Westbrookfield, Mass., Mrs. Patty Blair celebrated the one hundredth an-niversary of her birth. More than 200 called to congratulate her and all were well received, Mrs. Blair being assisted by Miss Ann Blair, 92 years old. The Anarchists of New York and vicinily commemorated the one hundredth anniversary of the fall of the Bastile.

Commodore Schley is greatly pleased with the Baltimore, the new cruiser he is to command. The gunboat Petrel left Baltimore on a cruise for the official test of her machinery at sea. The revenue cutter McCullough, supposed to have been sold to Gen. Legitime, arrived in New York from Baltimore.

O'Donovan Rossa and friends have called a convention of Irishmen, to take place in Philadelphia during the month of August, to raise money for revolutionary work.

Cardinal Gibbons publishes a paper in which he favors labor unions and says that contented labor is the greatest safeguard of the republic. Rev. C. H. Smith, who disappeared from Boston last May, has returned.

The different Johnstown distribution committees make conflicting statements of finances. A sworn to accounting is promised.

The Otis Iron and Steel works in Cleveland Ohio, have been bought by English capitalists for $4,500,000. Editor Bowen, of The New York Independent, is recovering from the ef-fects of the accident which he recently sustained in being thrown from his carriage. William Hearsley, of Ashland, Md., was killed near his home by a freight train on the Northern Central railroad. Secretary Noble has returned to Washington from Cape May.

According to a census taken by the publishers of Polk's Directory the city of St. Paul has a population of 193,847.

Lloyd Denison, aged 72 years, of Franklin county, O., was run over and instantly killed by a Baltimore and Ohio train near Cumberland, Md.

George Theiss, proprietor of the cele-brated concert garden on Fourteenth street, New York, is dead. Michael Davitt, in an interview in Dublin, declared that he would never enter the Parnell commission court again. In case of the withdrawal of Sir Charles Russell and Mr. Asquith from the conduct of Mr. Parnell's case, Messrs. Lockwood and Reid will remain to represent the other Parnellites before the commission. The annual session of the Sunday School association opened at Ocean Grove, N. J.

The Shaker colony at North Union, near Cleveland, is to be abandoned. The grounds have been purchased by an eastern syndicate.

Frank Hoyt, the teller of the First National bank, of Hoboken, who appropriated $18,000 of the bank's funds, has been released on bail. Hoyt intends to pay the bank all the money he abstracted before he is called before the United States district court. He will plead guilty.
