To Our Neighbors.

The question is often asked by our neighbors "Where I wonder, can I get a pure stimulant?" It is a fact that there is scarcely s roof under which you cannot find a stimulant of some kind. Old people prolong life with it, sick people have it to sustain life; well people may and do use it to make life more enjoyable, but where will we advise our readers to buy it? We learn from the most reliable source that Max Klein is one of the most popular and respected citizens of this country. At his home his word is taken unhesitatingly. To him we can cheerfully recommend our readers for anything in the liquor line. He authorizes us to say that for $1 you can buy one quart of six year old rye, or six quarts for $5. His "Silver Age" at $1.50 per quart is without don't the best whiskey known. Send for price list and complete catalogue. H's addigs is, Max Klein, $2 Federal St., Allegheny, Pa—Mention this pager.

Sorrows of the Fatherless in the Pennsylvania Schoels.

A LEGISLATIVE INVESTIGATION.

The Forthcoming Inspection of the Chester Springs School Is Expected to Develop Some Damaging Facts-Bad Food and Abusive Treatment-Selfish and Mercenary Management.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., July 22.-A forthcoming investigation of the soldiers' orphan schools of this state by a legislative commission promises to wipe several of the institutions out of existence, and among the number to go there is a prevailing opinion that the one known as Chester Springs school, in this county, will be conspicuous because of the recent expositions of cruelty to the pupils said to have been practiced by the professor in charge and his subordinates In anticipation of a hearing before the commission the friends of the abused children, prominent among whom are leading members of the Grand Army of the Republic of this county, are preparing such testimony as will be most damaging and must strike the members of that body with painful suprise.

Bad Food and Abuse. The evidence which will be produced against the methods governing the Chester Springs school will, it is said, show that insufficient food-and that, too, of a badly prepared character—has been furnished the pupils, although ample provision has been made for supplying them with plenty, and of a good and wholesome kind. It will also be shown that little children have been repeatedly struck in the face by those in charge, producing contusions that led to their being unable to leave their rooms for

whippings with heavy withes, which

Added to these punishments it will be shown, it is said, that in numerous in-stances pupils, some of them young girls of 16 years, have been confined in their rooms and denied the refreshing influences of sleep in order to atone for some trival breach of the discipline of the school and to force them to confirm to the dictatorial spirit of the teacher's Playthings used by the little ones have been in same instances converted into means of punishment, one little boy, it is alleged, having been struck in the face by a string of common spools with which he was amusing himself, the spools cutting his face, causing blood to flow.

Guarding Against Exposure.

The subordinate teachers and others in charge have, it is charged, lately been led to watch with zealous care over their charges in order that they might not communicate any of their troubles to visitors. It is expected that evidence will be presented in the coming investigation that a careful system of espionage has been resorted to, in which cer-tain certain pupils have been deputized to exert a painstaking watch over their fellows in order to learn if any are guilty of communicating to outsiders the stories of the inflictions practiced by the school management.

Outlived Their Usefulness. The general feeling is that this school and others of the same character have long since served their purpose in caring for the orphans of the soldiers, and had they been discontinued five years or more ago it would have been to the credit or the state. Of late years they have been in the hands of private parties, who have conducted them for selfish purposes, and public sentiment has now reached that point which demands that they shall no longer be permitted to exist. Professor Van Horn, of the Chester Springs school, went to Europe a few months ago.
