CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS, AUG. 15.

.....VAN'S TRIAL.

in intelligent Jury, Some of Whom Witnessed the Fight.

Purvis, Miss., Aug. 13.—There was a large crowd present in court when the prize fighters' case came up. Judge Terrill presided. Sullivan and all the accused were present except Pat Duffy, whom the district attorney had accident ally failed to notify, and General Super-intendent Carroll, of the restriction. The foreman of the grand just is T. R. Wright, a mill owner and merchant, of Poplarville, who was at the fight, and and was injured by the falling of one of the platforms. The jury are an intelligent gathering of men.

After referring to the prevalence of illicit liquor traffic in the county the judge took up the prize fight and said:
"The principals and all accessories before or after the act are guilty of a high misdemeanor." The judge went on to say that any fight even without stake or prize was a serious crime. There need not be anger or ill will between the parties to make the fight a crime. The charge occupied about fifteen minutes. One of the grand jury is bondsman for some of the accused.

The grand jury have agreed upon an indictment.

To Postpone Mrs. Maybrick's Reprieve. London, Aug. 13.—Members of parliament whose relations with the home secretary are intimate, express the belief that he will postpone action in the case of Mrs. Maybrick until the last moment, with the idea that she may confess. This was the course Mr. Matthews pursued in the case of Lipski, and while the whole English nation was howling for his pardon as an innocent man, the murderer very ungratefully confessed his crime and Mr. Matthews was vin-

This manoeuvre, however, can hardly be expected to work twice. Mrs. Maybrick has undoubtedly been posted, and if she is guilty will be led to expect a pardon up to the moment she ascends the gallows, and so a confession is hardly among the possibilities. It is learned that Mrs. Maybrick took passage on the steamer Aurania, which sailed for New York Saturday.

Appointments from Bar Harber. BAR HARBOR, Me., Aug. 12.—President Harrison has made the following

Samuel F. Phillips, of North Carolina, commissioner on the part of the United States under the Venezuelan and United States treaty concerning the adjustment of claims.

Charles G. Pope, of Missouri, consul

Mr. Pope is one of the oldest actors in the country and the proprietor of Pope's theatre in St. Louis. His appointment is regarded as a compliment to the theatrical profession.

The United States steamer Dispatch reached here with Secretary Tracy on board, and an hour later the secretary, his daughter, Mrs. Wilmerding, Lieut. and Mrs. Mason and Capt. Cowles called upon the president.

Died in the Dentist's Chair.

MILLVILLE, Pa., Aug. 13.—The funeral of Lois M. Demott, wife of H. J. Demott, proprietor of the Millville Hotel, was held at the Friends' meeting house in this place, and was the largest ever known. Last Thursday Mrs. Demott, accompanied by her husband, went to the neighboring town of Bloomsburg to have some teeth extracted. The dentist administered an anæsthetic. After one tooth had been extracted Mrs. Demott exclaimed: "That pained me so badly I will not have any more teeth extracted now, but will come again." Almost immediately she fell back in the dental chair a corpse. Mrs. Demott was a granddaughter of the late George Masters, and was about 29 years of age.

Francis Joseph's Welcome to Berlin. BERLIN, Aug. 13.—Francis Joseph's train arrived at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at which time the Emperor William, Prince Henry and Prince Bismarck were at the station to receive him. He was greeted cordially by all three and was at once driven to the castle by the Theirgarten and Unter den Linden. The route to the castle was lined with troops and the buildings were decorated with flags. Immense crowds turned out to catch a glimpse of the imperial visitor and everywhere the appearance of his carriage was the signal for loud and enthusiastic cheers. Salutes were fired by the artillery stationed at different points along the drive.

Law and Order Pills Five Cents.

HYNDMAN, Pa., Aug. 13.-A Law and Order league was organized a few weeks ago and posted notices in various parts of the town giving warning to violators of the Sunday law. H. R. Hyland, a druggist, in connection with the dispensing of medicine, sells so pensing of medicine, sells soda water, fruits, candies and cigars on the Sabbath. Sunday he placed upon his cigar case a bottle of pills labeled "law and order pills." He sells the pills for five cents each, and gives away that amount of merchandise with each pill. The organization is at present puzzled, but have procured a lawyer and will test the Steve Brodie Jumps Again. PROVIDENCE, Aug. 9.—Steve Brodie umped from the Main street bridge into Patch jumped into this river at Pawtucket. Sam Patch jumped into this river and Brodie wanted to beat his jump. The river was very high and the current was a strong one. When Brodie came to the surface he was some distance from the bridge. He tried to secure a hold on a large rock which juts out of the water fifty feet below the falls, but the force of the running water carried him away. He gained the shore after swimming 200 yards. He then left for New York.

Says He Saw Roger A. Pryor Desert. CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—A special to The Tribune from Dubuque, Ia., says: A recent statement from Gen. Roger A. Pryor, published in the New York papers, in which he indignantly denies that he deserted from the Confederate that he deserted from the Confederate army is pronounced untrue by a veteran Union soldier of this city and a member of Hyde Clark post, Grand Army of the Republic. He says he saw Pryor, in full uniform, march up in front of the Union lines and permit himself to be taken prisoner and led to the rear.

ON THE SWOLLEN SUSQUEHANNA.

Noble Mary Yerger Braves the Treacherous Current in a Frail Skiff and Rescues the Logman from Certain Death. How a Pig Piloted Through the Flood.

HARRISBURG, Aug. 12 .- John Prowley, a young fisherman whose good natured habits have made him popular for many miles along the Susquehanna river, walked into the Perry county court house the other day and asked for Fanny Davenport and George Alfred a marriage license. The Log Catcher. Johr is a carpenter's son, and he in-dustriously aided his father to provide out success. for a large family by fishing and pilot-ing fishing parties from the big towns around the river. Most of his time was spent along the Susquehanna, near which his parents lived. When the June flood came, people from all parts of the country hurried to the river to see the sights. Mary Yerger and a boy, son of the farmer with whom she lived, loitered on the water's edge until dusk of the day when the water had reached its highest mark. Few persons had tarried so long, but she and the boy forgot the time while looking out on the swift waters at a boom log catcher. He was standing in a frail skiff, hooking the big booms with a long pole and towing them to land on the op-posite side of the river. Boom after boom was thus secured, and he operated with such vigorous regularity that it seemed his strength would soon be ex hausted.

Overwhelmed by the Current. He had just landed one of unusual size which took all his strength, and Mary thought he would rest a while before going out into the troublesome waters again. But he didn't, and wiping the perspiration from his brow with a part of his torn shirt sleeve, he quickly rowed out and was headed toward a large walnut log. Before he reached the coveted prize his boat had been caugh of the Servo-Buls between a mass of the booms, which ground it to pieces like a thing of glass. He escaped most miraculously from instant death by climbing over the logs and reaching the water. He tried to swim for the shore, but it was plainly seen that he was too much overcome to get even half the distance. The current was swift, and he was beginning to ge

The "Algerines" and those on whose land the logs lodged when the flood went down, are holding them for the salvage money which an old state law allows. In the courts of all the counties bordering on the river the Lumberman's exchange has entered suits against the persons to recover their property upon the payment of ten cents for each log, but the "Algerines" are making a hard fight against the exchange, on the ground that the law gives them authority to claim fifty cents. In one of the counties 175 log catchers are included in one proceeding, and they have engaged all the lawyers in that county to defend them. In some of the counties the exchange has made amicable settlements, and portable saw mills are now going up at different place along the river to cut the logs into lumber.

On Monday following the Saturday when the flood was at its height and after the bridges had been swept away two big logs came down the river, un molested in their couse and with a much speed as a steam yacht. At this place thousands of persons lined the banks of the river, but their attention was not especially attracted by the loguntil an old riverman called out "There's a pig in there." All eyes turned toward the scene, and sure enough in about the center of the big boom was an old pig pen. The old fish erman's cry was taken up by hundred of people on the shore, and two young log catchers headed their boat toward the log. When they pulled up alongside of the logs one of the young men jumped over the side of the pen and awakened a big porker from its peaceful slumber. Its loud squealings were heard by those on the bank of the river, and a long and vigorous cheer went up from the multitude. The young men landed both logs. vigorous cheer went up from the multi-tude.
