CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS., AUG. 15.

THE RACKET

Chas. B. Rouss, Wholesale Dry Goods, New York City.

July 1, '89.

To the Public: We desire to say that G. R. Spigelmeier has the exclusive sale of our goods in his town...

The above explains itself. I am now in position to serve my friends in Penns and Brush Valleys, better than ever.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Three good men: The nominees on the Democratic county ticket. Dr. J. W. Rhoads, of Houtdale, died Friday morning, aged 50 years.

Wm. Thompson, of College township, is a Republican candidate for associate judge. Butter has slid up to 14 in price; it ever was a slippery article, and at times a little strong too.

Rev. John F. Moyer, of Hommelstown, has been elected pastor of the Bellefonte Reformed church. W. I. Fleming, of Bellefonte, and Guyer Mattern, of Patton, are asking for the Republican nomination for prothonotary.

A. L. Katherman has a nice lot of stock at his green grocery. Melons, cabbage, sweet potatoes, etc. all vegetables and fruits in season he keeps on hand fresh and solid.

Spring Mills will have a gala day next Saturday. A fire company from Bellefonte and several bands will be present. A special will return to Bellefonte in the evening.

The weather was quite fine for four or five days until Tuesday evening, when rain set in and continued all night, raining heavily all the time, followed by more showers on Wednesday.

Our ball club had expected to play a return game with the Lehighburg club last Saturday, but the weather not being propitious it was postponed. The game will be played before long on the latter's ground.

On an average there have been two bodies found every day during the past week at Johnstown. There are undoubtedly a great many more in the cellars all over town, and at the present rate of cleaning up they will not all be exhumed this year.

Lawrence Brown, of Bellefonte, has sold his grain and coal business to Edward Rhoads, son of Judge Rhoads, who is well acquainted with the business, having served as head clerk for Mr. Brown for a number of years. Success to you Edward.

Rev. Leisenring, pastor of the Lewisburg Lutheran church, with his family, is spending the heated term at Meyer's hotel. Bro Leisenring has been summering in our town for several years, and seems to be pleased with the place and its hotel.

HOW KEY: The colored boy Willis, belonging to the Reformed shanty, was seen while he was at the Linden Hall festival, last Saturday, and got the prize, a slapen big watermelon, and he at once proceeded to set up the melon for the boys. He reports getting lots of kisses from the girls in playing ring tag.

Wash Loneberger bought a sack of salt with which to dose the Canada thistles that have invaded and rooted themselves in his part of the kingdom. Mr. Loneberger thanks salting them on the dose. He does not know where his thistles came from but they are there all the same.

At McCoy & Linn's iron works, Milesburg, John Kline, an employee, was at work as usual, on Thursday last, apparently quite well. Weary and overheated, he sat for a moment on a wheelbarrow, when he suddenly fell to the ground a corpse. The physicians say his death was caused by heart disease. Mr. Kline leaves a wife and a large family.

A Centre Haller's first attempt at bass fishing is given by Will Kurtz, now in Somerset county, as follows: Was out bass fishing in the river below us, at Garret. There were seven of us in the crowd besides two men from Connellsville. I caught 15, four of them were large. It is fully as much fun as trout fishing, but when you hook a big bass you have to work a couple of minutes with them before you can get them out of the water. I used my trout tackle which is plenty heavy enough.

The farmers of York County are anxious regarding the safety of their cattle because of the buffalo fly having made its appearance in the county. This fly is smaller than the common house fly, and is blacker in color, and gathers about the root of the horns and eats away the flesh, penetrating into the soft parts of the horn. This causes intense suffering to the animals, especially as they gather in swarms. In one section of the county cattle have died from the evil workings of the little pest.

Clerical Stamped.

The ministers of the various Centre Hall churches seem to be on a stampede all of a sudden, with their vision on new fields of labor. Rev. Land, of the Reformed church, a short time ago, surprised his flock by reading his resignation, having accepted a call at Meadville to which place he soon after moved. Rev. Fischer, of the Lutheran church, two weeks ago announced to his members that he had a unanimous call from the Bloomsburg charge which he felt he should accept if the charge here could be reconciled to his leaving. Last Sabbath Rev. Kerr, of the Presbyterian church, also announced from his pulpit that he had accepted a call from far off Dakota, and would sever his relations with his people here.

Lightning does strike more than once in the same place, in spite of the adage to the contrary. These pastors all are in perfect harmony with their flocks—the Reformed people were satisfied with their shepherd; the Lutherans have no fault to find with their pastor and hold him in great esteem, and our Presbyterian brethren were pleased with their pastor; the dominies aforesaid reciprocate the feelings of their flocks and are pleased with the neighborhood. But, like the children of Israel, who insisted upon having a king, when all was well enough with them, they insist upon going, while the prophet and seer saith stay. Will none heed his voice? if so, then may it be well with them, and with the people over whom they shall rule and may those among whom they dwell again have shepherds whom they will give cause to love and cherish as they did these of whom we write.

A Sudden Death.

The following are the particulars of a sudden death which occurred at Philipsburg on Friday last. On Wednesday the 9 months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCauley died in that place, the cause of death being cholera infantum. Mr. McCauley is superintendent of R. B. Wigton & Co.'s store and brick work, which are located at Steiner's, and for several days past he had been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism. The funeral of his child took place on Friday afternoon, and it was attended by Mr. McCauley, notwithstanding the counsel of a number of his friends. Just before the carriage occupied by Mr. and Mrs. McCauley entered the gate of the cemetery, around the animal attached to the vehicle just behind and ran around them. This must have alarmed Mr. McCauley, for while speaking to his wife and telling her not to be afraid she noticed his head falling forward on his breast, and, becoming alarmed, assistance was called and the gentleman was taken from the carriage and placed upon the ground, the vehicle and placed upon the ground, here everything was done to resuscitate him but without avail. He leaves a wife and several children.

Kreamer, 7.50; W. H. Reifsnider, 49.35; Balance, 849.26.

Religious.

Rev. Leisenring, of Lewisburg, will preach in the Lutheran church of this place, next Sabbath morning. Last Sabbath there was quarterly meeting in the M. E. church of this place.

Rev. Kerr, Presbyterian minister in this place, has resigned and accepted a call from Dakota, where he had a charge previous to his coming to Centre Hall, several years ago.

Mr. Kerr's going from here will be regretted by all his members and others; the state of his health obliges him to accept a charge, in which the pastor's labors are lighter than in his present one.

Reunion.

A reunion of the John Smith family was held in the Seven Mountains, last Saturday. Mr. Smith is dead, and was a former resident of Bellefonte. His widow, aged 70 years, was present, and her home is at Reedsville. She is a sister of Daniel and Benjamin Roush, of Miles township, with his family, are closely in the freindschaft, and were present. About 25 belonging to the connection were present, with 15 others absent who had also been expected. The folks had a pleasant time and all enjoyed themselves.

Canada Thistles.

Squire Houseman, of Tusseyville, informs us that he has used the following remedy for Canada thistles repeatedly and has not known it fail. He recommends applying coal tar to the stalk. Cut the stalk off and put the tar on the stump, and the weed dies off. It is a cheap and effective remedy and our farmers whose land is afflicted with the weed should give this a trial.

Facts for all.

In spite of all competition the Philad Branch clothing store, remains headquarters for actual bargains in ready made clothing, for men and boys. Lewins introduced cheap clothing in Centre county, and has kept it at that all the time; he kept honest goods, no trash, and, as a rule, always sold from 25 to 50 per cent. below any other clothing store in this part of the state.

Mr. John Krider, of Gatesburg, Centre county, died at that place. He was born on the 20th of June, 1801, and was aged 88 years, 1 month and 19 days. Robert Duncan and family, formerly of Spring Mills, have left Orlando, Florida, after several years' residence there, and have made Philipsburg, this county, their future home.

In spite of all competition Lewins continues to take the lead in ready made clothing, low prices as well as quality of goods. He gets ahead of all, sells more than all, pleases all, and fits and suits all.

Samuel Babb writes to the Williamsport Gazette to say that he has slain a 36-foot serpent in Mosquito Valley. The Reporter would like to have Samuel tell how much apple jack a fellow must take to see a 36-footer.

What the Philad. Branch does not have in the line of ready made clothing, it now on the corner as well as quality of goods ahead of anything you ever saw. Lewins is King for low prices.

The pride of Alleensville, Mifflin county, is an onion raised by Grandmother Lytle which measures 1 1/2 inches in circumference. We thought we smelled something strong over here in Centre county when the wind blew from the direction of Mifflin.

All that desires bargains in boots or shoes, go to Mingle's shoe store in the Brockerhoff house block, which is the place to get anything in that line at low prices and every article warranted, or money refunded, if not found as represented. Mingle keeps none but first class goods.

AN INCIDENT OF THE GREAT FLOOD: Father Trautwein, of Cambria City, just this side of Johnstown, relates the following incident: He was standing on the bridge on that awful Saturday afternoon, and witnessed the attempt of workmen to remove a Miss Clark from the wreck. They had removed the debris from her head and body as far as exposed, but still she could not be liberated. The flames were approaching, and Father Trautwein administered the sacrament of the Church to the poor unfortunate, who believed that she must certainly perish. In desperation one man dived beneath the water and endeavored to free her, when he found her one heel held in a vise-like grip by a human hand. The muscles were set in death and it seemed that the unfortunate girl could not be freed from their awful clasp. An ax was procured and the hand severed from the arm when Miss Clark was taken out. Both her legs were broken, but she was taken to the hospital and is getting along nicely. The men then went to work and finally succeeded in getting out the body to which the hand belonged. Strange to relate, it was that of Miss Clark's grandfather, and it was his hand that had almost dragged her to an awful death.

A Bushel of Snakes.

About one week ago, John Puff, who is tenant on Uriah Osman's farm, about two miles west of town, and Sam. Meyers, started from Mr. Puff's home, which is close to the mountains, for a walk through part of it, taking along a small target gun. When they had gone some distance and had climbed a very rocky and steep declivity, they sat down for a few moments' rest on a large bowlder, and while seated there noticed a large copperhead snake near them, which they promptly shot. Immediately from all around them the serpents began to creep away, the report of the gun no doubt having disturbed a settlement of them enjoying a siesta, and the gentlemen began to work the gun. When in sight and had escaped them, they counted seventeen dead serpents which they had killed, and a great many got away from them. They immediately made tracks away from the place, being sickened by the fumes of the poison of the snakes. Many of them were very large on the south by public road, and lands of Daniel Bartz; on the east by lands of John S. Smer, on the North by lands of Daniel Bartz, and on the West by lands of John Bartz's heirs and Francis Gramley, containing about 95 ACRES.
