SULLIVAN FOUND GUILTY.

The Jury Quickly Convicts Him-The Slugger Looks Annoyed.

PARVIS, Miss., Aug. 17.-Arguments in the Sullivan case were made by District Attorney Neville for the state and ex-Attorney General Ford and Judges Calhoun and Green for the defense.

The district attorney urged the jury to vindicate the good name of the state by showing that the law would be upheld. The requests to charge were then read. The jury, after being out an hour and a half, returned a verdict of guilty of prize fighting as charged in the first count of the indictment.

Sullivan looked annoyed, but other-wise showed no emotion. He left the court room with several of his friends and though apparently a little down hearted at first soon recovered his The case against Referee geniality. Fitzpatrick will be taken up today. Sentences will be pronounced later.

Justice Fuller on the Terry Tragedy. PITTSBURG, Aug. 19.—Chief Justice Fuller passed through Pittsburg on the "limited" from Cresson Springs, Pa., where he left his two daughters, on his way to Chicago. Whén asked about the killing of ex-Judge Terry, he said: "I had heard that Terry had uttered threats against Justice Field, but I did not know of them personally. I was surprised when I heard that Justice Field had been arrested. I cannot see what he had to do with the murder any more than any other spectator. Judge Sawyer has issued a habeas corpus and Justice Field will no doubt be released.'

Justice Field Arrested and Released. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17 .- The sheriff of San Joaquin county arrived here and served a warrant of arrest upon Judge Field at the latter's chambers, in the appraiser's building. There was some doubt as to whether the warrant would habeas corpus was sworn out before Judge Sawyer, of the circuit court, and heard by him in chambers. Justice Sawyer granted the writ and released Jus-tice Field on $5,000 ball.

Judge Terry's Funeral.

STOCKTON, Cal., Aug. 17.—The fu-neral of David S. Terry was held here. The body was removed from the morgue at noon and taken to the Episcopal church, where it lay in state for two hours and was viewed by a great num-ber of people. Mrs. Terry occupied a pew near the casket and watched the pew near the casket and watched the face of the dead man all the while. Sev-eral times she left her seat and threw herself upon the casket. The service was read by one of the vestrymen of the church. The body was interred in the Latest Farticulars of the Tragedy-How Deputy United States Marshal Nagle Got the Drop on the Fire Eater-Nagle in Custody-Justice Field's Version of the Affair-The National Government Guarantees Him Protection - Judge Terry's Adventurous Career.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15 .--- When the southern overland train arrived at the station in Oakland a great crowd had collected, telegraphic intelligence of the Lathrop tragedy having preceded the ar- sixty-were in their beds. The scene of rival of the train and the sleeping car in which Justice Field was sitting was at once besieged by United States officials floor of which was occupied as a restauand newspaper men.

Justice Field maintained his quiet demeanor and narrated to a press repre-sentative the following particulars of the shooting:

Justice Field's Story.

"I can tell you the story in a few words. For the last few months a num-ber of reports, both public and personal, have reached me that Judge Terry had threatened to subject me to some indignity if he should meet me. This fact caused the United States marshal to de-cide to provide such protection as he could during my stay in this state. When I started for Los Angeles to hold court Deputy Nagle accompanied me. He seemed to be a quiet, gentlemanly official, though I only met him twice while away from Los Angeles. He asked me in that city when I intended to return and accompanied me, taking a seat in the sleeping car opposite me. We heard that Judge Terry and his wife were on the train, but paid no attention to the fact.

The Encounter at Lathrop.

When we arrived at Lathrop we entered the eating station to get breakfast. I took a seat at the end of the table. Nagle sat one side of me. Terry and his wife came in the room soon after. Mrs. Terry entered and went out of the room, doubt as to whether the warrant would be indorsed by a judge of San Francisco county, as required by law, but the in-dorsement was obtained. Immediately ing her. Instead of doing so he walked after the warrant was served a writ of back of me, and struck me a heavy slap in the face.

"I was completely astounded and seeing he was making ready to strike again, Nagle cried out 'Stop! Stop!' but Terry did not desist and as he was raising his aim a second time Nagle shot at him, the bullet entered his heart. He fell to the floor Nagle shot in a the floor, Nagle shooting a second time, but the second shot not striking him. Nagle was arrested at Tracy and taken to Stockton to await the result of the inquest. That is the complete story so far as I am aware." Government Protection to Justice Field.

church. The body was interred in the the person of the justice was protected at any hazard. The order extended also Judge Sawyer, of the United States cir cuit court in this city, upon whom Mrs. Terry made a personal assault last year while on a railway train accompanied by Judge Terry. The order was based upon this fact and upon threats declared to have been made openly by Terry against Justice Field. Deputy Marshal Nagle was directed to accompany Justice Field under this order, and is said to have given Judge Terry full warning to stop when the latter began his attack upon Justice Field, and fired at Terry as the latter was about to strike the second time. Justice Field left the second time. Justice Field left the overland train at the Oakland ferry and drove at once to the Palace hotel, where he was joined by his wife. He was not arrested, and the notice to the chief of police claimed to have been sent by the district attorney of San Lorenin if forwarded more not of San Joaquin, if forwarded, was not acted upon.

York Fire.

THRILLING SCENES OF PERIL

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.-Another torrible tenement house conflagration excited the west side of the city and resulted in the death of nine persons. The outbreak, occurred at an hour when all the tenants-numbering over the fire was the five story building at No. 305 Seventh avenue, the ground rant. It was in the kitchen of this establishment that the blaze started, and the flames swept through the five stories to the roof with lightning rapidity, shutting off escape by the stairway. Those who escaped did so by climbing into the adjoining buildings by means of the fire escape.

The Dead and Injured. The list of the dead is as follows: William Glennon, 60 years old, burned to death.

Nellie McGoeghegan, 20 years old, smoth-

Mary Wells, 31 years, smothered. Jane Wells, 4 years, smothered. Thomas Wells, 2 years, smothered. Bertha Lustig, 40 years, burned to death. William McKee, 47 years, burned to death. Jane Jeffrey, 65 years, smothered. Annie Lyons, 45 years, stout build, medium height, fair complexion, smothered. Following are the injured: William Glennon, Jr., 18 years, burned on hands and feet in making his escape.

John Glennon, badly burned. The Cook Disappears.

Precisely how the outbreak occurred the police could not ascertain. The cook in the restaurant disappeared. Without a doubt it was in making a fire in the range. The awful swiftness of the blaze suggested the use of kerosene.

At 4:55 a. m. two policemen saw a blaze at the windows of the restaurant. The officers lost no time, and the avenue was soon filled with their cries and raps of alarm. They at once kicked in the door of the burning tenement, only to be driven back by the rush of fire and smoke. The policemen hammered on the doors of the house next door and adjoining tenements. The firemen had come. Within tour-teen minutes after the first-alarm the reserves of the district had responded to a

Prohibitionists in a Beer Garden.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 19. — The most noted beer garden in this state is Beyerli's park, and it is the only place accessible from this city where beer is openly sold on Sundays. In this park the Prohibitionists had a basket picnic and county convention. The use of the grounds was tendered to them as a joke, but it was accepted, and no beer was sold during the proceedings. The convention, after nominating a ticket, closed with a vote of thanks to the park managers and the singing of the doxology.

Terry's Eventful Career.

David L. Terry was born in Todd county, Kentucky, in 1823. He served in the Texan army under Sam Houston. He came to California in 1849 and set-tled in Calveras county. In 1855 he was elected justice of the supreme court of California on the untime California on the native American ticket, and upon the death of Chief Justice Murray in 1857 Judge Terry became chief justice. He was opposed to the vigilance committee of 1856, and stabbed one of the members of the committee who had attempted to arrest a friend of Terry's. Terry was held by the vigi-lantes but afterwards was released. He killed Senator Broderick in a duel in 1859 as a result of political differ-

In 1880 Terry was defeated as a Hap-cock elector, although his associates on the ticket were elected.

Cause of the Tragedy.

Last September he and his wife were the chief actors in a most remarkable case in Justice Fields' court. When a decision was read by Justice Field which was against Judge Terry's wife the latter arose in court and declared the index was whiled A United States judge was bribed. NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—John L. Sulli-van arrived in this city about 8 o'clock last evening. He was at once taken in charge by Wakely, Johnston and others of his cronies and proceeded to have a good time.

general alarm call with a dozen engines and half the ambulances of the city hos-pitals were speeding toward the scene.

The policemen dashed upstairs, broke into the rooms of the tenants, and, run-ning along the fire escapes in front and rear, smashed the windows of the burn-ing building with their cluby, calling at the top of their voices to the people to run for their lives. No Escape at the Stairs.

Not a single person escaped down the stairs. Those who tried to do so fell on the threshold of their own doors dead. and were found there.

The family of James Kloter, on the floor above the restaurant, were among those first aroused to their danger. Hus-band, wife and four children slept in the front room. The parents gathered up the little ones, two each in their arms, and ran to the front. The flames were bursting from the front of the store and lipking the iron of the fire escape. They rushed to the rear, but it was even worse there. To venture out on the iron bridge was to rush into the jaws of death. In desperation the six braved the dangers of the front and climbed from the southern corner of the fire escape over the next building. The awning under their perilous bridge was burning then, and two minutes later escape that way was altogether cut off. Frank Wilson, another tenant, escaped in the same way.

A Roaring Furnace.

The stairs and landings from the street to the roof were one roaring furdescent by the iron ladders was impossi-ble. The fire burst from the ground floor windows, fanned by the draught it made as it burned, reaching alternately half across the sidewalk and far into the back yard. Such a sudden, tremendous flood of Such a sudden, tremendous flood of water was thrown next through the opening over the stairs into the burning tensment that the fire was extinguished in a few minutes. Twenty minutes later men were groping their way through the building in search of bodies, while outside a crowd of half clad, half crazed and hysterical women were wringing their hands and crying 5 were wringing their hands and crying but for missing relatives. The search-ing party was made up of firemen, po-licemen and ambulance surgeons.

Finding the Victims.

Old William Glennon lay on the floor in his room, burned and dead. He had arisen from his bed to fly, but too late. Ris two sons, John and William, who had risked the path, had been taken to the pospital with hands and feet badly furned from the red hot iron bars of the are escape. They had not fled a moment too soon

In a room on the second floor knelt a mother, Mrs. Mary Wells, with her arms about her little boy, and his sister -Thomas, barely 2 years old, and Jane, 4. The children were huddled in her embrace, as if seeking safety. All were dead, mercifully smethered. There was not a burn or a blister upon their bodies.

On the same floor Mrs. Bertha Lustig and William McKee were found burned to death. On the fourth floor, Jane Jeffreys, an old woman, was found smothered. The cook has been found and arrested. He says the fire resulted from an over heated range.

Snyder, after examination before the coroner, was committed to the Tombs without bail until the inquest. Brooks was held as a witness. The officers say they have a good case against Snyder.
