lace the other day with ex-Governor Pattison and ex-Attorney General Cas-sidy in the office of William M. Singerly was purely accidental, and the reported conference was, after all, purely imagiafter the ex-senator called, and knew nothing about the latter's intended visit. After a few pleasantries, which occupied but two or three minutes, the ex-governor and ex-attorney general withdrew, nothing having been said by them of a political character. The ex-senator was then left with Mr. Singerly, but at the same time a well known politician happened to be present. Politics was not discussed, the Clearfield county statesman's errand being purely upon business matters.

The reported conference has occasioned considerable comment, but it was stated today in emphatic terms that no meeting had been arranged, and that the coming together of the gentlemen named was entirely accidental. The gubernatorial nomination, it is asserted, was not discussed, and it is declared that the ex-governor and ex-attorney general were not present long enough to talk about anything.

In this connection it is said the exsenator has adopted different tactics from that resorted to by him in 1886. Then, it is said, he was willing for the nomination to be brought to him, but wished it distinctly understood that he was not a candidate. Now he wants the nomination and is asking for it.

PISTOLED THE PORTER.

A Pennsylvania Highwayman's Vain Attempt to Rob a Pullman Car.

LANCASTER, Pa., Aug. 26.—Charles D. Chambers, recently released from the penitentiary at Philadelphia, boarded the Pacific express on the Pennsylvania road early yesterday morning and endeavored to rob the passengers in the Pullman sleeper. Charles D. Stark, of Jersey City, a porter, grappled with the thief, who drew a revolver and shot the porter, inflicting dangerous wounds in the groin and legs. Other trainmen came to Stark's assistance aud Chambers was overpowered and carried to Harrisburg, where he was locked up.

The stories of the porter and of Cham-bers are conflicting. Chambers says that he was merely stealing a ride and that the porter began firing on him. He tried to take the pistol from the por-ter when it was accidentally discharged. The porter says Chambers was sneaking about the berths and when discovered opened fire on him.

The streets are thronged with men wearing the familiar uniforms of the Grand Army of the Republic, and great interest is manifested in the opening exercises, which begin today.

Many prominent men in Grand Army circles have arrived, and the leading candidates for commander-in-chief are on the ground. Departments now here include Minnesota, Georgia, Michigan, California, Maine, Rhode Island, Oregon, Missouri, Wisconsin and Dakota.

The delegation from Pennsylvania, headed by Department Commander

A Post of Indian Veterans.

The first post of Indian veterans are coming from northern Minnesota to take part in the encampment. Many honors await them. Hassendeubel post, of St. Louis, have a flag which will be pre-sented to the Indian veterans. The east is well represented, both in the number of veterans present and visitors. The New England representation strongly favor Judge Vezey, of the Vermont supreme court, for national com-mander, while the west is unanimously in favor of Gen. Russell A. Alger. The contest promises to be a close and exciting one.

The City Overcrowded.

Every arriving train is three times its usual length. Near all the incoming passenger are civilians. There are but very few posts arrived yet, and when the scores on route get in it passes com-prehension where they will be housed or fed.

The city seems overcrowded. The hotels, lodging and private houses are packed solid with cots. The committee insists, however, that provisions have that Ransom post, of St. Louis, the special escort, had been compelled to leave without him.

He finally reached town at 8 o'clock last night and received a royal welcome along the route to his hotel.

Gen. Warner, Governor Hoard and Gens. Fairchild, Alger and Rusk adessed a rally of the Sons of Veterans last night.

Fifty Passengers Injured in an Illinois

Accident. STREATOR, Ills., Aug. 27 .- The vestibule train on the Santa Fe route running between Kansas City and Chicago met with a serious accident at Kinsman, a small station about fifteen miles north of here. The train was heavily loaded with Grand Army veterans and their friends bound for the Milwaukee en-campment, and consisted of several extra coaches. By the spreading of the rails three coaches. two Pullman sleepers and the dining car were thrown from the track and down a steep embankment, a distance of about forty feet. Word was telegraphed to this city for medical assistance, and a special train was sent at once with a dozen surgeons on board. The wretker was also sent out to char up the track. Those most seriously injured were brought to this city and taken to St. Mary's hospital, where their wounds were properly attended to.

Those Dangerously Injured. In all there were probably fifty persons hurt and though none were killed outright, the following are in a very dangerous condition:

Mrs. S. S. Dickerman, of Lawrence, Kan., hest and head badly cut. Little son hurt about back and face. William R. Fish, Topeka, seriously, head njury. Mrs. Fish, Topeka, head, back and arms. S. F. Gould, Mulvane, back and face terrily cut, Mrs. R. R. Tuckerman, Topeka, face badly cut and internally injured. Mrs. Edward Andsley, Carrollton, Mo., arm, head and back badly bruised and lacerated. Mrs. George B. Peters, Emporia, head and ace mashed and cut. George Peters, Emporia, hurt about the chest and face, also internally injured. Mrs. S. S. Johnson, Norfolk, Conn., badly hurt internally and head and face cut. The others are at the hospital, and the majority, it is feared, will die.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

Retiring from Office.

NEW YORX, Aug. 24.-Rumors have been current for the past few days re-garding Mr. Corbin and the presidency of the Reading railroad.

The Wall Street News publishes a statement to the effect that a prominent official of the Reading railroad said that Mr. Corbin would shortly resign his po-sition as president of the road. Upon inquiry at the Reading office it was as-certained that Mr. Corbin had no intention of resigning. A high official of the company said that there was absolutely no truth in the statement, and that Mr. Corbin never contemplated taking such

The report, however, found some be-lievers, and it was said that Mr. Corbin would soon resign, and would be suc-ceeded by A. A. McLeod, at present the vice president and general manager of the road.

The Grangers' Picnic.

WILLIAMS' GROVE, Pa., Aug. 27.-The sixteenth annual session of the tri-state grangers' national encampment opened here with a large number of visitors and exhibitors from all parts of the country. The exhibitors met in the large audi-torium building to arrange for business during the week. Nothing but miscellaneous business was transacted. The exhibition will be formally opened by Manager Thomas in a speech, after which the Hon. Leonard Rhone will preside during the week. It is expected that 10,000 persons will be here today.

A Brakeman Under the Wheels.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Aug. 27.—William H. Friend, of South Bethlehem, a brake-man on a shifting engine at the Bethle-hem Iron works, was instantly killed. hem Iron works, was instantly killed. While Friend was applying the brake to hold some cars that were running down an incline at one of the blast furnaces, the brake chain parted, throwing him on the rails, the train passing over him, cutting off both his legs and arms and bruising his body. The unfortunate man was 28 years old and leaves a wife.

Two More Mud Run Suits.

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 27.-The law-suits growing out of the Mud Run calamity on the Lehigh Valley railroad last October received two additions in this this city. Patrick F. Dever, who was hurt in the collision, suing the company for $40,000, and his father, who wants damages for the loss of his son's services, suing for $5,000.

rter of a million visitors. Whether this is overestimated is a very serious question. Fortunately the weather is fine and outdoor camping will be more of a comfort than otherwise.

Trouble Over the Parade.

The inevitable trouble over the parade has broken out. As Commander-in-Chief Warner hails from Missouri, he naturally designated that department as his escort, with the Illinois contingent second. The latter claims that it is entitled to the right of the line or the head of the procession, and serves notice that unless the claim is conceded it will not march.

New York and Pennsylvania are as-signed third in line, right behind Illinois, but these are satisfied and are not disposed to kick about precedent. As some of the advance guard of the Pennsylvania department said: "We ain't sticklers as to where we are assigned. So long as we make a credit-able showing that's all we care for."

Tanner Is for Alger.

Corporal James Tanner is quartered at the Plankinton house. As soon as it was known that he was in the city a great rush to see him was made. He held a levee for hours of veterans who approve of his administration of the pension office. Tanner comes out squarely for Alger for commander-in-chief. This has caused the latter's stock to rise perceptibly.

The eastern delegates will give their solid support to Judge Vezey, of Ver-mont. The latter retired last year when prospects were eminently favorable to him in favor of Warr. r. His support-ers, therefore, insist that he is entitled by right to the office; but this the west-erners refuse to concede. The latest ar-gument in favor of Alger is that he can influence railroads for cheap rates next year. Private Dalzell has no following and Consigny, of Iowa, has only a state support.

Lost Both Arms and Legs.

One of the most interesting veterans on the ground is Benjamin Franklin, of Minnesota. He is the only living man who lost both arms and legs in the war. Twenty New York detectives are here looking after crooks. Forty, so far, have been locked up, the majority of them being from the east. Washington is the favorite for the next encampment, while New York and Boston have a good many partisans.

To Discuss Pensions. It is given out that a large portion of rested the players of both teams. The mayor of Hamilton at once opened court and each of the men were fined $8.85. The Cincinnati club paid the fines of both teams and the players and excur-sionists returned to Cincinnati. There were between forty and fifty cars of Cincinnati people on the grounds. The score stood 4 to 2 in favor of Brooklyn.

A Murdered Man's Funeral.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.-The funeral services of Christian W. Luca, the groceryman who was murdered by Charles McElvaine last Thursday, were held at the Mount Zion German Lutheran Evan-gelical church, Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon. The Retail Grocers' associa-tion and the Brooklyn Knights of Honor attended the funeral. The church was crowded to the doors. Rev. E. C. Draelin, pastor of the church, in the course of his sermon said that speedy justice should be meted out to the murderers.

An Immense Ship Yard.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 24.-The News says that the Pennsylvania Steel company intend to establish an immense ship yard at Sparrow Point, twelve miles from Baltimore. The company will have the most magnificent equipment in the United States and possibly in the world for the construction of steel ships. This industry is to be carried on in con junction with the iron and steel works of the company at Sparrow Point.

Contributions for the Catholic University. BALTIMORE, Aug. 26.-The Catholic university at Washington has received two more valuable gifts. One is a cash contribution of $10.000 from the late Mr. Sylvester Johnston, of Louisville, Ky., and the other was made by Bishop Jere-miah O'Farrell, of Trenton, N. J., who sent a library of 2,000 volumes.

Twice as High as Eiffel Tower. LONDON, Aug. 23 .- Sir Edward Watkin has started a company, with a capi-tal of £200,000, to build a tower in London for recreative and scientific pur-poses. The plan is to make it double the height of the Eiffel tower in Paris, and M. Eiffel will be consulted as to the construction of it.

A Ludlow Lad Leaps 101 Feet. CINCINNATI, Aug. 26.—Joseph E. Rus-sell, a 16-year-old lad, living in Ludlow, Ky., jumped from the Cincinnati Southern railroad bridge into the Ohio river, a distance of 101 feet. It was the result of a wager, and he suffered no in-convenience from the leap.
