DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure of Spermatorrhoea or incapacity induced by excess or early indiscretion.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a liftry years' practice that the slarming consequences of early error may be radically cured: pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

BIGLER FOR STATE TREASURER.

The Clearfield Candidate Nominated on the First Ballot-Peace and Harmony Prevails-"With All His Faults, Give Us Grover Cleveland Again!"-Full Text of the Platform.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 5.-The Democratic state convention yesterday moved in such a listless, leisurely fashion that it was not until quite late that Chairman Wherry announced that the nomination of candidates for state treasurer was in order.

order.

R. Jones Monaghan opened the ball by rising to name E. A. Bigler, of Clearfield, for the place upon the ticket. The presentation of Mr. Bigler's name called out applause, but not of an uproarrous character. Then Milton J. Hess, of Northematon in a few wall chosen words, nominated ex-Representative H. J. William J. Brennan, of Allegheny, in a stirring address, which aroused enthusiasm, recommended the nomination of Homer J. Humes, of Bradford. J. J. Foran, of Philadelphia, nominated Common Councilman Isaac Wilde.

Bigler Nominated on First Ballot.

This closed the naming of candidates, and the desks being entirely cleared, the convention got down to balloting.
Philadelphia gave 15 votes for Humes, 42 for Bigler and 4 for Wilde. Allegheny gave 18 for Humes and 4 for Big-

The roll being called Representative John Donohue, of Philadelphia, arose and announced that he desired to change his vote from Humes to Bigler, which was permitted. The chair announced that the tellers agreed in their tally; that 305 votes had been cast, and that 154 votes were necessary to a choice. ballot resulted as follows: Wilde, 4

Clay, 24; Humes, 71; Bigler, 207. Patrick Foley moved to make the nomination unanimous, which was agreed to.

Wallace Makes a Speech. Hon. William A. Wallace was then Hon. William A. Wallace was then introduced amid great applause. He thanked the convention for the honor bestowed upon his county by the nomination of E. A. Bigler for state treasurer. Then M. Wallace went on to charge the Republican administration with failure and shouted out "Oh for with failure and shouted out, "Oh, for six months; with all his faults give us Grover Cleveland again!"

The following is the platform in full:

The Democracy of l'ennsylvania in tion assembled declare: 1. That all powers not expressly granted to the general government are withheld and a sacred observance of the rule of construction contained in the tenth amendment to the constitution itself is essential to the preservation of the principles of home rule and of pure, honest and economical government, to the end that labor may not be robbed of the bread it has earned.

2. We applaud the action of President Cleve-2. We applied the action of President Cleve-land and our Democratic representatives in congress looking to tariff tax reform, and we reaffirm the declaration of principles made by the Democracy of the Union at St. Louis in 1888, especially that demanding a revision and reduction of tariff taxes for the relief at once of American labor. American industries and American tax payers by the repeal of such tariff taxes as now invite and protect monop oly, a greed that lessens production, lessens employment of labor, decreases wages and inemployment of labor, decreases wages and in-creases cost to consumers, and by the admis-sion of raw material free of duty in all cases where it will enlarge our product, multiply our markets and increase demand for labor. 2. We regard trusts, in whatever form organized, as the result of the existing monopoly tariff, and we demand the repeal of such tariff taxes as enable them to control domes-tic production by unlawful combination, and to extort from the people exorbitant prices for their products.

4. We accept the decision of the people of Pennsylvania rendered by the ballot on the Pennsylvania rendered by the bailot on the prohibitory amendment as a declaration in favor of a reasonable, just and effective regulation of the traffic in ardeat spirits. We hold that the agreement of the Republican party through its representatives in the Legislature to the proposed prohibitory amendment to the constitution, and its defeat at the polis in spite of the Republican majority of 38,000 parts are fact that establish beyond doubt votes, are facts that establish beyond doubt the hypocrisy of the Republican leaders in their treatment of the question of prohibition.

5. We hold the Republican party responsible for the failure—a failure willfully and cor-ruptly incurred—to enforce by "appropriate legislation" the sixteenth and seventeenth ar-ticles of the constitution, designed to protect the land and labor, the people and industries of this commonwealth.

6. We hold the Republican party responsible for the failure to pass any law for the relief of the manual laborers of the state of Penn-sylvania, and we recommend the enactment sylvania, and we recommend the enactment of such laws as will give equal protection and equal opportunities in every branch of industry to all citizens, irrespective of race, religion or nativity. We also hold the Republican party responsible for the failure of the legislature to consider favorably the petitions of the workingmen and farmers of this state for the equalization of the burdens of taxation and for miles from the executions of montion and for relief from the exactions of monopoly.

7. We hold the Republican party responsisible for the notorious corruptions which have for many years prevailed in the management of the state treasury, for the system of depositing loans without interest, enrich-ing favorites of the ring by the use of the pub-lic money and for the flagrant violation of law by the commissioners of the sinking fund;

law by the commissioners of the sinking fund; and we pledge the faith of the Democratic party that the candidate this day nominated will, if elected, reform these wrongs.

8. We favor the Australian ballot system as adopted to meet the requirements of our constitution and the special wants of our people, in order to secure the freedom and purity of elections menaced by the combined power of monopoly and the corruption of Republican rings and bosses.

9. That the sufferers by the recent floods have our sympathy, and that while we deprecate and condemn the management on the part of the state authorities by which relief to our sorely afflicted fellow citizens has been unnecessarily delayed, we urge our representatives in the legislature to take such constitutional action as will give substantial relief to the stricken communities.

10. While we favor a liberal system of pensions to such veterans of the late war as have been henorably discharged, and who, from wounds or other physical infirmities, have been rendered unfit for manual or other labor, we deem it unjust to that large class of those faithful soldiers of the Union who take a just pride in the heroicachievements of their comrades in arms; that there should be added to the pension roll the names of any who are not qualified therefor by reason of konorable and faithful service in the line of duty.

A COAL MINE ON FIRE.

Acres of Anthracite Biazing 200 Feet Below the Surface.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 6 .- What threatens to be one of the most destructive mine fires that ever occurred in this region is now raging in No. 2 colliery of the Delaware and Hudson Canal company at Olyphant, where several acres of anthracite coal are ablaze nearly 200 feet below the surface.

About three weeks ago there was an extensive cave in of the roof at this mine, followed by a tremendous explosion of fire damp, and several workmen don to Capt. Herbert Naylor Leyland. that the fire was then communica ed to the gas blowers which rush steadily through the coal fissures and that the anthracite was ignited in that way. The caving in has been going on steadily since that date, until the caved in area is nearly twenty-five acres. It was not until yesterday that the full extent of the fire became known, and gangs of expert miners were at once detailed to fight the flames.

It will be necessary to cut through 125 feet of coal before the streams of water that are to be carried through pipes can be directed effectively against the fire, and forces of workmen are employed night and day to make the necessary tunnel.

This is dangerous work, owing to the rapidly accumulating gases that may come in contact with the flames at any moment and result in a disastrous ex-

HOLDING ON TO THE OFFICE. Dispute Between the Old and New Post-

Postmasters at East Harrisburg. HARRISBURG, Sept. 10 .- A year or more ago S. A. Fishburn was appointed postmaster for the new East Harrisburg office. Last week George S. Machen, his successor, received his commission and demanded possession. Fishburn declined to turn over the government property without an order, whereupon the new postmaster sent to Washington, and back came an order. Thus pano-plied, Machen made another demand for the office on Saturday, but the expostmaster still refused to surrender. He expressed his determination to remain in possession of the office until the expiration of the quarter on Oct. 1. Mr. Machen became indignant and threat-ened legal proceedings to oust the obstreperous postmaster.

A Belt Road Around Sunbury. WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Sept. 10.—The freight business of the Pennsylvania Railroad company at Sunbury has assumed such enormous proportions that it is now difficult to handle it. Four divisions of this great road center in Sunbury—the Northern Central, Phila-delphia and Erie, Wilkesbarre and Hazleton and the Lewistown branches. Superintendent Westfall, of this city, and Trainmasters Attig and Young, of Sunbury, are now taking active steps to enlarge the yard facilities there by build-ing a belt line railroad around the city. This will make Sunbury one of the most extensive railroad and freight centers in this part of the state.

Texas Fever in Pennsylvania. WEST CHESTER, Pa., Sept. 10 .- Texas fever is prevailing among the valuable cattle belonging to William T. Sharp-less, of East Goshen township, Chester county, and six of them have already succumbed to the malady. Recently Mr. Sharpless received a shipment of thirty-five steers from the west. The disease was brought on by these animals and it is among them that the deaths have occurred. As fast as they die they have been cremated, so that the spreading of the disease may be prevented as far as possible.
