"THE RACKET"

No. 4 Crider's Exchange, Bellefonte.

LOCAL ITEMS.

—The great popularity of the Oxygen treatment, (in its various combinations), with all classes, is due to the great success in the treatment of all chronic diseases. See Dr. Clemens, the specialist, at the Brockerhoff House, Bellefonte, Sept. 25. Send to the Sanitarium, Allentown, Pa., for testimonials. Consultation free

—Maj. Fisher is remodeling and enlarging his store room at Penn Hall.

—Zeller's popular drug store at Bellefonte, is being moved to Crider's new block.

—The main boarding establishment at next week's picnic will be kept by D. C. & J. A. Keller.

—Postmaster Brisbin will carry a line of stationary and tobacco in connection with the office.

—The date for the sale of the Os-world farm should be Saturday, September 21. Instead of 31, as erroneously printed last week.

—Centre Hall will have about 15,000 of an increase in population next week, and there won't be many twins about it, either.

—Rev. Beaumont, Evangelical minister at Spring Mills, has resigned that field, and intends going to Oregon, to engage in mission work.

—In another column will be found a "special" notice to subscribers that will be of interest to all our readers who want a valuable farm journal free.

—On Monday morning E. R. Chambers, of Bellefonte, received his appointment as Deputy U. S. Revenue Collector of the 12th District, succeeding W. C. Heinle.

—Yoney Deinger is rapidly completing his building at the station. He intends running a large boarding house, and will furnish sleeping accommodations for a great many.

—Mrs. R. E. Bartholomew, and her daughter Helen, returned from an extended trip to the western states last Friday. They were absent about ten weeks, and speak of having had a very pleasant time.

—The 12th annual reunion of the 7th Penna. Vet. Vol. Cavalry Association, will be held at Danville, Montour county, Penna., Tuesday and Wednesday October 22 and 23. All communications should be addressed to Geo. F. Steahlin, Sec'y 7th P. V. A. Association, Orwigsburg, Pa.

—Jennie Mauck, wife of George Mauck, a young farmer residing near Lock Haven, accidentally shot herself through the heart on last Saturday morning and died instantly. The young couple had just arisen and Mrs. Mauck was examining a revolver when it was suddenly discharged.

—Passengers coming to the picnic next week by trains, will be let off on the new siding, about thirty rods west of the mill, in order to prevent a jam at the station. The company is putting down a wide cinder walk from the picnic point to the station. All passengers leaving Centre Hall, however will take the trains at the regular station, from which all trains will depart.

—Next week all locomotives will head for Centre Hall, for the REPORTER'S big picnic and exhibition, which will be a big affair and no postponement on account of bad weather. Our committee of arrangements has everything in trim, and to them we give big credit for it. The REPORTER always has success in all its projects.

—Mechanics generally, have plenty of work, as well as the day laborer. This is principally owing to the destruction of property by floods in different sections of the state. The work of repairing and rebuilding is going on and is likely to continue for a year or more, except at Johnstown where it will require at least a decade or longer, to rebuild what was destroyed. In parts of our county work is plenty and mechanics and day laborers should be able to get along. Hands, as a general thing, are in demand.

—Down at Selingsgrove the ants, or rather cranks, are still on the warpath and propose dumping the water works into the creek if it takes from now until the Court House is moved from Middleburg to the Isle of One where it ought to be. They are on the wrong side, however, and have done more to impede the progress of the town than the Werick boys ever did to terrorize it. It is time they are shaken out of their nightmare and brought to their senses. In Lewisburg moss backs like these cranks would have received notice to quit long ago.—Lewisburg News. We suppose these trouble making fellows must be cousins of some up here. Every town is cursed with a few.

Complete and extensive arrangements have been made in every department and in every detail, to make this exhibition the grandest attraction ever held in Central Pennsylvania. The beautiful grounds and substantial buildings have been improved, enlarged, and put in perfect repair; the "model" race course—a paragon half mile track—is in the best condition, and the management are assured of having some of the best races the State affords. The exhibits will largely exceed any of previous years and will contain many new and novel features. The premium lists are very complete and liberal aggregating the sum $8,000. Kurz, recently of our town, died on Tuesday evening, at his home, in Berlin, Somerset county, Pa., of cramp in the stomach. Mr. Krissinger was known to quite a number of our citizens, he was a Christian gentleman, and a well known and highly respected business man of Somerset county.

Facts for all.

In spite of all competition the Philad Branch clothing store, remains headquarter for actual bargains in ready made clothing, for men and boys. Lewins introduced cheap clothing in Centre county, and has kept it at that all the time; he kept honest goods, no trash, and, as a rule, always sold from 25 to 30 per cent. below any other clothing store in this part of the state.

Farms for Sale.

The following farms are advertised for sale in the REPORTER: Four farms of Mrs. Gov. Curtin. Farm of John Oswald, dec'd. Farm of Samuel Spangler, dec'd.

The dry spell of three weeks was broken by rain on Friday and Saturday of last week, which soaked the ground sufficiently to enable farmers to continue plowing and finish seeding.

—S. W. Smith, agent, will exhibit and put in actual use the "Acme" Pulverizing Harrow, Old Crusher and Leveler at the picnic next week. The implement was thoroughly tested by Wm. Fetterolf Wednesday who declares it does its work better on rough and cloddy ground than anything he ever saw.

—Robert McFarlane's hardware store in Bellefonte is headquarters for the celebrated Link Force Wire. Having bought a car load before the recent advance in price, he is able to sell at very low rates. The link wire has stood the test of several years in our county and has proven first class in all respects. It is so easy to handle and put up and weighs a little less to the rod than any other. Write for prices.

—Occasionally the cow gets even with that great American invention the cowcatcher and when she does assert her superiority to the devices of railroad science she usually makes a thorough job of it. A Pennsylvania cow on Thursday night succeeded in wrecking a train and killing one or two of the train hands. The habitual good nature of the cow is no indication that she can be pushed and kicked about with impunity, even by a locomotive engine.

Half-Rates to Columbus.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will convene at Columbus, Ohio, September 16th to 23rd. This meeting will undoubtedly bring together the largest assemblage of the order ever before gathered on a similar occasion. It is expected that 15,000 members, including a large number of Patriarchs Militant, will be in attendance. The parades and public ceremonies which will extend through the week will be highly interesting to the public as well as to members of the order. For this occasion the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets from all principal stations on its lines east of Pittsburgh and Erie (except New York), September 13th, to 19th, valid for return until September 26th, 1889, at the rate of a single fare for the round trip. The universally admitted superiority of the Pennsylvania Railroad's great system of through trains, equipped with coaches, sleeping and dining cars, affording every convenience to the traveler, commends this route to the favorable consideration of visitors.

Reynolds, president of the People's National bank at Lancaster, and for many years the leader of the Lancaster bar and prominently mentioned at one time for the Democratic nomination for governor, died on Tuesday morning, aged 57 years. A PRESIDENT ON BRANDY FOR SICKNESS.

The President of the Baltimore Medical College, Dr. Byrd, who has thoroughly tested Speer's wines, etc., says: I have prescribed Speer's port grape wine with marked and decidedly beneficial effects. I am prepared to best testimony to the value of his Brandy also as a pure and valuable article in all cases of disease in which a reliable stimulant is required. I would be happy to feel that I was instrumental in inducing my fellow citizens to patronize these productions, to the exclusion of the foreign "doctors," and harmful adulterated wines and brandies with which our people are often injured. HARVEY L. BYRD, M. D., President and Professor of Obstetrics and Diseases of Women and Children, Baltimore Medical College.

A Sad Accident.

Mrs. Jennie Mauck, of near Salona, Clinton county, lost her life last Saturday morning as follows: Mr. Mauck had loaded his revolver Friday evening before retiring, on account of some animal having been troubling his chickens the night previous. The revolver lay on a table by the bedside and Mrs. Mauck having arisen and put on her clothing picked up the weapon and was wiping it off with a cloth when it was accidentally discharged. Her husband was dressing himself in the same room at the time. Mrs. Mauck gave a scream ran down stairs and fell, exclaiming a moment later, "The bullet passed through the heart and lodged in her body."
