CONNECTICUT ELECTIONS.

Prohibition Badly Defeated in the Land of Steady Habits.

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 8.—Returns indicate that the vote on the prohibitory amendment is about 3 to 1 against it. Only ten towns so far reported give it a majority. The new secret ballot law received its first trial. There was no excitement at the polls, and in a general way the new plan worked exceedingly well. Hartford county complete gave 4,509 for the amendment and 10,031 against it.

WATERBURY, Conn., Oct. 8.—One hundred and three townships and the cities Waterbury and New Haven give a majority of 24,000 against the prohibitory constitutional amendment.

NORWICH, Conn., Oct. 8.—The vote in Norwich for the constitutional prohibition amendment was 679; against the amendment, 1,864; for license, 1,909; against license, 694.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 8.—The vote on the constitutional prohibition amendment was as follows: Total vote, 6,681; no, 5,068; yes, 1,613. Majority against amendment, 3,455. Of the fifteen wards the Prohibitionists secured a majority in only one, the Thirteenth, where they obtained a majority of 48.

BOYLE FOUND GUILTY.

Sentenced to Be Hanged Nov. 29—The Case Appealed.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 7.—The jury in the Boyle case retired at 8:30 Saturday night and three hours later returned a verdict in the presence of a crowded court room. Their verdict was that Boyle was guilty of rape. The attention of the great crowd in the court room was breathless when the verdict was announced. The counsel for Boyle made an earnest appeal for a new trial, which Judge Armfield promptly refused. He also overruled a motion in arrest of judgment.

When Boyle was asked if he had anything to say in his own behalf, he made a remarkably dramatic speech in which he charged that there was prejudice against him. He denounced two of the opposing counsel in the most bitter language. His manner was so spirited at times that he was once applauded. He concluded by saying that he was ready to receive the sentence.

Judge Armfield then sentenced him to be hanged on Nov. 29. Boyle's counsel made an appeal to carry the case to the supreme court of the state and this appeal was granted.

Facts for all.

In spite of all competition the Philad Branch clothing store, remains headquarters for actual bargains in ready made clothing, for men and boys. Lewins introduced cheap clothing in Centre county, and has kept it at that all the time; he kept honest goods, no trash, and, as a rule, always sold from 25 to 30 per cent. below any other clothing store in this part of the state.

Mormons Invade the Dominion.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 8.—Advices from the Canadian northwest, near Lees creek, report a great influx of Mormons from Utah territory. They are bringing in their plural wives as sisters, cousins and aunts, and are being closely watched by the Dominion authorities, who will prosecute them to the full extent of the law if they can get proof of polygamy. Mr. Slenshouse, the British Columbia member who resigned his seat in the legislature to enlist in the Mormon ranks, is actively canvassing Alberta with a view to securing a seat in the next Dominion parliament, where, he says, he will endeavor to effect marriage reform and the legalization of Mormonism.

An Itinerant Preacher Turns Counterfeiter

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 7.—The Orange county farmers who were arrested for counterfeiting were brought here. The leader of the band is Henry Crow, an itinerant Baptist preacher. He admitted his guilt and made a full confession, implicating all the men under arrest except two. The gang have been making counterfeit coin for two years, and confederates in half a dozen states have been regularly supplied with it by express.

Practical Politics in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 7.—Mr. Theodore Roosevelt, of the civil service commission, has submitted to the full commission a report of a short examination made by him into the management of the Baltimore postoffice, in so far as it is affected by the civil service law. He finds that the postmaster during his year of office removed eighty per cent. of the employes and that campaign assessments at election time were almost universal.

Gambling Suppressed in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 7.—Owing to the adoption by the city council of a resolution requesting the mayor to have the gambling houses closed all such places were notified Saturday to close by 6 o'clock p. m., and the order was complied with in every case. The openness with which all forms of gambling have been carried on of late and the scandals growing out of the admission of minors to the games led to the action of the authorities.

The Whipping Post in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 4.—John Eisenberger, 33 years of age, a man of slender build, was convicted of brutal wife beating. Judge Phelps sentenced him to fifteen lashes and thirty days in jail. The sentence took the prisoner's breath, for it is most unusual to inflict punishment by the lash but his treatment of a frail wife was more than inhuman. Eisenberger is the fourth man sentenced to the lash for wife beating since the epoch law in 1883.

—Lewins beats the state for large assortment of men and boy's clothing—and he beats the world and all clothing stores in it for low prices. There's where you save from $3 to $8 on a suit of clothes.

PLUMED KNIGHTS.

Parading by Thousands in the Capital City.

REVIEWED BY THE PRESIDENT

About 20,000 Forming in Line—The City Crowded with Visitors—Cincinnati and Denver Want the Cocarde of 1892—Cincinnati the Favorite—The Iowa Controversy to Be Amicably Settled.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Up to a late hour last night there was no cessation in the influx of sir knights and their friends. Each arriving train brought hundreds of plumed knights. All in readiness this morning and everybody is waiting to witness the magnificent spectacle promised by today's programme—the parade—when 20,000 sir knights are expected to march in line through the broad streets and avenues and past in review before President Harrison at the executive mansion. The departments and public schools will all close at noon and business will be entirely suspended during the afternoon.

The Parade Moves.

The streets about the capital have all the morning been filled with sir knights in glistening uniforms, and at this hour (11 a. m.) the parade is formed and about to start. It will pass over the usual inaugural parade route, up Pennsylvania avenue, past the treasury department and White House, where the line will be reviewed by President Harrison and several members of his cabinet.

Grand Master Gen. Charles Roome, who came here Saturday, has, owing to his feeble condition, kept indoors since his arrival. The exercises in which he will take part personally today will be made very brief.

The Next Place of Meeting.

There is considerable speculation here about the next place of meeting of the grand encampment. Cincinnati and Denver are mentioned. One or the other is likely to secure the honor. Cincinnati and Hanselman commanderies, from the Queen City, are both well represented at the gathering here, and feel confident that Cincinnati will be selected as the place of meeting in 1892. They will go before the grand encampment with satisfactory assurances that all the money needed to entertain the 1892 triennial will be forthcoming. In fact, more than $30,000 of the $50,000 needed is already pledged by business men of that city.

The Iowa Controversy.

The parade, it is thought, will postpone the opening of the conclave at Masonic temple until late this afternoon. Grand Master Roome's annual address, being the first thing in order, will then probably consume the remainder of the day.

Discussion of the breach of discipline on the part of the Iowa grand commandery will undoubtedly take up considerable space in his address and lead to the most important controversy in the conclave business meetings.

One of the officers of the grand encampment, in speaking of the Iowa case, said that it would not create a ripple at the present session.

Cut to Pieces by Their Father.

CHARLESTOWN, W. Va., Oct. 7.—Felix Kampf stabbed his young son and daughter to death with a two edged dirk and is now under arrest and may be lynched for his crime. He had treated the children so cruelly that they left him and went to housekeeping for themselves. Kampf missed two flat irons from his home. Going over to the home of his children he accused them of having stolen the irons. They denied the theft and he stabbed the girl. The boy interfered to save his sister and both were literally cut to pieces.

Grant, Sheridan and Sherman.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 4.—The delegates to the international American congress, with their escort, arrived here on their superb vestibule train late yesterday afternoon. The party repaired to Grant hall, where the handsome portraits of Gens. Grant, Sheridan and Sherman were unveiled. The presentation speech was made by Gen. Horace Porter and was in his most eloquent vein.

An Aeronaut Injured.

MT. VERNON, Ind., Oct. 8.—Professor George T. Rice made a balloon ascension here, descending in his parachute, which alighted with him in the Ohio river, just below the city. He became entangled in the ropes of his parachute and before he could extricate himself or aid could reach him he was drowned.

The Second Piedmont Exposition.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 8.—The second Piedmont exposition was formally opened here with appropriate exercises. Governor Gordon, Mayor Glenn, Speaker Clay, H. W. Grady and Senator Whitfield delivered addresses.

A Gladstonian Elected.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—At the election in Peterborough to fill a vacancy in the house of commons, Mr. Morton (Gladstonian) was elected, receiving 1,893 votes. Purns (Unionist) received 1,642.

Result of the French Elections.

PARIS, Oct. 8.—The latest estimate of the composition of the next chamber of deputies is 363 republicans and 214 in opposition. This estimate includes the deputies from the colonies.

—In spite of all competition Lewins continues to take the lead in ready made clothing, low prices as well as quality of goods. He gets ahead of all, sells more than all, pleases all, and fits and suits all.

Ex-President Hayes in Vermont.

BRAATTLEBORO, Vt., Oct. 8.—Ex-President Hayes is visiting relatives here at the old Hayes mansion, once occupied by his grandparents.

Edison Receives Bad News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Two hundred of Edison's employes at Harrison, a suburb of Newark, have struck against a 20 per cent. reduction.

Run Over by a Team.

STOUGHTON, Mass., Oct. 8.—Samuel W. Hodges, aged 68, was instantly killed here by being run over by a team.

—What the Philad. Branch does not have in the line of ready made clothing, is not worth having. The spring stock now on the counters is immense and goes ahead of anything you ever saw. Lewins is King for low prices.
