that Ideal Tooth Powder may flourish

The new Centre Hall Mills, of Kurtz & Son, have been in continuous operation now for ten weeks, and in that time have frequently been behind orders for both flour and feed. The Cream and Calla Lilly brands of flour, kept at the mill, are equal in excellence to these brands before the fire, and equal to any in the country. Rye flour and granulated corn meal of the finest grades are anufactured at this mill, also four grades of feed, the cheapest grades up to fancy chop. The purity and excellence of all these grades of mill feed have created such a demand for them in the short space of time since the mill has been in operation, that it has been found necessary to double the manufac-The above we clip from Tom Harter's turing capacity of the mill at once, and paper the Middleburg Post.
