MANHOOD
How Lost, How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure of spermatorrhoea or incapacity induced by excess of early indiscretion. The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' practice that the alarming consequences of early error may be radically cured, pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man of the land. Sent under seal, in plain envelope, to address post paid, on receipt of four cents or two postage stamps. Address: Sample of medicine free.

THE LAST SAD RITES.

The Funeral of Gen. Hartranft at Norristown.

DISTINGUISHED PALL BEARERS.

Eminent Military and Political Leaders Gather About the Bier of the Departed Soldier and Statesman—The Remains Lie in State in the Court House—Ceremonies at the Cemetery.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Oct. 21.—The body of Gen. Hartranft was removed from his late residence, on west Main street, to the court house at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Previously, commencing at 9:30, religious services, strictly private, were held, closing at 10:30. The body was then taken in charge by a detail of the escort and six sergeants, four of whom were attached to the general's headquarters. At 11 o'clock the remains were ready for the admission of the public in the main court room, where they now lie in state, surrounded by a guard of honor. The public will be admitted to view the remains until 3 o'clock, when services will be conducted by Rev. T. William Davidson of Philadelphia, probably assisted by Rev. Henry C. McCook, chaplain of the Second regiment. The procession will be formed and move promptly at 3 o'clock.

The Cortege.

The formation of the cortege will be in this order: Brig. Gen. Snowden and staff, brigade band, cavalry, artillery, infantry, clergy and surgeons, remains and pall bearers, mourners, including members of the former command of the deceased, distinguished persons according to rank, delegations, societies, citizens.

The casket containing the remains will be placed upon a gun caisson, drawn by six black horses, in charge of a sergeant and seven men of battery A. On arriving at the Hartranft residence, on Main street, a break will be made in the line to admit the family and immediate friends in carriages.

The Pall Bearers.

The pall bearers selected are: Maj. Gen. Rutherford B. Hayes, commander-in-chief of the Loyal Legion; Maj. Gen. Russell A. Alger, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic; Maj. Gen. D. McM. Gregg, commander of the Pennsylvania commandery of the Loyal Legion; Maj. Gen. John G. Parke, late commander of the Ninth army corps; Ex-Governors Curtin, Pollock and Pattison; Chief Justice Paxson, supreme court of Pennsylvania; Brig. Gen. James W. Latta, ex-adjutant general of Pennsylvania; Maj. Gen. William J. Bolton, late colonel Fifth-first regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers; Gen. Hartranft's late command; Col. R. H. L. Johnson, president Society Ninth Army Corps; Gen. C. H. Burney, secretary Society Ninth Army Corps; Col. George H. North, assistant adjutant general, of Gen. Hartranft's staff; Col. Charles S. Green, division commissary, national guard of Pennsylvania; Mr. Samuel C. Perkins, president public buildings commission; Mr. E. C. Knight, Mr. John Singluff and Hon. Henry Rawle, ex-treasurer state of Pennsylvania.

At the Cemetery.

Besides the military, the column will be made up of the military order of the Loyal Legion, Grand Army of the Republic, the Knights Templar, Masons, survivors of the Fifty-first regiment, Montgomery Fire company and Norristown Republican club.

Upon arriving at the cemetery the military will perform their duties, the Sixth regiment firing three volleys and Battery A giving a major general's salute of thirteen guns. The concluding ceremony will be the sounding of "taps" by Sergt. Williams, the general's bugler.

Pauperism Decreasing in Bucks County.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., Oct. 21.—The Bucks county board of charities, composed of William M. Large, John Wildman and Samuel Hart, made report to the public. Among other things it contained the following: "Whole number of inmates, 114. Lustrant crops have been gathered from the farm the past season—180 loads of hay, 47 loads of wheat, 12 loads of winter rye, 16 loads of spring rye, 53 loads of oats and 1,600 bushels of potatoes. The sale of stone from the quarry amounted to $400 during the past year. Pauperism is fast decreasing in our county."

Death of Edward Payson Darling.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 21.—Edward Payson Darling, senior member of the law firm of E. P. & J. V. Darling, and one of the best known lawyers in the state of Pennsylvania, died at his home here after a long and painful illness. He was first attacked with neuritis of the heart twelve years ago, and has been under medical treatment ever since, though for a large part of the time he was able to attend to his business.

The "Penny" in Good Condition.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 21.—The executive officials of the Pennsylvania system who have been inspecting the western lines under their jurisdiction, left for Philadelphia by special train. They declared that the system was never in better shape physically as well as financially. Many betterments are contemplated for the ensuing year, but no announcement of them will be made for some months yet.

Twelve Years for Murdering a Policeman.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 21.—Joseph Dimmy, the colored dwarf who murdered Policeman Miller, of Allegheny City, was sentenced by Judge White to serve a term of twelve years in the Riverside penitentiary. Dimmy smiled when sentence was pronounced. His counsel say he would not have complained if the sentence had been three times twelve years, as he narrowly escaped from the gallows.

John Kinter Drops Dead.

MT. HOLLY SPRINGS, Pa., Oct. 21.—John Kinter, aged 91 years, dropped dead at his home. Mr. Kinter was perhaps the oldest man in southern Pennsylvania. He was quite wealthy and took, when able, an active part in politics. He claimed to have taken part in the battle of New Orleans.

The Hanes Murder Mystery.

SUNBURY, Pa., Oct. 21.—There are as yet no further developments in the Hanes murder mystery. Detective Alexander and his men are still hard at work on the case. On the 23d the final habeas corpus hearing will be held before Judge Busher at Middleburg.

THE RIPPER IN HAMBURG.

A Woman Horribly Butchered in the Same Manner as in Whitechapel.

HAMBURG, Oct. 19.—Excitement has been caused here by the discovery of a murder similar in its details to those perpetrated in Whitechapel, London.

The body of a woman has been found in Plensburg, a suburb of this city. The throat was cut, the limbs dismembered and the abdomen cut open. The work of mutilation has been done by the hand of an expert who, if not Jack the Ripper, imitated him closely.

The victim was one of the class of unfortunates, the quarter in which the crime was committed was a disreputable one, and there are other circumstances to lead to the fear that the woman butcher of London has transpired to those perpetrated in Whitechapel, London.

The body of a woman has been found in Plensburg, a suburb of this city. The throat was cut, the limbs dismembered and the abdomen cut open. The work of mutilation has been done by the hand of an expert who, if not Jack the Ripper, imitated him closely.

Hamburg's Jack the Ripper.

HAMBURG, Oct. 21.—The body found in Plensburg on Friday has been identified as that of a young girl named Hensen. Outrage had preceded murder, and to conceal the crime the body had been cut up and the fragments buried in the sand, where they were discovered. The man who was last seen in the girl's company is known. He has fled and the police have tracked him as far as Berlin, where further trace of him has been lost. It is believed, however, he cannot escape.

Father McFadden's Trial.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Nearly 200 additional policemen arrived at Maryboro from Dublin, and though the popular excitement continued the court proceeded with the work of selecting a jury to try Father McFadden and his associates for the murder of Police Inspector Martin in February last. The court room was filled with police, and the indignant parishioners of Father McFadden, whose violence compelled the court to adjourn, were carefully excluded. The main object of the crown attorney appears to be to blacken the character of the accused priest and to destroy his popularity with his people.

Cheap Artificial Gas.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 17.—The Fuel Gas and Electric Engineering company, of which George Westinghouse, Jr., is the principal stockholder, announced that mechanism had been perfected whereby artificial gas could be produced at a less cost than is expended in piping natural gas from the wells. The process is so simple that all the patents are not yet secured. The company promises to be able to furnish the gas very shortly.

Bold Gotham Highwaymen.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—As John Burke, a bookmaker and saloon keeper, was going home, he was placed in a securely bound box, which in turn has been deposited in a grave composed of blocks of granite, cemented together with a securely fastened granite covering. The generally accepted theory is that the vandalism was committed to create a sensation.

Emerson's Remains Protected.

CONCORD, Mass., Oct. 19.—The coffin containing the remains of Ralph Waldo Emerson, whose grave was disturbed by vandals, has been placed in a securely bound box, which in turn has been deposited in a grave composed of blocks of granite, cemented together with a securely fastened granite covering. The generally accepted theory is that the vandalism was committed to create a sensation.

114 Years Old.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 19.—William Waterman died at Grand Rapids, Wis., aged 114 years. He was married twice. His first wife lived to the age of 75. He married his second wife when he was aged 100 years. She died of cancer of the stomach. He has used tobacco. While he used liquor to some extent it was never to excess. His remains will be brought here for interment.

Maggie Mitchell Married.

BOSTON, Oct. 19.—The Herald says that the silence which Miss Maggie Mitchell, the popular actress, and her leading man, Mr. Charles Abbott, have maintained concerning the many rumors of their marriage, has at last been broken and that the Herald may record the fact that they were married on June 13 last at the residence of the actress in Long Branch.

No Rise in the Price of Champagne.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Several of the morning papers printed stories to the effect that the proprietors of the fashionable hotels and eating houses had combined to put up the price of champagne to $4 a quart and $2 a pint. A canvass of the leading places shows that there is great opposition to the movement, in spite of the fact that at the present price the profits are very small.

R. Q. Mills Speaks in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—The Academy of Music was crowded to the doors last night at the mass meeting held under the auspices of the Democratic societies of Pennsylvania. Royce Q. Mills, of Texas, was the principal speaker. Henry Watterson, ex-Governor Abbott, Governors Jackson, of Maryland, and Biggs, of Delaware, were among the other speakers.

Vessels in Distress.

BEAUFORT, N. C., Oct. 17.—Two large three masted schooners are lying off and on outside apparently in distress. Under Cape Lookout a large steamship is visible, also showing signs of distress. A perfect gale has been blowing from the northwest ever since Monday. Pilots cannot get out owing to a heavy ground swell, two attempts to do so having failed.

Gen. Alger Requested.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Gen. Russell A. Alger was last night tendered a reception at Masonic hall by the members of Lafayette post Grand Army of the Republic. A banquet followed the reception and many toasts and speeches were made in honor of the distinguished guest. Gen. Alger replied in a felicitous speech.

A Great Day at Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Oct. 17.—After Gen. Hill's speech Henry W. Grady and Rowell P. Flower made short addresses. Then came the sham battle and review of troops. Last evening Governor Hill and party were tendered a reception at the houses of half a dozen leading citizens.

Thirty Days for Prize Fighting.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 22.—George H. Bush, the California pugilist indicted here for prize fighting, pleaded nolo contendere and was sentenced to thirty days imprisonment and to pay costs.

CAPITAL CITY CHAT.

Speculation Rife Concerning the Fifty-first Congress.

THE ORGANIZATION OF THE HOUSE.

The Speakership Lies Between Reed and McKinley—Maj. Carson Slated for Clerk. Opinions of Members on Impending Legislation—Civil Service, Trusts, the Tariff and Fisheries Dispute Will Command Attention.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—As members elect to the Fifty-first Congress reach the city gossip respecting the organization of the next house of representatives materially increases. The consensus of opinion among members elect now here indicates that the speakership will go either to Maine (Mr. Reid), or Ohio (Mr. McKinley), Messrs. Burroughs, of Michigan, and Cannon, of Illinois, are both on the ground, however, and it is said, will at least make the contest interesting before balloting begins. At this writing it would be a very difficult undertaking to pick out the stronger candidate from the first two named.

The Minor Offices.

Maj. John M. Carson, of the Philadelphia Ledger, appears to have already practically captured the clerkship of the next house. In his modest way Maj. Carson has been working all summer, and it is claimed by his friends that he has pledges sufficient to elect on the first ballot.

Col. Swords appears to have no rival for the position of sergeant-at-arms, while there are several candidates for the offices of doorkeeper and postmaster.

Business of the Session.

There are not many senators and representatives in Washington now, but most of those here expect a very interesting and busy session of congress during the coming winter. The tariff, trusts, the civil service law, the interstate commerce law, the educational question, a national election law and subsidies will be among the subjects that will engage the attention of congress.

What are recognized as the great questions of the day will, for the most part, be presented as party measures and are likely to render the coming session a very important one.

Senator Dolph's Forecast.

Senator Dolph thinks Congress will take no step backward in the matter of interstate commerce or civil service reform. Whatever amendments are made to either will be for the purpose of eradicating defects disclosed by experience, and to make them more effective.

The race question, he says, will undoubtedly be discussed in connection with the contested election cases and independently of them. It is a live question and will not down at any bidding.

He feels confident that the tariff will be revised and the source of the revenue will be sought in other measures not very dissimilar to the senate bill will be passed. It is possible, he thinks, that some bill upon the subject of trusts will be passed, but the subject must be dealt with in the main, the senator says, by the states. The power of congress over the subject is so limited with regard to little value any law which it may pass to prevent or control trusts in the states.

Revenue Revision Probable.

Congressman Browne, of Indiana, thinks a revision of the revenue system the most important question awaiting the action of congress, and favors a repeal of the tax on tobacco and alcohol and in the arts and a reduction of the tax on sugar.

"Something will probably be done regarding the seal fisheries, and also the Canadian fishery dispute. These questions, however, will not divide the parties. I have no doubt, there will be amendments to the interstate commerce law, and congress will unquestionably legislate on the subject of trusts, if it is possible to define a trust, in such a way as not to interfere with legitimate business."

Congressman Hill of Illinois.

Congressman Hill, of Illinois, thinks it rather too early to make any predictions about what congress will do at the coming session. No conference of even the most informal kind has yet been held, so that no means of judging what other members are considering is to be had. The shifting of opinion on many important points is so likely that a judgment now is not very apt to hold when actual voting on questions begins in February and March.

Something in the way of amendatory legislation to the interstate commerce law may be expected. As to the civil service law too many congressmen of both parties are pledged to its support to allow of its repeal. The subject of trusts will probably be involved in the discussion of the tariff, which will of course come up next session.

The Bentlie Horror.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The engineers have pronounced the Bentlie colliery at Langton safe and the superintendent again called for volunteers among the miners to go down for the purpose of bringing up the remaining bodies of men killed in the recent explosion, but not a single man responded. The stench from the decomposing bodies is so great that not one of the men could be tempted by the offers of big pay to again enter the mine.

Twelve coroners are on the ground awaiting the production of the bodies underneath the ground, while a disgraceful quarrel between them as to the question of jurisdiction stands in the way of any disposition of the thirty-seven bodies already recovered. As each body is recovered, the nearest relative of one of these two enterprising officials, and as neither will grant this until the other withdraws his claim to the right to hold the inquest the situation is as dangerous to health to the neighborhood as it is disgraceful, and a compromise by which the fat fees of the inquest will be divided seems the only issue to the squabble.

Governor Forsaker's Condition.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 22.—Governor Forsaker's condition is still a matter of serious apprehension to his friends, although he is reported as convalescing. Today his improvement is noted marked and it is reasonably certain that the governor will not be able to fill any of his appointments for this week, and by some it is considered doubtful if he will be able to speak again during the campaign.

Montana's Election Contest.

HELENA, Mont., Oct. 22.—A special term of the supreme court will be held next Monday to hear the Silver Bow county disputed election case on the decision of which depends the complexion of the legislature.
