

WOE IN LEBANON.

A Horrible Accident at the Colebrook Furnaces.

LEBANON, Pa., Nov. 5.—One of the most horrible accidents occurred last evening at the Colebrook furnaces that was ever known here.

On Saturday evening the iron broke out at the hearth of No. 1 furnace and was checked with great trouble. Last evening at 5 o'clock it again broke out, causing sad havoc in several families.

Ten men were engaged with block and fall breaking the large mass of iron, when, without a moment's notice, the iron burst out on the west side, flying in every direction, and about thirty feet in the air.

Among those working at the place were William Snyder, Isaac Seigrist, Harry Bohr, Harvey Beck, Henry Fertig, John Bohr, Enoch Isenhauer, Benneville Eck, E. H. Tice and Henry Foreman.

The first four were covered with a mass of molten metal and were burned to a crisp when found in the debris.

John Bohr had his hands and feet badly burned, Isenhauer's entire body was seriously burned, while Benneville Eck is dangerously burned, with but slight hope of recovery.

Tice and Foreman, working at the top of the mantle, jumped on to the roof of the slackhouse and escaped with slight burns and bruises.

A large force of men were put to work immediately after the iron had been cooled by the fire companies. Harry Beck was the first victim found, burned to a crisp on the first mantle. At 6:30 William Snyder was found buried in three feet of molten iron. The bodies of Seigrist, Fertig and Bohr have not yet been found.

Weeping wives, mothers and fathers are among the throng of people waiting to identify the dead. Those who were taken out were taken to the Good Samaritan hospital.

The other bodies may not be found at all, as the heat was so intense it is likely they were burned to ashes.

For Trying to Wreck a Train.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 4.—Frank George, Harry Charon and Alexander Charon, three Hungarians who attempted to wreck a gravity railroad train near Carbondale, were each sentenced to three years' imprisonment in the eastern penitentiary.

A Scranton Clergyman's Call.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 5.—Rev. Dr. David Spencer, formerly of Philadelphia, who has been pastor of the Pennsylvania Avenue Baptist church in this city since 1880, has resigned to accept a call to Racine, Wis.

Facts for all.

In spite of all competition the Philad. Branch clothing store, remains headquarters for actual bargains in ready made clothing for men and boys. Lewins introduced cheap clothing in Centre county, and has kept it at that all the time; he kept honest goods, no trash, and, as a rule, always sold from 25 to 30 per cent below any other clothing store in this part of the state.

JOHNSTOWN'S DEAD.

Progress of the Search for Bodies—The Fund Reaches $12,000.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 4.—Large crowds of people daily watch the removal of the dead that is going on in hope of finding some of their kin who are yet among the missing. The fund for continuing the search for the dead has rolled up to $12,240. No subscription was asked or received from outside the Conemaugh valley. The Cambria Iron company added $2,000 to the fund.

Mr. Scheck, surveyor, made a report of the condition of bridges to the foreman of the flood commission. After a full discussion of the subject it was decided that the Lincoln bridge be replaced by a wooden trestle four feet above the present abutment, and that the Franklin street bridge, Woodvale bridge, Poplar street bridge and Cambria iron bridge should be sheathed and the piers should be weighted.

During the week 201 bodies were lifted in Prospect cemetery, and of the 171 which were buried in a public plot ten were identified.

The Scranton City Bank.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 4.—Assignee Gunster has commenced the payment of depositors' claims against the Scranton City bank, which closed its doors last May because of Cashier Jessup's using its funds to develop coal land leases. The payments are 60 per cent of each claim, and will be followed with 10 per cent the 1st of each succeeding month until all are fully paid up, the bank having realized sufficiently from the assets turned over by Jessup and the payments of the directors to warrant this early and satisfactory adjustment. Over 800 depositors paid $40,000 and nearly 600 have yet to present their claims.

Saloon Keepers Win.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Judge Bregy rendered decisions dismissing rules that had been taken by the Law and Order society against eight saloon keepers to show cause why their licenses should not be revoked for selling to persons visibly affected with drink and in some instances to minors. His honor decided that the testimony in behalf of the defendants was overwhelming, and he could not draw an inference that they had knowingly violated the law.

Teaching the Teachers.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Nov. 5.—West Chester is full of school teachers, from the young and giddy girl who has taught for a few weeks to the elderly and staid female who has passed the greater portion of her life in a school room. Trains brought them from all parts of the county and nearly 500 of them have registered at Horticultural hall, where the thirty-fourth session of the Chester County Teachers' institute is being held.

THE RESULT IN MONTANA.

The Republicans Secure the Legislature and Most of the State Offices.

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 5.—The official canvass of the state vote was finished, Silver Bow county, over which there is a dispute, was canvassed by the board of that county, thus electing the entire Republican state ticket, except Toole for governor. The judges of the supreme court and six of the eight district judges are Republican.

The senate is a tie, with a Republican lieutenant governor to cast the deciding vote. The house is Republican by, at least, six majority. The Republicans expect to gain one seat in the house in Jefferson county. The returns from this county are contested. If they gain this seat they will have eight majority on joint ballot. There is a tie for member of the house in Beaver Head and Deer Lodge counties, which will necessitate a new election. Out of 22,000 votes cast only 1,800 are against the adoption of the constitution.

Both Sides Claim Ohio.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 5.—Chairman Conger of the Republican state executive committee, went home to Akron to vote. As there were several inquiries for his opinion he was telegraphed from headquarters for it and replied: "Our poll of over 22,000 precincts in the state shows a plurality for the Republican state ticket of over 21,000 outside of Hamilton county. To be conservative we deduct 5,000 on account of local differences, waiting strength that may come to us from some causes on the other side. I do not believe our plurality can possibly fall below 15,000. We estimate our majority in the senate at 3 and in the house at 17."

Chairman Neal of the Democratic executive committee, before starting home to Hamilton county said: "The entire Democratic state ticket will be elected by large majorities, and Mr. Campbell will beat Governor Foraker by not less than 16,000, and it will be more apt to be 20,000 or 25,000."

Baltimore's Exciting Contest.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—Perhaps the most hotly contested election that has taken place in Baltimore since 1875 is progressing here. The opposing forces are the regular Democrats, under the lead of United States Senator Gorman, and the Independent Democrats and Republicans with John K. Cowan, general counsel of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company, at their head. There are to be elected a mayor, chief judge, sheriff, clerk of the superior court, city surveyor, thirty-three members of the city council and a full legislative ticket and a state comptroller. The campaign has been very bitter. Money has been used lavishly. Thousands upon thousands of dollars has been spent by both sides in advertising speeches and open letters.

The Australian Ballot in Massachusetts.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The state election in progress here is chiefly interesting as furnishing the first test of the new Australian ballot law in this state. The campaign has not aroused any excitement and the minor local offices have almost monopolized the efforts of the politicians. The Republicans claim their usual majority for governor, while the Democrats express a belief that their nominee will win by from 2,000 to 3,000 majority. Returns from some of the larger towns in the state may be announced later than usual, as the counting of votes under the new system may occupy more time than formerly.

The Election in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Polling is proceeding quietly throughout the city, the chief interest centering in the local offices. A small vote is being cast. The Tammany workers are seen on every hand and the fusion ticket is being closely pressed. Both parties "claim everything" for both the city and state tickets.

Borkiewicz's Desperate Leap.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—"Count" Anselmo Stanislaus Borkiewicz, that versatile young Russian "nobleman" who has been attracting so much attention lately in a criminal way, distinguished himself again by making a most daring leap for liberty from the rear end of a Third Avenue "L" car that was in motion on the track and from there to the street below, a distance of thirty feet. He is now lying in the prisoner's cage in Bellevue hospital. His right knee cap is broken into four quarters, his heel bone on the left foot is shattered in many pieces and his ankle bone on the same foot is fractured. He made the leap in an attempt to escape from Detective Nugent, in whose charge he was.

A Fatal Political Dispute.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 5.—A number of negroes at Dickerson's store, Henrico county, three miles from here, got into a dispute about politics. A negro named Spot was struck on the head with a piece of wood and died soon afterward. The murderer and twenty-five or thirty other negroes who were present have been arrested.

A Lancaster Central Trades Union.

LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 4.—The permanent organization of a Central Trades union was effected at a meeting of representatives of all the unions in the city. The meeting resolved to take the steps necessary for abolishing child labor in the local factories and to agitate in favor of eight hours as a day's labor. There are about 1,500 organized working people in this city, and an effort will be made to largely increase that number.

A Hermit Starves to Death.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., Nov. 4.—Conrad Miller, who has passed most of his life a hermit in his lonely cabin among the rocks of Haycock township, was found dead. On careful examination by a physician it was found that the old man had starved to death. He was 76 years old.

Stole a Chew of Tobacco.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 2.—In the criminal court here Patrick White was convicted of robbing Thomas Carroll of a chew of tobacco. Conviction would have been impossible had not White been a hard character who has frequently figured in criminal trials.

In spite of all competition Lewin continues to take the lead in ready made clothing, low prices as well as quality of goods. He gets ahead of all, sells more than all, pleases all, and fits and suits all.

—What be Philad. Branch does not have in the line of ready-made clothing, is not worth having. The spring stock now on the counters is immense and goes ahead of anything you ever saw Lewins is King for low prices.
