LOCAL ITEMS.

—Ask your storekeeper for Calla Lily flour, and get a No. 1 article.

—The season for rabbits opened on Thursday.

—Communion services in the Lutheran church next Sabbath morning.

—W. K. Alexander, wife and daughter, have returned to Millheim from Denver.

—Ground has been broken for A. P. Lase's new house, on the lot south of Bartholomew's.

—Rev. Fischer, and Aaron Harter, delegate, are attending the Lutheran conference at Hartleton.

—Our old friend Knoeffsinger, from across the mountain gave us a call, are always glad to see him.

—Mrs. Montilus, of Piper City, Ill., and Mrs. Dr. Gast, of Millburg, are visiting at Wm. Wolf's.

—Town Councilman George Ocker and family spent a few days on a pleasant visit to Brushvalley.

—Messrs. Frank Arney and John Lee have gone to State College, where they have a job at painting.

—Simon Loeb's new clothing store, opposite the Conrad house, is the place for bargains in men and boys' suits.

—Alfred P. Krapp, of Farmers Mills, this week moved into his house east of the station. He will be a good citizen.

—A five-weeks old infant child of James McCleane, living at the upper end of town, died on Sunday morning of sore throat.

—Last Saturday night a heavy rain set in which continued until near Sunday noon, after which the sky became bright and clear.

—Dr. Rider is busy attending calls as a veterinary practitioner, for which he is recently registered, and meets with good success.

—Dr. J. R. Gast, the eye specialist, will be at Centre Hall, Monday next, 11th; at Spring Mills, 12th; Millheim, 13th, and Aronsburg on 14th.

—Mingle's shoe store, in the Brockertown Row, is brim full of new stock for fall and winter. Just anything you want and at any price, except high prices.

—Send your name in for the Expansion camp on trial. Or send us two new names and the cash for a year and we give you a copy one year free, thus enabling any one, by very little effort to get a paper one year free.

—The Bellefonte Republican and Daily News have again changed management. Mr. Newton Baily stepping down and off the editorial tripod and Mr. Charles Gates taking charge. We wish him and his interesting sheets unbounded success.

—At Sunbury James Griggs, aged 28, while attempting to jump on a Philadelphia and Reading freight to go to Lewisburg, fell under the wheels, which passed over both legs. It was found necessary to amputate them below the knees. He is not expected to live. He has a wife and child.

—If one little son arriving in a family adds one thousand dollars to the wealth of the father, then two little sons will add two thousand—that's sound arithmetic. So then Jacob Lee is $2,000 better off since Monday morning, because it's twins, and the little ones are doing finely. Now begin taking the next census.

—To meet a funeral procession is a sign of death.

—To lose a pocketbook containing bills of large denominations is considered very unlucky.

—When a cat prepares to wash its face it is a sign that someone in the house will shortly receive a licking.

—If you are in a house and hear a baby cry it is a sign of marriage—or, if it isn't it ought to be.—Ez.

—Stoves! Stoves! Stoves, that is what Reesman across the way is stocked with. Stoves of every size and description, for the parlor, sitting room and kitchen; stoves for wood and coal, for rich and poor, plain and fancy; as fine an assortment as can be found in this county, and at prices far below other dealers. Andy puts them up for you and warrants them good. His is the oldest stove store in the county and none of his customers have yet had cause to complain and always found him honest. Andy, and those are the business men one should always patronize. Go and see his stock, and you will be pleased with what you see he has.

Hallow Eve.

"All-Hallows, the English and Scotch version of All Saints' day. Hallow 'en' is thought to be a night when witches, devils, and other mischief making beings are all abroad on their baneful midnight errands."

In our day, the REPORTER surmises, that the boys imagine that on hallow 'en they can play devil and witch with full license, and mix up and throw around things generally, in streets and lanes, and the youngsters keep it up just as regularly as hallow-en comes around. How they all just know the day, better than the date when Columbus discovered America, is what puzzles us older chaps, who, of course, never went into the mischief business when we were boys.

Our village, with the rest is visited regularly with hallow-en capers. Last Thursday night pretty near all the signs in town were misplaced, and many things upset. One feature about this event is the harm that is frequently done by the "witches" and "devils" on hallow-eve night, to premises and persons, effects, which oversteps the bounds of sport and is wrong. When only innocent sport is wrought, there is little complaint, as the boys must have their fun.

Spangler's meat market sign was planted at neighbor Geiss's residence, who only eats meat and does not sell. The awning at Spangler's, under which all find such a cool landing place in summer, was removed and spread in front of Murray's drug store, inscribed with large letters, "Closing out." Yet Murray does such a profitable business that he does not think of selling off at losing prices. Murray's soda water sign was grafted to Booser's meat market where they don't have any fizz nor foam.

Dr. Emerick's shingle was posted at McCormick's. The signs of Shoop & Booser and Arney and Mingle were planted at the Reporter office; some of these parties not only for a hundred months having wanted to both run and ruin the business of this shanty, would make it appear as though all their business would have to be done here now to be successful.

At the far end of town, it appears, the "witches and devils" held a funeral, burying two important parties, kindly furnishing an epitaph, yet the "dead" ones are still alive.

Further out, about the station, there were also some upsets and shiftings, which space forbids us to enumerate.

The Bayard-Strohm Wedding.

One of the most elaborate and beautiful weddings that has taken place in this vicinity for a long time was solemnized yesterday, Wednesday, at half past eleven o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Strohm, at Centre Hill.

About one hundred and twenty-five friends were here assembled to witness the marriage of Miss Laura M. Strohm, to Mr. Walter W. Bayard, of Bellefonte.

Promptly at the appointed time, Miss Celia Bayard, sister of the groom, gave the signal for the arrival of the bridal party, in the familiar strains of the wedding march, when the ushers, Messrs. W. F. Harris, John Bullock, Charles Richard and Archie Allison entered the parlors, followed by the bride and groom, where they were met by the Rev. Dr. Laurie, of Bellefonte, who then performed a most impressive and touching ceremony. Congratulations were then in order, immediately following which bountiful refreshments were served.

At 2:30 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Bayard, amidst a shower of rice and old shoes, entered their carriage and were driven to the Centre Hill station, where they took the 8:20 train for the East. Philadelphia, New York, Baltimore and Washington will be visited before their return to Altoona, where their home will be for the winter.

Guests were present from Illinois, Ohio, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Altoona, etc.

One of the many pleasures of the day, was an inspection of the presents, which were more handsome and valuable than any collection ever seen in this section.

Death of Col. Stover.

A special in Thursday's Philadelphia Press records the death at Aurora Springs, Mo., on October 27, of Colonel John H. Stover, formerly Captain of Company B, 10th Pennsylvania Vol.; Major of 106th Pa. Vol., and finally colonel of 148th Pa. Vol. Mr. Stover is an old Centre county resident, being born and raised at Aronsburg.

He read law in Bellefonte and was admitted to practice. He at one time ran for Congress in Missouri to fill a vacancy of Col. McClurg, who was elected governor, and was elected, serving three months in congress. Col. Stover afterwards ran for Lieutenant Governor of Missouri on the Republican ticket but was not elected. He was also associated with J. G. Kurtz in the Bellefonte Central Press. He ran for district attorney in this county against D. G. Bush and was elected.

Grapes and Grape Juice.

The art of Preserving Grape juice without fermentation and the art of fermenting the Oporto grape into wine in this country has been brought to a greater degree of perfection by Mr. Alfred Speer, of New Jersey, than by any other person. The Claret and Burgundy are very popular as dinner wine and the Port and Unfermented Juice as evening wines as well as for the communion table and for invalids. For sale by druggists.

Flour and Feed.

Every grade of wheat and rye flour, branied meal, chop, cowfeed and grades of all grades, to be had at the Centre Hall mill, wholesale and retail.

Flour and meal will always be kept in town for the convenience of town customers.

Coal, hard and Woodland, and soft at the new sheds at the mill. Terms cash. Kurtz & Son.

—Woodland and all kinds of soft and hard coal at the Centre Hall mills.

—Ask at your store for Calla Lily flour—it is No. 1.

—Dried fruit wanted at C. P. Long's, Spring Mills.

—Bartholomew's is the only place in town you can buy the Snag-Proof Rubber boot.

—New lot of robes and 5-A horse blankets very cheap at Booser's.

—Lewins beats the state for large assortment of men and boy's clothing; and he beats the world and all clothing stores in it for low prices. There's where you save from $3 to $8 on a suit of clothes.

Accidental Death.

On Thursday afternoon last, Mr. William McPherson, of Welkert Station, Union county, went hunting for rabbits. He set his gun down on the ground, forgetting at the time that it was loaded and also cocked. In some way the trigger was touched and the gun went off, the shot entering Mr. McPherson's face below the right eye. He was found and taken home but died the following Friday night.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment is the only sure cure for Blind, Bleeding or Itching Piles ever discovered. It never fails to cure old chronic cases of long standing.

Judge Coons, Maysville, Ky., says: "Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment cured me after years of suffering." George Coffinbury, Cleveland, O., says: "I have found by experience that Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment gives immediate and permanent relief."

We have hundreds of such testimonials. Do not suffer an instant longer. Sold by druggists at 50c & $1 per box. ap21y

One Fare to Baltimore via P. R. R.

A large number of people will be attracted to Baltimore by the meeting of the Catholic Congress and the ceremonies incident thereto, and in order that they may make the trip as conveniently and as cheaply as possible, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets November 7th to 12th, valid for return until November 16th, from all principal stations on its lines at a single fare for the round trip. During the same period, in order that the visitors to Baltimore may also extend their trip to Washington, excursion tickets will be sold between the two cities at $1.20, valid for return until November 16th.

Sudden Deaths.

On Monday last week Mr. William Orndorf, of Woodward, died suddenly of Bright's disease of the kidneys.

Mr. John Hess, of the same place, also died suddenly of apoplexy on same day.

STAR SPRING WATER.

Saratoga Star Spring Water for sale in bottles and by the glass by all druggists.

—The elegant new shoe store, of Mr. Gillam, in the Crider Block, Bellefonte, should be visited to see his stock and variety of boots and shoes for all ages and sexes.

—Now is your time to get a cheap overcoat, and Lewins has 'em cheap, good, warm, lasting goods. Give the Philad. Branch a call and see for yourself and save $5 to boot.

—Lewins is putting out new suits like hot cakes. Everybody wants them because they are so cheap and well made from all principal stations on its lines at a single fare for the round trip.

—All that desire bargains in boots or shoes, go to Mingle's shoe store in the Brockertown block, which is the place to get anything in that line at lowest prices and every article warranted, or money refunded, if not found as represented. Mingle keeps none but first class goods.

—All the New Woollens for the coming season now being received. Liberal discount on early orders during the dull season. Our Fall stock will be the finest ever shown. Prices and a good fit guaranteed. MONTGOMERY & CO., Tailors, Bellefonte.

—Mingle's shoe store in the Brockertown block has every idea in the line of boots and shoes, a hether of rubber, leather or cloth, and he sells at bottom prices, so that none pay more than the goods are worth. He warrants all he sells.

—Lewins now has his counters stocked with the best lot of ready-made clothing yet brought to Centre county, and at the most astonishing low prices. Lewins always leads—he never follows. You never heard a customer complain of any article of clothing purchased of honest Sam Lewins.

—McFarlane's hardware store is having a tremendous run on stoves this season and the best reason for this is the fact that none but the best goods in this line are sold by this firm. The Apollo Range has the lead of all stoves of that class. Hundreds of them have been sold and all are giving the best satisfaction. One man says his Apollo don't burn more than half as much coal as a No 9 cookstove he formerly used. They burn wood as well as coal and take a stick 26 inches long. The celebrated Regulator cook has been remodeled and is now the handsomest stove in Bellefonte. Warranted in all respects.

"VENI, VIDI, VICI."

The Exposition is closed until October next. We saw it; it was great, being in its infancy, but we saw enough to convince ourselves of the fact that enterprise, such as displayed there, should not be passed by without some comment. But we still wonder why it was that only one wholesale liquor house was so boldly represented. You could see its pyramid of bottles from any part of the great building. It was the prettiest display there. Max Klein has proved to the public that he is proud of it and he was every body to see it. His goods are pure and reliable. You can have his Silver Age for $1.50 per full quart. His Guckenheimer, Finck, Overholt or Gilson at $1.00 per quart, or 6 quarts for $5.00. Send for his price list and mention this paper. His address is MAX KLEIN, 82 Federal St., Allegheny.

Congratulations.

The Reporter has had a dozen letters congratulating it upon the good work it so largely aided in routing the drunken, plundering Henderson-Fiedler-Cook gang in the county. Honest Republicans tell us too they are glad. A more infamous set of fellows never had their hands upon the throats of the people any where than this gang.

Notice to Resign.

The result of Tuesday's election means that the county commissioners should resign. The grand jury indicted them and the people have rendered a verdict, unfaithful servants. All good Democrats and Republicans say, Guilty.

—If you wish to have a good overcoat, $4 to $8 less than can be bought elsewhere, then go to Samuel Lewins, he has them and warrants them. He sells nothing that has cheated about it.

Rebersburg.

Prof. Harry Conser lectured in the Evangelical church last Saturday evening on "Home Life in Germany." Notwithstanding the rain quite a respectable crowd was present. The Prof. delivered an instructive, eloquent and entertaining lecture, which showed that he had his eyes and ears open while visiting the Fatherland.

Rev. Dotterer, delivered his last sermon as pastor of the Reformed congregation of this place, last Sunday morning.

Miss Rose Harter, our primary school teacher is on the sick list at present, having contracted a very bad cold.

Edward Bierly, a student of Central Pa. college was home on a visit to his parents. He returned to college again on Monday.

Henry Kreamer, and George Ocker and wife, of Centre Hall were visiting in our town over Sunday.

The Kramerville town hall is being plastered this week.

George Winters moved from the west end to the middle of Kramerville on Monday.

The teachers and directors have some very noticeable improvements on the inside appearance of some of our school houses, and we hear that the good work is to continue. This is as it ought to be, as some of our school houses have been in a deplorable condition.

Walnut Grove.

H. W. Spangler of Mifflinburg was through here again canvassing for a rooster, and finds a great many customers throughout the valley.

The Mises Sparrs are having many improvements made on their lately purchased farm, the house and barn has been remodeled, and every thing is done up in first class order.

Several of our young people were to the Zion church near Tusseyville to singing on Sunday evening, and by the remarks your correspondent overheard them make, the singing school is among the No. 1's.

Miss Sarah Reed who had been visiting at Pine Grove returned home last week.

Corra E. Durst was to Tusseyville to visit her friend Maggie Spangler.

Our school is in a flourishing condition, and the number of scholars is increasing.

Viola From and Mary Malze who had been taking instructions on drafting from Mr. Kelley are through, and we suppose they will set up a shop at once, however we will guarantee them patronage if they do.

Dan Colyer who had a leg broken some time ago, had the weight, shingles, etc., taken off last week, but after so doing it was found that the bone had only grown together around the edge, the consequence was it slipped back again and had to be reset. The young man had been bearing with the misfortune patiently, but to lie bed four or six weeks more is enough to discourage him.

Coburn.

A few of our Democrats stayed at home also a few Republicans, but they did all they could to get out their vote, but it seems that some of them are getting disgusted with the way Dr. Bruders are acting and begin to think it about time they turn the scales out. Of course their new appointments here did all they could and they didn't forget to assess them an X, to help defray their expenses. That the way they get their bootie. The man with the longest pole gets the pennimons. The election passed off very quietly, and the Republicans lost a few votes and they calculated and tried to trade off anything for Fleming or Muser, but the Democrats wouldn't trade for a dime. There was only 2 tickets that scratched scratcher; suppose they thought they were smart. It ain't healthy to be too smart.

The boys were out for a deer hunt last week, and returned on Friday evening. Bear but no deer, and report deer very scarce. Did'y see a deer on their trip but say pheasants are very plenty.

Mr. Jacob Witzmeyer is on the sick list for several days; also G. M. Bower has a serious attack of lung fever.

We have some very good Prohibitionists here to hear them talk but by the returns when it comes to voting his dog eat dog and they vote the whole republican ticket; but you can't expect more.

Either of the following engravings, "Evangeline," "Bayard," "Monarch of the Glen" or "The First Step," without advertising on them, size 20 x 24 inches, given with one 50 cent or two 25 cent bottles of Ideal Tooth Powder. These are not cheap lithographs, but works of art. A. D. Bowman, Dentist, Nicholia, Idaho, says, I am using your Ideal Tooth Powder, and find it superior to all others.

The engraving "Evangeline" arrived safely on the 24th of December, making it seem like a Christmas gift. Trusting that Ideal Tooth Powder may flourish, I remain, yours respectfully, ELOIS EARNEST, Denver, Col. One of these engravings without advertising on it worth $1 retail is given with each two 25 cent bottles of Ideal Tooth Powder.

I find Ideal Tooth Powder is without exception the best I have ever used. With its aid I keep my teeth very clean and white, which I was unable to do with any other powder I have ever tried before. So says Ferdinand E. Chartard, Baltimore, Md.

By the way, will you buy and use Ideal Tooth Powder? We can thoroughly recommend it. R. E. Nichols, Dentist, Salina, Kansas, says, Ideal Tooth Powder is in my estimation, just what its name indicates. An engraving 20 x 24 is given with each two bottles. Price 25 cents per bottle.

The Reporter in its issue of October 17th, said the majority for our ticket in this county would be near 800. We made a canvass of the county and frequently told leading Democrats the true situation. We seldom miss in our estimates of the county.

Reporter, Oct. 24.

Centre county will go Democratic this fall simply because the people want things to go right. It is not in the interest of any clique or faction, but to rebuke clique and faction that the verdict will be thus. Neither will clique or faction be able to gain foothold hereafter in the county, be they who they may.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.—THE FIRM of J. C. Weaver, Hannah Dorworth and E. S. Dorworth, of Bellefonte, trading under the firm name of Weaver & Co. was mutually dissolved October 31, 1895. All accounts of the firm will be left in the hands of E. S. Dorworth for settlement. The business will be continued by E. S. Dorworth.

J. C. WEAVER, HANNAH DORWORTH, E. S. DORWORTH.

Wm. Wolf & Son

Again ask your attention.

Their stock is so well worthy of your inspection that they mean to interest you if you will but meet them half way. Advertising will do no good if you do not call at the store and see for yourselves whether there are bargains for you or not.

Dress Goods.

You will find in great variety both as to style and price. This department they make a special one in their business, In Dry Goods of all kinds their stock is complete.

Boots and Shoes.

Are another special department. They buy from none but reliable manufacturers and jobbers and therefore feel safe in guaranteeing the goods. The Philadelphia and Towanda Boot are unexcelled and are too well known to need words. The stock of ladies and childrens shoes is up to the standard. Of the latter a new lot from a Phila. manufactory that cater only to fine trade, but by paying them a little higher prices they are enabled to show you a finer line than you usually find in this vicinity.

Rubber Boots and Shoes for men, women and children in a score of varieties of strictly first class makes, no seconds offered you at any price; remember this, their word for it, will convince you if you desire.

Horse and Buggy Blankets.

Of the former when they tell you that the 5/8 blanket is their specialty in several grades, they need say no more. Of the latter they have enough to give you a choice.

Of Groceries, Hardware, Queensware etc., etc., you need no reminder, and whatever article you may need that they do not carry in stock if you will but make your desires known they will order it for you on selection, you being under no obligation to take it if not to your taste. They would especially state this in reference to Ladies Plush and Cloth Coats and wraps. Give them an idea of what you want and in 48 hours you will have a number here from which to select.

Lewins can sell you a late style suit or take your measure and make it to order on short notice, and at a saving to you of from $3 to $8. Try him on this.
