LOCAL ITEMS.

We enclose a supplement in this issue.

Mrs. Felix Burkholder was a caller at this office.

Rain again on Wednesday—sunshine and bright sky are an exception.

Mr. D. E. Bible expects to have his new store room at Spring Mills ready for business by Dec. 1.

The Reporter crew acknowledges the receipt of some delicious cake from the Bayard-Strom wedding.

Thanks to M. R. O. for an account of Frank Bartholomew's death, but of which we already had an account set up.

Read C. P. Long's adv., he means business on the first, second and third floor and will be at the bottom only in prices.

Work on the Sugar Valley railroad has stopped. If the Reporter were over there it would try to keep the ball rolling.

There is not a healthier town in the United States than Centre Hall, nor can any other town boast of purer atmosphere or purer water.

Rev. Fischer will have no services here, next Sabbath, as he preaches the dedicatory sermon at the new Lutheran church at Shiloh on that day.

The West Branch bridge at Northumberland, which was swept away by the June flood, is being rebuilt, and will be finished by spring.

John Krumbine is painting Bibles new store building at Spring Mills. Mr. Bible will erect his residence, to adjoin the store, in the next few weeks.

We had the pleasure of shaking hands with the venerable James Grove, of Spring Mills, the other day. He voted the Democratic ticket on 5th, as usual and feels good over the result.

Peter Kuhn, Boalsburg's oldest citizen, aged 86 years, on Tuesday last week went to the polls and voted the Democratic ticket. Mr. Kuhn never missed an election, and has always been true to the party.

The State College foot ball eleven had a kick with the Lehigh University eleven on Monday, and got kicked out to the tune of 106 against 0. The State College boys can do better with the bat than with the foot.

The Greengrove Evangelical church of the Spring Mills charge will be reopened on Sunday Nov. 17th inst. Prof. Gobble President of the Central Penna. College, and other ministers from a distance will be present.

An item in the Phillipsburg Ledger states ex-President Cleveland is coming to Clearfield and Centre counties to hunt bear and deer and that his guide through the woods will be John Uzale, his son George and several other famous hunters of that section.

Mr. Philip Shook, of whose sudden death we make mention in another column, had six sons, all of whom voted the Democratic ticket, in Gregg, on Tuesday, 5th—adding his own vote, makes seven out of one family. Where is there a similar instance?

Mr. J. C. Dale, of this place, has had paid back to him $12 illegal fees charged by Sheriff Cook. What will several scores of others do, whom the sheriff salted in this manner. To simply refund the money does not right the wrong, the sheriff should be prosecuted and punished for the crime he committed as a warning for future officials.

George Munson, of Phillipsburg, son of the late Sheriff Levi Munson, was killed at Geneva, N. Y., last week on the railroad. He was attending a switch at the time and accidentally caught his foot in the frog and fell backward on the track and was cut up by the train passing over him. He was aged about 23 years and leaves a wife and one child.

Mill Hall is suffering from a scourge of diphtheria, there being fifteen cases reported on Wednesday last week. The public schools were closed. The physicians say the disease is of the most malignant type, and there is every probability that many more cases will result. There seem to be good reasons for the belief that the disease originated from the bad sanitary condition of the public school building, the cellar of which has never been cleaned since the flood. An old unused well in or near the building is filled with stagnant water and lends assistance in poisoning the atmosphere.

Horrible Accident.

FRANK BARTHOLOMEW PINNED TO THE GROUND BY A LOG AND DIES FROM INJURIES RECEIVED.

On Monday last a gloom was cast over this community by the news of a horrible accident and the death of one of our most respected citizens, Mr. Frank Bartholomew, and another man named Frazier, being injured, by falling logs.

Mr. Bartholomew had been employed by J. C. Dale's lumber tract, in Greengrove valley, on the north side of Nittany Mountain, about four miles from here and only a short distance from Graham & Brown's sawmill, and was engaged at the time at a landing, in loading the logs upon trucks preparatory to taking them to the mill. The man Frazier, whose name and residence we failed to learn was assisting him.

The logs had been freshly peeled and in consequence were quite slippery. They had the load near completed and had placed the last log for the truck upon it, but it would not go into its place, and Mr. Bartholomew and Frazier took their handspikes and climbed upon the truck, proceeded to adjust it. They had barely moved the log when the under ones began to slip away and roll off the truck. The men jumped and Frazier landed at a safe distance, but Mr. Bartholomew either slipped or sprang in the way of the falling logs and one fell across his abdomen pinning him down.

Several men working near by immediately came to his assistance and removed the heavy piece of timber, and picked Mr. Bartholomew up and placed him on a truck and took him to the logging camp. At first he did not seem to be seriously injured, but died about two hours after the accident, which took place about 11 o'clock in the morning, and he died about 1 p. m. At no time did he lose consciousness and talked freely with those around him as to his condition.

His remains were brought to this place in the evening, arriving about seven o'clock, and were taken to his home at the lower end of town, where quite a number of friends of the family had congregated.

The deceased was born and raised at or near Hubersburg, and lived there until about three years ago, when he removed to this place. He was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church. His remains were taken to Hubersburg, this morning, where interment was made, Rev. Wright, of Milesburg, officiating.

He leaves a widow and three little girls, and was a brother of W. H. Bartholomew at the station.

A Young Girl's Sad Suicide.

Lydia Sanders, a girl of 17 years of age was run over on Thursday evening last evening, a little East of Milesburg, and killed instantly. Six weeks ago the train had to be stopped until she was removed from the track, where she lay evidently for the purpose of being run over. In company with another girl she crossed along the track and continued to cross and recross the track against the urgent appeals of her companion. When the train came speeding along Engineer Weaver did not notice the girl until within 100 feet of her and then thought she would step off, as she was by the side of the track. He could not stop the train before it had rushed upon her as she endeavored to cross in front of it striking her on the left side, breaking the left arm and crushing in the left side of her head. The saddest feature of the calamity is that the victim bore a very bad reputation and had scarcely any friends.

Death of Philip Shook.

In the death of Philip Shook, on last Saturday morning, Gregg township lost one of its most estimable citizens. His death was sudden and a surprise to all. The grim messenger came without warning and in ten minutes life had fled and death claimed Mr. Shook as his own. Heart disease was the cause. Mr. Shook was known to all in the eastern part of this valley. He was a farmer, until of recent years, having retired to the village of Spring Mills. He was a kindhearted citizen, useful in his neighborhood, modest, yet always in the front where he could be of service to his fellow men. His funeral on Tuesday forenoon was largely attended. Rev. W. E. Fischer, of this place officiating. He was a consistent member of the Lutheran church, lived and died a Christian. He leaves a widow, and six sons all grown to mourn his departure. The deceased was aged 65 years, 4 m., and 28 days. He was buried in the Heckman cemetery.

Proper Bible Wine.

Alfred Speer, who has large vineyards near Passaic, N. J. is extensively engaged in preserving Fermented Grape Juice from the Opotro grapes and supplies it to many religious societies for Communion purposes. The following is from Dr. John Ellis, who has written several words on Bible wine: The writer obtained from Mr. Speer a bottle of his Fermented Wine and found it a very pleasant and nutritious wine. A chemist put a portion of this wine into a retort and distilled and condensed about one third of the contents of the retort. The distilled had neither the smell nor the taste of alcohol, nor did chemical tests indicate any trace of alcohol.

The Majorities.

The elegant new shoe store, of Mr. Gillam, in the Crider Block, Bellefonte, should be visited to see his stock and variety of boots and shoes for all ages and sexes.

Now is your time to get a cheap overcoat, and Lewins has 'em cheap, good, warm, lasting goods. Give 'em a trial. Branch a call and see for yourself and save $5 to boot.

Lewins is putting out new suits like hot cakes. Everybody wants them because they are so cheap and well made out of the best goods. He takes your measure and will make a suit to order if desired.

Send your name in for the Reporter's campaign rates on trial. Or send us two new names and the cash for a year and we give you a copy one year free, thus enabling any one, by very little effort to get a paper one year free.

Local Briefs.

Squire Rishell was in town Tuesday.

A quarter of good beef will be taken on subscription at this office.

Ask your store for Calla Lily flour—it is No. 1.

Dried fruit wanted at C. P. Long's, Spring Mills.

Ask your storekeeper for Calla Lily flour, and get a No. 1 article.

Dr. Gast of Millinburg, was in town Tuesday, with his wheel.

New lot of robes and 5-A horse blankets very cheap at Boozer's.

Woodland and all kinds of soft and hard coal at the Centre Hall mills.

Bartholomew's is the only place in town you can buy the Snag-Proof Rubber boot.

Hen. Boozer is having some improvements made on his property down town.

George Rowe moved into the Neff house at the upper end of town last week.

Simon Loeb's new clothing store, opposite the Conrad house, is the place for bargains in men and boys' suits.

Al. Wieland has been slightly under the weather for several days, suffering from a severe cough and cold.

Mingle's shoe store, in the Brockertoff Row, is brim full of new stock for fall and winter. Just anything you want and at any prices, except high prices.

Lewins can sell you a late style suit or take your measure and make it to order on short notice, and at a saving to you of from $3 to $8. Try him on this.

Rabbits seem to be plenty in this vicinity, and quite a number have been killed. Ike Harpster and Charley Arney were out on Saturday afternoon and killed three.

All the New Wooleens for the coming season now being received. Liberal discount for early orders during the dull season. Our Fall stock will be the finest ever shown. Prices and a good fit guaranteed. Mccormick & Co., Tailors, Bellefonte.

The Bradfords have been out deer hunting the last week along Stone creek. Jerry Miller went out to them on Monday morning, but have not heard of them killing any yet.

The firm of McCormick Bros. in this place, has been dissolved. Orris McCormick retiring. J. Wit. McCormick has assumed control of the undertaking and furniture establishment.

Mingle's shoe store in the Brockertoff house block has every idea in the line of boots and shoes, a better of rubber, leather or cloth, and he sells at bottom prices, so that none pay more than the goods are worth. He warrants all he sells.

It takes very little coaxing of the weather clerk to give us rain. The roads from the continuous rains, are in a horrible condition, and driving is anything but a pleasure.

Any on desiring a Brown wagon, for two horses, made in Cleveland, a standard, and the best in the U. S., warranted, magnificent finish, inquire at the mill; price $70, the highest class Same wagon with tubular axle, $73.

Lewins now has his counters stocked with the best lot of ready-made clothing yet brought to Centre county and at the most astonishing low prices. Lewins always leads—he never follows. You never heard a customer complain of any article of clothing purchased of honest Sam Lewins.

Jacob Dergine, of Freeport, Ill., arrived here Saturday, on a visit to his parents, a companion by his wife. When Jacob was here some years ago he was single, and one of our model young men. We are pleased to learn that he is prospering in Freeport.

All that desires bargains in boots or shoes, go to Mingle's shoe store in the Brockertoff house block, which is the place to get anything in that line at lowest prices and every article warranted, or money refunded, if not found as represented. Mingle keeps none but first class goods.

Mrs. Henry Phillips, of Aronsburg, died on Friday last, having been in bad health for some time. She was a daughter of J. G. Meyer, and a sister of Prof. W. T. and Calvin Meyer, of Bellefonte. Mrs. Phillips was held in great esteem by all who knew her. The funeral took place on the following Sunday, and was largely attended.

Rev. Louis Robb preached in the Reformed church last Sunday afternoon, in this place, to quite a large audience. Rev. Robb is quite a young man and graduated recently from Seminary at Lancaster, but handled his subject with ease and fluency. It is quite probable that the Reformed congregation will extend to him a call to become their pastor.

McFarlane's hardware store is having a tremendous run on stoves this season and the best reason for this is the fact that none but the best goods in this line are sold by this firm. The Apollo Range has the lead of all stoves of that class. Hundreds of them have been sold and all are giving the best satisfaction. One man says his Apollo don't burn more than half as much coal as a No. 9 cookstove he formerly used. They burn 3 cookstoves as well as coal and take a stick 26 inches long. The celebrated Replaster cook has been remodeled and is now the handsomest stove in Bellefonte. Warranted in all respects.

Lower end items gathered from the Journal: Jared Snook, of Penn, lost a good horse, it had to be shot because of a kick from another horse.

Mrs. Mary E. Hess, who died at Woodward, was aged 64 y., 9 m., 12 days.

Dan Hoy of Millheim will run his creamery by steam.

Chas. Haines and Miss Rose Harter, of Rebersburg, are on the sick list.

Clayton Wyle has built himself a new house at Aronsburg.

Mrs. Sam'l Stover, of near Hartleton, died, age 75 years. Funeral at Wolf's cemetery, in Haines pt., her former residence.

Stoves! Stoves! Stoves! that is what Reeman across the way is stocked with. Stoves of every size and description, for the parlor, sitting room and kitchen; stoves for wood and coal, for rich and poor, plain and fancy, as fine an assortment as can be found in this county, and at prices far below other dealers. Andy puts them up for you and warrants them good. His is the oldest stove store in the county and none of his customers have yet had cause to complain and always found him honest Andy, and those are the business men one should always patronize. Go and see his stock, and you will be pleased with what you see he has.

Farmers Mills.

Wm. Luse north of the Cave, is the boss turnip farmer, in this neck o' woods. He raised about 400 bushels this season, in his corn fields, and also a big crop of corn in the same fields.

Miss Hettie Doup, of Sprucevorn, and Henry Fry of Penn visited some friends here a short time ago.

Our neighbor Al. P. Krape, packed his goods last week and moved to near the Centre Hall station. Al. is a good and big hearted fellow, and always makes friends wherever he goes.

Rev. S. Smith, Evangelical minister, will preach here on the 24th inst. He will fill the pulpits vacated by Rev. Beaumont.

Rev. Eisenberg, Reformed minister, preached an interesting trial sermon here, on 3rd inst. He can preach in the German and English languages, hence he suits this charge, and will likely get a call from this charge.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather on the 3rd inst. Rev. Fischer considered it the part of wisdom to postpone the communion services here till on the 1st of December at 10 o'clock, a. m.

Many of our farmers have begun plowing their next year's corn ground at a lively rate.

Although this vicinity yielded a big crop of hay, last haying, our farmers made a big lot of second crop hay this fall.

Dr. Hosterman of Centre Hall, and Maj. Fischer of Centre Hall attended preaching here last Sunday a week.

The election returns made many a smiling face about here, and we'll even promise to do better than last year, when the rest of the county offers to be filled by competent Democratic men.

The Temperance circulars the Rep. managers sent out to Dem. with postage due marked on did not accomplish much, inasmuch as the trick was too thin, and the documents were not lifted and consequently will be sent to the Dead Letter office, unless there is a little boodle left to redeem the circulars.

A good and intelligent Rep. not far from here was heard remarking last week that he was sorry tired and ashamed of the mismanagement in our Co. commissioners office, and that he hoped no more such mulish commissioners would be put there to the detriment of the Rep. party, and to increase taxation on all citizens of the county.

Coburn.

The Republicans of this place all held up on election night about 7 o'clock. A few of them scratched out on Wednesday morning about 7:30 to get to the station to hear the news, but were thunder struck when they heard of eleven hundred majority for Schaeffer and all the rest. They said: Mein Gott des con. net si! and some of them huddled again for a week. Old Honesty took it very calm, because he had to, and of course he set it up if we would only be still and leave him alone.

W. O. Reardon is the happiest man at Coburn. It's a girl. The best part of it is it can't vote the Republican ticket.

Rishell our new landlord says he likes Coburn O. K. and reports his fair, but Willis you must keep one eye on the detective.

Roads are in a fearful condition, especially the e. pike. If any person wants to do a job of plastering, now is the time to get the mud ready mixed, all you would need to do is to go out along the pike between here and the toll gate and shovel it up, providing you could get permission to haul it off.

I notice that Tommy Evert has taken a position as clerk at Durham & Co's store with Mr. Swengle. That is the place to deal if you want to buy honest goods at honest prices.

On Monday afternoon after the train came from Bellefonte we had a little excitement on the hotel porch. A Mr. from Woodward and a gentleman from here had a little confab, but the Wood man didn't stand ground very long, he didn't seem to believe the truth.

I noticed on Saturday some of our aristocracy went away on a visit. I hope they enjoyed themselves.

On Friday evening Kreamer and Ulrich opened up their supper saloon in the building where Springer had his barber shop. Oysters at all hours and in any style you want them. Success to them.

On Tuesday the 5th inst. we had a very large funeral and buried friends.

Linden Hall.

Prof. F. H. Meyer is in Huntington co. teaching vocal music, his ability as an instructor is becoming widely known.

Mr. Abram Hunt of Lebanon county is the guest of Dan I. Rohm.

A. E. Meyer will be ready to start his mill by Friday. He is having a great deal of repairing done and will turn out first class work.

We would advise Feldler the editor of the Gazette to explain to the balance of the Rep's in Centre co. where the surplus left in the county treasury by the Democratic commissioners went to, before another county election is held, or he may have trouble to find them if he don't explain.

The Callithumpians had quite a lively time serenading our school teacher, J. L. Treaster and wife on last Wednesday evening. The boys say: Buzz you should of 'em up.

J. W. Keller and wife spent Sunday at Centre Hill with Ezra Treaster.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment is the only cure for Blind, Bleeding or Itching Piles ever discovered. It never fails to cure old chronic cases of long standing.

Judge Coons, Mayville, Ky., says: "Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment cured me after years of suffering."

Judge Coffinbury, Cleveland, O., says: "I have found by experience that Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment gives immediate and permanent relief."

We have hundreds of such testimonials. Do not suffer an instant longer. Sold by druggists at 50c & $1 per box. ap2ly

The Exposition is closed until October next. We saw it. It was great, being in the infancy, but we saw enough to convince ourselves of the fact that enterprises, such as displayed there, should not be passed by without some comment. But we still wonder why it was that only one whole liquor house was so badly represented. You could see its pyramid of bottles from any part of the great building. It was the prettiest display there. Max Klein has proved to the public that he wants to be seen. His "Silver Age" rye whiskey has now such a well earned reputation to see it. His goods are pure and reliable. You can have his Silver Age at $1.50 per full quart. His Guckenheimer, Fench, Overholt or Gibson at $1.00 per quart, or 6 quarts for $5.00. Send for his price list and mention this paper. His address is: MAX KLEIN, 82 Federal St., Allegheny.
