THE WHITE VEIL.

The Ceremony by Which Miss Kate Drexel Became a Novitiate.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 8.—A $10,000,000 heiress has bidden farewell to the world. Miss Kate Drexel, the second daughter of the late F. A. Drexel, of Philadelphia, took the white veil of the novitiate at the convent of the Sisters of Mercy in this city.

The ceremony was a particularly exclusive one, none but the nearest friends and relatives being permitted to enter the place where the ceremony was performed. The ceremony was conducted by Archbishop Ryan and Bishop Phelan, assisted by many priests.

Miss Drexel, the postulant, was attired in a magnificent dress of cream white satin. When she reached the altar, she knelt and received the blessing of the superior, and asked that she be known as Sister Catherine.

The sermon was preached by Bishop Phelan, at the conclusion of which Miss Drexel was led to the altar rail, where she answered the usual questions, after which she retired to change her dress, reappearing in the coarse black garb of the novitiate. After the services a breakfast was partaken of by all, which was one of the most elaborate ever prepared in this city.

TO OPEN ITS DOORS.

The Conshohocken Bank Will Resume With Reduced Capital.

CONSHOHOCKEN, Pa., Nov. 12.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Tradesmen's National bank, of Conshohocken, they decided by a unanimous vote to resume business on a capital of $50,000.

A new set of bank officers will be elected. They also agreed to raise $30,000 independently among the stockholders. This, with the $20,000 realized from ex-Cashier Cresson's securities, will make the $50,000.

No tidings have been received yet of the missing cashier, and it is proposed to offer a reward for his arrest and conviction.

Buried Under Fallen Rock.

HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 12.—A gang of men employed in the stripping at Audenried set off a big blast for the purpose of taking down a large portion of the bank. After the blast was fired and bank examined they started to work with their tools, prying out some of the stuff that was loosened. They were busy at work when, without a moment's warning, a large mass of earth and rock fell, completely burying three Hungarians. After two hours work the three were taken out, when it was found No. 21 had the life crushed out of him and No. 27 so badly injured that no life is expected of his death momentarily. No. 27, the third man, is also badly injured, but will recover. The dead man leaves a wife and six children. The other two are men who have large families. No blame is attached to the contractor.

Facts for all.

In spite of all competition the Philad. Branch clothing store, remains headquarters for actual bargains in ready made clothing, for men and boys. Lewins introduced cheap clothing in Centre county, and has kept it at that all the time; as a rule, always sold from 25 to 30 per cent below any other clothing store in this part of the state.

Eaten by a Pig.

LANSDALE, Pa., Nov. 5.—Mrs. George Bush, living near here, left her year old baby at home alone while she and the larger children came to town. When she returned she was horrified to find one of her pigs quietly chewing at the child's hand, which, like its face and arms, was already shockingly mangled by the beast's tusks. The child had been left lying on the floor gnawing at a slice of bread and butter, and the pig, enticed by showing open an unlatched door leading to the room. The physician who is attending the child thinks it will recover, but that it is maimed for life.

Bought a Husband Cheap.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Nov. 8.—A Hungarian woman in South Bethlehem recently offered a man of her own nationality $50 if he would marry her daughter. The offer was accepted and the ceremony performed. The man called on the woman for the money and she at once gave him a sound thrashing. The groom then had his mother-in-law arrested for assault and battery, and she, the groom and the bride were marched to Justice Krauskopf's office by Constable Doran, followed by a big crowd. The groom has marks to show that he was roughly handled.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—The boiler in the chemical manufacturing establishment of Wiley & Wallace, No. 123 North Seventh street, exploded, instantly killing three men and badly injuring another. Those reported killed are Mr. Wiley, a member of the firm, and two employees. The engineer was badly cut on the head and body, and was removed to a hospital. The boiler exploded with such terrible force that many of the windows were shattered into fragments.

Umberger's Murderers.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 12.—Chief Justice Paxson of the supreme court rendered an opinion affirming the judgment of the lower court in the appeal of Joseph and David Nicely, recently convicted in Somerset county of the murder of Herman Umberger, an aged farmer who was killed on Feb. 27 while they were trying to rob him of $15,000.

A Mountain Range on Fire.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 8.—The mountain range near this place caught fire from a locomotive spark and is now fiercely raging. Farmers and others have already suffered great loss and unless rain falls the destruction of property will be tremendous.

Lewins beats the state for large assortment of men and boy's clothing—and he beats the world and all clothing stores in it for low prices. There's where you save from $3 to $8 on a suit of clothes.

CATHOLIC CONGRESS.

Organization of the Great Gathering at Baltimore.

DANIEL DOUGHERTY'S ADDRESS.

He Speaks of the Glory of the Catholic Church and the Persecutions It Has Suffered in This Country—Pertinent Papers by Eminent Laymen—Ex-Governor Carroll Made Chairman.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 12.—Hon. W. J. Onahan, of Chicago, called the 1,200 delegates to the first congress of the Catholic laymen of the United States to order. Archbishop Ireland invoked divine blessing, and ex-Governor Carroll was introduced as temporary chairman, receiving an enthusiastic greeting.

Daniel Dougherty, of New York, addressed the congress pending the completion of the organization. Among other things Mr. Dougherty said:

I am profoundly touched by this the honor of my life. This congress is an event in the history of the republic, an era in American progress, an advance in humanity, a move of earth towards heaven. Called to your presence, theme after theme comes flashing through my brain and swelling in my bosom. A single exultant thought I shall give utterance to and then resume my seat.

We Catholics, Roman Catholics, American Roman Catholics, proud, high spirited and sensitive as any of our countrymen, have silently submitted to wrongs and injustices in manifold shapes and from time immemorial.

Away back in colonial years Catholics suffered the direst cruelties. Talk of the slaves of the south in ante-war times! Why they were treated like high bred guests when compared with Catholics in colonial days. It is the "damned spot" that will not "out!"

The shadow of an imposing event begins to move. The people of the United States, eye, of the hemisphere, are preparing to celebrate the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America. We especially rejoice in this resolve. That tremendous event—with reverence I may say, the second creation—the finding of a new world, and the vast results that have flowed to humanity, all can be traced directly to the Roman Catholic church and the Roman Catholic church alone.

Why, the broad seal of the Catholic church is stamped forever on the four corners of the continent. Therefore let us in mind, heart and soul rejoice in the triumph of our country and glory in our creed. The one gives us constitutional freedom on earth, the other, if faithful to its teachings, insures an eternity in heaven.

Entrance of the Cardinals.

Ex-Senator Kernan followed Mr. Dougherty. Cardinal Gibbons, in his scarlet robes entered the hall while Senator Kernan was speaking. Side by side with Cardinal Gibbons and equally brilliantly arrayed was Cardinal Tasche-reau, of Canada. The two cardinals were heartily cheered by the congress as they made their way through the delegates to the platform.

The cardinals were formally introduced to the congress by Chairman Carroll, and Cardinal Gibbons addressed the delegates, welcoming them in his own name and that of the people of Baltimore, irrespective of creed.

The temporary organization of the congress was made permanent.

Committees Appointed.

A committee with John Lee Carroll as chairman was appointed to wait upon President Harrison and invite him to the congress. The following were appointed a committee on resolutions: M. J. O'Brien, New York; William Walsh, Maryland; John B. Callahan, Pennsylvania; W. J. Kelly, Minnesota; H. F. Brownson, Detroit; J. Semmes, Louisiana; Hon. Davidson Carroll, Arkansas; C. A. Maier, Illinois; John C. Donnelly, Michigan; R. C. Lenihan, Iowa; W. O'Brien, Michigan.

The first regular paper was read by John Gilmory Shea, of Elizabeth, N. J., on "Catholic Congresses." He spoke of congresses in foreign lands, and speaking of this country said: "The government is precluded by constitution from establishing a church, but it has invaded the rights of Catholics. They are not treated properly in the army and navy and the Indian questions need looking into. In many states educational questions are discussed. To meet that a legal organization should be formed. After two centuries of struggle we have had our church organized and today it is the only body that speaks in the United States with no uncertain voice on questions of faith. It is for us laymen to know our faith and help on its growth."

The next paper was by Henry F. Brownson, of Detroit, on "Lay Action in the Church."

Charles J. Bonaparte eloquently discussed "The Independence of the Holy See," the necessity for which he enthusiastically upheld.

Death in the Snow.

DENVER, Nov. 11.—A special to The Republican from Trinidad, Colo., says: The bodies of John Martin and Henry Miller, the cowboys who were frozen to death near Sierra Grande in last week's terrible blizzard, were brought to Folsom for burial. Four other men are missing in the same party, and it is believed that they are dead. It is reported that twenty men are missing from this range and it is feared many of them never will be found.

Sullivan's Friend Escapes the Halter.

BOSTON, Nov. 11.—Tommy Kelly, who stabbed Tom Shea in Billy Horgan's barber shop, two weeks ago in a dispute regarding John L. Sullivan's prowess, while the champion was being shaved, is a free man again. Shea will recover and, as he is not disposed to push the case, the charge of assault and battery against Kelly has been withdrawn.

Mahone Preparing an Address.

PETERSBURG, Va., Nov. 12.—Gen. Mahone is preparing an address to the Republicans of the state in which he will set forth the causes which, in his opinion, led to the slaughter of the whole Republican ticket. When it is finished Gen. Mahone will charge the Democrats with the most outrageous frauds.

In spite of all competition Lewin continues to take the lead in ready made clothing, low prices as well as quality of goods. He gets ahead of all, sells more than all, pleases all, and fits and suits all.

—What the Philad. Branch does not have in the line of ready-made clothing is not worth having. The spring stock now on the counters is immense and goes ahead of anything you ever saw Lewins is King for low prices.

—If you wish to have a good overcoat, $4 to $8 less than can be bought elsewhere, then go to Samuel Lewins, he has them and warrants them. He sells nothing that has cheat about it.
