KUNZE AND BURKE.

Their Grinning at Witnesses Provokes Discussion.

DR. CRONIN'S CLOTHES IN COURT.

The Production of His Effects Creates a Sensation - Several Witnesses Testify That Kunze Called Himself Kaiser Last April-Beggs and the "Inner Circle"-O'Sullivan's Mysterious Contract.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Henry Buckholz testified in the Cronin trial that John Kunze came to board with him in April under the name of John Kaiser.

The defense objected to the testimony of this witness on the ground that they had not received sufficient notice that he would be called. The court overruled the objection and announced that similar objections in the future would not be allowed.

Charles Herkimer, a tailor, was the next witness. Mr. Longenecker to witness: "Do you know John Kunze sitting Sold by Shoe Storce Grocers, Druggets, and retailers cone ally.

"Why does the gentleman repeat it so often then if he does not intend anything by it?" "Why did Kunze grin then?" to a suggestion made by Morris, "You don't know what you are talking about. You are not in the inner circle. We are." The witness previous to that time had never heard of an "inner dircle" in the Clan-na-Gael.

Dr. John F. Williams was called to cast suspicion upon O'Sullivan's mysterious contract with Dr. Cronin. He testified that he had been O'Sullivan's physician for a period of two or three years and during that time the ice man's bill had not amounted to over $5 a year.

Maurice Morris was recalled and corroborated the testimony given by O'Byrne in regard to the "inner circle" conversation held with Beggs.

Cronin's Effects Produced.

Cronin's Effects Produced. Mike Gilbert, a sewer cleaner, testified to finding Cronin's effects last Friday, and then the clothes and instruments of the murdered physician were brought into the court room. There was a buzz of excitement from the spectators' benches as the tell tale relics were lugged in and the clerk was compelled to wield his gavel to induce the pelled to wield his gavel to induce the crowd, which had risen to catch a crowd, which had risen to catch a glimpse of them as they were exposed to the gaze of the jury, to sit down. The prisoners, save Beggs, who scarcely looked at them, evinced as much curiosity as the spectators. Chief of Police Hubbard read the card and several prescriptions of the doctor's found in the pocketbook which bore the doctor's name.

The Clothes Identified.

The Clothes Identified.

Corroborative evidence was given by Michael Rees, Frederick Meyer, Capt. Schuettler, Lieut. Koch and Ferner. The clothes were held up for the inspection of the jury.

Then Mrs. Conklin took the stand and identified each piece of clothing and each instrument as having been worn and carried by the doctor when he left his home on his fatal ride. She recalled each article perfectly and the truth of her testimony was so self evident that the defense waived cross examination.

Scientific Experts.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—The horrible seems to have a more potent attraction for women than for men, for the greater part of the audience at the Cronin trial was composed of representatives of the weaker sex.

was composed of representatives of the weaker sex.

Gerhard Wardel, a gardener living on Ashland avenue, north of the Carlson cottage, saw two men—one large, the other small—go into the cottage on the night of May 4, about 7 o'clock. He also saw a light there. He did not know the men and could not identify them should he see them again. The next morning he saw blood on the steps of the cottage and on the plank over the ditch in front of the house.

Archibald J. Cameron, a saloon keeper at No. 793 Lincoln avenue, who is acquainted with Kunze, saw the latter and Kunze together one day last April. (The idea of the state is to show that the two were intimate.)

Archibates listened to the speeches. The speeches were madness itself compared with those delivered last year. The only incident which occurred throughout the day was the removal by the police of a red flag displayed from a window by Mrs. Lucy Parsons.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 10.—The total vote cast in Pennsplvania on Tuesday for state treasurer was as follows: Boyer, Rep., 332,607; Bigler, Dem., 371,914; Johnston, Pro., 21,534. Boyer's plurality, 60,693.

Then the experts had their innings. Walter S. Haines, to whom was given some of the hair and blood found in the trunk, testified that there was no difference between human and animal blood, though it was certainly blood that was found in the trunk. Haines is a profes-sor of chemistry at Rush medical col-lege and is a chemical expert.

Experts Differ.

He was followed by Henry L. Tolman, a microscopical expert, who was also given some of the blood found in the cottage trunk. He pronounced it human blood from the size of the corpuscles. He also pronounced the hair given him, said to have been found in the trunk, to be human hair.

Dr. W. T. Belfield supported Professor Haines' theory that one animal's blood did not differ from another and before the defense got through with the before the defense got through with the cross examination the minds of the jurymen were in a hopeless tangle. On the whole, however, the jury was convinced that blood and human hair were found in the trunk.

Alexander Sullivan's bondsmen were released by Judge Baker and Sullivan is now at liberty to go where he pleases and do what he likes. Assistant State's Attorney Elliott said there was manifest impropriety in making an experience. impropriety in making an argument and coincided in the motion for the release. This is taken as an evidence that the state has no longer hopes of securing testimony against Sullivan in connection with the Cronin case.

A Witness Sandbagged.

Mrs. Mandie Morgan, who, it is said, is to be an important witness for the prosecution in the Cronin case, was struck on the head by some unknown person and is now in the case. struck on the head by some unknown person and is now in a dangerous condition. Mrs. Morgan was returning from a visit. To shorten the distance she walked through the alley when a person closely wrapped in a heavy shawl stepped from a shadow of the building and dealt her a severe blow on the head. For nearly an hour Mrs. Morgan was unconscious. Upon recovering she described her assailant as a man disguised as a woman.

A COMBAT OF COLONELS.

Col. Goodloe Stabs Col. Swope to Death and Receives Fatal Wounds. LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 10.-Col. Goodloe on entering in the postoffice here tound Col. Swope getting his mail. Their boxes adjoin. Swope obtained his mail and seeing Goodloe, instead of stepping aside commenced a conversa-tion through the opening with a postal clerk. Goodloe said to him, "You ob-struct the way." Swope replied to the effect that it was an indifferent matter to him if he did. Goodloe said, "This to him if he did. Goodloe said, "This is the second insult from you."

Each confronted the other, drawing their weapons, Swope a revolver from his overcoat pocket and Goodloe a clasp knife from his trousers' pocket. Goodloe opened his knife, Swope firing before he could use it. The first shot struck Goodloe in the abdomen. Goodloe plunged his knife twice into Swope, when Swope fired the second shot, which missed. Goodloe continued to strike, inflicting many wounds and until Swope fell dead. Goodloe's condition is precarious. He rallied from the shock promptly and his pulse is good, but it has not as yet been deemed advisable to probe the wound.

A Sanguinary Court Scene LEXINGTON, Va., Nov. 10.-Last even-Brownsburg, just north of here, Henry Miller, a wealthy farmer, appeared against Dr. T. J. Walker, a physician. Walker was charged with threatening Miller's life. The justice decided to place him under a peace bond and when the verdict was announced, a row began, during which Miller shot and instantly killed Mrs. Walker and her two sons. Miller was also shot and is seriing at a magistrate's court held a sons. Miller was also shot and is seriously wounded. Dr. Walker was riddled with bullets and cannot recover.

LEXINGTON, Va., Nov. 11.—The new developments in the Brownsburg homicides with the fate of the first of developments in the Brownsburg homicide are that the fatal affair was opened by Dr. F. J. Walker, who killed old man Miller with a heavy knife after being disarmed of his pistol. Dave Miller was the man who shot Dr. Walker and is himself badly wounded and will die. Three of the other Miller boys are in jail, and it is the general belief that one of them deliberately killed Mrs. Walker. There is strong talk of lynching the man who shot the woman. Dr. Walker died of his wounds.

died of his wounds. Cleveland Calls on Harrison. WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 .- Grover Cleve land and Benjamin Harrison shook hands at the executive mansion and hands at the executive mansion and said any number of polite things to each other. The ex-president and Mrs. Cleveland, after leaving the Clymer residence, where they had witnessed the marriage of ex-Secretary Bayard and Miss Clymer, were driven to the White House. Mrs. Clevaland did not leave the carriage, but left her card for Mrs. Harrison, who is visiting Mrs. Wanamaker in Philadelphia. She was driven away and sent phia. She was driven away and sent phia. She was driven away and sent the carriage back again for Mr. Cleve-land. As the president entered the green room his predecessor arose and grasped his hand. "How do you do?" said both simultaneously. They then sat down and talked about general topics for half an hour.

Hung Him on a Derrick. LEESBURG, Va., Nov. 10.—As Miss Leith, a school girl about 17 years old, was returning from the Hamilton academy she was feloniously assaulted by a colored boy named Owen Anderson. On her complaint he was arrested, but as she could not identify him he was released. Afterward he was rearrested on circumstantial original arrival arriva circumstential evidence and he con-fessed. About 1 o'clock in the morning 100 armed men came to town,gained ad-mission to the jail, took Anderson out and hung him on a derrick in the freight depot. After hanging him they fired a number of bullets into his body and rode away.

Mrs. Parsons' Red Flag Suppressed.
CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—The feature of the Anarchist celebration was its utter lack of the enthusiasm which generally charaterizes gatherings of the Anarchists. Less than 2,000 people visited Wildeman cemetery to decorate the graves of the Anarchist dead, and scarcely half of these listened to the speeches. The speeches were madness itself compared with those delivered last year. The only incident which occurred throughout the day was the removal by the police of a red flag displayed from a window by Mrs. Lucy Parsons.
