A Good Joke.

The venerable Col. Royer, of near Rebersburg, now 85 years of age, was fond of a good joke in his earlier days...

Ketner was lame and limped along with a crutch, and on account of his irritable temper was much teased...

However, we want to get down to our venerable friend, Col. Royer, whose well-known hospitality had great attraction for the razor sharpener...

The Colonel would have it done up with Ketner's best skill, and fit to cut a split a hair. Then the razor was carefully laid away and not touched until Ketner came around again in six months...

Rain is still the rule. We are one entire bright day in the last day and that was Saturday, and it continued clear sky until Sunday noon, when the sky became clouded and towards evening rain set in and it continued to rain all night and next day, Monday, and Tuesday and Wednesday.

There was a great demand for last week's REPORTER, and we are told as high as one dollar a copy was offered for it at Bellefonte. All extra copies, of which we had printed about one hundred, were taken, and some even locked their doors to guard against having them carried off. The epistle of St. John the Commissioner is what caused the demand.

A little son of George Weller, of this place, had a narrow escape from being peppered full of shot. Two boys, Simon Wolf and Leck Neff were in the woods above town, and Wolf had a shot gun, and through carelessness the gun was allowed to fall on the ground, when it was discharged, and little Weller who was standing near by received several shot in the knee.

Walter Bayard and his vivacious bride returned from their wedding trip per the Pacific express, last Friday evening. As they gave us a passing salute at Tyrone from the windows of the palace car, they appeared as happy as a pair of humming birds in a garden of honey suckles. Their stay now is at Altoona.

The Hungarians employed by the Centre Iron Company taking one out at High Bank, near Bellefonte, nearly all got drunk on Saturday night last. Lewins now has his counters stocked with the best lot of ready-made clothing yet brought to Centre county and at the most astonishing low prices. Lewins always leads—he never follows. You never heard a customer complain of any article of clothing purchased of honest Sam Lewins.

Lock Haven is considered a very unhealthy city at this time. An epidemic of fever is prevailing there, due to filth left by the great flood of June 1. No permanent relief is anticipated until freezing weather comes. The continued rainy weather has greatly increased the number of sick people within the past few days. A meeting of the physicians was held to devise ways and means for the better health of the city. From statistics gathered from the local doctors by a newspaper reporter, there are now about fifty cases of malaria, typhoid and scarlet fever.

The Modocs, a party of hunters from Boalsburg and vicinity, have for fifteen years, taken a week or more of a hunt for deer in the Seven Mountains, and always returned with a several deer, but this year they broke camp and went home without anything, breaking their record. In fifteen years they have killed eighty-four deer and one bear. One of the Modocs who was not along with them, named Martz, on their hunt, last week shot a deer at home near Boalsburg.

Stoves! Stoves! Stoves, that is what Reesman stores the way is stocked with. Stoves of every size and description, for the parlor, sitting room and kitchen; stoves for wood and coal, for rich and poor, plain and fancy; and an assortment as can be found in this county, and at prices far below other dealers. Andy puts them up for you and warrants them good. His is the oldest stove store in the county and none of his customers have yet had cause to complain and always found him honest, handy, and those are the business men one should always patronize. Go and see his stock, and you will be pleased with what you see he has.

Farmers Mills.

John and Myra Goodhart are attending the grammar school at Spring Mills this term. Also Frank Smith. Frank always seems happy and obliging.

Sometime ago Moses Stover, after cutting grass, left his mower in the field, and during the night some malicious party broke the mower into pieces. It is supposed that it was cold stroke of thunder coming down the swamp that demolished the machine. Shame on such actions.

Our neighbor Wm. Weaver, Sr., rigged up, and is now buying up poultry, which he sells whole, sale to his brother at Aaronsburg.

A few of the farmers west of here, have lost some 8 or 10 heads of cattle this fall by disease which puzzled the veterinarians somewhat.

Several of the school houses about here are decorated much nicer this term than they were for several years, but many of the school houses in this twp. are very poorly supplied with proper maps, charts etc.

This village is blessed with two churches, but every now and then it happens that there is no service in either one for several weeks, not even Sunday nor prayer meeting; why not have a union prayer-meeting in one of the churches every Sunday evening (only $2.50 a year)?

Behold, the squeal of the porker is heard in our vicinity this week, and since picnic and sale dinners are a scarce article, now the epicureans must take advantage of butchering dinners to satisfy the inner man.

Jonathan Shutt of Tusseyville visited here last Sunday. Several weeks ago a couple of our village quiet' hid themselves to Aaronsburg, and got the long looked for nuptial knot tied.

If the REPORTER should desire some more of our com' Dealer's ignorant effusions of his wrath this vicinity can produce effective samples for campaign literature.

Penn Township.

Some of the fragments of that Gazette ring that bustled in Bellefonte on the 4th, were found on this side of the mountain east of Millheim. It must have been a hard shock; but will be no comparison to the one that will bust next Nov. Get ready Democrats.

On election day a prominent Republican said to the writer that he wished we could elect new Commissioners, that we had only school boys to fill that important office. Yes, that is the wish of all the Republicans, and would just say that there are thousands of school boys under 10 years that can write a better letter and would be ashamed to write such a one as was written by one of the commissioners.

Every reader of the Reporter rejoices that the good old paper is so true to the party, and will expose all the wrongs to its own hurt. This was fully shown in its last issue.

We are sorry to say that one of our good Republican church members was on a spree. Suppose the start that Fiedler distributed, a few days before the election when he canvassed this side and Brushvalley did the mischief.

W. C. Duck and wife were visiting in Nittany and Lock Haven last week. They report lots of mud.

Mr. Harry Wert and family, Mrs. James Duck from Brushvalley, and a Miss Weaver from Huntington were visiting relatives in this section.

Albert Stambach and family are here from Lock Haven. Both Albert and his wife are suffering with malaria.

Capt. Michael Harper died on Saturday evening at 5 o'clock in the 72nd year of his age. He had been in bad health for a number of years. Capt. Harper was twice married, his first wife was Catharine Bower a daughter of John Adam Bower. His second wife was Mary Fisher a sister of Maj. Fisher of Penn Hall.

John Foster has bought himself a horse, buggy and harness and now rides back and forth to the station with his own telegraphy.

Rev. Adams of Carlisle is at present preaching trial sermons in the different Reformed churches of this charge. He will preach in the Aaronsburg church on the coming Sabbath morning. He conducted the services at Capt. Harpen funeral.

Coburn.

Yesterday, 18, had another little flood. It began to rain about 7 a. m. and rained very fast till 7 p. m.; about 8 the water began to fall a little, and this morning it has fallen several feet.

No damage done here; several families moved their stock up on the hill and had to take every thing out of their cellars, and moved all upstairs to be ready for a big flood.

The 3.55 train laid here all night; about 8 o'clock they got orders to shove six loaded cars on the bridge before the first tunnel. A great deal of dirt had collected and it was feared the trestle would be torn out. Two spans of bridge No. 2 this side of Paddy Mt. tunnel were torn out; they had run loaded cars on that too, but it was evident they would not hold it so they pulled the cars off again.

PILES! PILES! PILES! Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment is the only cure for Blind, Bleeding or Itching Piles ever discovered. It never fails to cure old chronic cases of long standing.

Judge Coons, Maysville, Ky., says: "Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment cured me after years of suffering."

Judge Coffinbury, Cleveland, O., says: "I have found by experience that Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment gives immediate and permanent relief."

We have hundreds of such testimonials. Do not suffer an instant longer. Sold by druggists at 50c & $1 per box. ap2ly

"VENI, VIDI, VICI." The Exposition is closed until October next. We saw it; it was great, being in its infancy, but we saw enough to convince ourselves that that that enterprise, such as displayed there, should not be passed by without some comment. But we still wonder why it was that only one whole sale liquor house was so boldly represented. You could see its pyramid of bottles from any part of the great building. It was the protected display there. Max Klein has proved to the public that he wants to be seen. His "silver Age" eye whiskey has now such a well earned reputation that he is proud of it and he wants everybody to see it. His goods are pure and reliable. You can have his Silver Age at $1.50 per quart. His Guckenheimer, Finch, Overholt or Gibson at $1.00 per quart, or 6 quarts for $5.00. Send for his price list and mention this paper. His address is MAX KLEIN, 82 Federal St., Allegheny.

Another handsome reminder of the continued enterprise of The Youth's Companion, the favorite family paper, has come to us in the form of a Colored Announcement Card, printed in four-teen colors. It is folded in the centre, and has on either cover companion pictures. Spring is represented by a beautiful maiden who is returning through the fields, her hands full of the great flowering plants. The interior of the card contains an array of authors and articles for the coming volume unsurpassed by any paper.

This beautiful Card is only an indication of the great enterprise of The Companion, which has made it a National Family Paper, with more than 450,000 subscribers. Nowhere can there be obtained so much entertainment and instruction for so little money (only $2.50 a year). If you subscribe now you will receive the paper free to Jan. 1, 1890, and for a full year from that date. The publishers offer to send specimen copies and this Colored Announcement Card free. Address the Youth's Companion, Boston Mass.

I find Ideal Tooth Powder is without exception the best I have ever used. With its aid I keep my teeth very clean and white, which I was unable to do with any other powder I have ever tried before. So says Ferdinand E. Chartard, Baltimore, Md.
