

The Murder of Clara Price.

ran up the road some distance before she fel'. The last shot struck her in the set short smoothfaced man passing Munholians about 9 or 10 a.m. He

His trail was lost in the woods.

she was in town alive.

Hopkins' Oddities.

cate that there was insanity about him, fell and never moved after.

THE CENTRE REPORTER

FRED. KURTZ, EDITOR and PROP'R

TERMS:-One year, $1.50, when paid in ad nee. Those in arrears subject to previous rms. $2 per year.

Advertisements 20 cents per line for 3 inser ns, and 5 cents for each subsequent insertion.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS, DEC. 5.

3,000

BUTTERICK'S PATTERNS

"THE RACKET."

No. 4 Crider's Exchange, Bellefonte.

All the new things received soon as out. Patterns sent by mail postpaid, at New York last seen of Miss Price alive It is supmail postpaid, at New York price. Add 10 c. for postage on Metropolitan Catalogue and 2 c on Delineator. G. R. SPIGELMEYER.

G. R. SPIGELMEYER.

LOCAL ITEMS.

----Christmas is the next bother on the carpet.

-Rev. Fischer and family and Mrs. Kurtz, are visiting in Somerset Christmas, at the drug store the last time Fred Kurtz, are visiting in Somerset county.

-Hotel keeper Ashcroft, of Philips-burg, has been arrested for violating the liquor laws.

----Calvin Rankin, a prominent citizen of Snow Shoe, died on Monday, after a short illnes

----Mr. Maitland, of the Bellefonte boiler works, gave all his employes a nice big turkey on Thanksgiving.

-The Gentzels, of near Zion, were out hunting two weeks ago, and brought four deer home, from the Clearfield bis appearance or demeanor would indiwoods.

even of the emotional kind. -The new M. E. church, at Lemont, will be dedicated Sunday. Dec. 15. B. B. Hamlin, D. D., of Tyrone, will preach the dedicatory sermon.

Local Briefs

From the Karthaus Times we get the following particulars: The particulars so far as known are -Ask at your store for Calla Lily fiour-it is No. 1.

that Miss Clara Price, daughter of David Price, of our town, started from the resisdence of Eugene Meaker's, in Burnside Spring Mills. -Dried fruit wanted at C. P. Long's, township, to come to the store. She car-ried a basket, containing a roll of butter, for her parents, and a hood to be ex-____Ask your storekeeper for Calla Lily flour, and get a No. 1 article.

-----Woodland and all kinds of soft and hard coal at the Centre Hall mills. changed at the store, but she never reached home alive. A couple of hunt-ers coming down the river from Pine Glen brought the news that a young --- New lot of robes and 5-A horse blankets very cheap at Boozer's.

The day and date for hanging Hopkins will be appointed by the govlady was lying in the road dead, a short distree from the bridge. A number of our citizens hastened to the place and ernor sure enough there lay the pure, innocent girl dead, having been shot when she was running from some demon worse than Satan himself. She had turned and -----Mr. Frank Dutweiler, of Aarons-burg, attended the horse sale last week, and bought a fine one.

previous six weeks.

back over the heart, as she was running. ----Esq. Rishel, of Farmers Mills, gave our sanctum a call. He says sausage One shot cut through the lower part of her ear, another shot struck the basket. making is all the go down there.

Five shots were heard by men working near where she was killed, all being fired in quick succession. One ball pass-ed through her hat, knocking it off her head. The hat was found about one rod -----Simon Loeb's new clothing store, opposite the Conrad house, is the place for bargains in men and boys' suits.

-Mrs. Jonas Condo, of Penn Hall, from where she started to run back and from where she started to run back and she ran about a rod farther where she to the west, where she had a pleasant time. Samuel Emerick saw a young, heavy ----Isaac Smith, administrator of Emanual Smith, dec'd., advertises a valuable property for sale on the 28th, in twins. this place.

——Lewins can sell you a late style suit or take your measure and make it to order on short notice, and at a saving to you of from $3 to $8. Try him on this.

-The elegant new shoe store, of Mr. Gillam, in the Crider Block, Bellefonte should be visited to see his stock and variety of boots and shoes for all ages and sexes.

--- Lost.-A little black and white Beagle hound, about eight inches high, and answers to the name "singwell." It is the property of a little girl and any on^a giving information as to the animal's whereabouts will be liberally rewarded by the editor of the Middleburgh Post. Middleburgh, Pa. continued to do so until he killed her He passed into the woods about a rod above where he killed her, where his track was measured as well as could be ----Now is your time to get a cheap overcoat, and Lewins has 'em cheap, in the ground. It measured 101 inches. good, warm, lasting goods. Give the Phitad. Branch a call and see for yourself and save $5 to boot.

Miss Clara was highly respected young lady of our community. She was considered to be one of the most beauti-ful girls in this place. Her character was above reproach and she was beloved by for two horses, made in Cleveland, a down to be killed with the knife; just then P. H-standard, and the best in the U. S., Meyer appeared and said "let me stick it" and all. She was a kind, affectionate, loving warranted, magnificent finish, inquire at they did so, and Mr. Hog up and ran for life, daughter, and always had a pleasant smile and loving word for all. She purthe mill; price $70, the highest class. Same wagon with tubular axle, $73. chased a china cup and saucer for her

----John Neff made a narrow escape the other day. While at work getting out gravel, above town, under a projecting mass, he stepped back, and as he did so, there was a cave-in from above, which caught his feet, but fortunately To prove insanity, the murderer Hophe got away. The cave-in would have buried him entirely had it happened a few seconds earlier.

kins, while on the witness stand pre-tended total ignorance of the killing of his wife and mother-in-law. Yet at the same time he could minutely remember ---Lewins is putting out new suits like hot cakes. Everybody wants them because they are so cheap and well made out of the best goods. He takes your measure and will make a suit to order if During the entire trial he appeared desired.

> ----The nines have come to stay. There is not a man, woman or child liv- Tusseyville. This is certainly a step in the right

Farmers Mills.

Aaron Long was on the sick list, but is able to

Geo. Homan of Aaronsburg seems to have such a hankering after his old home and friends here that he frequently drives up in time for the a. m.

An old resident farmer of Brushvalley who has the honor (?) of having many contentions is about moving to Sugar valley to run a steam saw mill, and the boys say if he'll make the desired promises, they will give him a gook serenading to cheer him up for future life Thos. Hazel and Misses Hazel and Stover of Madisonburg spent last Sunday here with their friend Carrie Rishel. The announcement that Rev. Trostle of Boals-

burg would fill the pulpit here last Sunday for Rev. Fischer brought out a large audience; even some old growlers who don't often come out when plain truths are expounded, were out to hear the "new preacher," and the Rev. gentleman acquity ted himself finely, and made a good impression upon our people.

James Ott of near Centre Hall was an attentive listener in our morning services here last Sunday. Rev. S. Smith is to fill the Evangelical pulpit here next Sunday.

Sadie Goodhart smiled one of her best smiles last week when she received the large photo group of the 15 Indian Printer boys of the Carlisle Indian School as a reward for raising a club for the Indian Helper.

Our neighbor, Minnie Coats is spending a few weeks at Spring Mills taking care of Charlie's Linden Hall.

Miss Amanda Meyer is up and around again after having quite a severe attack of acute bron-

Messrs. Meck & Nagle are pushing the lumber business, shipping three and four carloads daily Sausage are trump just now. You cau hear the squeal of hogs in some direction every morning about day break, and some one remarked "There was quite a good bit of squealing done by one of Meyer Bro's hogs on Monday afternoon, when we asked the cause. Joe Page who was present said Meyer Bro's had driven a fat hog into P. H. Meyers orchard when they were going to kill it and prepare it for market. The hog was driven into a corner and A. E. Meyer who is a marksman said he would shoot it with a revolver, After the report of his firearm you should have seen the hog run. The hog was cornered again and after the second shot another big race took place. Mr. hog was corralled again for a third shot. Joe says such squealing and running for -Any on desiring a Brown wagon a fat hog he never saw. The hog was then run not a drop of blood could be seen. P. H said run her down again, and it was done, and the hog was stuck again. "Let him up" said P. H. and the hog for the fifth time ran for his life again, but just about that time J. W, Keller came along and killed the hog to end its misery.

> Miss Sallie Meyer from Rebersburg is spending a few days with friends through the valley.

Sprucetown.

The illustrated lecture given by Rev. Hicks at this place, on early Methodism, last Saturday evening was pretty fairly attended.

> present visiting among relatives in this vicinity. A singing class is being organized at Pot-

When the verdict of the jury was read pronouncing him guilty, he turned to the Sheriff and sked him for a chew of Consider ScRIBNER'S MAGAZINE when you are deciding upon your reading matter for next season. The subscription rate islow, $3.00 a year.

:-- Now being opened at --:

CHRISTMAS GOODS

WOLF'S.

o-XMAS PRESENTS-0

_0____0

Our line of goods suitable for Christmas is more elegant and complete than ever before. It consists of Gold and Silver Watches, Ladies' and Gents' Gold Rings, Brooche Pins, Jet Jewelry, Ear Drops, Ladies' and Gents' Watch Chains, Lockets, Charms, Cuff Buttons, etc. The celebrated Aiken Lambert & Co's., Gold Pens; Rog ers Bro's. Silver Knives, Forks, Spoons, Pickle Casters, Butter Dishes, Sugar Bowls, Spoon Holders, Cake Baskets, Dinner and Individual Casters, Berry Dishes, and a large assortment of Napkin Kings, all of which will make an elegant snd acceptable present.

I would be pleased to show you goods, and will be ready to make close prices to all buyers.

G. W. BUSHMAM.

FOR 1890.

Mr. John Burkholder and wife of Ohio are at ters Mills, under the tutorship of Mr. Crawford of -Centre Hall keeps on growing. W. F. Campbell, the miller, has been pre sented with a bouncing little boy by bis wife and he is proud as he can be over

-John Long against whom were two counts, f. and b. and adultery, was found guilty on first count, and sentenced to $100 fine, $50 lying-in expenses, and costs. The other count was drop-ped for having been defective.

-On Friday morning at an early hour Mrs. Daniel Potteiger, of Lock Haven, was awakened by the ringing of the door bell. On going to the door she found a basket on the front steps in which was a little girl baby and $50

-A swindler sold a Clinton county farmer a receipt for making his wheat weigh twice as much as it ought to, and signed a contract to divide the money gained by the extra weight with the scientific swindler. The "contract" eventually turned up as a promissory note and the farmer paid three hundred dollars for it.

-The Commissioners of Snyder county have offered a reward of one thousand dollars for the "detection, apprehension and conviction of the person or persons who perpetrated the murder of Charles W. Hane, on the night of September 26, 1880. Dietrick who was arrested for this crime, has been released, as there was no evidence and he proved an alibi.

have been made to furnace and mills.

----Rev. Vought, of this place, went deer hunting last week, and was fortu-nate enough to kill a fine one--a four prong buck, which weighed, dressed, 150 pounds. Bro. Vought was kind enough to bring a proof of his success to the writer, in a fine chunk of the venison, which we found elegant, and for which he will accent our thanks, with hops he he will accept our thanks, with hops he may meet with similar success whenever he goes hunting.

he goes hunting. ——The man now in jail at Bellefonte for murdering Clara Price, is an English-man named Alfred Andrews, alias "Prince Alfred," and was captured at his home in Brisbin, Clearfield county, on Sunday. When taken he was in his shirt sleeves at his house, and admitted that he was in the vicinity of Karthans on the day of the murder. The descrip-tion given by the woman who saw a man follow the murdered girl and by others who met him before, answers in every particular and corresponds with the ap-pearance and dress of the man now in custody as follows: "He is about five feet six inches tall, about 22 years of age, of <text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

With reference to Attorney Spangler's speech to the jury, he afterwards re-marked to some one, "Didn't Spangler give me h-l !" When the Sheriff took him to prison for the last time, Hopkins remarked, "They won't be smart enough to get the rope around my neck."

During the trial be possessed himself everything fully guaranteed. MONTGOMMENT & Co., of one of the steel pens upon the table before him, possibly thinking it might serve him in taking his own life, in bis cell. The pen was taken from him would hardly supposed him capable of ommitting so atrocious a crime.

The Quarry Disaster.

We briefly noted in our last issue the seph Mayes, of Boggs township, aged about 34 years. Married and has a wife

John Newans, and will recover. The quarries consist of an excavation fully 1,000 feet in the side of the hill, with an overhanging face of 250 feet in height. The men were drilling a hole for a blast about one fourth way up the Institute.

Prof Wolf is arranging for the holding of the Teachers' Institute of Centre county which will convene in Bellefonte on Monday, December 16. On Monday evening, Dr. G. M. Philips will lecture on "A Journey to the Gold en Gate.

On Tuesday evening C. F. Underhill, the famous elocutionist and impersona-the famous elocutionist and impersona-tor, will entertain the institute. On Wednesday evening Frank Beard, the famous artist of Chaulauqua and Judge will give "crayon sketching and chalk talks." On Thursday evening Robert J. Burdette will deliver his famous lecture, "The Rise and Fall of the Mustache."

come to stay many years. It is now on the right, 1889. Next year it will take a step to the laft, 1890; stay there ien years, and then take another step to the left, 1900, and there it will remain until you are done dating letters.

----Now is the time to leave your or-der for a suit and overcoat. Prices to suit the times. Perfect satisfaction in Tailors, Bellefonte.

—On Saturday, November 16th, Mr. Schoch went to a sick-bed with gastric ulceration of the stomach. On Saturday, November 23d, he died. He had reach ed the sixty-seventh year of age in Au-gust last. His aged father, still remark-ably vigorous, survives him. He leaves h widow, a son, Hon. G. Alfred Schoch, and a daughter, Mrs. Lewis W. Pawling. --Middleburg Post.

-Mingle's shoe store in the Brockfatal accident in the limestone quarries at Bellefonte; and are now enabled to give additional particulars. The killed are: Frank Gallagher, of Howard, this county, aged about 37 years. Married and has a wife and seven children. Joerhoff house block has every idea in the

-The death-watch on Hopkins was about 34 years. Married and has a wife appointed Monday by the county com-and four children. The injured man is missioners. He has been removed to a cell by himself and no outsiders are allowed to communicate with him. Hopkins is still as defiant as ever, and says he would like to get out to kill Edward Hughes; then he could hang contented. The Governor has not yet named the day of hanging but it is thought it will be in the near fature.

-Another of Lewisburg's old city zens has passed away. On Friday last, ably 100 tons, fell right onto the men. Gallagher was crushed almost beyond all semblance of a human body, and Mayes was badly crushed on the body, while his head was almost severed from his shoulders.

younger days, he was a merchant, treasurer of the Dimes Saving Bank; and then cashier of the Union National Bank, when, after leaving the bank, he retired from business.

- Mrs. Agnes Riddle, of Pleasant Gap, some days ago met with a most painful accident and from the effects of which she has been confined to her bed ever since. She had been blacking a stove and during which she had a close fitting glove on her right hand. During the process of blacking the glove became thoroughly saturated with the oil in the blacking. After being through with that part of the work Mrs. Riddle began to build a fire in the stove without re-- Mrs. Agnes Riddle, of Pleasant to build a fire in the stove without re-moving the glove. Quick as a flash the flames caught the oil and set fire to the

It having tipped the scales at 635. The M. E. Sunday School intend holding a Christmas entertainment on Christmas eve, . Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Foster and daughter Maze, have gone to Philadelphia. N. W. Cronmiller, of Bellefonte and his nepher

Bruce Cronmiller of Union Seminary New York city are in town visiting friends and relatives. nother Mrs. Hull who is recovering from her late

J. Willis Musser and Weaver and Frederick s shipping poultry to New York at a lively rate. Thos. Weaver of Woodward will start for the outh Carolina gold mines in a few days where his uncle Emanuel Motz is engaged in gold mining.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment is the only sure cure for Blind, Bleeding or Itching Piles ever discovered. It never cured me after years of suffering." Judge Coffinbury, Cleveland, O., says

"I have found by experience that Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment gives immediate and permanent relief." We have hundreds of such testimonials. Do not suffer an instant longer. Sold by druggists at 50c & $1 per box. ap21y

Mental Arithmetic.

Teacher :- Johnny, suppose you have two single pennies in your pocket and lose one of them, what have you got? Johnny :-- A hole in my pocket. Teacher :-- That's not the kind of an answer I wish, and will put the question differently; if your mama gives you a piece of butter bread and lays another piece aside of it, then what have you

Johnny :- Hain't got enough.

An Old Nurse's Thirty Years

An old nurse of 30 years experience says that she has never used a wine that has had such a pleasing effect on her saratoga Star Spring Water for sale in bottles and by the glass by all druggists

The standare of the Magazine is high. Its spirit progressive, The Illustrations are interesting and of the best.

There is not space here to give evan a summary of the features to appear next year, but among other things there will be a NEW DEPARTMENT and ADDITONAL PAGES, Mrs. Kate Kline of Williamsport is visiting her and groups of illustrated articles will be devoted to the tollowing subjects :

> African Exploration and Travel, Life on a Modern War Ship (3 articles), Homes in City, Suburb, and Country, Providing Homes through Building Associations, The Citizen's Rights, Electricity in the Household, Ericsson, the Inventor, by his Authorized Biographer, Hanting, Humorous Artists, American and Foreign. There will be 3 serials.

Robert Louis Stevenson will contribute in 1890. fails to cure old chronic cases of long Each subject, and there will will be a great variety this year, will be treated by writers most competent to speak with austanding. Judge Coons, Maysville, Ky., says: "Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment thority and with interest. Readers who are interested are urged to send for a prospectus.

25 cents a number; $1.00 for 4 months. CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, 743 Broadmay, New York.

Bargains ! :-: New Goods We are now prepared to have the public call at our store and inspect our new line of goods. They were selected with the greatest care and embrace an endless variety of new designs and patterns worn during the Fall and Winter seasons. Our line of Fancy Plads, Tricots, Fall Prints, and All-Wool Suiting, are fine, and will please our early customers, and are selling rapidly. Woolen Blankets, Haps, Quilts, and many other woods.

other goods.

Harper & Kreamer's.

MCCORMICK BROS

.

MCOORMICK BBOS, CENTRE | HALL! | PA: -DEALERS IN ALL KINDS-

Bed Room Suits, Parlor Suits, Side Boards, Lounges, Tables, Bedsteads, Wood and Cane-Seat Chairs

Undertaking a Specialty.

Experience.