A PENNSYLVANIA PROJECT.

The Great Road to Have Direct Connection with All the Coal Fields.

McKEESPORT, Pa., Nov. 27.—The purchase of nearly $250,000 of McKeesport property is looked upon as a step toward the consummation of a much talked of enterprise—the extension of the Pennsylvania railroad system to the coal fields of the Youghiogheny and Monongahela. The big purchase was stated to have been so as to give the McKeesport and Bellevorn railroad an inlet and outlet at McKeesport, and by it the Pennsylvania railroad will secure entrance to the heart of the city and will locate a union depot near the foot of Market street.

The McKeesport and Bellevorn people are working together; surveys have been made and a bridge is to be built at Riverton to connect the McKeesport and Bellevorn branch with the Pittsburg, Virginia and Charleston. At Bessemer the branch will cross to reach the main line of the Pennsylvania, thus giving a direct outlet for traffic between McKeesport, Pittsburg and all parts of the coal and coke regions. Work will soon begin.

Pen Argyl Gets the Shops.

PEN ARGYL, Pa., Nov. 30.—The Pennsylvania, Poughkeepsie and Boston railroad shops will be located here, the place being the most central between New York and Harrisburg. The company was undecided for a long time, Goshen, N. Y., Deckertown, N. J., and Slatington, Pa., being after the works. Pen Argyl secured the prize through W. W. Gibbs, of Philadelphia, aided by prominent citizens here, at Bangor and at Easton, all of whom contributed liberally towards the project. By locating the shops here the company will get $5,000 in cash and six acres of land free. Work on the erection of the buildings will soon be commenced.

Died on His Wedding Tour.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30.—Rodney M. Curtis, of Binghamton, N. Y., died suddenly in Fairmount park. Accompanied by his wife, to whom he was married on Wednesday, Mr. Curtis entered the Thirty-fifth street entrance for a drive through the pleasure ground. He was taken ill shortly after entering the park and fell forward in the car. Mrs. Curtis notified Park Guard Showaker of her husband's illness and he led the horse towards the guard box. Dr. H. G. Hill, of No. 3418 Baring street, who was in the neighborhood, was summoned, but before he reached the spot Mr. Curtis was dead.

An Office with No Officer.

KUTZTOWN, Pa., Dec. 2.—J. F. Zimmerman, of this place, a hold over liquor gauger of the Cleveland administration and stationed at the distillery of Adam Stine, two miles north of here, for the past six months, severed his connection with Uncle Sam. No successor has yet been appointed to take his place and it is likely that no gauger will be at Stine's distillery for several days on account of this.

Miss Drexel's Sisterhood.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 3.—Sixty acres of ground have been purchased at Andalusia by Miss Kate Drexel, now known in the Catholic church as Sister Katherine, as the site for a convent. After having passed through her novitiate in the order of the Sisters of Mercy, at Pittsburg, Sister Katherine will found a sisterhood for work among the colored and Indian races.
