The Times

Is the most extensively circulated and widely read newspaper published in Pennsylvania. Its discussion of public men and public measures. is in the interest of public integrity, honest gov-ernment and prosperous industry, and it knows no party or personal a'legiance in treating pub-lic issues. In the broadest and best sense a family and general newspaper family and general newspaper.

The News of the World.

The Times has all the facilities of advanced journalism for gathering news from all the quarters of the Globe, in addition to that of the Associated Press, now covering the whole world in its scope, making it the perfection of a NEWSPAPER, with everything carefully edi-ted to occupy the smallest space.

The Sunday Edition

Ine summay random Is not only a complete newspaper, but a Maga-zine of Popular Literature. Its sixteen large pages, clearly printed and stiractively illustra-ted, contain as much good literature, by the foremost writers of the world, as any of the popular monthlies. Some of the newspapers in New York, Boston and Chicago print a greater number of pages upon Sunday, but these are for the most part occupied with advertisements. The merchants in those cities concentrate near-ly al: their advertising in the Sunday papers, while in Philadelphia they have found it more advantageous to advertise on week days as well Contributors

Tax Paid. There is probably few who realize the enormous amount of money annually paid into the U. 8. Treasury on both Imported and Domestic liquors. Are you aware that Max Klein, of Allegheny, Pa., is a large contributor to that fund? Are you pos-ted as to who does one of the largest business in the liquor line? If not, let us tell you that Max Klein leads them all—and why? Because he has long since succeeded in convincing the people that he furnishes values for value. He sells six year old Guckenheimer, Finch, Overholt and Gibson at 51.50 per quart or six quarts for $5.0. His Silver Age that defies competition at $1.50 each quart bottle. Wines at 50 cents per quart and upward. He ships in neatly packed boxes.
