KILLED BY A FALL.

C. C. Meyer, at Linden Hall, Falls to the Barn Floor and Dies From Injuries.

On Tuesday evening the village of Linden Hall was the scene of a terrible and awful accident in which the town had one of her most esteemed young men receive injuries from which he died a short time after. On Tuesday after-noon Mr. C. C. Meyer, son of Henry Meyer, dec'd., was to Linden Hall and started for home about five o'clock and arrived there about half past five. He put his horse away and proceeded at once to help his brother Jacob finish the feeding of their stock. He went on the and is supposed attempted to cross over to the other side of the barn, to put hay down for the cattle, having to cross over from the one mow to the other above the barn floor. By a misstep he slipped and fell to the floor below, in which a braska. two horse wagon was standing, as is supposed fell head foremost, striking the corner of the wagon box with his head. His brother Jacob hearing the noise caused by Calvin in his descent, immediately went to the barn floor to see hotel in what had happened. He found Calvin church. sitting in an upright position with the blood flowing from his head, and in-It has been a lively business quiring where he was. Jacob assisted him to his feet and led him to the house. He soon became unconscious. Woods, of Boalsburg, was sent for and did all that was possible to relieve the injured man and he appeared to be conscious for a few moments at a time, until half past eight o'clock when he died, only speaking a few words from the time he fell until he died.

The funeral of deceased will be held on Friday morning, at 9 o'clock at the house and interment made at Boals

Thus by this sad accident the vicinity of Linden Hall lost one of her best citizens and an exemplary young man. The community at large mourn the death of this young man taken right in the prime of life, he being but thirty-six years of age and unmarried. Verily in the midst of life we are in death.

Runkle-Allison.

Miss Annie C. Runkle, daughter of James Runkle of near Centre Hall, was married Wednesday afternoon at her father's residence, to Dr. J. R. G. Allison of Spring Mills. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. E. Fischer. The bridal party were attended by Lot Runksle, uncle of the bride, Miss Mary Fischer, Thomas Saukey and Miss Emma Heckman, in the order named. Miss Sadie Bitner, played the wedding march with much grace and good effect, as the wedding party slowly filed down the stair way into the spacious and comfortable parlor. # Stenographers and Type-writers on The Pennsylvania Limited.

Recognizing the increasing popularity of the Limited among the business and professional men of the country, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has decided to still further improve the facilities of this wonderful train, and add to its conveniences by introducing a stenographer and typewriter for the service of the passengers. A bright, young man, expert in both branches of his profession, will be placed on each train between New York and Pittsburgh to take the dictation and transcribe on the typewriter the correspondence of the passengers who desire to avail themselves of his services. By this means, a business or professional man can attend to his correspondence en route, and thus secure a great saving of time. A compartment will be fitted up on each train for this purpose, and the letters will be mailed from the train as they are written. This novel and convenient arrangement will go into effect on February 1st. The business men already have the advantage of the stock and weather reports on the Limited, the ladies have their maid, their private bath, and their drawing-room in the observation car, and the introduction of an amanuensis will seriously ill of the grip and other ail- round out the completeness of the train's Kate and Maggie Alexconveniences to a perfect degree.

In North Carolina much excitement prevails among the people of many western counties on account of the alarming sermons being preached by ministers of primitive Baptist denominations. A few days ago a conference of 20 preachers of that faith was held at Bushy mountain, in Wilkes county. The preachers debated on the coming of Christ or the and of the world, and finally unanimous agreed to preach that the world would surely and certainly come to an end during this year. Their preaching is said to have greatly stirred up the more ignorant class among the farm people, and it is feared that it will affect the crops to a certain extent, farmers who believe the doctrine concluding that it is of nouse to make any preparations
