VOL. LXIII. THE CENTRE REPORTER

FRED KURTZ, -- EDITOR

Notice to Quay and the bosses-You may be able to lick Gen. Hastings, but you won't be able to 'lect Delamater.

Canada.

They had a big fox chase for the amusement of Gen. Hastings in Chester where Reynard showed all his cunning 8. Went down pike toward river. and slyness.

one whose skull was found encased in ford the reason I went to Karthaus. tortoise shell ornaments, oyster shells hundreds will be exhumed.

We notice there is a general feeling in favor of A. J. Greist, for Commissioner. The people now realize that in defeating him, they made a grave mistake, and that the county is suffering the penalty by gross mismanagement, in the Commissioner's office the past two years. Mr. Greist alone is worth a dozen such things as Henderson and Decker in the management of the affairs of our any firearms. county.

GUILTY ! From Opposite Page.

The Centre

been in this county seven months. Louis Green. [James Coburn as in-salary belonging to Coogressment, with out as well as law and would make a good prayer meeting exhorter. After good prayer meeting exhorter. After more salary belonging to Coogressment, with out saying good-bye, has been found in moles a woman. Had no res John H. Wolfe, chief of police at Brisbin Eupp's; I was married on the eighth of March in Euph's; I was married on the eighth of March in Euph's; I was married on the eighth of March in Euph's; I was married on the eighth of March in Euph's; I was married on the eighth of March in Euph's; I was marrie volver about the same time in Cambria county, ember 29. Left there at 5 minutes after the road on November 27.

They are disturbing the dead injuns to Clearfield side about 9 o'clock.

Robert Askey called. On Nov. 26 and seems to be general, that Mr. Greist be miles from camp. Know John Gaines. elected one of the next Commissioners- Saw him in camp on night of Nov. 26.

8. 10 o'clock.

do what he pleased with.

Thomas Mann called but not in.

that morning. Witnesses were then examind. W Cann, testified to knowing Andrews in England Robert Peck, of Lock Haven, had known Andrews for four years and terpreter.] Live in Lock Haven. Ped- said he was a quiet orderly person; dler tinware. Was with Zimmerman witness was a livery-man and Andrews in November, was always with Zimmer- had worked for him. John S. Bash, a man, does not know names of any places hotel keeper of Karthaus, testified that was called and testified to the same Mrs. Harry Meeker called. Live on effect. Edward Pooler, Mrs. Mary Pooler, turnpike one mile from Boak's and two Michell Watson, sr., 'Squire Rankin and miles from river. Live a distance from several others testified to the good the road. There was two peddlers stay- character of Andrews. Mitchell Watson, county. That was a sort of fox chase ed at my house on Tuesday night. Nov- jr., stage driver, did not see Andrews on > Mrs. Alfred Andrews, sworn-I am George Godollar recalled .- Rowed the the wife of Andrews; I lived at Karthaus two peddlers over the river from Centre before I went to Brisdin; lived in Karthaus three years; also lived in Snow down in New Jersey. Full one-half of Abe Serman called. Live in Lock Shoe; Alfred worked at mining, moved the people living within a radius of five Haven, am a peddler. On Wednesday to Brisbin in August; lived in Etterson's miles of Edgewater and Pleasantville November 27, crossed the river about house at first afterwards in Pooler's; have flocked to the site of the unearthed 101 o'clock from Karthaus to Centre side, never had a gurrel with Alfred; he left tomb of the people who at one time After leaving river went up path to top home on Tuesday morning, November ruled that land. Eight skeletons were of hill, jurned to the left there, never 25th to get some money and work; he taken up at one place and others have went by there before. Never went the came home Thursday morning; he did been found. Among the skeletons was pike. Could not cross the river at Bel- not work Thursday or Friday; worked around house on Saturday, he had on John Gaines called. Am a son of Jerry those shoes; he killed a chicken on and beads. It is probably that of the Gaines. On Tuesday evening of Nov. 26 Saturday night; I told him to hold it in once powerful chief Kinewaugha, whose was in Smith's camp on dam near his hands and not get it muddy; he had Four skeletons were dug up there and a there soon after breakfast, going up road to him to trade for rages; my father has little further on more were found. Be- towards Pine Glenn school house. Man it at Karthaus; my house was searched fore the avenue is completed probably came out on pike and went down to for weapons; Dr. Nevling came to me Karthaus as far as Watson's. Talked and said he had a dream that Alfred with Walson a while. Asked the road had a revolver; I told him he had not; to Moyer's camp. I went down road, these shoes laid around under the stove, across field and up to camp. About 8 and my little boy played with them. o'clock when I went from Watson's. Cross-examined-My maiden name was Mary Asked Mr. Moyer for a job. Went from Rupp; I lived at Karthaus about five years; Anthere to Belford, there crossed the river drews came to Karthaus three years ago this myself. Went into a store and got a Potter county; I was married to him in 1887; married in Potter county; I know where Cate is; I don't know few cakes. When I came out told where the places are; a 'squire married us with-Thomas Mann the time-10 o'clock. out license; we stayed there all night; I told Mrs. Saw no lady on the pike. Did not have Pooler I had a marriage certificate; I was married to a Mr. Sharp before I married Andrews; I did marry Andrews without a license when I was married already to David Price. (These admis-We agree with the sentiment that 27 was working at Smith's camp, about 2 slons were wrung from Mrs. Andrews with diffifast Alfred went away on November 26; he said he was going to Lock Haven to get money; he erected one of the next Commissioners Had break fast next morning at 5.30 had on striped pants, dark blue vest and striped Gaines left at 5.45 going in the direction cost; we had pictures taken of Alfred, myself and see any one on the pike in afternoon; I passed made a confession, in which it is said them. They had a candidate running for justice of school house. Saw Gaines on pike, it our child; I don't know whether he took one with him that night; he took off the shoes he had was then about daylight. He was going on and left them under the stove; he put on work towards Moyer's camp. 1 went back to day shoes on Friday and put on button shoes on camp Gaines went on to Boak's. Saturday; I did not say to some gentlemer that he did not have these shoes on after Thursday Mitchell Watson, Sr., called. Live night; Alfred has not had a pistol for two years on Snow Shoe and Karthaus pike. Caror a little better; he had that one for one day ried the mail in November from Kart lived at Snow Shoe only a little while; don't re have to Snow Shoe, going a round trip member that he had a pistol last spring, think h three times a week. Made the trip on had not; he worked in the monkey drift in Snow Shoe and he also worked in mines at Brisbin Wednesday, the 27th. Left Karthaus Three gentlemen came to see me at Hague's and about 8 o'clock. Met John Gaines at examined me: they said they were county commy house. Asked way to Moyer's camp. missioners and they would take care of me: they Showed him the way. It was about took my statements; I did not say I would commit suicide and kill my child if I was not provided for and allowed to see Alfred; did not say Theodore Lannigan called. On Nov. this to the district attorney or commissioners 27th was in Moyer's job. Am acquain- Mr. Chambers for defense, then asked her if she ted with John Gaines. Came to job be- had been put out of Jall by the sheriff, but the tween 8 and 9 o'clock. Went from there court objected and ruled it out. Hon. Joseph Murray and George Runyon testi Gaines was near the scene of murder on ple standing. The cross-examination of Andrews guilty of murder in the first degree"

During the deliverance of the verdict I was raised by a woman named Mrs. Christ; I lived with my father; I think it is 5 years the coming August since I came to this country; I when the jury was polled and as each Andrews' time to hang comes off, so as coming August since I came to this country, I never worked in mines in England; I can't tel juryman answered the question "Guilty to have both hangings on same day— exactly when I went to work for Peck's; I went or not guilty?" in a clear tone "Guilty", Hopkins, we say, is still joking about his to work at West Cateing; I don't know how long I worked at George Read's; I was sick while I he became greatly agitated and very ner-fate. Col. Spangler went in to see him was there; I did whitewashing and other work VOUS.

how long he worked for these different parties. He could not remember time very well.) I wor don't know name of man that married me; it was Andrews could not have been more at his house; he said he was busy and would send me a certificate in a day or two, but I never got it; ably defended than he was by Colonel I did not know that she was Mrs. Sharp until at- Spangler, who left no stone unturned to oad well; I moved to Brisbin in August; I did packed court house. He was eloquent

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1890.

was begun

not work on Monday or Tuesday before Thanks, and made a good showing for a very bad giving; I left by way of Philipsburg to go to Lock case. It was one of his best efforts. Haven to get some money from a man that owed To the able manner in which Judge it to me; when I got to Philipsburg I saw some men working on some lumber; this suggested to Orvis conducted the case against the me to inquire if they knew where I could get a murderer Andrews, is attributable the ob, and they told me I might get it at Moyer's or smith's lumber camp; I went on; found the roads fooded and no trains running from Hope Run Price, who seemed to have some chance the trial was over he would go back to mith's lumber camp; I went on; found the roads down; I walked to Viaduct and there found a of an acquittal. But Judge Orvis' work England and stay there. "No," replied reight which was running to Gordan Height; was complete, and his chain of circum- Hopkins, "you are not going to England.

Bates morning and afternoon; 1 knew when

Andrews Confesses. there was work at Smith's; I turned off the main road at Boak's; don't know exactly what time it Andrews, who was convicted of the descendants still live along the shore. Moshannon, was there all night. Left a revolver 22-caliber; my father gave it was; I had a watch; I told Mr. Cann and the murder of Clara Price, has confessed the others that I came back the same way I went in; deed. A conefssion was made by him, think it was about nine o'clock; I am not posi- to his attorney several weeks ago, in Rev. Deitzler officiating. It is reported that the I first met Mr. Emerick; afterwards two hunters ive about the time; I passed several hours after which he stated that he had passed this; I saw a lady ahead of me; I did not see her Clara and went ahead, concealing himvery long: she was about thirty rods ahead; I self in some bushes near the road, until don't know the names of all the people along the road knew Mrs. Watson slightly: I don't recollect of telling Mr. Poorer that I saw Clara Price on the when he sprang out upon her, for the the post mortem examination. They found that road; did not know it was Clara Price; I don't re- purpose of outraging the girl. He failed nember asking the road to Moyers camp; I tur- in his fiendish purpose, and fearing she There was a large crowd at the depot on Tuesday finally I struck a path which led me to the men would tell on him, he thought it the evening to see the prisoners.

about half a mile further on: they told me to go plan of safety to shoot her, as dead peoon and I would come to the main road; I started ple will tell no tales, and he then and off and came to the creek, and then I happened to there shot the pure and innocent girl in turned back; I found them eating dinner; I asked cold blood. The tracks and chain in the

for work but they were full; I saw a pedler talk- circumstantial evidence, as brought out foot. ing when I left first time; I was kind of bewild- by Judge Orvis proved correct and too ered; a man directed me to the main road: I went well woven for the escape of the muron and saw Smith at his house; I talked with derer on trial.

him; don't remember much of my conversation with him; he directed me to the road; I have On Tuesday evening after the jury been in Belford; I saw Midland boys; I did not brought in a verdict of guilty, Andrews citizens knew what they wanted and didn't elect Hopkins.

NO. 5

Hopkins, who is to hang on the 20th, unless respited by the Governor, until eporter.

on Tnesday, in company with a minister I think it was in summer time. (Judge Orvis ex.; The jury had been out two hours and of the Gospel. Spangler broke the ice to amined him at length as to the time of year and thirty minutes, and reached the verdict Hopkins by a spiritual admonition which would show that he can talk re-Shcott, who went on with co,000 the nizes ferryman. Did not re-cross until and had a good reputation for quietness. He could not remember time very well.) I wor ligion as well as law and would make a ligion as well as law and would make a ligion as well as law and would make a went at Hopkins and admonished him to prepare for the next world. Hopkins said he had attended to that er I had married her. (He then told the differ save his client. Col. Spangler's argument and he was all right now. The minister ent persons he had worked for around Karthaus.) I have gone up and down the road from Snow thave gone up and down the road from show listened to with profound interest by a profane and that he must quit that too; to which the doomed man replied that that was all right, and told the clergyman he might now consider himself dismissed. A few days previous to the trial of

Andrews, he and Hopkins being in conversation' Andrews told Hopkins that he would get through all right and when Coburn.

Benj. Kerstetter, Mrs. James Kooney and John Gray are on the sick list. Guess there gripped. The Weaver excitement is quieting down, about every other person has a different opinion. Weaver was buried on Thursday at the Musser church overseers had not intended to get a preacher but a few of our citizens concluded to ask Rev. Deits zier to preach the sermon, and he did preach a good one. The funeral was well attended. On Wednesday there was a large crowd assembled at the knife had penetrated the heart about 1% inch deep, and death must have been instantaneous.

One day last week Henry Eisenhuth of Ingleby had his foot badly smashed by a prop truck running over it. He is getting along as well as can be expected.

Eph Bartholomew is still housed up with his

I noticed in your paper the other week that your Penn Twp. correspondent was going for the Coburn correspondent to the Millheim Journal about our school teacher and that 2 of our citizens would like to be school directors, but the conviction of the murderer of Clara ohn Pelton, a brakeman, let me ride that far, 1 stantial evidence pointed so clearly to You will go with me." did tell him I was going to Karthaus; I went on; went to Mrs Crofts; I don't remember of showing Andrews, that the jury found no difficulpicture of wife and child to Mrs. Croft; I did meet ty in speedily finding a verdict of guilty.

Smith's camp was; I inquired at Moyer's job if

of the county demand it.

Let the Republicans also put up one of their good men for the same position, they have such, and the disgrace the county is suffering under Henderson and Decker will be wiped out. Yes we say, let Jack Greist be one of the next Commissioners-noleas volens.

Surplus Reduced.

Just as we predicted the county commissioners would soon equander our finances by their extravagant measures and favoritism to politicians. The county finances show the following: 19,838,75 Cash on hand Jan. 1, 18893.167.11 Cash on hand Jan. 1, 1890 toward Bellford. $6,671.64 Reduced. Then the expense of conducting the county's affairs show extravagance. The totals of the past years are:

$45,857.45 County expenses for 1889 ... 40,082.55 County expenses for 1888. County expenses for 1887 ...

This shows an increase of over $5,000. Bellford -loading lumber on cars. David Price called,-Known Andrew 00 over '88 and almost $ 3,000.00 more than during 1887. But some may say for 18 months. Lived within 150 yards then mentioned other people he worked for bethat the increase of expenditures is due of my house. Helped unload two cars to the loss of county bridges by the for me. Don't think he knew Clara. June flood. Well, let us see what con- Squire Rankin sworn .-- Know the solation there is in this. In the year underclothing that was taken of Clara to Brisbin. I left on Tuesday morning, the 26th 1887 under a Democratic board, $11,- Price. Offered in evidence, also de- of November, to go to Philipsburg; wanted to go 432.87 was expended on bridges and fendant shoes. Fdward Rooler rescalled .-- Could not much more improvement of public buildings and other property and the be positive but think Andrews wore a Gordon Heights on the freight, I then walked total expense was but $43,286.57. This pare of heavy shoes on Saturday, Nov- to Summit, turned off at Gillantown; rode with a past year only $10,102.91 was speat for ember 30. Am positive he did not wear bridges or $1,229.95 less than in '87 and the shoes offered in evidence by Comyet the expenses are almost three thou- monwealth.

sand more and no improvements were made to public property. Then the ing. On November 27 was at Bellford. former years. The amount is:

Tax levied for year 1880 Tax levied for year 1887

> .909.61 Increase of taxes Saturday morning.

These figures are taken from the

SATURDAY MORNING. Auditor's statement which will be in The prosecution having closed their print for our readers in a short time These totals simply show that the case, E. R. Chambers made the opening started off, but came back: I had no money to "cracker statesman's" promise to con- address for the defense. He said that cross the ferry with, and no place to stay; they duct the county's affairs on a lower scale he would make his very brief. He said than the former Democratic board was the road where the murder was coma bait put out by him to be retained of mitted was the road used for all travel five that he might put in his whole time from Centre to Clearfield, and therefore at the expense of the county. In 1887 there is a good deal of travel over this, Griest received only $545 for his services There is a floating population around but Henderson puts in one of the largest here of miners and lumbermen. Their bills on the record, the sum of $894,43, testimony is all circumstantial. No one on Saturday; I wore those shoes; I wore them on in which the auditors found $26,59 illegal saw Alfred Andrews commit the deed. my journey; I cut off the heel between Gordon charges and reduced the total to $867.74. We took the case not for money; And-Now taking into consideration that he rews had none. We took the case believed on crackers and soup a goodly cause we thought he was innocent. This that I cutoff the heel of my aboe along the road portion of the year and as alleged, often boy is being hounded to death by de- I was arrested on Sunday; when I was on the slept in the vaults, he will have made tectives, who are fighting for the reward. road here and in jail I was pressed to make a statement by the sheriff and others. I did not enough off the county by the time he We will follow the movements of An- kill Clars Price. Andrews closed his direct testiretires to place him high and dry and drews from the time he left Brisbin till mony with these words and then court adjourned will not need plead the limitation act on he came home. We will show that An- till 1.40 o'clock. honest store bills in the future .-- Centre drews was not near the place of the murder when it was committed: John fied to the good character of the accused. Alfred Andrews, the defendant, sworn-I was completely.

buttal.

again.

frightened.

morning.

Cross examination. I gave him 35 born in Ponsanooth, in Cornwall; my mother is cents .- 10 to cross the river and 25 to dead; am 22 years old next March; I came here in 1885; at Castle Garden I got on a train and went to Altoona and worked there; afterwards I went John Gardner called. Know Alfred to Lock Haven; worked there for George Peck; I Andrews. Worked for me in 1888 at then went to work for Runyon; I went to Cate; worked for Reed at his hotel; I then worked for J. W. Murray; after I left Murray's I went to work for John Castena; he owes me seven dollars. He fore he went to Karthaus; all the places he work ed at lumbering and mining. I was married ly. about this time. He then told the different places he lived and what he worked at till after he came sumed over an hour, covering the case John Castena; I inquired of some men if I could get work at lumbering; I went from Viaduct to man on a wagon, but did not know him; he di rected me to Mrs. Croft's, where I could stay all night; I stayed there and left in the morning a So'clock; went up the pike; met a man at the watering trough along the road; met another fur Thomas Mann called .- Live at Keats ther up; met two teams; I did not see any on the stand here I knew; I met the stage; I know Mitcommissioners levied more tax than in Saw Jonn Gaines in a store buying the Watson; he was not in wagon; I thought crackers and asked him for time and that this was the stage; did not see any women in it; I next turned off the road and went out by a stable; I met two hunters; I saw a lady standing in front of her house; it was a frame house; I saw Court adjourned at 5.15 to 8.45 o'clock a lady about thirty rods ahead of me; can't de scribe her dress; I then went through some house turned off by a path and lost my way in the thicket; finally I came to a lumber camp and asked for work, but could not get it. I was besildered and asked the direction to Karthaus;] were further down when I came back; I asked the way to the main road; I hollered to Mr. Smith, when I passed his house, to direct me to main road, he showed me the road and went apiece with me, I tried to cross the river to go to lordon Heights but tell in the river; I got back to the shore; went to Mrs. Shope's to stay but she would not keep me; stayed all night at coke ovens; got home on Thursday morning; I worked Heights and Summit; I killed a chicken on Sat urday night; thought the blood on shoes must be chicken blood; I did not tell John C. Henderson ment by the sheriff and others, I did not

AFTERNOON BESSION.

The court house was passed, hundreds of pe

Summit and then to Gordon Heights; I did not he alleges he was shooting mark, and have any dinner; I was too hungry to eat: I did accidentally hit Clara Price, and fearing badly, worse than the Independent candidate did not feel very well and suppose it was because I the consequences of the accident he for school director. had walked so far. I was dressed in the same thought he had better kill her there. lothes when arrested as I wore when I left home. I can t describe clothes the girl wore that was and disposed of to realize a sum of monahead of me.

After several witnesses had been ex- ey for his family by the sale of-it. amined as to the locality of the murder Andrews admits having shot at Clara and after a pair of gum shoes, found by Price five times and that of these four Sebastian Bush, has been offer in evi- shots hit her. His confessions contains dence, the defense rested and the an admission of the main points brought by the meeting. prosecution began the evidence in res out against him during the trial, as to his wanderings before and after com-George Hoedollar testified to seeing mitting the foul deed. The confession gum shoes on pike the Saturday before in substance will go to show the truth of the murder, but could not swear they the strong circumstantial evidence were the same as those offered. Mrs | against him, by Judge Orvis, traced ac-Croft swore Andrews had shown her a curately and with precision, in addition picture of himself, wife and child. John to his admission, as above, that he com-C. Henderson said Mrs. Andrews told mitted the foul deed.

A confession of it was made weeks ago him her husdand wore buttoned shoes on the journey and on coming home to his attorney, Chambers, which it is took them off and did not put them on said, was overheard by Sheriff Cook. A second confession was made after the

The testimony closed at 3.55 o'clock, jury rendered a verdict of guilty, Saturday afternoon and District Attor-ney Meyer commenced the argument at that the woman he is living with is not Philad. Branch a call and see for your-4.07 and summed up the evidence brief- his wife. He says he will tell where self and save $5 to boot. the revolver can be found with which

E. R. Chambers then followed and he did the shooting, and that the party summed up for the defence. He made who pays the highest price for the conv is not worthhaving. The spring stock a good and thrilling address which con- fession shall have the revolver.

The Feeling.

Court then adjourned until Monday The verdict of guilty in the Andrews case, leaves a feeling of calm satisfaction

Col. J. L. Spangler rose and began his ted Andrews, there was every prospect argument for the defence and made an of his being lynched. The populace eloquent and strong plea for the acquit- would have been maddened and the the goods are worth. He warrants all tal of his client, the prisoner. He con- consequences would have been hard to cluded his argument about half past four guess, as all felt that the prisoner was o'clock after speaking nearly six hours. guilty and that punishment should meet Judge Orvis then followed for the him.

commonwealth, and spoke near an hour when court adjourned until Tuesday New York Health Department morning. Tuesday morning he continued and argued for five hours and thirty minutes, reviewing the damaging testimony against Andrews.

regarding Speer's Port Grape Wine. Judge Furst then delivered a most impartial charge to the jury, occupying an hour and a half; and at 4.30 the case was Mr. Speer, given to the jury and they retired. to ring. This was a signal that the jury you the justice you deserve. I never and the time is too short to arhad agreed upon a verdict. Then en- lose an opportunity to recommend your range a new one.

when he immediately called the court to order. The jurymen were already in

When asked if they were ready to coat, $4 to $8 less than can be bought vote, but the Republicans in these States render a verdict the foreman of the jury elsewhere, then go to Samuel Lewins proscribe the negroes from holding ofreplied that they were and that it is that he has them and warrants them. He fice. How many officeholders of the "We find the prisoner, Alfred Andrews, sell mething that has cheat about it, the peace, last spring elections that the voters of Penn township did not want, and he got left

W. W. Rishel filled his ice house on last Satur-The confession he will have printed day a week. He got it off Kerstetters race; it was 4 inches thick and very nice.

Andy Campbell lost a veluable cow a few days

Rev. Deitzler closed his revival moeting last Friday evening, there were several seekers, and hope the congregation in general was benefitted

Our grain merchants have been doing a fair pusiness, but say coal trade is dull

It is a wonder that the farmers do any hauling at all, the condition the roads are in. The pike is fully as bad as the twp. roads and they are still raising the toll.

The weather is more like April than February, very unhealthy, and I hear there is lots of sickness through the twp.

W. A. Youngman of Millheim lies at the point of death. He had a relapse of La Grippe and turned to brain fever.

--- Now is your time to get a cheap overcoat, and Lewins has 'em cheap

----Whatt he Philad. Branch does not have in the line of ready-made clothing now on the counters is immense and goes ahead of anything you ever saw Lewins is King for low prices.

----Mingle's shoe store in the Brockerhoff house block has every idea in the On Monday morning at nine o'clock, among the people. Had the jury acquit- line of boots and shoes, whether of rub. ber, leather or cloth, and he sells at bottom prices, so that none pay more than he sells.

> ----Send your name in for the REPOR-TERAt campagn rates on trial. Or send, us two new names and the cash for a year and we give you a copy one year free, thus enabling any one, by very lit-Dr. Cyrus Edson, Superintendent of itle effort to get a paper one year free.

-The anniversary services of the the Sanitary Bureau of New York City writes the following unsolicited letter W. H. & F. M. society, of the Latheran church will not be held on Sunday evening, but regular church services New York January, 1888. may be expected. The reason for the The box of wine has been above change is the fact that La Grippe At 7 o'clock the court house bell began safely received; I trust that 1888 will do has too strong a hold on the program

Senator Withall of Mississippi in his speech in the senate on the race question declared there are more negroes in office, voted for by whites, in one congressional -Lewins'can sell you a late style district in Mississippi than Harrison has his familiar seat. He looked pale and you of from $3 to $8. Try him on this. tion New York, Ohio and Indiana were -If you wish to have a good over saved to the Republicans by the negro ecomplexion are there in Pennsylvania

Yours sincerely.

sued a wild rush of men and women for good wine, for I know it to be one of the court room to hear the verdict the pure brands obtainable.

and it was soon packed. Judge Furst did not arrive until fifteen minutes later, For sale by Druggists, CYRUS EDSON.

in their places, and the prisoner brought suit or take your measure and make it to appointed during his term, in the whole in by Sheriff Cook, and was ushered to order on short notice, and at a saving to United States. At the presidental elecs