of a bloody affray ! With two murderers under the sentence of death, two to be tried at next term, another would-be has been added to await the consequences.

The Daily News says the spot where the latest tragedy in Centre county occurred is about one-half mile beyond or west of Moshannon on the road leading day to Karthaus. The road at that point growth of underbrush is heavy and March 21. thick. The two characters, John Veighfight, had gone to Moshannon to attend a prayer meeting, but there was none that night, Thursday last, and it was town Monday morning and dropped in about half-past eight o'clock when they at our office. in a crowd of nine,-three young girls' and six young men, two Veighdorfer It has been a lively business boys, two Fye boys, Allen Keller, and John Forcey, started out the road on the way to their homes. They had gone but one-half mile when Veighdorfer procaeded to pick a quarrel with Forcey. Spring Mills can probably tell Words soon led to blows and the engagement became warm. Forcey had knocked Veighdorfer down twice when the latter drew a knife, a large bone-hands led one with a dirk blade about four inches long and sharp as a razor. He stabbed Forcey twice in the back with it and then made a stroke at his throat which, if it had not been anticipated by Forcey, would almost have severed his head from his body, as it was however it made a semi-circular cut on the shoul der clear into the bone, severing all the
