CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS., MAY 27

There is no Store In Bellefonte just like "THE RACKET."

Goods different. Styles different. Way of doing business different.

It has been a lively business from the start.

My old customers and kind friends at Woodward and Spring Mills can probably tell you the reason

WHY?

G. R. SPIGELMEYER.

LOCAL ITEMS.

—F. P. Duck moves from Spring Mills to Madisonburg.

—Wm. F. Rearick has been appointed postmaster at Farmers Mills.

—This kind of weather makes a man with any religious inclination matter it's dam(p) ugly.

—The Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Company had their quarterly meeting at hotel Tuesday.

—Of all the towns in this state, none can boast of cleaner walks in bad weather than Bellefonte.

—Fitting has begun, and the public sales are over. There is much shifting around all over the county.

—At four o'clock on Tuesday evening, Miles Kephart, of Fleming, was married to Mrs. Emma Wakefield, of Bellefonte.

—Cyrus Lose and B. M. Greeninger, of Gregg, have moved to Tyrone. Success to them—they were good citizens here.

—Dr. J. C. Richards, who has practiced medicine in Phillipsburg since 1843, died at his residence on Saturday, aged 68 years.

—John H. Musser & Son, will open a new shoe store in one of the Brockerhoff House rooms in Bellefonte. Kline Musser will have charge of it.

—Yony Deinger on Friday moved into his new house south of his former home. He now lives nearer Lewistown than ever before, and surely ought to be satisfied.

—Rev. Samuel Kreider, of Cookport, Pa., gave us a pleasant call. Rev. Kreider left Potters Mills some 15 years ago, since which he has been in the ministry, where he has done faithful service.

—A car load of ice arrived at Bellefonte on Monday, from Canada, for Mr. Brandon, of the Brockerhoff House. The ice is 18 inches thick, and costs about $3.50 per ton delivered at Bellefonte.

—Tuesday was license day for Blair county. Presiding Judge Dean granted 39 out of 44 applicants. There were 28 applicants from the city of Altoona. All were granted, an increase of 4 over last year.

—Mr. and Mrs. David Sparr recently presented St. John's Reformed church at Boalsburg, with a $90, extra finish, Bailey reflector, and their kindness is very much appreciated by the members of the congregation.

—John H. Musser, of Aaronsburg, and Esq. Duck, of Millheim, were in town on Tuesday. Major Fisher, of Gregg, and S. J. Herring, of Gregg, were also in town same day. Likewise Col. M'Farlane, of Harris, J. G. Bailey and ex-Commissioner Campbell, of Ferguson, and Daniel Brumgard, of Miles.

—The Slate College has sunk another well, some 150 feet in depth, and now has an unlimited supply of water. The first well gives a plentiful supply, but to provide for any emergency that might arise this second well was put down, and one of the faculty informs us that they evidently struck a subterranean river, and now have an inexhaustible supply of water from a six inch pipe.

—During the past week quite a number of farmers in Huntingdon and adjoining counties have been victimized by lightning rod swindlers. The unsuspecting farmer is required to pay a small sum as the difference between the old and new rods. He is first requested to sign a contract which he ultimately finds to be a negotiable note for about ten times the amount which he agreed to pay for the exchange of lightning rods. This fraudulent scheme has worked beautifully among farmers and others in the lower end of the county, and has netted its promoters several thousand dollars.

Col. J. L. Spangler Wedded.

On Tuesday evening last guests began early to assemble at the home of Mrs. Lida Holliday, on northeast corner of Diamond, Bellefonte, for the purpose of witnessing the marriage of that lady to Col. Jackson L. Spangler, one of the brightest lawyers at the Bellefonte bar. At 7 o'clock the wedding party marched into the room and took their stand before Rev. W. A. Hauck, of the M. E. church, who performed the ceremony. Miss Ohmumacht played the wedding march. The maids of honor were Misses Myra Holliday and Millie Smith.

Refreshments were then served and were choice and bountiful. The presents were numerous, and valuable. Gov. and Mrs. Beaver sent a set of solid silver salad forks. General and Mrs. Hastings a French bronze and onyx mantel clock; Miss Tome and Mrs. Bush a candelabra to match; the groom's father a handsome grandfather's clock; the groom to the bride, a gold enameled and a diamond bracelet, and two paid up life insurance policies for $2,000 each. Other presents were numerous and valuable.

The happy couple departed amid showers of rice on the 9 o'clock train for a tour through eastern and southern cities.

A Stringent Fish Law.

It is not generally known that by the act approved May 22, 1889, all kinds of net and seine fishing, or any other appliance for the catching of fish, (which thus includes outlines,) is prohibited under a penalty of $100 or three months imprisonment, or both, with the forfeiture of boats, nets and all appliances. Fish wardens and all other public officers are authorized to destroy nets of all kinds or any other device used, and arrest the parties using them on the spot and any party interfering with such officer or resisting arrest will be subject to a fine of $100 or three months in jail, or both. The only permissible or legal way for catching game fish in season is rod, hook and line. One-half the fine goes to the officer. The penalty for catching any game fish out of season is $10 for each fish. This act is stringent enough to stop all piratical fishing, and needs only an energetic and fearless warden or two to do it. In one respect the act is defective in requiring one-half the fine to be paid to the state. It ought to have been given to the county to be applied to the pay of wardens.

Make Your Own Ice.

Below we print directions for making ice on small scale. In view of the ice crop failure it is just in place and if on trial it proves practical would no doubt furnish many blocks of ice where otherwise this useful commodity would not be available. Take a cylindrical vessel and pour three and one third ounces of commercial sulphuric acid and one and three fourth ounces of water into it and then add one ounce of powdered sulphate of soda. In the centre of this mixture place a smaller vessel containing the water to be frozen; then cover the vessel, and if possible revolve the whole with a gentle motion. In a few minutes the water in the smaller vessel will be converted to ice. The same mixture can be used a second or third time for making a block of ice. The operation should, if possible, be performed in a cool place.

A Live Stock Co. Organized.

Several of the prominent men of Sugar and Brush Valleys met at Loganton, Clinton county, on Feb. 4, and organized the Rebersburg and Loganton Live Stock Company. This company recently invested a large sum of money in a full blooded Clydesdale stallion, not for the benefit of themselves alone, but for their neighbors also, and the company would respectfully solicit their patronage. At the meeting at Loganton of the stockholders, the following officers were elected: President, Kline Heckman; Secretary, James J. Gramley; Treasurer, Samuel Illyan; Directors, D. D. Royer, A. J. Gramley, of Rebersburg, and J. B. Barber, E. Schwenk, A. D. Kleckner, of Loganton; groomsmen, Jacob Gephart, of Rebersburg.

Huntingdon again Refused.

For three years Huntingdon County has been without any licensed liquor places because the associate judges overruled the action of President Judge Furst and declined to allow license to be granted. The same thing has been done again this year, but Judge Furst now declares his purpose to grant licenses regardless of his associates. The excuse for this is that liquor is even more freely used in the county without license than it was with. The difference between the judges will be pretty certain to get the whole matter before the Supreme Court.

World's Fair Postponed Until 1893.

The World's Fair to be held in Chicago in 1892 is to be postponed until 1893. In the House Mr. Chandler offered an amendment, to be considered as pending providing for the dedication of the buildings of the World's fair, with appropriate ceremonies, October 12, 1892, and further providing that the exposition shall be opened to visitors not later than the 1st of May, 1893, and close not later than Oct. 30, 1893. He said that this postponement was not asked by Chicago. After a short debate the amendment was agreed to.

—Linden Hall is to have another store. "The merrier the more." That may not be exactly as the quotation should run, but it rhymes that way, anyhow.

—If you wish to have a good overcoat, $4 to $5 less than can be bought elsewhere, then go to Samuel Lewins he has them and warrants them. He sell nothing that has cheat about it.

—Bruce Lingle left on Tuesday evening for his home near Cherokee, Iowa, after a visit to his mother near this place. Bruce is engaged in farming there, and left this place several years ago for that land.

—In spite of all competition Lewin continues to take the lead in ready made clothing, low prices as well as quality of goods. He gets ahead of all, sells more than all, pleases all, and fits and suits all.

—There are two licensed bars within a mile in this vicinity—the Old Fort hotel having been granted license by Judge Furst last week. Both bars have been admirably conducted in the past and experienced no difficulty in securing license.

—Lewins now has his counters stocked with the best lot of ready-made clothing yet brought to Centre county and at the most astonishing low prices. Lewins always leads—he never follows. You never heard a customer complain of any article of clothing purchased of honest Sam Lewins.

—Ex Governor Andrew G. Curtin has for some time back been confined at the Arlington Hotel, Washington, D. C., because of feeble health. The old "War Governor," even at his advanced age, seems reluctant to entirely forsake the ground on which many years of his active life was spent and where he fought and won many hard earned battles for his nation and people.—News.

—Alfred Davis, who was arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the robbery of Boddinger's store at Snow Shoe, was given a hearing Friday last at Bellefonte. About a half dozen witnesses were called and evidence against him was rather damaging, for the robbery of a recent date, while it was conclusively proven that he was one of a party that broke into and robbed the same store in November last. Two revolvers that were stolen at that time were found in the garret of his home and a large box of men's caps were also found there. After hearing all the evidence it was decided to hold him for trial at the next term of court or release him on $1,000 bail, not being able to give bail he was sent back to jail.

Fire at Bellefonte.

A fire was discovered in the large frame dwelling house on Bishop street, owned by V. Bauer, jr, at about half past 8 on Sunday evening. The fire is supposed to have started from a fire. There was a double roof on the house and the fire broke out between these two roofs. The building was old, very combustible and burnt rapidly. The inside of the house is completely wrecked. The lower part is not badly burned, but is damaged by water. Two families occupied the house—V. Bauer and Ollie Miller.

A family had just moved out of the west side a few days before, Mr. Bauer lost the most of his furniture, but Mr. Miller succeeded in saving some of his. The loss on building and furniture to V. Bauer, jr., is $3,000. There is $2,100 insurance, $1,800 on the house and $300 on the furniture. The loss on Miller's furniture is complete, as he had no insurance.

A Railroad to be Extended.

The Bellefonte and Buffalo Run Railroad Company will shortly commence to extend its tracks from near State College, where it now ends, into Stone Valley, Huntingdon county, a distance of about twelve miles. This extension will open up one of the richest agricultural and mineral sections of Central Pennsylvania, the valley being dotted with the ruins of furnaces that were in operation seventy-five years ago and were killed by the lack of transportation facilities. The new road is an improvement that is greatly needed.

Facts for all.

In spite of all competition the Philad. Branch clothing store, remains headquarters for actual bargains in ready made clothing, for men and boys. Lewins introduced cheap clothing in Centre county, and has kept it at that all the time; he kept 1 cent goods, no trash, and, as a rule, always sold from 25 to 30 per cent below any other clothing store in this part of the state.

Forepaugh's Show Coming.

It is definitely settled that the big Forepaugh show will soon exhibit at Bellefonte, as some changes have taken place in the great enterprise since its last visit to this neighborhood, we clip the following from the Philadelphia Press:

"The Forepaugh show returns in the season of 1890 in better form than ever that great institution ever before opened a season in all the twenty-seven consecutive years it has been the leader of American shows. In 1864 Mr. Adam Forepaugh organized his show, and from that time to the opening of this season, its founder conducted and annually enlarged the enterprise, until now it stands the oldest, richest, greatest and grandest amusement that ever remained for more than a quarter of a hundred years under one man's name and management. It is the only show in the history of circuses that has ever remained the same and operated under the same title for that length of time. It never changed its name; it never was owned by a company, a trust, or a firm. It always has been and always will be managed by a Forepaugh, and now that its founder is no longer its guide, it will be perpetuated under the proprietorship of Jas. E. Cooper with Adam Forepaugh, Jr., and John A. Forepaugh as managers and conducted on the same high moral plan and great system that it has always been from the beginning. Young Adam Forepaugh had been associate manager with his illustrious father for many years. This year the new management have much enlarged the great Wild West. They introduce the best features known as "Custer's Battle" and "Sheridan's Ride," the two greatest spectacular productions of the age. They give the greatest hippodrome exhibition ever seen, and the greatest circus and menagerie exhibits this country. It is difficult for the uninitiated to conceive how the present management gives a bigger show than the original Forepaugh show had been for years past, but they do it and do it well.

Words of Advice

To those who require a stimulant. There are many to whom we could recommend you. We think there are just as many honest liquor dealers as there are dealers in any other class of merchandise, and again we believe that there are many who sell whiskey or any other commodity, who are not reliable. We have noticed that our best physicians and superintendents of hospitals have by their testimonials highly recommended Klein's Silver Age. Here, therefore, we say his is the place to which we would advise every one to go. He sells six year old Guckenheimer, Fine, Gibson or Overholt for $1 per full quart or six quarts for $5. Wine, brandies and liquors, cheap as the cheapest. Send for complete catalogue and price list to
