TO ANNUAL CITIZENSHIP.

Burgess of Plymouth, Pa., Charged with Fraudulent Naturalization.

WILKESBARRE, May 10.—John C. F. Jenkins filed a petition in the probate court of this county, to which he has never before come under the jurisdiction of the Luzerne county court. The petition is in order to obtain his full papers, to show cause why the naturalization papers of Alfred Martin, Burgess of Plymouth, should not be annulled, for the reason that they were obtained through misrepresentation and fraud. Jenkins alleges that on April 24, 1903, Martin in order to obtain his full papers, swore that he came to this country when he was under 18 years and resided five years in the United States and one year in Pennsylvania, when as a matter of fact, he was over 21 years old when he landed and had resided here the required length of time.
The court granted the rule and the case will be argued on the 28th. Great interest is manifested in the case owing to the prominence of Burgess Martin, who has been one of the leading politicians here for years.

More Conemaugh Victims.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., May 10.—Five more bodies have been found. Three of them were found in the river and the other two in the ditch, where the Fifteenth ward water pipe was being laid at the time of the great disaster. Two of the bodies were those of a mother and child, the latter clasped in the last embrace of its mother. The men who discovered the corpses in this position were moved to tears at the sight. Now that the bodies are being found with such regularity it has been deemed advisable to increase the forces of men engaged in the work of searching for the dead.

IRWIN, Pa., May 13.—The situation at Irwin remains unchanged. The miners are more determined than ever to hold out for their demand of 65 cents per ton. The strike now involves all the mines on the Baltimore and Ohio and the Pittsburgh, McKeesport and Youghiogheny railroads. Luckily the elevator was running slowly, and the elevator boy seeing the danger stopped it quickly. Justice Hand sustained a shock that confines him to his home.

The senate took up the Jones silver bill and discussed several amendments without reaching a vote on them.
WASHINGTON, May 9.—The house continued the debate on the tariff bill, Messrs. Frank, of Missouri; Burrows, of Michigan; and Bayne, of Pennsylvania, speaking for and Dockey, of Missouri; McMillan, of Tennessee; and Flower, of New York, against the measure.

The senate passed the bill to classify worsted cloths as woolsens and took up the pension appropriation bill, which calls for $97,000,761. The silver bill was postponed until Monday, when the usual business of the day will be finished before the Wyoming and Idaho bills are taken up.

BALTIMORE'S JUBILEE.

The City Pays Homage to Her Aquatic Namesake.

BALTIMORE, May 12.—No such scenes of life and activity have heretofore been witnessed in Baltimore harbor as were seen here yesterday. The great crowds that on Saturday visited the new cruiser Baltimore were made to appear small by comparison. It is estimated that 25,000 people went out to the cruiser during the day. During the afternoon the crowds were so great that many boatloads returned to the city without being able to make a landing, the passengers having to be content with only a look at the cruiser. A few accidents and collisions are reported, owing to the jam, but there are no fatalities reported.

To-night a ball will be given at Lehmann's hall in honor of Capt. Schley and his officers. The May night fete at Harris' academy on Tuesday evening promises to be the most enjoyable occasion of the season.

Rothschild Waxing Fat.

LONDON, May 12.—Excessive fatness, which has caused its share of trouble to the great men of the earth—Bismarck, for example—has seized upon another victim, a potent not of the political, but of the financial realm, no less a personage than Rothschild, the London head of the great house which could make and unmake empires, but prefers to milk them and wax fat upon the revenues thereof. Lest the banker's bulk should continue to grow in proportion to his fortune, he has called upon that uniquely renowned friend of the adipose, Dr. Schweinfigger, who will shortly arrive in London for the purpose of personally treating his illustrious patient.

Senator Beck's Successor.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 10.—Opinion here varies as to the probable successor of Senator Beck, but the general drift of expression is decidedly in favor of Mr. Carlisle, who is apparently much less concerned than his friends in proportion to his fortune, he has called upon that uniquely renowned friend of the adipose, Dr. Schweinfigger, who will shortly arrive in London for the purpose of personally treating his illustrious patient.

Saved by a Newfoundland Dog.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 10.—Mary Gardner, a bright and pretty, but wayward girl, was brought here from Clyde, at the instance of her mother, who lives in the city. On her way to the court house from the police station she jumped in the canal, in an attempt to commit suicide, but was seized as she was about to sink by a big Newfoundland dog, whose master plunged into the water and rescued her.

Baltimore Honors Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, May 10.—The banquet tendered Commander Winfield Scott Schley and his staff of officers of the cruiser Baltimore at the Hotel Rennett last night by the citizens of Baltimore was a brilliant affair. No Titles for Stanley.
