WHERE IS THE RACKET?

Is a question often asked by persons not acquainted in Bellefonte. Do you come via L. & G. B. E. V., or B. R. Railroads, go up High Street about 2½ squares to the Diamond; turn to the left; pass 1st Nat. Bank, Montgomery's Clothing House, Erhard & Co., grocers, and next you find "The Racket," being the middle room of Crider's Exchange the largest and most noticeable building in the town. If you can't find it ask the first boy you come to, they are our especial friends, they say, "There is no flies on The Racket."

And they know.

LOCAL ITEMS.

—Cleven Dinges left this week for the west and south.
—Chas. Shiffler was here, attending his father's funeral.
—The furniture rooms of Camps are being fitted up and plastered.
—Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson Moore have gone to Howard for a visit.
—Will Flory has put an addition to his house at the lower end of town.
—Jacob Harpster turned into soup a twenty pound turtle the other day. It was a big one.
—Former townsman C. F. Harlach-er, of Half Moon, was in town Wednesday.
—S. P. Henny, of Pottery Mills, gave our sanctum a call and reports things O. K. in that section.
—We will still have ice cream if no ice. Our dealers have the ice cream shipped from other places.
—Postmaster Brislin has become manager for Witmer's lumber operations in the Seven Mountains.
—Will Furst, son of his honor, Judge Furst, of Bellefonte, graduated from Princeton College last week.
—The candidates have been rather numerous in town of late. All report encouragingly. Some few will get left.
—John Gingrich, formerly of our town, has become manager for Threlman & Christ's lumber operation in Clinton county.
—Peter Hoffer received a car load of farming machinery at this station this week. He is selling quite an amount of it.
—Mrs. Oscar Stover we understand is seriously ill of typhoid fever, and has been confined to her bed for near three weeks.
—Gottlieb Strohmeier has removed his marble yard from around the bank corner up to his lot opposite Reformed church.
—Misses Anna Mingle and Jennie Kreamer returned home on Saturday from Lock Haven after a two weeks' visit in that city.
—Robert Philson, wife and two children, from Berlin, Pa., are visiting at Rev. Fischers and will spend two weeks among us.
—Mine host Brandon, of the Brock-erhoff House, Bellefonte, seems to have quite an interest in this valley, of late, from the frequency of his trips.
—Willis Weber has quit his job in the foundry and started a wagon making shop of his own on church st. Willis is a good workman and can run out a fine job.
—D. K. Geiss is announced as a candidate for recorder. He is a work- ing Democrat, always in the traces and has made some hard pulls for the success of the party.
—Mr. Harvey Miller, of Madisonburg gave the REPORTER a pleasant call Monday. He reports the wheat looking fine down in his section but thinks the hay yield will not be comparatively large.
—Many cats fields in our county, and all over the state, show damage done by rust, which has blighted one-fourth and one-third of the plants in many of the fields—in fact no fields seem to be free from the blight.
—S. Woods Caldwell, of the Irvin House, Lock Haven, is a candidate for the nomination for County Treasurer of Clinton county. Mr. Caldwell is a nice man and one who is worthy and capable in every respect and, if the office is to be occupied by a democrat, there is not another man in that party in Clinton county that would fill it more ac- ceptably.

Death of Peter Shiffler.

Peter Shiffler, of this place, died on last Saturday night. Father Shiffler was the oldest person in this vicinity, his age being 82 years 8 months 8 days. He was long a resident of our town, and highly respected as an upright man, quiet, and a regular attendant at church. He was born in Lebanon county, and was the father of a large family, all of his children bearing a good reputation. His wife preceded him to the other side some years ago. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon, interment being made in the cemetery at this place. Rev. Davis, of the Evangelical church' officiating.

Five Generations in a Group.

A photograph of Lewisburg exhibits a photograph of a family group recently taken by him, which represents five generations. The oldest person in the party is Mrs. Leah Raidabaugh, formerly of Lancaster county. She is now just 90 years old. The next is her son Adam, and then his son, George P. Raidabaugh. The latter was married in 1867 to Eliza- beth Furman. To this couple was born in 1869, a daughter, Elita. In 1888 Elita married Robert Tippet, of Harrisburg. To them was born baby girl, Ruth, now 14 months old. The old lady is still very active, and up to a short time ago took an active part in the household affairs.

Marriage Licenses.

Following is the list of marriage licenses issued during the past week.
Joseph Volosick and Mary Mareskie, both of Snow Shoe.
H. D. Comisel, of Blanchard, Pa., and H. M. Walker, of Milesburg.
John E. Rishel, of Spring Mills, and Fannie E. Meyer, of Coburn.
George M. Walk, and Leona May Price, both of Fowler, Pa.
Chas. W. Watson, of Snow Shoe, and Sarah Bland, of Bellefonte.
Leon Francois and Juliet Weiland, both of Ashcroft, Clearfield Co., Pa.
Joseph Szorowski and Mary Krizilik, both of Snow Shoe.

The Census.

James Gregg, census enumerator for Potter township, north precinct and Centre Hall borough, is rapidly pushing through his work. He has near com- pleted his report of the township, and in a day or so will commence working the borough. James says he has been treated politely all over, except one place he was soundly cursed, for being inquisitive, but there has not one "refused" to answer some of the more objectionable in- terrogations.

Worm in the grass.

Our farmers in this section are complain- ing lately of a worm that has been working on the grass and some think will not have as large hay crop. The worm is under the sod and cuts it loose from the earth, leaving the sod loose and easy to pull up. It works mostly at the roots of the grass, though some report it above ground, and doing devastation above.

Given a Call.

At a meeting of the Presbyterian church at Centre Hill last Thursday, it voted to give Rev. Baskerville a call to this charge and become their pastor. Rev. Baskerville preached a trial ser- mon several weeks ago and made a fa- vorable impression upon the people of his ability. Have not heard whether he has accepted or not.

Viewers Appointed.

Simon Harper, John Emerick, Dr. G. W. Hosterman, J. C. Boal, William Wolf, John Spangler, and Michael S. Derstine have been appointed as viewers by the court to assess damages on the straight- ening of Penn avenue, and made by opening of Hoffer street. They will perform the duties of their office on June 12.

—Charley Harpster came home Sat- urday from Bellefonte on account of sickness but is able to be about again.
—Simon Loeb's new clothing store opposite the Conrad house, is the place for bargains in men and boys' suits.
—An Osborn Binder, good as new, run part of two years, is offered for sale; apply to James Lingle, Centre Hall, 2 t
—We are informed that the Evan- gelical college at New Berlin, Union county, will be moved to Milton in the near future.
—William F. Gramley, son of Philip and Maria Gramley, of Sugar Valley, Pa., died May 23, 1890; aged 33 years and 27 days.
—We buy and sell for cash only and can afford to sell lower than any body. Prices are cut down lower than ever at the Union Clothing store.
—Quite a number of cattle dealers are in this section at present, buying for eastern markets, a car load was shipped Tuesday morning from this station.
—The elegant new shoe store, of M. Gillam, in the Crider Block, Bellefonte should be visited to see his stock and variety of boots and shoes for all age and sexes.
—The thunder showers, Thursday and Friday were welcome, they tended to soften the baked surface, and give the corn a chance to get through. Thursday was very warm; Saturday was cool.
—Lewins makes suits to order, par- ties can select their own goods from samples. Satisfaction guaranteed in all respects, and at prices 25 per cent lower than elsewhere.
—Candidates are on the move, and, judging from the name, must be full of sweetness, and no doubt are candiates. Taftsticks wouldn't be a bad name either, as that means sweetness too.
—Big stock of new suits, for spring at Lewins, head quarters for low prices and genuine goods—no shoddy or auction tissue. The Philadelphia Branch always leads.
—Andy Long, one of the prominent Republican candidates for commissioner, was in town on Saturday. If Andy should get there, there won't be any Henderson-Decker fooling about the commissioners' office.
—Lewins is putting out new suits like hot cakes. Everybody wants them because they are so cheap and well made out of the best goods. He takes your measure and will make a suit to order if desired.
—Eq. Herring, of Gregg, was in town on Monday, and called to have his name announced as a candidate for treasurer. He is a first-class man and a life-long Democrat, so well known to all that we need not add any thing more.
—Lewins is piling up spring clothing, all new stock, for men and boys. He has the largest and best as- sortment in Bellefonte and at prices that none can compete. Suits made to order, by one of the best tailors in the state and perfect fits guaranteed.
—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoover, of Al- toona, were the guests of Reuben Spang- ler. Mr. Hoover is lumber inspector of P. R. at that place. Miss Emma Downing, of Bellefonte, sister of Mrs. Spangler, also spent several days in the town as their guest.
—Have you been to A. C. Mingle's shoe store in the Brockerrhoff house block? Never miss going there when at Bellefonte, he always has something new and offers none but genuine goods, which he warrants. For low prices in boots and shoes Mingle's is the place.
—Ira Ellenberger, the crack pitcher of the State College base ball team, has signed a contract with the Lebanon Inter-State Club at a salary of $125 a month. He graduates from the State College this month and will join the Lebanon club July 1. His loss will greatly weaken the college team, but will be a strong addition to the Lebanon, as it will give them one of the best pitchers in the state.
—Musser's new shoe store, in the Brockerrhoff House row, is now open and ready for the patronage of the public, which they flatter themselves they can suit as to prices, style and quality of goods, having unpacked the finest and best assortment of boots, shoes, gaiters, &c., ever seen in this county. Call and see them—buy or not.
—Tyrone will open up a First Nation- al Bank on or about the first of August. The capital stock will be $75,000. Mr. D. Shelly Kloss, of Millin, will be the cashier. The other officers are J. S. Morris- son, president; J. N. Van Valzah, vice president; J. S. Morrison, J. F. Van Val- zah, George D. Blair, John A. Crawford, Dr. J. M. Smith, A. A. Stevens, Esq., and J. P. Walton, directors.
—R. D. Cummings, who in his latter years had come to be called "General" died in Philadelphia on the 27th ult. He was one of the best known citizens, hotel keepers and stage-line owners in this section of the state. Away back in the fifties he was the proprietor of the old Pennsylvania House in Bellefonte, and ran stage coaches to Tyrone, Lock Hav- en, Lewistown and other points. Most of the REPORTER readers will remember Bob Cummings.

Extension of Dining Car Service on the Penn Lines.

In these days of hurry and rapid tran- sit the dining car has become an es- sential element of every through train. The Pennsylvania Railroad was the pioneer in the East of this branch of the service, and its dining cars have won a well-merited reputation among travelers. In order to better provide for the com- fort of its through passengers dining cars will, on and after June 16th, be added to the equipment of all through trains run- ning over the lines west of Pittsburg be- tween the East and Cincinnati, Chicago, and St. Louis. The principal trains on the lines East of Pittsburg are now equipped with these cars, and their ad- dition to those of the Western territory will greatly enhance the conveniences of passengers destined to the three great Western termini.

The Lock Haven Democrat of 5 inst, says: William Wallace Allison, eldest living son of ex Judge Allison, of this city, was drowned at Clintondale in Fish- ing creek, Tuesday, in a most unexpect- ed and peculiar manner. Mr. Allison was in the employ of Dr. Huston and he and the doctor's son, a boy about four- teen years old, were engaged in washing and cleaning each a buggy. The creek crosses the doctor's lot close by his stable and was quite convenient for the pur- pose. Young Huston concluded he would take his buggy out into stream, where he could give it a thorough drench- ing, but Mr. Allison use a bucket near the bank. In a brief period he was missed and for the time being nobody could tell what had become of him, but he was soon found prostrated face down- ward in about two feet of water, quite dead. His father, Judge Allison, tells us that his son was subject to epileptic fits and it is supposed that he was seized with one of these spells and rendered en- tirely helpless.

—David Parsons died at Bellefonte Wednesday.
—Merchant Wm. Noll, of Pleasant Gap, was in town Wednesday.
—Boozer Bros. have received a large lot of flynets light and heavy.
—Musical College.—The 38 session opens Monday July 28, for Young Ladies in Vocal and Instrumental music.—Ad- dress, for circular, F. C. Moyer, Freeburg, Pa.

—Huntingdon papers report the sale of "Jamaica Ginger" in that place to be very good.—Daily News. They say it is pretty good too up near where com- missioner Henderson keeps store.

—Judge Bucher is down at Paddy Mt. after Centre county trout. That's all right, Judge, only don't take any more of our 17 inchers along with you.

—A six year old daughter of Andrew Dubbe, living west of town, died on Wednesday morning of brain fever. Interment in the cemetery on Friday morning.

—Furniture will be sold at cost and below at Camp's furniture store, in order to remove goods to have the room re- paired. The goods must go and rare bargains are offered, and a good stock to select from. Don't fail to call and in- spect ere they are all gone, for you will miss something.

—Lycoming county farmers report that myriads of grain lice are destroy- ing whole fields of wheat and rye. A close inspection shows that this pest is general and that the prospect for the success of the crops is very poor. As high as 150 lice have been counted on a single stalk of wheat. The wheat grains are being entirely consumed, causing the heads to turn white, wither and die. It is feared that the whole crop will not only be seriously injured but ruined, and the farmers are greatly alarmed. The oat crop is also suffering as a result of the recent hot wave, which left the tender grain in a scorched condition. The grain pest is a comparatively new visitor in this county.

—An entire page was recently devo- ted by the Chicago Tribune to a discussion of the remedies for sleeplessness. The doctors were given the place of honor with their remedies, and then it was a kind of free-for-all game to which scores of correspondents contributed. The general opinion was that drugs and all hypnotics were worse than worthless, as they fix habits more pernicious than less of sleep. The majority believed in get- ting the blood from the head, either by a brisk walk in the open air, by dumb bell exercises or by rubbing the body with a coarse towel just before getting into bed. Not one thought enough to say that sleeplessness is due more to the frequent use of liquors and the absorp- tion of bad novels than all other causes lumped together. That is about the size of things all the same.

Communion Wine.

Mr. Alfred Speer, the celebrated wine grower of New Jersey preserves the un- fermented Juice of the grape for Sacra- mental use. It has been adopted, and its use sanctioned by the prominent divines of this country. It is also used by Invalids with remarkably good effect. For sale by druggists.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

State Treasurer Boyer is having the fence around the capitol grounds remov- ed. That is right. There are entirely too many fences, and it would speak bet- ter for mankind if no fences at all were needed. There should be no fences between neighbors, the premises would look far better and it would be an indi- cation that peace and good will abide there. Down and away with the fences, we say. They are a nuisance and a great expense to build and keep in repair. Among peace-loving people no fences are needed. It seems to us unchristian to have fences; it looks as though we dare not trust each other and must keep up fences to prevent our neighbor from harming us. It is barbarous to be oblig- ed to have fences to fence each other out. Away with fences among christian peo- ple, says the REPORTER.

Hastings Leads.

In two weeks the republican state con- vention will meet at Harrisburg. With only about a dozen delegates yet to be chosen, General Hastings has a slight majority of those instructed. Delamater is second, with Montooth and Stone con- siderably in the rear. The unpledged delegates, who are nearly all firm friends of Senator Quay, seem to hold the key to the situation.

At Doylestown, J. Monroe Shellenber- ger, the lawyer whose criminal escapades and flight recently caused such a wide- spread sensation, was sentenced by Judge Yerkes to undergo imprisonment of twenty-two years at hard labor in the Eastern penitentiary. When the judg- ment was pronounced the prisoner broke down completely and had to be carried from the court room. The scene was exciting in the extreme and one long to be remembered by the crowd which witnessed it.

UNION CLOTHING STORE,

One Price Clothiers, Hatters and Gent's Furnishers,
BROCKERHOFF HOUSE BLOCK, BELLEFONTE.

OFFICE OF D. GARMAN & SON, BELLEFONTE, PA.

To Our Friends:

We are anxious to know the growth of Centre county, and want the opinion of each person before the census fig- ures are made out. If we are not mistaken ten years ago it was 37,000, but now it should go at least 47,000 or greater. Some are taking the Re- publican and Democratic vote and multiplying by such and such a figure, but they will all be off. Everyone has an equal chance. How ridiculous it will all be after it is all over to see some of the guesses. Its all for fun and is interesting to hear the remarks while guess- ing.

We are having slips printed for each customer to fill out to avoid the explanation re- quired. Each customer gets a guess for each purchase made. The more guesses the merrier. When the figures are known we will send the lucky one the world renowned Edison talk- ing doll, well worth a thousand times the trouble. Remember when you come to the store be sure to guess. Guess early and often. Piles of new goods in this week.
