REVOLT IS RAMPANT

Fighting Soldiers in the Streets of Buenos Ayres.

A REVOLUTIONARY GOVERNMENT.

The Troops Revolt, Capture the Minister of Finance and Put the President to Flight-Senor Pelle-"Death to Barillas."

Buenos Ayres, July 28. — Another battalion has joined the insurgents. The revolutionists are commanded by Man-uel Campos and Arredantio. Their numbers are certainly increasing. The result of Saturday's street fighting was adverse to the government. The navy remains neutral. Pellegrine has assumed the presidency.

The plot to overthrow the government, which has been suspected for some weeks and the existence of which has been so many times denied, was carried out Saturday, and President Dr. Juarez Celmara is a fugitive.

The Tenth regiment, headed by its officers, revolted, and the outbreak soon became general and included the troops in the garrison. The city was garrisoned by 4,000 troops and 3,000 armed

The soldiers at once marched into the streets and began firing. All the shops were closed, and the banks and the Bourse soon shut their doors.

The government, with the aid of a few loyal soldiers and the police, tried to isolate the insurgents and desperate fighting soon resulted.

A Revolutionary Government. Many were killed on both sides, but the insurgents steadily advanced toward the Plaza de la Victoria, where the president's palace and the town hall are situated.

A revolutionary government has been announced with Senor Pallegrine as president and Senor Romero as minister of finance, to succeed Senor Garcia, who is held a prisoner by the revolu-

President Celmara has declared the whole republic in a state of seige. The National Guard has been called to arms. Five more battalions of the marine arsenal and part of the artillery have de-

The revolutionists liberated Gen. Manuel J. Campos, who was awaiting trial, and who has now placed himself at the head of the revolutionary party.

The Soldiers Resentful. When the revolutionary plot was first foreshadowed the government caused the arrest of Gen. Campos, Col. Figueroa and Maj. Casargo. All denied any knowledge of the conspiracy, but de-tectives were at once placed in the bar-racks and in officers' houses. This espionage was deeply resented by the

It was said at the time that the gov-ernment might find difficulty in justify-ing the action which had arisen from the fright of President Celmara's advisers. At that time guards were stationed about the palace of President Celmara, but on an apparent subsidence of the excitement they were withdrawn.

Progress of the Revolt. Buenos Ayres, July 29.—The revolutionary movement is spreading rapidly. There was desperate fighting between the government troops and revolutionists. The former were defeated, and 1,000 of them were killed or wounded. The revolutionists have been joined by the navy. The government house and the barracks were bombarded by the artillery of the insurgents.

A Revolt Directed Against President Barillas and His Cabinet.

GUATEMALA, July 28 .- A revolt has broken out here, directed against President Barillas and his cabinet. The revolution is under the leadership of Gen.
Manuel Beteta and Col. Salvador Are-The police force in the capital has been augmented from 300 to 500 men. A number of the soldiers refused duty as they had not been paid. Over duty as they had not been paid. Over 180 were marched off to prison.

Then a regular mob paraded the street shouting "Muera Barillas!" (death to Barillas). The ringleaders were arrested and carried off to prison. There is much dissatisfaction among the military, and the great fear now is that the latter will make a convenience are with the latter will make common cause with the revolutionists.

The president's house is strongly gnarded, no one being allowed in the vicinity except well known persons. The revolutionists are gaining more power every moment, and it is quite likely that business will be suspended before many days, or even hours, elapse.

The members of President Barillas' cabinet have counseled him to suspend hostilities with Salvador and turn his attention to the situation in Guatemala. President Barillas held a council of war and troops are being daily conscripted

> Jack Robinson's Great Victory. Media, Pa., July 25.—The warmest political fight in the history of Delaware county politics is over, and Senator-elect John B. Robinson, generally called Jack Robinson, is on top. His victory is regarded as one of the greatest ever achieved by any man in politics. He won against the combined forces of both Capt. Johnson and Dr. Forwood. and comes off with flying colors. Capt Johnson was backed by Collector Coopand the heads of the political county or ganization and by Judge Clayton, and, it is charged, by the almost combined liquor influence of the county. Robinson has won against this heretofore al most invincible organization, and he will not only succeed Smedley Darlington as the member of congress from the Sixta district, but also steps into Collector Cooper's place as the leader and dictator in Delaware county politics.

A Mythical Shipyard. Philadelphia, July 29.—A story is current that a large English syndicate is in process of forming with the view ablishing a ship building works on the Delaware river near the lower end of the city. No verification of the report could be obtained. A similar story was published some days ago while the congressional subsidy bill was pending. The only fact that seems to have any conjection with the reported have any connection with the reported location of the prospective shipyard is the purchase by Messrs. Cramps some time ago of a tract of land on the Delaware avenue front near Snyder avenue.

Bethlehem's Dangerous Epidemic. BETHLEHEM, Pa., July 29 .- The number of cases of fever here in one form or senal and part of the artillery have declared in favor of the revolutionists. The postal and telegraph offices are surrounded by soldiers.

Two Fatal Accidents. PITTSBURG, July 25.—Last evening an express train on the West Pennsylvania railroad struck a two horse team and driver at a crossing near Herr's station. The driver and team were killed instantly. A gang of laborers who were constructing a sewer at the roadside became so frightened at the accident that they let go their hold on a large cast iron pipe. The pipe fell into the ditch and upon two men, killing one and fatally injuring the other. The Reward of Patience. Pittsburg, July 28.—Nearly sixteen years ago S. B. W. Gill, supposed to be one of Pittsburg's wealthiest men, absconded with hundreds of thousands of sconded with hundreds of thousands of dollars belonging to rich and poor. Saturday the creditors met at Register Shafer's office and were told that $1,100 would be divided pro rata among the holders of $375,000 proven indebtedness. Thus, after a wait of almost sixteen years the creditors get between two and three mills on the dollar.
