.. THE ELECTROCUTION

The Hour for Kemmler's Death Remains a Mystery.

THE WARDEN'S LIST OF WITNESSES

The Condemned Man Continues in Good Health and Spirits-Strries of His Temporary Indisposition and Vision of the Hereafter.

AUBURN, N. Y., Aug. 5.—From present indications William Kemmler will be executed between midnight and daybreak on the morning of Wednesday, Aug. 6. Warden Durston said yesterhay afternoon that he sent invitations to the out of town witnesses Friday afternoon before he took his hurried trip to New York and that these witnesses were to be at the prison at 7 p. m. to-it does not follow necessarily that the execution will occur to-morrow morning. It may be deferred for another twenty-four hours. But Mr. Durston has stated several times since sentence was passed upon Kemmler that it was his intention to fix the hour of execution as early in the week as could be done in decency. So it is more than likely that to-inorrow morning will see the end of Kemmler.

Kemmler's Condition. It can be stated on the most reliable authority that stories of Kemmler's physical and mental weakness recently published are unfounded. He is as quiet as usual, amuses himself by practising his recently acquired accomplishment of writing eats heartily and sleeps well. Last night he slept like a child. Yes-terday he ate three good meals and spent much of his time writing cards, eading from his Bible and talking with His spiritual adviser, the Rev. Dr. Houghton, and the chaplain of the prison, Dr. Yates, visited him during the day and spent more than an hour talking about the hereafter. He was calm and repeated his professions of faith without apparent emotion. He has heard nothing of the rumors in circulation without, and while he realizes that this is his last week on earth, he does not seem at all fearful of

The List of Witnesses. Warden Durston gave out to The United Press the following list of those who are to be present at the prison this evening to witness the execution:

Dr. C. F. McDonald, of New York, formerly physician in charge of the formerly physician in charge of the state insane asylum; Dr. Samuel D. Ward, of Albany; Dr. A. P. Southwark, of Buffalo; Dr. E. C. Spitka, of New York; Dr. Geo. E. Fell, of Buffalo; Dr. C. M. Daniels, of Buffalo; Dr. Charles Fowler, of Buffalo; Dr. W. F. Jenkins, of New York; Lewis Balch, of Albany, secretary of the state board of health; Dr. W. J. Nellis, of Albany; Dr. A. Argue, of Corning; ex-Senator D. H. McMillan, of Buffalo, the fathef of the electricide bill; the Hon. J. B. Stansfield, of Elmira; Tracy C. Becker, of Buffalo, referee in the Kemmler trial; occupying it that the president decided Robert Dunlap, of New York, and C.R. Huntley, of Bullalo, expert electricians

The following persons have been no-fied according to law to be present in their official capacity: George B. Quinby, district attorney of Erie county; Oliver A. Jenkins, sheriff of Erie county; Judge Henry A. Childs, of the supreme court, who sentenced Kemmler. Barnes Not in It.

Barnes, of Rochester, does not appear in Warden Durston's official list excites some comment. The warden is thought to be much annoyed by the publication of the interview with Mr. Barnes which appeared in The Rochester Post Express Barnes, of Rochester, does not appear in about the arrangements for the execu-tion and it is natural that he should be annoyed at the divulgence of the pro-gramme. There are three electricians to be appointed, however, and it is probable Mr. Barnes will be named as the third when the final arrangements are made. Mr. Barnes did not have charge of the early tests of the dynamo. as claimed, but he was present and is intimately acquainted with the machincry and his presence is therefore desir-

Kemmier's Vision of Hell. The latest story concerning Kemm-ler's physical condition is to the effect that on July 25 his nerves gave away and for some time he could eat nothing and wine was given to sustain his strength, that finally it was necessary to administer morphine to quiet his nerves and put him to sleep, and on awakening he said that he had had a vision of hell.

Whatever truth there may be in the story it is equally true that Kemmler is calm now and he eats and sleeps well.

German Day in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 5.—The celebration of "German day" here resulted in one of the finest parades ever seen here. Nearly 10,000 men were in line and 100,000 people thronged the streets to witness it. The event was the anniversary of the battle of Oriskany, in which Gen. Herkimer with 800 Germans defeated twice that number of British and Indians. The stars and stripes was the only flag carried. A dozen floats typical of German influence and accomplishments in this country, including one of the Brooklyn bridge, flowered in the procedure. figured in the parade.

The hail, in some instances as large as hen's eggs, covered the ground for several inches. Election in Alabama.

CONGRESSIONAL RESUME.

Labors of the National Legislators at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—There was a delay of twenty minutes in securing a quorum in the senate. After some unimportant business the consideration of the tariff bill was resumed, and four pages disposed of. Mr. Blair stated that, by a calculation he had made, the bill would be disposed of, at the present rate of progress, by the 2nh of next December, Mr. Frye announced that the river and harbor bill would be taken up on Friday of next and reported it to the house. WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 .- Mr. Blair introduced in the senate a resolution instructing the committee on rules to report, within four days, a rule for the incorporation of the previous question, or some nation of dmiting and closing debate, is the parliamentary procedure of the senate. Consideration of the tariff to i consumed the remainder of the session. Mr. P.unb attacke, the bill.

Most of the time in the house was con sumed in the vain endeavor to secure a quorum, and the sundry civil appropriation was not disposed of. Last evening's session was devoted to private pension dusiness.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Proc tariff debate was continued in the sounte. Mr. Vest's amendment to reduce the thriff on china received a vote of 17 yeas and 20 nays—less than a quorum. Messrs. Ingalis, Piumb and Paddock voted with the Democrats.

Owing to the slimness of attendance the house a complished little. After adopting a resolution revoking leaves of absence, and sending the sundry civil appropriation bill to conference, it adjourned. Washington, Aug. 5.—Some disparaging remarks made in the senate concerning the "business branch" of congress (meaning the house) called forth a rebuke from the presidnouse) catted forth a reduce from the presid-ing officer (Mr. Ingalls). He said it was a violation of the fundamental principles of parliamentary law to refer in one house to what was done or said in the other. The tariff decate was continued. Mr. Blair expressed disgust at the slow rate of progress of the bill and proposed to read some comments from The New York Tribune. Mr. Plumb said that so far as he knew the western people were not hungry for tariff legislation. He admitted the tariff bill ught to pass, but he did not regard The New York Tribune or any other paper as repre-sentative of the scattments of the people on that subject. It was bester not to pass a tariff bill than to pass one that was not right. Plenty of time should be allowed for debate.

Mr. Teller expressed similar sentiments.

During the debate on the general deficiency bill the house drifted into lively political dis cussion, in which members of each party arraigned the course of the other in the usual style. Speaker Reed was bitterly assailed by Mr. Rodgers, of Arkansas. Mr. hienderson, of Iowa, defended the work of the house and Mr. Breckenridge, of Kentucky, made an eloquent attack on the federal elections bill. Messrs. Peters, Boutelle and others also made stirring political speeches.

Harrison, in speaking to a Press reporter about the Cape May cottage, said that when the parties visited Washington with the deed of the cottage the president declined to accept the gift, but told the would be donor that as they had prepared the cottage for the family he would arrange for them to go there and would determine later whether to rent or bny the cottage. Mrs. Harrison was so pleased with the cottage after to buy it and did so.
